BRYN RENNER ONE OF TOP QUARTERBACKS IN THE COUNTRY

Considered by many NFL Draft analysts one of the top five senior quarterbacks in the country, Bryn Renner enters his third season as the Tar Heels' signal caller. Since taking over in 2011, Renner has put up some eye-popping numbers and is on the verge of setting nearly every career passing mark at UNC.

He has thrown for more than 3,000 yards in each of the last two seasons and needs 2,922 passing yards in 2013 to break T.J. Yates' career mark of 9,377. Renner and Yates are the only two Carolina quarterbacks to throw for more than 3,000 yards in a season and Renner is the only player to do it twice.

If Renner throws for 3,000 yards in 2012, Carolina will match NC State as the only two ACC teams with a quarterback to throw for 3,000 yards in four consecutive years. Yates had a single-season record 3,418 yards in 2010 and Renner had 3,086 in 2011 and 3,356 in 2012.

Last season, he completed 276 of 422 attempts for 3,356 yards and a single-season school record 28 touchdowns in 12 games. In his first year as a starter in 2011, he accumulated 3,086 passing yards in 13 games. He enters the 2013 season needing 14 touchdowns to equal Darian Durant's career record for touchdown passes at 68.

Renner enters the season with a career pass efficiency mark of 154.6, which ranks fifth among all FBS signal callers. If he maintains that pace he would break the current ACC career pass efficiency record of 151.2 set by Florida State's Chris Weinke from 1997-2000.

TAR HEELS EARN PRESEASON RECOGNITION; THREE ON ALL-AMERICA TEAMS

Carolina had three players on Phil Steele's preseason All-America team, including punter Tommy Hibbard (second team), offensive tackle James Hurst (third team) and tight end Eric Ebron (fourth team). Hurst and Ebron were both second-team All-ACC selections in 2012.

Hurst also was named a second-team preseason All-America by The Sporting News. The Plainfield, Ind., native became a starter at left tackle in the second game of his freshman season. He now has 36 starts to his credit. Last season, he was part of an offensive line that created several running lanes for Giovani Bernard and A.J. Blue. Bernard led the ACC in rushing and Carolina rushed for nearly 200 yards per game. The Tar Heels were also ninth in the nation in sacks allowed. Hurst graded out for the season at nearly 90 percent. He is among the top tackle prospects in the country this year, according to most NFL analysts.

Ebron, a junior from Greensboro, N.C., set the single-season school record for catches by a tight end with 40 in 2012. He broke the previous mark of 36 set by Ryan Taylor

Hibbard was one of the Tar Heels' most improved players last year, averaging 43.0 yards per kick, which ranked second in the ACC and 25th in the country.

Several players have garnered preseason All-ACC recognition. Nine Tar Heels have been named to Phil Steele's 2013 preseason All-ACC team, including five first-team selections. Earning first-team honors are Ebron, Hurst, Hibbard, defensive end Kareem Martin and safety Tre Boston.

Center Russell Bodine and cornerback Tim Scott were second-team selections, quarterback Bryn Renner and wide receiver Quinshad Davis were third-team picks and linebacker Travis Hughes was on the fourth team.

Martin was one of the leaders in the ACC last year with 15.5 tackles for losses. He is a three-year starter who also posted 40 tackles, four sacks, forced a fumble and recovered a fumble. Boston led the team in tackles with 86 stops and tied for the team lead with four interceptions.

WEST & GILMORE ADDED TO STAFF; STAFF ROLES TWEAKED

Carolina welcomed Keith Gilmore and Ron West to the coaching staff in the offseason. Gilmore, a 28-year college coaching veteran, will coach the defensive line after working in a similar capacity the last four seasons at Illinois. West, who coached with Larry Fedora at Baylor, will serve as co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. West most recently was the co-defensive coordinator at Arizona State in 2011.

Fedora also named Randy Jordan the special teams coordinator and changed responsibilities among Carolina's defensive assistants.

Koenning, who also worked with West at Clemson (2005-08) and Illinois (2010-11), will continue in his role as UNC's associate head coach for defense, but will now coach the safeties.

Dan Disch continues as the defensive coordinator and will coach cornerbacks. All four defensive coaches have worked together at some point in their careers, including most recently at Illinois in 2010-11.

QUINSHAD DAVIS IMPRESSIVE DEBUT

All-ACC candidate Quinshad Davis had an impressive debut in his first year on campus. The 6-4, 205-pound wide receiver set UNC freshman records with 61 receptions and 776 receiving yards. A native of Gaffney, S.C., Davis was inserted into the starting lineup in the second week of the season and did not disappoint.

Against Virginia, Davis finished with Carolina single-game freshman records of 16 catches and 178 yards. The previous records were nine catches (Octavus Barnes vs. Texas, 1994 Sun Bowl) and 171 yards (Hakeem Nicks at Notre Dame, 2006). The 16 catches match the ACC record for all players, tied most recently by Wake Forest's Michael Campanaro. Davis is one of six ACC players with 16 receptions in a game.

Davis finished the season second in ACC history for catches by a freshman and fourth in receiving yards by a freshman. After making 23 catches in the first eight games of his career, Davis had 38 receptions in the final four games of 2012.

Davis has added approximately 20 pounds in the offseason without losing any speed and expects to be more physical this season.

Quinshad Davis set school records last year for catches and yards by a freshman.

REPLACING BERNARD

With the early departure of standout tailback Giovani Bernard to the NFL, Carolina will turn to senior A.J. Blue and sophomore Romar Morris to ignite the running game. Both are accomplished runners who provided several highlights in 2012, but will be called upon to do much more this year.

Blue, who Fedora describes as the team's best leader, was second on the team in rushing a year ago with 433 yards and nine touchdowns. He also had nine receptions and scored a TD. He and Bernard (19) combined to set a single-season school record for most touchdowns by a pair of teammates.

Blue is a powerful runner who made his first career start at tailback at Wake Forest after Bernard was injured in the season opener. Blue came into the game with 210 career rushing yards, but gained a career-best 106 on 19 carries against the Deacs. His previous single-game high was 39 yards against Elon in the previous week. Blue played as a true freshman in 2009 as a wildcat quarterback, redshirted in 2010 and rushed for 138 yards in backup duty in 2011. He also got the start at Louisville and finished with 43 yards on seven carries, a 6.1 average.

Morris is a speedy back who can also return kicks. He rushed for 386 yards and was effective in the passing game, making 12 catches for 204 yards (17.0 avg.). He scored twice on the ground and twice through the air. A native of Salisbury, N.C., Morris was the named the top athlete in the state as a senior and redshirted in 2011. He is a member of the Tar Heels' track team and ran the fifth-fastest 60-meter dash time (6.85 seconds) in school history during the 2012-13 indoor season.

EARLY ENROLLEES

North Carolina welcomed four scholarship student-athletes - Jordan Fieulleateau, Khristian Francis, R.J. Prince and Mitch Trubisky - to the football program in January. All four graduated early from high school, attended classes at UNC in the 2013 spring semester and participated in spring practice. Also joining the program in January were Harris Hite, an offensive line transfer from Campbell University, and defensive back Justin Fieulleateau, Jordan's brother.

Jordan Fieulleateau was an all-state receiver at Wakefield High School in Raleigh where he recorded 25 touchdowns as a senior. Francis played running back at Durham's Hillside High School and rushed for more than 2,000 yards as a junior and senior. Prince was a highly-rated offensive lineman at Albemarle High School. Trubisky was named Mr. Football in the state of Ohio after throwing for more than 4,000 yards at Mentor High School.

All four participated in UNC's annual Spring Game. Francis was one of the highlights of the game, rushing for 101 yards on 20 carries for the White team. Trubisky took the majority of snaps for the White team and completed 7 of 14

NO BARTH BROTHER IN 2012

For the first time in nine years, North Carolina's opening day place-kicker will not have the last name Barth. Since 2004, kickers Connor and Casey Barth combined to make 120 field goals, 263 extra points and score 623 points. Natives of Wilmington, N.C., the Barth brothers hold nearly ever single-season and career place-kicking record at UNC.

In 2004, Connor came to Chapel Hill with a surfboard, shaggy blond hair and a care-free demeanor. That low-key approach paid off as he calmly drilled a 42-yard game-winning field goal against No. 4 Miami as time expired. He went on to kick 54 field goals at UNC and sign an NFL free agent contract. He is now the starting kicker for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and has connected on 101 field goals as a professional.

After Connor left Chapel Hill, his younger brother Casey joined the team in 2008. Casey made at least 10 field goals in each of his first three years, including a school-record-tying 21 as a sophomore. Barth injured his groin in 2011 and received a medical redshirt after kicking in just three games. He returned in 2012 and made 15 of 19 field goals and all 44 extra point attempts before missing the last two games with an ankle injury. He concluded his career as the career record-holder in points (358), field goals made (66) and extra points (160). Casey inked a free agent deal after the NFL Draft with the Atlanta Falcons.

Entering the 2013 season, Carolina will turn to junior Thomas Moore as the most likely Barth replacement. Moore, a walk-on from Chapel Hill, made six of 10 field goal attempts in 2011 when Casey was sidelined. Last year he made two of three attempts. Moore has made all 50 extra point attempts in his career.

CAROLINA'S CONSECUTIVE EXTRA POINT STREAK

The Tar Heels have made 176 consecutive extra point attempts, which is the third-longest streak in the country behind Texas Tech (215) and Washington (178).

Casey Barth, who graduated last season, started the streak in 2009 and is responsible for 126 of the 176 made extra points. Barth made the final 33 extra points of the 2009 season, all 38 attempts in 2010, 11 straight in 2011 and 44 consecutive in 2012. Andrew Moore has made all 50 of his extra point attempts during the streak (38 in 2011, 12 in 2012).

The NCAA record for consecutive extra points is 262 by Syracuse from 1978-89.

MARTIN HEADLINES DEFENSE

Senior Kareem Martin is the headliner on North Carolina's defense. Martin was among the league leaders in tackles for loss last year and enters this season with plenty of preseason accolades. He has been named preseason All-ACC by most media outlets and should once again be under consideration for the Ted Hendricks Award (nation's top defensive end). A senior from Roanoke Rapids, N.C., Martin collected 40 tackles, including 15.5 for loss and four sacks, in 2012. He also broke up three passes, forced a fumble and recovered a fumble.

Joining him on the defensive line will be tackle Tim Jackson, a senior from St. Petersburg, Fla. Jackson was solid last season, but missed a pair of games with an injury. He will be asked to do more this season and should improve on his 18 tackles from a year ago.

Travis Hughes and Tommy Heffernan return at weakside linebacker, while a pair of redshirt freshmen — Dan Mastromatteo and Nathan Staub — will battle this fall for the starting middle linebacker spot. Hughes has always shown great potential and last season finished with 38 tackles and two fumble recoveries. A former walk-on, Heffernan has earned a scholarship with his play. Last year, he was fourth on the team with 73 tackles and registered 8.5 tackles for loss.

SECONDARY RETURNS INTACT

Carolina returns all four starters from last season's secondary, including safety Tre' Boston and cornerback Tim Scott, both of whom earned honorable-mention All-ACC honors in 2012. Boston led the team in tackles with 86 and tied with Scott for most interceptions with four. Boston is a preseason All-ACC pick by several media outlets and is poised for an outstanding senior campaign.

Jabari Price, who has 17 career starts, returns at the other cornerback position. He has all the skills to be an outstanding cornerback and last season had his best year with 76 tackles (third on team) and a team-high nine pass breakups. Darian Rankin (48 tackles in 2012) and Sam Smiley (26) will compete for the other safety position.

The Tar Heels ranked 20th in the country last year with 16 interceptions on defense for 18 yards. Eight different Tar Heels recorded at least one pick. Boston scored his first career touchdown on a 36-yard interception return in the second quarter at Virginia. Boston caught the ball near the right hash and ran diagonally across the field before running over a would-be tackler at the goal line. The interception was Boston's fourth of the season and the eighth of his career.

NORTH CAROLINA & THE NFL DRAFT

- In the first round of the 2013 NFL Draft, North Carolina offensive guard Jonathan Cooper was selected seventh overall by the Arizona Cardinals and defensive tackle Sylvester Williams was picked 28th overall by the Denver Broncos. North Carolina has now produced six first-round draft picks since 2008. That is the most of any ACC school. Boston College and Florida State rank second with five.

- The Tar Heels had first-round picks in 2008 (Kewan Balmer, 29th overall), 2009 (Hakeem Nicks, 29th overall), 2011 (Robert Quinn, 14th overall), 2012 (Quinton Coples, 16th overall) and 2013 (Jonathan Cooper, 7th overall; Sylvester Williams, 28th overall)

0 — NC State

- The last time two Tar Heels were picked in the first round was 2002 when DE Julius Peppers was picked No. 2 by the Carolina Panthers and DT Ryan Sims went sixth overall to the Kansas City Chiefs.

- At No. 7, Cooper is the sixth-highest pick all-time from North Carolina. Only Ken Willard (No. 2 in 1965), Ken Huff (No. 3 in 1975), Lawrence Taylor (No. 2 in 1981), Peppers (No. 2 in 2002) and Sims (No. 6 in 2002) were selected higher than Cooper.
- Cooper is the fourth offensive lineman picked in the first round from UNC. The others were Huff in 1975 (No. 3 overall), Brian Blados in 1984 (No. 28) and Harris Barton in 1987 (No. 22). Huff is the only other guard to be picked in the first round from UNC.

- Cooper is the first offensive guard selected in the top 10 of the NFL Draft since 1997 when Colorado's Chris Naeole was selected by the New Orleans Saints at No. 10. He is the highest selected offensive guard since Bill Fralic was taken No. 2 by Atlanta in 1985.

- Williams is the first defensive tackle from UNC selected in the first round since Balmer was taken at No. 29 by San Francisco in 2008.

- Carolina has had 22 all-time first-round draft picks, which ranks just outside the top 25 in the country. It is, however, the most of any school in the state, ahead of NC State (15), Duke (5) and Wake Forest (4).

- Half (11) of Carolina's 22 all-time first-round draft picks have been defensive linemen. Over the last 18 years, a Carolina defensive lineman has been selected in the first round on 10 occasions.

- Giovani Bernard became the first running back taken in the 2013 NFL Draft when he was taken by the Cincinnati Bengals with the fifth pick of the second round (37th overall). It is the first time Carolina has produced the first tailback of the draft. Ethan Horton, a running back at UNC, was selected in the 1984 draft, but played exclusively tight end in the NFL.

- Bernard became the first Tar Heel tailback taken in the second round since Natrone Means in 1993. Bernard is the highest selected tailback from UNC since Horton in 1984. Horton played tight end in the NFL.

- Offensive tackle Brennan Williams was selected in the third round by the Houston Texans (89th overall) and Travis Bond was selected in the seventh round by the Minnesota Vikings (214th overall). Williams and Bond were the second and third offensive linemen (Cooper is the other) selected in this year's draft. It is the first time three Tar Heel offensive linemen have been taken in the same draft.

- A total of 25 Carolina players have been selected in the NFL Draft since 2008, which equals the most of any ACC school. Carolina is tied with Clemson and Florida State. Two Tar Heels were picked in the 2008 draft, five in 2009, two in 2010, a league-high nine in 2011, two in 2012 and five in 2013.

CAROLINA FOOTBALL 2013 PREVIEW

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA • GOHEELS.COM • @TARHEELFOOTBALL

NEW NIKE UNIFORMS IN 2013

Together with Nike, Carolina unveiled a new collection of football uniform designs and colors for the 2013 season at the annual Spring Game in April. The new uniforms feature Nike Pro Combat technology.

The Tar Heels have three different jersey options available in 2013, including a Carolina blue top with black numbers, a white jersey with black numbers and a black jersey with blue numbers. Carolina has three pant options - Carolina blue, white and black.

The Carolina blue top and white pant will continue as the traditional home uniform. The away uniform is a streamlined look in all white, and an all black alternate uniform has Carolina blue numbers. A new customized font and typeface also serves a functional purpose as they are easier to read and more visible downfield. The stripes on the uniform pant and shoulders reflect the lines from the horns of a ram, Carolina's mascot.

The Nike design team worked closely with Tar Heel coaches and student-athletes to understand their unique approach to the game. Head coach Larry Fedora reminds his athletes to be "smart, fast and physical" on every play. This mantra is embroidered on the back neckline of the jersey to reinforce Fedora's message to the athletes as they suit up before each game.

"Our kids are excited about the new uniforms," said Fedora. "We wanted to design a uniform that connected our team to The Tar Pit, our name for the student section. Make no mistake, Carolina Blue and white will always be our traditional colors."

The fully integrated uniform system incorporates the latest in performance innovation where the athlete's baselayer works in concert with his entire uniform - true innovation from the inside out. Lightweight padding is integrated directly into the crucial "hit zones" in the baselayer. Innovations include integrated Fly-wire technology in the neckline for reduced weight and lockdown fit over pads. Additionally, increased sleeve articulation provides better range of motion and four-way stretch fabrication delivers a streamlined shrink-wrap fit. The design enables speed without compromise.

ZERO DARK THURSDAY

North Carolina will wear its new all-black uniforms against Miami on Thursday, Oct. 17, at Kenan Stadium. Billed as "Zero Dark Thursday," the Tar Heels will face the Hurricanes on national television in just the second ESPN Thursday night home game in school history.

The all-black uniform on "Zero Dark Thursday" is the first installment of the new "Tar Pit Series," which will feature an alternate uniform or helmet for one game each year. This year's alternate uniform color has been taken from the black tar in the Tar Heel logo.

EIGHT WINS...

Carolina has won eight games in four of the last five seasons. Prior to the 2012 season, the last time Carolina won eight games was in 2010 after beating Tennessee in the Music City Bowl in Nashville. Carolina also won eight regular season games in 2008 and 2009, but those wins were vacated due to NCAA penalty.

Head coach Larry Fedora won more regular-season games (eight) than any first-year coach in school history. In 2001, John Bunting also won eight games, including a victory over Auburn in the Peach Bowl.

NFL COMMISH VISITS UNC

Roger Goodell, commissioner of the National Football League, visited Chapel Hill in March and was the keynote speaker at the Department of Exercise and Sport Science Carl Blyth Lecture. Goodell came to Carolina at the invitation of Kenan Distinguished Professor Kevin Guskiewicz, a leading expert in concussion safety.

Guskiewicz is the Director of the Matthew Gfeller Sport-Related Traumatic Brain Injury Research Center at UNC and has been at the forefront of the concussion research. Through a program started by Guskiewicz, Carolina players wear sensors in their helmets to study the impact of collisions in practice and games.

Prior to his lecture, Goodell spent several minutes head coach Larry Fedora, offensive tackle James Hurst and defensive end Kareem Martin.

THURSDAY NIGHT HOME GAME HIGHLIGHTS 2013 SCHEDULE

Seven home games, including a Thursday night game vs. Miami, and a meeting at border rival South Carolina highlight the 2013 North Carolina football schedule.

"Our team is excited about the 2013 schedule and the challenges it presents," said Fedora. "We are working hard to prepare for the season and we will strive to play a smart, fast and physical brand of football."

Carolina will host an ESPN Thursday night game for the second time in school history when it welcomes Miami to Chapel Hill on October 17 during UNC's Fall Break. Carolina's first ESPN Thursday night game occurred in 2009 vs. Florida State.

"A Thursday night home game is an excellent platform to promote the University and showcase our campus in prime time on ESPN," said UNC Athletics Director Bubba Cunningham. "The feedback I received from those involved with the 2009 contest was extremely positive. It was a successful and unique event for our University community and economically benefitted the town of Chapel Hill."

Carolina plays home games against Middle Tennessee State (Sept. 7), East Carolina (Sept. 28), Miami (Oct. 17), Boston College (Oct. 26), Virginia (Nov. 9), Old Dominion (Nov. 23) and Duke (Nov. 30). Five of the final seven games are at home.

Carolina's road games include visits to South Carolina (Aug. 29), Georgia Tech (Sept. 21), Virginia Tech (Oct. 5), NC State (Nov. 2) and Pittsburgh (Nov. 16). Three of the first five games are on the road.

Carolina and Pittsburgh will meet for the eighth time overall, but the first time as ACC opponents, in 2013. The last meeting came in the 2009 Meineke Car Care Bowl, which Pittsburgh won 19-17. The last time the two teams met in Pittsburgh was 2000 at Three Rivers Stadium. The Tar Heels won that game 20-17.

Carolina and South Carolina will be meeting for the 57th time overall with the Tar Heels holding a 34-18-4 advantage in the series. This year's game is the completion of a home-and-home series that began with South Carolina visiting Chapel Hill in 2007. The last time Carolina played the Gamecocks in Columbia was in 1990.

Carolina and East Carolina will meet for the fourth consecutive season in 2013. The Tar Heels defeated the Pirates in Chapel Hill last year, 27-6. Carolina will complete the home-and-home series with a game in Greenville in 2014.

Carolina is 6-4 all-time in ESPN Thursday night games. Last season, Carolina topped Virginia, 37-13, in Charlottesville on Thursday evening.

RE-WRITING THE OFFENSIVE RECORD BOOK

North Carolina re-wrote the offensive record book in 2012, establishing more than 35 team and individual records. Under the guidance of offensive coordinator Blake Anderson, the Tar Heels set single-season marks for total points, points per game and total offense.

Carolina improved from 53rd in the country in total offense in 2011 to eighth in 2012, scoring 40.6 points per game. The Tar Heels were 14th in the nation with 485.6 yards per game. The Tar Heels passed for a single-season school record 291.8 yards per game and rushed for 193.8 yards per game, the highest average at UNC since 1994.

It marked the third consecutive season that a Fedora/Anderson-led offense has amassed more than 5,000 yards. Individuals excelled in Anderson's system at every position. Quarterback Bryn Renner set the single-season record for touchdowns passes with 28, wide receiver Quinshad Davis established new freshman records at UNC with 61 catches and 776 receiving yards, and tailback Giovanni Bernard led the ACC in rushing and all-purpose yardage. Renner also set school records for total offense and 300-yard passing games in a season. Eric Ebron tripled his output from his previous season and set UNC marks for receptions and receiving yards by a tight end.

Team Offensive Records Set In 2012

- Single-season total offense – 5,827 yards

- Single-game extra points made by kick – 9 vs. Idaho

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C., with seven charter members - Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest - drawing up the conference bylaws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, N.C., where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Suggestions from fans for the name of the new conference appeared in the region's newspapers prior to the meeting in Raleigh. Some of the names suggested were: Dixie, Mid South, Mid Atlantic, East Coast, Seaboard, Colonial, Tobacco, Blue-Gray, Piedmont, Southern Seven and the Shoreline.

Duke's Eddie Cameron recommended that the name of the conference be the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the motion was passed unanimously. The meeting concluded with each member institution assessed $200.00 to pay for conference expenses.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted the University of Virginia as the league's eighth member. The ACC operated with seven members after South Carolina resigned on June 30, 1971. The Georgia Institute of Technology was admitted on April 3, 1978. The Atlanta school had withdrawn from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State University.

The conference expanded to 11 members on July 1, 2004, with the addition of the University of Miami and Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University.

On October 17, 2003, Boston College accepted an invitation to become the league's 12th member starting July 1, 2005.

On September 18, 2011, the ACC extended formal invitations to Pitt and Syracuse. The league announced it had accepted Notre Dame as a new member (all sports except for football) on September 12, 2012.

The ACC officially grew to 15 members on July 1, 2013 as Pitt, Syracuse and Notre Dame officially entered the league amidst a huge celebration in New York City.

On November 28, 2012, the ACC announced the acceptance of the University of Louisville with an official entry date of July 1, 2014.

The UNC football program is on probation until March 11, 2015 for NCAA violations stemming from three areas - 1) a former tutor committing academic fraud with student-athletes and providing impermissible benefits; 2) the provision of impermissible benefits to student-athletes by various individuals, including sports agents and their associates; 3) unethical conduct by a former assistant coach. The penalties in the case included: public reprimand and censure; three years of probation; three-year show-cause penalty for a former assistant football coach; postseason ban for the 2012 football season; reduction of football scholarships by a total of 15 during three academic years; vacation of wins during the 2008 and 2009 seasons; a $50,000 fine; disassociation of both the former tutor and a former student-athlete who served as an agent runner.

BY THE NUMBERS

3 - Carolina had three players on Phil Steele's preseason All-America team, including punter Tommy Hibbard (second-team), offensive tackle James Hurst (third-team) and tight end Eric Ebron (fourth-team). Hurst and Ebron were both second-team All-ACC selections in 2012.

6 - Bryn Renner has six 300-yard passing games in his career, the most of any quarterback in UNC history.

14 - Renner needs 14 touchdown passes to match the career school record of 68 set by Darian Durant from 2001-04.

26.7 - T.J. Thorpe led the ACC and ranked 13th in the country with a 26.7 kickoff return average as a freshman in 2011. He returned a kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown at Clemson. Thorpe broke his foot in training camp last year and missed the 2012 season. He fractured the foot a second time in the offseason, but is on track to return in 2013.

38 - After making 23 catches in the first eight games of his career, freshman Quinshad Davis had 38 receptions in the final four games of 2012.

40 - Tight end Eric Ebron set the single-season school record for catches by a tight end with 40 in 2012. He broke the previous mark of 36 set by Ryan Taylor in 2010. As a true freshman in 2011, Ebron had just 10 catches.

74.8 - Carolina averaged 74.8 plays per game in 2012 in the first year under Fedora. The Tar Heels had a season-high 86 plays vs NC State, the most at UNC since 2003. In 2011, Carolina averaged 63.4 plays per game, which ranked 117th in the country.

154.6 - Quarterback Bryn Renner has a career pass efficiency mark of 154.6, which ranks fifth among all FBS signal callers. If he maintains this pace that would break the current career pass efficiency record of 151.2 set by Florida State's Chris Weinke from 1997-2000.

176 - Carolina has made 176 consecutive extra points, including a school record 126 by Casey Barth and 50 by Thomas Moore. The last miss came in the second quarter of the season opener vs. The Citadel in 2009 (Barth). Moore is expected to be the starter in 2013.

2,922 - Renner needs 2,922 passing yards to move past T.J. Yates as the school's all-time leader in passing yards.

3,000 - If Renner throws for 3,000 yards in 2012, Carolina will match NC State as the only two ACC teams with a QB to throw for 3,000 yards in four consecutive years. Yates had a single-season record 3,418 yards in 2010 and Renner had 3,086 in 2011 and 3,356 in 2012.

LARRY FEDORA
Head Coach
2nd Year at UNC

More than a year ago at his introductory press conference, Larry Fedora stood in front of a packed room at UNC's Loudermilk Center and promised to provide an entertaining product. At one point he even told the gathering that you if you leave your seat to go to the concession stand, you're probably going to miss a touchdown. He did not disappoint. In his first year in Chapel Hill, Fedora's Tar Heels posted more than 35 school offensive records, won eight games and tied for first in the ACC's Coastal Division.

Led by a group of resilient seniors, Fedora led a focused team that lived by his mantra of playing "smart, fast and physical." He hopes to build off that momentum as he enters his second season as UNC's head coach. He is the 35th head coach in Carolina history and the 11th since the ACC was formed in 1953.

Fedora's first season in Chapel Hill was highlighted by a 6-1 mark at home, including a thrilling 43-35 victory over NC State and a 48-34 win against Virginia Tech. Giovani Bernard's 74-yard punt return in the final seconds of the NC State game ended Carolina's five-game losing skid to its nearby rival and set off a wild celebration on the UNC sidelines. The Virginia Tech game saw Carolina rush for 339 yards, the most since 2004, as the Tar Heels posted 533 total yards of offense. It was also the most points the Hokies had allowed in a game since joining the ACC. Carolina also posted home victories over Elon, East Carolina, Idaho and Maryland, and picked up road wins at Miami and Virginia. It marked the first time a UNC coach had won at Virginia in his first attempt since Dick Crum in 1979.

Carolina's players benefitted from Fedora's up-tempo style of play. Offensive guard Jonathan Cooper and defensive tackle Sylvester Williams were selected in the first round of the 2013 NFL Draft by Arizona (No. 7) and Denver (No. 28), respectively. It was just the second time Carolina had produced multiple first-round picks in the same season. Cooper was a consensus first-team All-America and became the first Outland Trophy finalist in UNC history. Williams, who prior to coming to UNC had worked in a factory making truck parts, was a stout run-stopper who earned first-team All-ACC honors.

Bernard, the fleet-footed runner from Ft. Lauderdale, led the league in rushing, earned first-team All-ACC honors at both running back and specialist and was the first tailback selected in the NFL Draft when Cincinnati picked him in the second round. Nine Tar Heels from the 2012 squad signed professional contracts, including five draft picks and four free agent signings. All three senior offensive linemen were drafted, including Cooper in the first round, Brennan Williams in the third and Travis Bond in the seventh.

Statistically, Carolina finished eighth in the country in scoring, averaging a school-record 40.6 points per game. The Tar Heels scored 30 or more points in nine of 12 games, and twice posted more than 60 points, including a school-record 66 against Idaho. Carolina was 14th in the nation in total offense, averaging a school-record 485.6 yards per game. It marked the fifth consecutive year as a head coach that Fedora's offense has gained more than 5,000 total yards.

The Tar Heels also excelled on special teams, finishing 10th in net punting and 10th in punt return average. Bernard was second nationally in punt returns and fourth as an all-purpose runner.

Fedora came to Carolina after four seasons as head coach at Southern Miss where he compiled a 34-19 overall record, including a 12-2 mark in 2012, and advanced to four consecutive bowl games. USM knocked off previously unbeaten and then-No. 6 ranked Houston, 49-28, in the CUSA title game and then won its school-record 12th game of the year over Nevada in the Hawaii Bowl. The Golden Eagles reached double digits in wins for just the third time in school history and the first time since 1952. USM finished the season ranked No. 19 in the USA Today Coaches Top 25 poll, No. 20 in the Associated Press poll and No. 21 in the BCS standings.

Fedora's 2011 team was among the best in the country on both sides of the ball. Southern Miss was 17th in the nation in total offense, averaging 461.4 yards per game, and 14th in scoring offense with 36.9 points per contest. On defense, the Golden Eagles were seventh in pass efficiency defense, 26th in scoring defense and 29th in total defense.

Southern Miss developed into an explosive offensive program during Fedora's tenure, gaining more than 5,000 total yards of offense in each of his four seasons, including a school-record 6,459 yards in 2011. In three of his four years in Hattiesburg, the Golden Eagles established a school record for total offense. In addition, USM was one of only five schools to run more than 1,000 plays in 2010-11.

En route to an 8-win season in 2010, Southern Miss established 35 school records and finished 18th in the country in total offense – the highest finish for the Golden Eagles since becoming a member of the FBS. Fedora's Southern Miss offenses were 31st in the nation in 2009 and 20th in 2008.

While admired for his offensive style, Fedora also brings an attacking defensive philosophy to UNC. The Golden Eagles forced turnovers in 46 games during the Fedora era and two or more in 36 contests. That turnover margin helped the Golden Eagles rank 10th in turnover margin nationally for the second consecutive year in 2009 and 20th in 2010. In 2011, Fedora's defense set an FBS record with eight interceptions returned for touchdown.

Off the field, Fedora's teams have succeeded in the classroom. Southern Miss's graduation success rate (GSR) ranked second in CUSA in the 2009-10 academic year and third during the 2010-11 academic year. In 2009, USM was recognized by the AFCA for its graduation success rate.

The Southern Miss job was Fedora's first head coaching assignment after excelling in the collegiate ranks as an assistant. He spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator at Oklahoma State from 2005-07 where the Cowboys raised their rushing, passing and total offensive yards each year with Fedora at the helm. In 2006, the Cowboys were one of just two teams - the other being Boise State - to average over 200 yards both rushing and passing.

The OSU offense averaged over 30 points per contest over his final two seasons as well. The Cowboys made the biggest improvement in the country in scoring following his second season of running the offense, jumping from 96th nationally in 2005 to seventh in 2006.

Prior to his stint at Oklahoma State, Fedora spent three seasons at Florida as run game coordinator (2002), perimeter game coordinator (2003) and offensive coordinator (2004). He also coached the running backs and receivers all three seasons.

In 2004, Fedora's Gators ranked first in the SEC in six different categories including passing offense (271.1), total offense (426.9), third down conversion percentage (47.8), touchdown passes (29), pass attempts (407) and pass completions (243).

Before going to Florida, Fedora was the offensive coordinator at Middle Tennessee from 1999-2001. In three seasons at MTSU, Fedora's offense averaged 424 yards of total offense, 181 rushing yards and 31 points per game. With Fedora as their offensive coordinator, the Blue Raiders set 43 school records over three seasons.

Fedora began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Austin College in 1986. He then served as an assistant coach at Garland (Texas) High School from 1987-90. Fedora returned to the collegiate ranks in 1991, serving as the tight ends, wide receivers and running backs coach at Baylor, where he stayed until 1996. He then spent two seasons (1997-98) at Air Force coaching the passing game and wide receivers.

As a player, Fedora was a wide receiver at Austin College from 1981-84. He helped lead the Kangaroos to the NAIA championship in 1981. He earned academic All-American honors in 1983, and honorable mention All-American in both 1983 and 1984.

Born Sept. 10, 1962, in College Station, Texas, Fedora is a 1985 graduate of Austin College in Sherman, Texas, where he also received his master's degree in 1986. He is married to the former Christi Wood, and the couple has one son, Dillon, and three daughters, Sydney, Peyton and Hallie.

BLAKE ANDERSON
Offensive Coordinator
Quarterbacks coach
Second Year at UNC

In just one season as Carolina's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, Blake Anderson helped the Tar Heels re-write the school's offensive record book. Carolina established more than 35 school records in 2012 including most points, most points per game and total offense.

The Tar Heels finished eighth in the country in scoring, averaging 40.6 points per game and were 14th nationally with 485.6 yards per game. Carolina's passing attack was 26th nationally with 291.8 yards per contest, and the Tar Heels also rushed for 193.8 yards per game, their highest average since 1994.

Individuals excelled in Anderson's system at every position. Quarterback Bryn Renner set the single-season record for touchdown passes with 28, wide receiver Quinshad Davis established new freshman records at UNC with 61 catches and 776 receiving yards and tailback Giovanni Bernard led the ACC in rushing and all-purpose yardage. Renner also set school records for total offense and 300-yard passing games in a season. Eric Ebron tripled his output from his previous season and set UNC marks for receptions and receiving yards by a tight end.

All three of Carolina's senior offensive linemen were selected in the 2013 NFL Draft, led by No. 7 overall pick Jonathan Cooper, who became the highest guard taken in the draft since 1985. Tackle Brennan Williams was a third-round pick and guard Travis Bond was taken in the seventh round. Bernard was picked in the second round by Cincinnati.

Anderson came to Chapel Hill after a record-setting run as USM's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. The Golden Eagles established school records for total offense in each of Anderson's last two years. He was part of a Southern Miss staff under head coach Larry Fedora that won a school-record 12 games in 2012, including the Conference USA championship over previously unbeaten Houston and the Hawaii Bowl over Nevada.

Anderson spent his first two seasons as USM's quarterbacks coach and run game coordinator and developed Austin Davis into one of the nation's top signal callers. Davis broke nearly every school record in an outstanding four-year career.

Under the eye of Anderson, the Golden Eagles were one of 14 teams in the country that averaged more than 200 yards per game in both rushing and passing in 2011. The Golden Eagles had nearly 6,500 yards of total offense and set a school record with 461.4 yards per game. In addition, USM was 15th nationally in scoring offense, 16th in total offense and 21st in rushing offense. Anderson's offense posted 30-or-more points in 10 of 14 games in 2011, including a season-high 63 in a win over Navy.

In 2010, Southern Miss was 18th in total offense, 20th in rushing offense and 35th in passing offense. The Golden Eagles also averaged 36.9 points per game to rank 15th in the nation. That season, Anderson's quarterbacks were among the most efficient in the nation with only eight interceptions thrown – including one by a wide receiver – to 24 touchdowns. Davis accounted for 10 of the team's 28 rushing touchdowns, more than any other back.

In his first year in Hattiesburg in 2008, Anderson mentored then redshirt freshman and first-year starter Davis, who responded by having the best season ever for a freshman QB at the school, while also putting together one of the better years that any signal caller has had at the university.

Davis, who was the first freshman to start in his opening game since 1991, notched 15 school records, including six season marks – passing yards (3,128), completions (261), attempts (454), total offense (3,636) and touchdowns responsible for (30).

Anderson came to Southern Miss after spending the 2007 campaign at Louisiana-Lafayette as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

No. 6-rated rushing offense nationally (251.6) in 2007 and became the Sun Belt's first ever 3,000-yard rushing team (3,019).

Anderson, who was in private business from 2004-2006, previously worked at Middle Tennessee, where he helped direct an offensive unit as co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach from 2002-04.

Anderson spent three seasons at New Mexico before landing at MTSU. He served as the wide receivers coach in 2001 and running backs coach from 1999-2000. The UNM rushing attack was responsible for a major share of the Lobo offense in 2000. The Lobos averaged 148 yards per game on the ground, which accounted for 56 percent of the team's total offense.

Anderson worked at Trinity Valley Community College (1995-98) before joining the Division I FCS ranks at New Mexico. In 1998, he was the offensive coordinator and the Cardinals went 7-3. He helped lead the Cardinals to the 1997 NJCAA National Championship. Anderson began his coaching career at Eastern New Mexico in 1992 (graduate assistant) and 1993 (full-time) where he tutored the wide receivers. He then moved on to Howard Payne University in Brownwood, Texas, to coach wide receivers in 1994. HPU won the Texas IAA conference title.

A two-year letterwinner at wide receiver for Sam Houston State from 1989-91, Anderson was named Southland Conference All-Academic as a senior. He also played for two years as a quarterback and receiver at Baylor (1987-89) before transferring. A native of Hubbard, Texas, Anderson graduated with his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Sam Houston State in 1992. He also attained his master's degree in sports administration from Eastern New Mexico in 1994.

Anderson and his wife Wendy have one daughter, Callie, and two sons, Coleton and Cason.

WALT BELL

Tight ends coach

Recruiting Coordinator

Second Year at UNC

Walt Bell enters his second season as Carolina's tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator.

In his first year, Bell was part of an offensive staff that helped Carolina set more than 35 school records, including total points, points per game and total offense. The Tar Heels ranked eighth in the country in scoring, 14th in total offense, 26th in passing offense and 33rd in rushing offense.

Under Bell's tutelage, tight end Eric Ebron tripled his output from his previous season, hauling in 40 receptions for 625 yards and four touchdowns to earn second-team All-ACC honors. Ebron set UNC single-season school records for receptions and receiving yards by a tight end.

In addition to Ebron, teammate Jack Tabb had his best season with 12 catches for 144 yards and a touchdown as the Tar Heels employed several two tight end sets.

Bell also helped the Tar Heels build a strong recruiting class, which ranked among the top five in the ACC despite a lack of available scholarships.

Bell came to Carolina after coaching wide receivers with Larry Fedora at Southern Miss. He was part of a Southern Miss offensive staff that helped the Golden Eagles establish school records for total offense with 6,459 yards in 2011. USM was 17th in the nation in total offense and 14th in scoring offense as the Golden Eagles had the best season in school history.

Southern Miss won the Conference USA championship over previously unbeaten Houston and then won its school-record 12th game of the year by beating Nevada in the Hawaii Bowl.

Bell's wide receivers were a big reason for USM's success. The top four receivers all had more than 30 receptions and accounted for 21 of the Golden Eagles' 32 receiving touchdowns. Kelvin Bolden led the team with 58 catches for 671 yards and had seven touchdowns. Senior Ryan Ballentine led the team in yards (742) and touchdowns (8) on 49 catches.

Before becoming a full-time assistant at USM, Bell spent one season as the team's offensive graduate assistant in 2010. With his input, the Golden Eagles set new offensive records for production that year, including a then-school record 5,894 yards and 453.38 yards per game.

Prior to coming to Southern Miss, Bell spent a season as a quality control coach at Oklahoma State. Before OSU, Bell worked two years as a graduate assistant at Memphis following his playing days at Middle Tennessee.

The Dickson, Tenn., native earned both his bachelor's degree (criminal justice administration, 2005) and master's degree (sports management, 2006) from MTSU.

Bell also worked at Louisiana-Lafayette for one spring following his final season at MTSU.

GUNTER BREWER
Passing Game Coordinator
Wide Receivers Coach
Seventh Year at UNC

Gunter Brewer enters his seventh overall season in Chapel Hill and second under head coach Larry Fedora as the Tar Heels' passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach. Brewer coached five seasons in Chapel Hill from 2000-04 before returning in 2012 after stints at Oklahoma State and Mississippi.

Brewer was part of a Carolina coaching staff that helped establish more than 35 school offensive records in 2012. The Tar Heels finished eighth in the country in scoring, averaging a school-record 40.6 points per game and were 14th in total offense, averaging 485.6 yards per game. The passing offense was 26th nationally with a school-record 291.8 yards per game.

After he was hired in late December, Brewer recruited and eventually signed prized wideout Quinshad Davis from Gaffney, S.C. In his first year on campus, Davis broke Hakeem Nicks' school record for a freshman with 61 receptions for 776 yards and five touchdowns. He became the first freshman to lead the team in receptions since Nicks in 2006. He also tied an ACC single-game record with 16 catches vs. Virginia. Brewer also coached senior Erik Highsmith to a personal-best 54 receptions. Highsmith signed a free agent contract with the Minnesota Vikings after the draft.

Brewer returned to UNC after serving one season as the associate head coach at Mississippi in 2011. Brewer was the lone assistant coach who remained on the Mississippi staff after Houston Nutt was dismissed at the end of the year. He headed up a transition team and had been asked to remain on the new Ole Miss staff.

Brewer is coaching with Fedora for the second time in his career. The two were on Mike Gundy's Oklahoma State offensive staff for three years from 2005-07.

Brewer spent six seasons (2005-10) at Oklahoma State and served in various capacities, including as co-offensive coordinator, passing game coordinator, receivers coach and quarterbacks coach. His term in Stillwater included five bowl appearances and the program's first Big 12 South Championship in 2010.

Brewer recruited and served as the position coach for Justin Blackmon, a unanimous first-team All-America who won the Biletnikoff Award presented to the nation's top receiver. Blackmon finished the 2010 season as the national leader in receiving yards per game and was second in receptions per game. His 1,782 receiving yards were the most ever for a sophomore in NCAA history, and he set another NCAA record with 12 consecutive games with at least 100 yards receiving and a touchdown.

Blackmon was the third Biletnikoff Award finalist Brewer has coached, joining Randy Moss (1997 winner) and Dez Bryant (2008 runner-up). Moss and Bryant are also among 17 Brewer pupils that have gone on to professional football careers.

Brewer's work with the Cowboy wide receivers was key in OSU finishing the 2010 season ranked second in the nation in passing offense and third in the nation in both total offense and scoring offense.

With Brewer as co-offensive coordinator, the Cowboys offense produced a pair of first-team All-Americans in Bryant and running back Kendall Hunter, to go with first-round NFL Draft picks in lineman Russell Okung and tight end Brandon Pettigrew.

In 2008, Brewer's offensive unit finished top-10 nationally in rushing, total offense, scoring and pass efficiency.

He was also the position coach for quarterback Zac Robinson, who was a finalist for the Manning Award and ranked fifth nationally in pass efficiency and 18th nationally in total offense.

Brewer coached Biletnikoff semifinalist Adarius Bowman to consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons in 2006 and 2007, while D'Juan Woods was a 2005 all-Big 12 pick and ended his career as OSU's third all-time leading receiver in both receptions and yards.

Brewer's stint at Oklahoma State was preceded by a five-year period at North Carolina (2000-04), where he coached three receivers who ranked among the top 20 in UNC history in receiving yards – Sam Aiken, Chesley Borders and Jaworski Pollock.

As the associate offensive coordinator and receivers coach at Marshall from 1996-99, Brewer coached Moss to stardom while helping the Thundering Herd to a 50-4 record over that time, including a perfect 13-0 mark and No. 10 final national ranking in 1999.

Brewer's other career stops include Wake Forest, East Tennessee State and Northeast Mississippi Community College, where he served as head coach in 1995.

Brewer was a two-year letterwinner as a receiver at Wake Forest, where he earned his degree in science and health sports in 1987. In 1989, he was awarded a master's in education with a specialization in exercise physiology from Ole Miss.

A native of Columbus, Miss., Brewer and his wife, Rhonda, have a son, Keaton, and a daughter, Lauren.

DAN DISCH
Defensive Coordinator
Secondary Coach
Second Year at UNC

Dan Disch (pronounced DISH) enters his second season as North Carolina's defensive coordinator and cornerbacks coach.

In 2012, Disch was responsible for a secondary that finished second in the ACC and 20th in the country in interceptions. All but two of the interceptions were made by the defensive backs. Safety Tre Boston and cornerback Tim Scott tied for the team lead with four each.

Boston was an honorable-mention All-ACC pick and it was his interception return for a touchdown that sealed a victory at Virginia. Boston also led the team in tackles, while cornerback Jabari Price was second.

Disch served as defensive coordinator and secondary coach under head coach Larry Fedora in 2011 at Southern Miss where he installed his brand of the 4-2-5 defensive scheme.

That season, the Golden Eagles improved from 75th nationally in pass efficiency defense to seventh, and were ranked 22nd in rushing defense, allowing just 112.6 rushing yards per game. Disch's defense set an NCAA record with eight interceptions returned for touchdowns.

Overall, USM ranked 29th in total defense and 28th in scoring defense as the Golden Eagles won the 2011 Conference USA championship over previously unbeaten Houston and then won their school-record 12th game over Nevada in the Hawaii Bowl. In the final regular season top 25 polls, Southern Miss was No. 21 in the USA Today Coaches poll and No. 22 in the Associated Press poll.

Before arriving in Hattiesburg, Disch spent six seasons at Illinois, where he served as the special teams coordinator/outside linebackers coach (2005), special teams coordinator/linebackers coach (2006), co-defensive coordinator/linebackers (2007-09) and linebackers coach (2010). He served under Ron Zook for seven seasons, including one year at Florida (2004) where he coached the secondary. Fedora also was a member of the Gator staff in 2004.

At Carolina, Disch is working again with Vic Koenning and Keith Gilmore who were all on the Illinois staff in 2010.

Disch's linebackers were a strong point of the Illini defense in 2010, as Martez Wilson collected 112 tackles, tied for fourth in the Big Ten. Wilson also ranked among Big Ten leaders in tackles for loss. In 2009, one of Disch's linebackers again led the team in tackles and ranked among the Big Ten leaders as Ian Thomas racked up 95 stops.

In 2008, for the third-straight season, Illinois' middle linebacker led the Big Ten in tackles and was a first-team All-Big Ten selection. After J Leman in 2006 and 2007, Brit Miller averaged 11.0 tackles per game. The Illini also led the Big Ten in tackles for loss and sacks, in which Miller was also the team leader.

Disch's 2007 Fighting Illini defense was one of the best in the Big Ten, led by consensus All-American and first-team All-Big Ten selection Leman. The heart of the Illini defense, Leman finished sixth on the Illinois career tackles list and ranked fifth in all-time tackles for loss. Illinois finished 20th in the AP top 25 poll and played Southern Cal in the Rose Bowl, the school's first appearance in the Rose Bowl since 1984.

In 2006, Disch's linebacking corps helped the Illini make a large improvement in total and rushing defense. The team bettered its numbers from the 2005 season by over 160 total yards. Leman earned first-team All-Big Ten honors as well as honorable mention Sports Illustrated All-America honors. He led the Big Ten with 12.7 tackles per game and ranked 10th in the nation in TFL

As the special teams coach for the Illini in 2005, Disch tutored All-Big Ten and All-America punter Steve Weatherford who, with a 42.6 average, became the school's all-time leader in punting average.

In 2004 at Florida, Disch rebuilt a secondary that lost all four starters from the previous year, yet his new group still recorded 16 interceptions. The production came from a group that entered the season with just four career picks. Safety Jarvis Herring ranked third in the SEC in interceptions per game, while corner Dee Webb was fourth in passes defended.

Prior to entering the collegiate ranks, Disch spent 22 years coaching high school football in the Jacksonville, Fla., area, including 16 seasons as the head coach of Ed White High School, where he posted a record of 122-55 to become the school's all-time winningest coach. While under Disch's lead, Ed

White made 11 playoff appearances, won seven district and six conference championships, and reached the state quarterfinals four times.

Ed White also was ranked in the Top-10 of the state's final football poll eight times. Additionally, five of Disch's high school assistant coaches went on to land head coaching jobs.

Disch is a 1981 graduate of Florida State University. He was born in Jacksonville, Fla., and has three daughters: Chandler, Erica and Virginia.

KEITH GILMORE

Defensive Line Coach

First Year at UNC

Keith Gilmore, a 28-year college coaching veteran who spent the last four seasons at Illinois, enters his first year as North Carolina's defensive line coach.

Gilmore has ties with current UNC defensive coaches Vic Koenning and Dan Disch. Gilmore and Koenning worked together during Koenning's two seasons as the Illini defensive coordinator in 2010-11. Gilmore and Disch were on the Illinois defensive staff in 2009 and 2010.

Last season at Illinois, Gilmore coached NFL Draft picks Akeem Spence (DT) and Mike Buchanan (DE). In 2011, Gilmore tutored consensus first-team All-America Whitney Mercilus. Mercilus was named the Ted Hendricks Award winner, given to the nation's top defensive end, and was a consensus All-American. He led the nation in sacks (16.0), sacks per game (1.23) and forced fumbles (9) while breaking the Big Ten record for forced fumbles. The 16 sacks tied Simeon Rice's UI single-season record and Mercilus' 22.5 tackles for loss in 2011 ranked second nationally and third all-time at Illinois.

Gilmore guided a budding star in 2010 in defensive tackle Corey Liuget, who was a first-round pick of the San Diego Chargers in the 2011 NFL Draft after being named a fourth-team All-American by Phil Steele. Liuget and Akeem Spence combined for 108 tackles, the most by a pair of Illini defensive tackles since 1993, and Spence was named a Freshman All-American by Phil Steele and Rivals.com. Illinois' rushing defense also held five opponents under 100 yards in 2010.

In his first season with the Illinois defensive line, Gilmore tutored a starting four that posted 33 tackles for loss and 14.5 quarterback sacks, including honorable mention All-Big Ten selection Clay Nurse.

Gilmore spent six years with Cincinnati head coach Brian Kelly, two with the Bearcats, one at Central Michigan in 2006 and three at Grand Valley State from 1991-93. As assistant head coach and defensive line coach, Gilmore helped lead Cincinnati to a Big East championship and a trip to the 2009 Orange Bowl. He coached a line that ranked ninth in the nation in sacks, averaging nearly three per game. The run defense allowed only 115 yards per game, which ranked 19th in the NCAA and the scoring defense was 25th.

In his two years at UC, Gilmore coached a defensive line that boasted All-American Terrill Byrd, the school's single-season sacks leader in Anthony Hoke, and NFL draft choices Angelo Craig and Connor Barwin. His group proved to be one of the best in the BIG EAST, as the Bearcats defense ranked second in the league in scoring defense (18.8) and rushing defense (114.2).

Prior to Cincinnati, Gilmore mentored a pair of defensive linemen to all-league honors in his only season at Central Michigan. Gilmore went to CMU in 2006, after four seasons as the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at Howard University. He also was the defensive line coach for the Bison, who led the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference in total defense in 2004 and ranked seventh in the nation (297.5 ypg) and again in 2005, while ranking second in the NCAA (255.7 ypg).

Gilmore has held internships with three NFL teams throughout his coaching career. He spent the 1996 summer with the Green Bay Packers' coaching staff, the 2002 summer with the Detroit Lions' scouting department and the 2005 summer with the Prior to his time at Howard, Gilmore spent the 1998-2001 seasons at Norfolk State. He was the special teams coordinator and also coached the defensive line and running backs.

A two-time all-Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference honoree at Wayne State (1979-80), Gilmore began his coaching career at his alma mater in 1985. From there, he served stints at Michigan State (1988), Northern Michigan (1989-90), Grand Valley State (1991-93), Wayne State (1994) and Eastern Michigan (1995-97).

Gilmore earned his bachelor's degree in recreation management from Wayne State in 1981 and a master's degree in sport administration from Michigan State in 1990. He and his wife, Bridget, have five children, Keith, Kierre, Grant, Keyontay and Grace.

LOU HERNANDEZ
Head Strength & Conditioning
Coach for Football
Second Year at UNC

Lou Hernandez is in his second season as North Carolina's head football strength and conditioning coach.

Carolina was one of the best conditioned teams in the ACC in 2012, outscoring its opponents 226-104, including a 99-41 advantage in the fourth quarter. Hernandez also helped train first-round draft picks Jonathan Cooper (No. 7 overall) and Sylvester Williams (No. 28). Cooper, considered one of the most athletic guards in the recent history of the draft, improved his draft stock significantly after returning for his senior season under Fedora's staff and working with Hernandez.

Hernandez was an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Florida from 2002-04 when Fedora was an offensive assistant under Ron Zook. UNC defensive coordinator Dan Disch was also on that Gator staff in 2004.

Prior to coming to Chapel Hill, Hernandez spent seven years on the Illinois staff as the head strength coach under football coach Ron Zook. He coordinated the entire strength program for the football team as well as assisting with nutritional aspects of the players' diets. At Illinois, he also worked with Carolina's associate head coach for defensive Vic Koenning and defensive line coach Keith Gilmore. Illinois won back-to-back bowl games in 2010 and 2011 for the first time in school history.

During his time at Illinois, Hernandez turned around the strength program. When he began in 2005, there was just one player with a 300-pound or better power clean. Five years later, the team averaged close to 35 a year. Only one player in 2005 could bench over 405 and by 2010 that number was in double figures.

Hernandez helped train five first-round NFL Draft picks in Champaign, including Rashard Mendenhall (Pittsburgh) in 2008, Vontae Davis (Miami) in 2009, Corey Liuget (San Diego) in 2011 and Whitney Mercilus (Houston) and A.J. Jenkins (San Francisco) in 2012. That marked the first time Illinois had produced five first-round draft picks in a five-year span.

Hernandez worked for three seasons at Florida as the assistant director of strength and conditioning from 2002-04. He moved to Florida after serving on the New York Jets staff.

Prior to his one-year stint with the Jets, Hernandez spent 10 years at the University of Houston, including five years as the director of the program.

A native of Alice, Texas, Hernandez earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from the University of Houston in 1992 and his master's degree in exercise and health-related fitness from Houston in 1994. Hernandez is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Hernandez and his wife, Kristin, have two daughters, Romy Ella and Katirena Rose.

RANDY JORDAN
Running Backs Coach
Second Year at UNC

Randy Jordan, a 1993 University of North Carolina graduate, enters his second season as the running backs coach and first as the special teams coordinator.

A year ago, he tutored tailback Giovani Bernard to one of the best seasons in UNC history. Bernard led the ACC and ranked 11th in the nation in rushing. He also ranked third on the team in receptions and was fourth in the nation in all-purpose yardage. Bernard was the first running back taken in the NFL Draft when he was selected by the Cincinnati Bengals in the second round. Bernard (19) and tailback A.J. Blue (10) combined to set a single-season school record for most touchdowns (29) by two teammates. Blue, who returns for his senior season in 2013, had nine rushing touchdowns and one scoring reception. Speedy Romar Morris rushed for 386 yards (5.6 per rush) as a freshman. The Tar Heels rushed for 193.8 yards per game, their highest average since 1994.

Jordan was part of an offensive staff that helped Carolina set more than 35 school records, including total points, points per game and total offense.

Prior to returning to Chapel Hill, Jordan coached running backs at Texas A&M for four seasons.

A nine-year NFL running back, Jordan began his coaching career with the Oakland Raiders as a special teams assistant midway through the 2003 season. He then coached four years at Nebraska under head coach Bill Callahan.

Jordan was on the Aggie sideline when they knocked off Northwestern, 33-22, in the 2011 Meineke Car Care Bowl of Texas. Reserve running back Ben Malena rushed for 77 yards and two touchdowns while filling in for Cyrus Gray, a second-team All-Big 12 selection, who was out with a shoulder injury. Under Jordan's tutelage, Gray was a three-time All-Big 12 performer and ranks third in conference history in all-purpose yards.

In 2011, Texas A&M ranked 24th in the country in with 199.2 rushing yards per game. The Aggies appeared in bowl games in each of the last three seasons Jordan was at Texas A&M, including the Meineke Car Care Bowl in 2011, the Cotton Bowl vs. LSU in 2010 and the Independence Bowl vs. Georgia in 2009.

Jordan came to Aggieland from the University of Nebraska where he served as the running backs coach for the Cornhuskers beginning in 2004. Jordan's creativity and enthusiasm shaped the I-back position into a multiple-threat weapon. He coached two 1,000-yard rushers in Marlon Lucky in 2007 and Cody Ross in 2004.

Jordan oversaw a Nebraska committee of I-backs in 2006 that produced nearly 2,400 rushing yards and 26 rushing touchdowns in the powerful West Coast Offense. An improved effort on the ground helped NU move from 107th in 2005 to 23rd nationally in rushing offense in 2006.

Brandon Jackson led the way with 989 rushing yards with seven touchdowns before leaving for the NFL Draft following his junior season. Jackson was a second-round pick by the Green Bay Packers, and was the highest drafted I-back from Nebraska since 1996.

Jordan's guidance helped Ross join an elite group in 2004, as Ross became the 20th Husker to record 1,000 rushing yards in a season when he ranked fifth in the conference and 23rd nationally with 100.2 rushing yards per game. As a group, Nebraska's backs averaged 176.8 yards per contest in the first season of the West Coast Offense.

Jordan played nine years in the NFL as a running back, playing in 122 career games from 1993 through 2002. He began his career with the Los Angeles Raiders before joining the expansion Jacksonville Jaguars in 1995 and playing three seasons. Jordan holds the distinction of scoring the very first touchdown for the Jacksonville club, a 71-yard reception against Cincinnati in 1995.

After the 1997 season, Jordan rejoined the Raiders' organization where he played five more seasons. In 1998, Jordan rushed for 159 yards for the Raiders. He had a career-high 213 yards rushing and three touchdowns in helping the Raiders reach the AFC Championship Game in 2000. He also caught 27 passes for 299 yards and a touchdown that same season.

Jordan finished his career with 574 yards rushing and seven touchdowns, while making 58 catches for 596 yards and two touchdowns. Jordan was also a standout special teams player. He was the special teams captain for the 2002 Oakland Raider squad that reached Super Bowl XXXVII. He finished his career with 801 yards on 38 career kick returns, including a season best of 553 yards on 26 returns for Jacksonville in 1996.

Jordan recorded 64 career tackles on special teams, including a career-best 14 in 1999. He was the recipient of the NFL Unsung Hero Award and the Ed Block Courage Award in 2001.

Jordan played for the University of North Carolina and head coach Mack Brown from 1989 to 1992. He earned three letters for the Tar Heels rushing for 1,134 yards and nine touchdowns in his career, including 618 yards and seven touchdowns in 1991.

Jordan earned his degree in speech communication from North Carolina in 1993. He was born in Manson, North Carolina. Jordan and his wife, Romonda, have a daughter, Raven, and two sons, Jalen and Justin.

CHRIS KAPILOVIC

Run Game Coordinator

Offensive Line Coach

Second Year at UNC

Chris Kapilovic (pronounced kuh-PILL-o-vick) enters his second season as Carolina's run game coordinator and offensive line coach.

Last season, Kapilovic was part of an offensive staff that helped Carolina set more than 35 school records, including total points, points per game and total offense.

Carolina had what many outside observers called the best offensive line in the country in 2012. All three senior starting linemen were drafted, led by No. 7 overall pick Jonathan Cooper, an athletic guard from Wilmington, N.C. Tackle Brennan Williams was picked in the third round and guard Travis Bond was a seventh round selection.

With the offensive line providing running room, Giovani Bernard led the league in rushing and was a semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award. The Tar Heels rushed for 193.8 yards per game, the highest total at UNC since 1994.

Carolina also led the league and finished ninth in the nation in sacks allowed.

Kapilovic came to Carolina after four years at Southern Miss under head coach Larry Fedora. In three of Kapilovic's four years in Hattiesburg, Southern Miss set the school record for total offense, including a mark of 6,459 yards in 2011. Under his direction, the offensive line helped the Golden Eagles reach the 5,000-yard mark in total offense in all four seasons. Kapilovic and company broke the previous total offense record of 5,894 they set in 2010. It was also the fifth-straight year Southern Miss had rushed for more than 2,000 yards.

In 2011, Southern Miss won the Conference USA championship over previously unbeaten Houston and then won its school-record 12th game of the year by beating Nevada in the Hawaii Bowl.

Kapilovic was promoted to run game coordinator in 2010, and in each of his two seasons in that capacity Southern Miss rushed for more than 200 yards per game. In 2011, USM was one of just 11 FBS programs that averaged more than 200 yards per game in both rushing and passing. Three Southern Miss offensive linemen were named All-CUSA in 2011, including first-team performer Lamar Holmes.

Kapilovic came to Southern Miss after spending two seasons as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator at his alma mater, Missouri State. The Bears ranked No. 24 nationally in total offense (414.3), No. 25 in rushing offense (202.9) and No. 10 in scoring offense (36.3) in 2007.

Prior to his stint in Springfield, Kapilovic worked with the offensive line as an assistant coach for five years at Alabama State. He also had offensive coordinator duties for the Hornets in his last three seasons. ASU led the league in rushing yards in two of his final three seasons and the Hornets averaged over 32 points per game during his time of sharing offensive coordinator duties.

The Hornets finished No. 16 nationally in total offense in 2004 and No. 9 in 2005 and led the SWAC in fewest sacks allowed in 2004.

Several offensive linemen Kapilovic has coached have gone on to the NFL and former Alabama State quarterback Tavaris Jackson was a second-round pick by the Minnesota Vikings in 2006.

Kapilovic started his coaching career as a student assistant at Missouri State. After leaving MSU, Kapilovic spent time as offensive coordinator at Deer Valley High in Glendale, Ariz., as offensive line and strength coach at Phoenix College and as a graduate assistant coach for the offensive line at the

VIC KOENNING

Associate Head Coach for Defense

Safeties Coach

Second Year at UNC

Vic Koenning (pronounced KOH-ning) enters his second season as Carolina's associate head coach for defense where he will coordinate all aspects of the defense. He also will serve as the safeties coach in 2012, a year after tutoring the inside linebackers.

Last season, Carolina finished third in the nation in tackles for losses with more than eight per game. Koenning's pupil, middle linebacker Kevin Reddick, led the ACC and was 12th in the country with 18.5 tackles for losses. Reddick also had 85 tackles, 6.5 sacks and forced two fumbles en route to first-team All-ACC honors.

Carolina is Koenning's second tour of duty in the Atlantic Coast Conference. He was Clemson's defensive coordinator from 2005-08 where he accomplished something no other Tiger defensive coordinator had accomplished in the school's history. Each of his four Clemson defenses finished in the top 25 in scoring, total and pass efficiency defense.

Koenning left Clemson and spent one season at Kansas State under Bill Snyder and two seasons at Illinois under head coach Ron Zook. He improved the Illini defense from 91st in the country in 2009 to 38th in 2010 and seventh in 2011. Illinois gave up just 291.8 yards per game and ranked fourth in the nation in pass defense, fifth in tackles for losses and ninth in sacks. Illinois defensive end Whitney Mercilus led the nation in sacks and was second in tackles for losses. Koenning led Illinois to a 20-14 win over UCLA in the Kraft Fight Hunger bowl on Dec. 31 as the team's interim head coach.

Koenning's first season with the Illini was an unquestioned success as he improved Illinois' defense from 76th in the country in rushing defense to 32nd, 96th to 48th in scoring defense, 100th to 61st in passing defense and 83rd to 22nd in turnover margin while serving as defensive coordinator and secondary coach.

In 2009, he helped Kansas State improve from 112th in the NCAA in rushing defense in 2008 to 16th in 2009, total defense from 117th to 40th and scoring defense from 110th to 48th. KSU allowed 140 yards fewer last season than in 2008 and 12 points per game less than the previous year.

In 2008, Clemson's defense led the ACC in scoring defense and ranked ninth in the nation by allowing just 16.6 points per game. The unit also was 12th in the nation in pass defense, 11th in pass efficiency defense, tied for eighth in interceptions and 16th in total defense.

The 2007 defensive performance might have been the best of his tenure at Clemson.

The Tigers had just one player make first or second-team All-ACC despite leading the ACC in pass defense and turnover margin, and finishing second in total and scoring defense. Clemson was ninth in the nation in total defense (307 ypg), and 10th in scoring defense (18.7 ppg).

Koenning developed several Clemson players to the NFL. In 2006, cornerback Tye Hill was a first-round draft pick, while defensive end Gaines Adams, who passed away in Jan. of 2010, was the No. 4 overall selection in 2007. Defensive end Phillip Merling was the No. 32 overall selection of the 2008 draft by Miami.

Koenning built a strong résumé in two seasons at Troy from 2003-04. He led its defense to a top-10 NCAA finish in scoring, rushing and pass efficiency defense and yards per play in 2004.

Prior to his time at Troy, he was the head coach at Wyoming from 2000-02. He coached 10 Cowboy players who earned first-team all-conference honors in his six seasons in Laramie, including three years as defensive coordinator. In 1997, UW led the nation in interceptions and was second in sacks.

Koenning served as a full-time assistant coach working with the defensive backs at Memphis from 1991-96. In his first year, he helped the Tigers to a 24-10 upset at No. 14 USC. His second season there saw the defense finish third in the nation in total defense and 15th in scoring defense. The Tigers enjoyed another successful year on defense in 1993, as Koenning's unit was 16th in the nation in total defense. In 1994, the Tigers were third in the nation in total defense and eighth in scoring defense. His final year at Memphis was highlighted by a 21-17 upset of No. 6 Tennessee.

A three-year starter, team captain and 1983 graduate at Kansas State, Koenning was the recipient of the Paul Coffman Award, presented to the Wildcat who displays the most outstanding leadership. Koenning was third on the team with 93 total tackles as a senior.

Koenning, a native of Owasso, Okla., pursued a playing career with the Denver Broncos, Oklahoma Outlaws (USFL) and Green Bay Packers between 1983-86 before starting work on his master's degree at Memphis in 1986. He later received his master's in athletic administration from Memphis in 1989.

Koenning and his wife Tracey have four children, Kimberly, Brady, Camden and Jackson.

RON WEST
Co-Defensive Coordinator
Linebackers Coach
First Year at UNC

Ron West enters his first year as the Tar Heels' co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. West, who coached previously with Larry Fedora at Baylor and defensive coaches Vic Koenning, Dan Disch and Keith Gilmore at Illinois, comes to Chapel Hill after a year at Arizona State where he served as the Sun Devils' co-defensive coordinator.

A 1979 Clemson graduate, West was an assistant coach for 10 seasons (1999-2008) with the Tigers where he worked with Koenning from 2005-08. Clemson won 76 games and played in nine bowl games during his tenure.

In 2012, Arizona State finished third in the country in pass defense, allowing just 167.9 yards per game, 10th in pass efficiency defense (105.5 rating) and was 27th overall in total defense (350.7 ypg). The Sun Devils led the nation in tackles for losses, ranked second in sacks and fourth in passes intercepted. Before West's arrival in Tempe, Arizona State was 91st in total defense, 59th in sacks and 57th in tackle for loss.

West helped develop linebacker Brandon Magee into a first-team All-Pac-12 performer. Magee led the team with 113 tackles, including 12.5 tackles for losses and 6.5 sacks.

West has more than 30 years of collegiate coaching experience, including 17 on defense and nine as a coordinator. He also has coached 16 years on the offensive side of the ball. West was the outside linebackers coach at Illinois from 2010-11. West spent the 2009 season as the co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Tulsa.

West implemented the Devil position at ASU, which is modeled after the bandit, a linebacker role that he had great success with in both the Big 10 and the ACC at Illinois and Clemson, respectively. His defenses at both universities recorded top-10 national finishes in total defense and enabled numerous players to garner both All-America and all-conference accolades, as well as find success in the professional ranks.

In 2011, the Fighting Illini finished seventh in the nation in total defense with West's linebackers helping to lead the charge, allowing just 286.15 total yards per game and holding its opponents to just 4.42 yards per play. Illinois was also third in passing yards allowed per game at 162.3 ypg and finished 26th in rushing yards allowed per game with 123.9 ypg.

Illinois bandit Michael Buchanan had a breakout 2011 season, registering 64 tackles, 13.5 tackles for loss and 7.5 sacks en route to second-team All-Big Ten honors. He ranked fifth in the Big Ten in sacks and eighth in TFLs.

In 2010, West guided Fighting Illini linebacker Nate Bussey to a seventh-round NFL Draft selection and All-Big Ten honorable mention recognition.

While on the defensive coaching staff at Clemson, where West coached the outside linebackers for five seasons, his defenses ranked in the top 25 in total defense three times. The 2004 defense ranked in the top-25 in all four major categories, including a top-10 finish in scoring defense and total defense, and his 2005 Tigers' defense finished among the top 25 in six defensive categories. Clemson's defense also placed 18th in total defense and 13th in scoring defense in 2008.

In 2006, West coached one of the greatest players in Clemson history, the late Gaines Adams, who excelled in the bandit system and became the No. 4 overall pick in the 2007 NFL draft. Adams was named to all five All-America teams in 2006 and was recognized as one of seven unanimous first-team All-Americans that year. He started all 12 games that season, recording an ACC-best 12.5 sacks, causing two fumbles and recovering three. He finished his career with 28 total sacks to tie the school record set in 1984-87.

West began his stint on the Tigers' coaching staff as offensive line coach in 1999, and coached the offensive line for five seasons and spent the final five on the defensive side of the ball.

Before arriving at Clemson, West spent two years on Tommy Bowden's coaching staff at Tulane University (1997-98), where he coached the offensive line. In 1998, Tulane posted a 12-0 record as the offensive line helped pave the way for an offense to average over 300 passing yards and 200 rushing yards.

West began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at West Alabama in 1979. He was at East Carolina in the spring of 1980 and became the offensive line coach at North Texas for the 1980 season. In 1981, West joined the Texas Tech coaching staff as the offensive line coach and coached special teams. He served in that capacity for four years before moving to defense in 1985 as the assistant linebackers coach.

His next stop was at Louisiana-Lafayette where he spent seven seasons (1986-92) as defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach. West joined the Baylor coaching staff for four seasons (1993-96) as offensive line coach and served as the running game coordinator in his final year.

A 1979 graduate of Clemson, West was a reserve offensive lineman in 1977 and 1978 for the Clemson Tigers. He started two games as a senior and helped his team post an 11-1 record and earn a No. 6 national ranking in the final Associated Press poll. His playing career began at Marion Institute, where he earned junior college All-America accolades before transferring to Clemson.

West and his wife Becky have two adult children, Brad and Lori.

RYAN MCKEE

GRADUATE ASSISTANT COACH
FIRST YEAR AT UNC

Ryan McKee joined the Carolina coaching staff as an offensive graduate assistant in 2013.

McKee was a four-year letterwinner at Southern Miss from 2005-08 and played his final season in Hattiesburg under head coach Larry Fedora and offensive line coach Chris Kapilovic. He earned second-team all-conference honors at offensive tackle in his junior and senior seasons.

McKee graduated from USM with a bachelor's degree in business administration and then embarked on a three-year NFL career. He was signed as an undrafted free agent in 2009 by the New York Jets and then later was picked up by the St. Louis Rams. He played for the Rams for three seasons as a reserve tackle and guard.

Ryan and his wife, Laura, reside in Durham.

LUKE PASCHALL

SECOND YEAR AT UNC

Luke Paschall enters his second season as a graduate assistant coach, working primarily with UNC's special teams.

Last season, Carolina finished first in the conference and 10th in the country in net punting led by second-team All-ACC punter Tommy Hibbard. UNC's punt return team was 10th in the nation and Giovani Bernard was second in the country with a 16.4-yard average.

A former wide receiver at Middle Tennessee State, Paschall came to Carolina after spending one season at Ole Miss as an offensive graduate assistant under coach Houston Nutt. Paschall spent three seasons at Oklahoma State from 2008-10 in quality control and as a special teams graduate assistant. In 2007, he was the wide receivers coach at Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College.

A native of Dickson, Tenn., Paschall was a four-year letterwinner at MTSU from 2003-06. As a senior, he hauled in a personal-best 13 receptions for 156 yards and a touchdown. He earned a psychology degree in 2006 and a master's in sports management in 2007.

Paschall lettered in football, basketball and track at Dickson County High School.

TOMMY RICHARDSON

GRADUATE ASSISTANT COACH
FIRST YEAR AT UNC

Tommy Richardson, a 2006 UNC graduate, enters his first season as a defensive graduate assistant coach.

Richardson was a four-year letterman for the Tar Heels from 2002-05. He began his playing career as a safety and became an all-conference linebacker as a senior. In 2005, he served as team captain and led the team in tackles. He was second on the team in tackles as a junior and had a career-best 14 tackles in the bowl game vs. Boston College.

A native of Miami, Fla., Richardson graduated from UNC in 2006 with a bachelor's degree in Afro-American studies and a minor in exercise sport science. He earned a master's degree in education and leadership from Keiser University, based in Ft. Lauderdale.

He returned to his high school alma mater - North Miami Beach - in 2007 to teach. He served as the athletic director at North Miami Beach the last four years.

Richardson has a son, Titan.

JUSTIN SANDERS

GRADUATE ASSISTANT COACH
SECOND YEAR AT UNC

Justin Sanders enters his second season as a graduate assistant coach, working with the Tar Heels' defensive backs.

Carolina finished second in the ACC and 20th in the nation with 16 interceptions led by Tre Boston and Tim Scott with four each.

A native of Pearl, Miss., Sanders spent four years as a high school coach and math teacher in his home state. He was the defensive coordinator at Richland High School in 2011 and the linebackers coach at Quitman High School from 2008-10.

Sanders played safety and lettered two years at Illinois in 2006 and 2007. He was a starter on the 2007 Fighting Illini squad that went 9-3 and played USC in the Rose Bowl. It was Illinois' first appearance in the Rose Bowl since 1984. Earlier that season, Illinois defeated No. 1 Ohio State in Columbus. Sanders signed with the Detroit Lions in the summer after graduation and made it until the final round of cuts.

From 2004-05, Sanders played at Northeast Mississippi Community College where he was voted the top defensive back in the state.

His father, John, played six years in the NFL, three with New England and three with Philadelphia.

FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION
12TH YEAR AT UNC

Corey Holliday, who played for the Tar Heels from 1989-93, is in his 13th year with the football program. He was promoted to Associate Director of Athletics for Football Administration in 2006. Holliday coordinates daily football program administration, works with the University admissions office, supervises football operational personnel and handles other administrative duties as assigned by athletic director Bubba Cunningham and head coach Larry Fedora.

Holliday was selected as one of 25 athletics administrators to participate in the inaugural 2001-02 NCAA Leadership Institute for Ethnic Minority Males.

Holliday graduated as the Carolina career record holder for most receiving yards (2,447). Holliday is also fourth in career receptions. Holliday caught a pass in an ACC-record 45 consecutive games for the Tar Heels from 1990-93 and was a team co-captain as a junior and senior.

Holliday played four seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers and was a member of four divisional championship squads. He played in Super Bowl XXX against the Dallas Cowboys and had two receptions and two special teams tackles.

Holliday also has held positions with the Atlantic Coast Conference, UNC's Educational Foundation, and The Ohio State University. Before returning to Chapel Hill, he was a business process analyst for Andersen Consulting in Columbus, Ohio.

He holds two degrees from North Carolina, including a B.S. in business administration in 1993 and a master's in sports administration in 1997. Holliday and his wife, Angela (UNC '94), have two sons, Christopher and Nicholas.

JOE HAYDON
DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS
10TH YEAR AT UNC

Joe Haydon enters his 10th year with the Tar Heels and eighth as the team's director of operations. Haydon coordinates team travel, in-house recruiting visits and works with the NCAA on student-athlete admissions and eligibility.

A native of Wayland, N.Y., Haydon played basketball at Division III Rochester Institute of Technology. He was the team captain and earned Academic All-America honors as a senior.

After spending two years in the telecommunications business, Haydon attended Carolina's sports administration graduate program. He worked as an intern in the football office in 2004, was hired as the assistant director of football operations in 2005 and was promoted to Director in 2006.

Haydon is married to the former Melissa Mecham.

CHRISTOPHER LUKE
DIRECTOR OF VIDEO & TECHNOLOGY
SIXTH YEAR AT UNC

Christopher Luke enters his sixth year as Carolina's Director of Football Video and Technology. Luke manages all facets of internal team video and game analysis needs for the football coaching staff and players.

Luke and his staff produce the acclaimed Blue Dawn and Spring Football videos, team motivational videos, and numerous recruiting videos for social media platforms. UNC was also one of the first teams in the fall of 2011 to watch "all 22" game video on iPads under his tutelage.

In a vote by his peers, Luke was named the 2011-12 ACC Video Coordinator of the Year by the Collegiate Sports Video Association (CSVA). He then received the 2011-12 Bob Matey National Video Coordinator of the Year Award in Indianapolis.

Prior to working at UNC, Luke was the assistant video coordinator at Texas A&M from 2004-08. Luke was the leader in educating and implementing a file transfer program allowing all Big 12 schools to be the first BCS conference to successfully exchange football game video over its peer to peer network. Previously, Luke worked for two years at Missouri as the assistant director of video operations and was in charge of the daily operations of the football staff while assisting in the video management of 22 sports. Prior to that appointment, Luke did his graduate work in the speech communication instructional technology department at Northern Illinois University while serving as the football video coordinator for two seasons. Luke began his career at Eastern Illinois as the student video coordinator in 1994, and graduated with bachelor of arts in speech communications with an emphasis in radio/television production in December of 1998.

Luke is in his sixth year as the Vice President of the CSVA, which promotes the role of the video professional in sports.

Luke is a native of Hoopeston, Ill. He is married to the former Sabra Hubbert of Sikeston, Mo. They have two sons, Travis and Truman.

FOOTBALL
SEVENTH YEAR AT UNC

Scott Trulock is in his seventh season as the football team's Head Athletic Trainer for Football, where he heads a staff of two full-time assistants and two graduate assistants.

Trulock came to Carolina after spending 11 years in the NFL. He served as the assistant athletic trainer for the Denver Broncos on Mike Shanahan's staff from 2004-06. Previously, he was the director of rehabilitation in Tampa Bay under coach Jon Gruden from 2002-03. Trulock won a ring in 2002 with Tampa in Super Bowl XXXVII.

Trulock began his career as assistant athletic trainer with the Philadelphia Eagles from 1996-98 and also worked for the San Diego Chargers from 1999-2001.

While working in the NFL, Trulock was a member of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers' Society (PFTAS). Within the Society, he served as the director of research for the PFATS Research and Education Foundation. In this role, he was responsible for spearheading the surveillance of injury data in order to establish trends in injury patterns to NFL players. In addition, Trulock has presented at many local, state, and national meetings.

Trulock received his master's degree in athletic training from UNC in 1996. Actively involved in research since his days as a student at Carolina, Trulock utilizes the full complement of physicians, faculty and researchers in the sports medicine department to provide cutting edge healthcare for UNC's football student-athletes.

A native of Orlando, Fla., Trulock earned his undergraduate degree in sports medicine at Valdosta State in 1994. Scott and his wife, Jamie, have two daughters, Corinne and Riley.

ANDRE' WILLIAMS

BUBBA CUNNINGHAM

Athletic Director

Second Year at UNC

Lawrence R. (Bubba) Cunningham is in his second year as the director of athletics at the University of North Carolina. Cunningham officially began his duties at UNC on November 14, 2011, succeeding long-time AD Dick Baddour.

Cunningham is the seventh director of athletics in Carolina history, following Robert A. Fetzner (1923-52), Chuck Erickson (1953-67), Homer Rice (1969-75), Bill Cobey (1976-80), John Swofford (1980-97) and Baddour (1998-2012).

One of Cunningham's first accomplishments at UNC was the development of a strategic plan for Carolina athletics. A planning committee worked with Dr. Paul Friga, associate professor of strategy and entrepreneurship at Carolina's Kenan-Flagler School of Business throughout the process and created the mission statement - "We Educate and Inspire Through Athletics." The plan also identified four core values for Carolina Athletics- Responsibility, Innovation, Service and Excellence.

"Our number one priority is for athletics to be part of the educational experience of all students at the University, those who compete in our 28 varsity sports as well as those who do not," says Cunningham. "Athletics provides academic and competitive opportunities for more than 700 students, and is part of a unifying spirit for thousands of other students, faculty, staff and alumni."

College athletics has seen many changes in recent years and Cunningham has Carolina positioned to have a voice in the on-going conversation about the future, whether it is in the state university system, the Atlantic Coast Conference or at the NCAA level. As part of UNC's commitment to excellence, he commissioned a compliance review by an outside firm and is currently designing a master plan for UNC's facilities.

In 2012-13, Cunningham's first full season at UNC, Carolina finished eighth in the NACDA Director's Cup on the strength of national championships in women's soccer and women's lacrosse. The Tar Heels also had top-10 finishes in field hockey (second), baseball (third), men's lacrosse (fifth), men's soccer (fifth) and women's tennis (fifth). The women's tennis team captured the ITA national indoor title and six other programs finished in the top 25 - women's swimming (12th), fencing (13th), men's basketball (17th), women's basketball (17th), volleyball (17th) and wrestling (22nd).

The UNC women's athletics program captured the 2013 Capital One Cup, which is awarded to the best men's and women's Division I athletics programs in the country. For winning its first Capital One Cup, the Tar Heels earned $200,000 toward student-athlete scholarships and a spot at the annual ESPY Awards show in Los Angeles.

Carolina student-athletes excelled in the classroom as well. During the 2011-12 academic calendar, 290 student-athletes made the ACC Academic Honor Roll, which requires a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0 for the year. In the fall of 2011, 129 student-athletes made the Dean's List, and 124 did so in the spring of 2012.

Cunningham has hired coaches in football and track and field and the future is bright for both programs. Charismatic Larry Fedora was hired from Southern Miss, and in his first year at UNC, he won eight games and tied for first place in the ACC's Coastal Division. The Tar Heels went 6-1 at home, including wins over Virginia Tech, NC State and East Carolina. Track and field coach Harlis Meaders, a 1992 UNC grad, replaced long-time coach Dennis Craddock who retired.

Cunningham is in his 11th year as a Division I director of athletics. He came to Chapel Hill after spending the previous six years as the director of athletics at the University of Tulsa. He also was the AD for three years from 2002-2005 at Ball State University. He was honored as the 2008-09 FBS Central Region Athletics Director of the Year, an award presented by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics.

At Tulsa, Cunningham guided the Golden Hurricane through its initial move to Conference USA and spearheaded a $60 million athletics initiative, which included a $20 million renovation to Skelly Field at H.A. Chapman Stadium, a goal of $20 million for an athletics scholarship endowment and $20 million for coaches' salary endowment.

Cunningham implemented and developed a strategic plan for personal and professional growth and development for Tulsa's student-athletes, coaches and staff. He presided over the completion of the $8.5 million Case Athletic Complex, which houses football offices and academic support center for student-athletes.

Tulsa won 34 league championships in his tenure, more than any other school in Conference USA. Men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, men's and women's golf, men's soccer, softball, men's and women's tennis and volleyball participated in post-season play. The football program played in five bowl games in his last six years, winning four of those games.

Cunningham hired former Tulsa football coach Todd Graham, who led the Golden Hurricane to three 10-win seasons in a four-year span, the first time it had been accomplished in school history.

Tulsa student-athletes excelled academically, earning 17 ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America performances over the last five years. More than 170 student-athletes earned Conference USA Commissioner's Honor Roll accolades each season, including 199 in 2009-10, and 11 student-athletes won C-USA Scholar Athlete of the Year honors.

In 2010-11, the Golden Hurricane finished 51st nationally in the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup, Tulsa's highest finish in the history of the competition.

Tulsa hosted the 2011 NCAA Basketball Second & Third Rounds and the 2008 NCAA Men's and Women's Division I Tennis National Championship.

At Ball State, Cunningham led a program with 19 intercollegiate sports and a budget of $12.4 million. In his final year, Ball State completed a $12 million campaign to renovate the football stadium. In raising those funds, Cunningham secured the largest single gift in Ball State athletics history.

Under the leadership of Brady Hoke, whom Cunningham hired in 2003, the Cardinals played the first-ever night game in Ball State Stadium and developed a marketing plan that helped set a record for football season attendance. He was able to secure funding exclusively from private donors to have permanent lights installed at Ball State Stadium.

From 1988-2002, Cunningham worked in the athletics department at the University of Notre Dame. Cunningham served as associate director of athletics for external affairs from 2000-02. He renegotiated the school's footwear contract, developed a communications and marketing plan, created marketing teams for all 26 varsity sports, increased corporate sponsorship income, created a financial/equity plan for the department and served as chairman of the NCAA Division I Women's Golf Committee.

He served as Notre Dame's associate athletics director for finance and facilities from 1995-2000. Cunningham was responsible for developing an equity plan to meet Title IX requirements, completed the master plan for athletic facilities, coordinated the bid process and negotiation with Westwood for football radio rights and helped plan and complete the $50 million renovation and 20,000-seat expansion of Notre Dame Stadium. He also coordinated the planning and construction of the Warren Golf Course, an 18-hole championship course on the Notre Dame campus.

Cunningham earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in business administration, both from Notre Dame, in 1984 and 1988, respectively. He played on the Irish golf team in 1982-83.

Cunningham serves on the NCAA Division I Men's Golf Committee, is a member of NACDA's Executive Committee, and was on the Board of Directors of the Alzheimers Association of Oklahoma and the Folds of Honor Foundation Board. Cunningham also served on the Gatorade National Advisory Board and has been a featured speaker at numerous NACDA and I-A institute conferences.

Born in Flint, Mich., and raised in Naples, Fla., Cunningham and his wife, Tina, have four children: Matthew, Michael, John and Sarah.

CHANCELLOR

CAROL FOLT

“We’re going to make sure that our students don’t simply learn what we know, but they learn how to create what will be. We want Carolina graduates to be the leaders in creating new industries for the future.”

CAROL L. FOLT TOOK OFFICE AS CAROLINA’S 11TH CHANCELLOR AND FIRST WOMAN LEADER ON JULY 1, 2013.

An internationally recognized environmental scientist and award-winning teacher, Folt served as interim president of Dartmouth College during 2012-2013. She also was Dartmouth Professor of Biological Sciences at the prestigious Ivy League institution.

At Carolina, Folt’s initial focus is on what students take away from their experience. “We’re going to make sure that our students don’t simply learn what we know, but they learn how to create what will be,” she says. “We want Carolina graduates to be the leaders in creating new industries for the future.”

An Akron, Ohio, native, Folt is a proud product of public higher education. Her parents were the first in their families to attend college. She worked her way through the University of California at Santa Barbara as a waitress, earning a bachelor’s degree in aquatic biology in 1976 and a master’s degree in biology two years later. She received her doctorate in ecology in 1982 from the University of California at Davis and did postdoctoral work at the W.K. Kellogg Biological Station of Michigan State University.

After joining the Dartmouth faculty in 1983, Folt rose steadily through the academic and administrative ranks. She was named associate director of Dartmouth’s Toxic Metals Research Program in 1998, and two years later became associate director of the Center for Environmental Health Sciences. In 2001, she was appointed dean of graduate studies and associate dean of the faculty for interdisciplinary programs. She was promoted to dean of the faculty in 2004, tapped as acting provost in 2009, and named provost in 2010.

As interim president, Folt helped identify opportunities for greater collaboration across schools to enhance academic quality and competitiveness, oversaw growth in global partnerships, and augmented support for faculty, student and community entrepreneurship and technological innovation. She spearheaded a year-long focus on the arts, co-education and the future of higher education. As provost, she led the first strategic planning process, engaging hundreds of faculty, staff and students. Following the economic downturn, she co-led efforts to resolve a $100-million budget gap.

Folt’s research has focused on the effects of dietary mercury and arsenic on human and ecosystem health, salmonid fisheries management and restoration, and global climate change. She and colleagues developed new technologies to assess mercury exposure and formed regional, national and international partnerships to shape public policy for safer waters. She is a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Folt is married to David Peart, a fellow professor of biological sciences at Dartmouth. They have two adult children, Noah and Tessa.

THE RAMS CLUB

On December 7, 1938, a group of UNC supporters took a step that forever changed the face of Carolina Athletics.

The incorporation of The Educational Foundation (a.k.a. The Rams Club) has resulted in hundreds of millions of dollars in scholarship support to thousands of Carolina student-athletes; financial assistance only made possible through the commitment from tens of thousands of Rams Club members over the past 75 years.

While the generosity and longevity of The Rams Club has been remarkable, these have only been THE FIRST 75 YEARS of supporting Carolina's student-athletes. As we recognize this milestone over the course of this next year, we'll celebrate the tremendous accomplishments made possible with member support and look forward to the achievements that are yet to come.

OUR MISSION

The Educational Foundation, Inc., was chartered December 7, 1938, to provide assistance to the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill for the following: to offer financial aid to worthy young men and women seeking an education at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and to support University programs by providing services and funds for the construction of facilities or purchase of equipment.

$175M
in Scholarship

Over
Scholarships
since 1938.

It's no coincidence that as we celebrate being one of the oldest fundraising organizations in all of college sports, we also celebrate Carolina Athletics' position as one of the most successful college athletics programs in history. This year is so special because it gives us a chance to recognize the incredible support of Rams Club members over the past seven and a half decades. There is no question that without that support, Carolina Athletics would not be in the position it is today.

As we remember the incredible on-field and off-field achievements of Carolina student-athletes since 1938, it's important we also continue to realize that we're not done. There will be another four-time All American, another Olympian, another revolutionary doctor, another innovative businessman, another amazing mother – with your continued support, we can all look forward to seeing who they will be. After all, these really have only been THE FIRST 75.

Incredible support from the 16,000 members of The Rams Club has enabled us to continually accomplish our primary goal: provide scholarship funding for Carolina's student-athletes. Member support has been integral in establishing Carolina as a leader in collegiate athletics.

Members of The Rams Club enjoy many great benefits – the most rewarding benefits being your commitment to provide opportunities for worthy young men and women to represent Carolina. Rams Club members also receive ticket priority over the general public for football, men's and women's basketball and baseball as well as exclusive access to the latest Carolina news and special events. For more information about how you can help secure the future success of Carolina Athletics and enjoy the benefits of being a Rams Club member, visit RamsClub.com or call The Rams Club at 919.843.2000.

KENAN STADIUM

CAROLINA FOOTBALL 2013 KENAN STADIUM

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA • GOHEELS.COM • @TARHEELFOOTBALL

Carolina football plays its home games at Kenan Memorial Stadium (cap. 63,000), one of the most picturesque athletic venues in America. Kenan Stadium has been the home of the Tar Heels since 1927 and the thrill of playing in or attending a game there is as exhilarating now as it was when it was first constructed.

Considering its majestic setting among the Carolina pines, many observers say Kenan Stadium is the most beautiful football facility in the country. For scenery, atmosphere and charm, it cannot be surpassed.

The stadium has been expanded several times since its completion in 1927. In each instance, though, great care was taken to keep its fundamental beauty intact.

In 2011, Carolina opened the Loudermilk Center for Excellence and a premium seating section named the Blue Zone. Alumnus R. Charles "Charlie" Loudermilk Sr. of Atlanta made a $7.5 million donation to fund the 150,000 square-foot facility that serves all of Carolina's nearly 800 student-athletes across 28 sports.

The Loudermilk Center's largest feature is the John W. Pope Student-Athlete Academic Support Center. This 29,000 square-foot facility provides classrooms for teaching and tutoring, advanced computer technology, a writing lab, reading rooms and office space. It is also home to the Baddour Carolina Leadership Academy, which offers leadership training to Carolina student-athletes, coaches and staff. A $3 million gift from the Raleigh-based John William Pope Foundation funded the academic support center.

Also housed in the Loudermilk Center is a strength and conditioning center for Carolina's Olympic sports programs, facilities for men's lacrosse and a visitor's locker room that can be split to host high school football championships. Other features include premium seating for fans watching football games, as well as office and operations space for the department of athletics.

The Blue Zone offers 1,836 seats in the Concourse Club/Loge just a few feet from the field, 824 seats in the Upper Club/Loge on the fourth floor and 320 seats in 20 suites on the fifth floor. Combined, the project adds 2,980 seats to the stadium's capacity. The project also ties the north and south concourses together and provides the stadium with 360 degree concourse to enhance fan movement in the facility.

Located in the west end zone, the Kenan Football Center was completed in 1997 and houses the operational needs of the Carolina football program. The football center includes the UNC locker room, weight room, training room, equipment room, players' lounge, computer labs and study areas, 100-plus seat auditorium, coaches' offices, theater and Hall of Honor.

An additional floor was added to the Kenan Football Center after the 2008 season. The fifth floor contains additional office and recruiting space for the day-to-day operations of the football program, four pregame gathering areas, a larger video and studio facility and a state-of-the-art press conference area. The recruiting area and suites also are used as academic study areas during the week. The second floor was completely renovated for increased football meeting spaces, including bigger individual position meeting rooms and a larger team meeting room. The fourth floor renovations added additional office space for football support staff.

The Charlie Justice Hall of Honor, located on the ground floor, is a multi-media history of Carolina football. Photographs, awards, trophies and artifacts detailing the rich and storied history

THE STADIUM

"One moment you are deep in the green and the blaze of autumn leaves, and the next the curtain has disappeared, the land falls away and the panorama of long, graceful lines and gently sweeping curves spreads out ... The picture fits exactly; it was made for its frame and its frame for it."

— Carolina Alumni Review, Fall 1927

Kenan Memorial Stadium remains today as it was nearly a century ago — quite simply one of the most picturesque athletic venues in America. UNC's alumni magazine saluted the natural beauty of the new stadium upon its opening on Nov. 24, 1927; some 28,000 fans watched as the Tar Heels edged Virginia by one point.

Since then, Kenan Stadium has been home to great teams and outstanding players and the battleground for thousands of memorable football games on crystalline autumn Saturdays. From modest beginnings—single levels of seats on each side of the playing field and a simple field house—the facility has evolved with the times but has preserved its aesthetic appeal. Among the significant expansion projects have been the addition of the upper decks in 1963; the construction of the south side press box, installation of permanent lights and addition of 2,000 choice seats between the 40 yard-lines in 1988; the addition of some 8,000 seats in the west end zone bowl and the construction of the Frank H. Kenan Football Center and the John Pope Box in 1997; the addition of the fifth floor to the Kenan Football Center in 2010; and the 2011 addition of Blue Zone seating area in the east end zone and the opening of The Loudermilk Center for Excellence.

The theater is a 30-person mini-theater equipped with surround sound and seven dramatic videos presenting the history of UNC football.

A number of rooms in the Kenan Football Center have been dedicated in the honor or memory of Carolina's benefactors, fans and athletic personalities. They include the Brinkley Lounge, the fourth floor reception area named for Harvey M. Brinkley Jr.; the Don McCauley/Paul Miller Head Coach's Suite; the Norman M. Carolina football plays its home games at Kenan Memorial Stadium (cap. 63,000), one of the most picturesque athletic venues in America. Kenan Stadium has been the home of the Tar Heels since 1927 and the thrill of playing in or attending a game there is as exhilarating now as it was when it was first constructed.

The 1997 expansion project, in which great care was taken to ensure that the surrounding environment would be altered as little as possible, was the first project to connect the north and south concourses to either end of the lower deck via the third level of the Kenan Center. That project also added nearly 8,000 seats, a state-of-the-art football facility, chancellor's box and preferred seating box. The Rams Club and its members committed more than $50 million to the project.

Frank H. Kenan, one of the school's most generous benefactors. Kenan was a Durham resident and chief executive officer of Kenan Transport Company in Chapel Hill. He passed away at age 83 in 1996.

Kenan, a 1935 Carolina graduate, was the great-great-grandson of General James Kenan, a member of the University's founding board of trustees. An Atlanta native, Kenan had a tremendous impact on the growth of the University. He served on many campus boards, including the Board of Visitors and the Educational Foundation Board of Directors.

In recent years the William R. Kenan Jr. Charitable Trust, of which he was a trustee, has donated more than $100 million to schools in the state's consolidated university system, including Carolina, NC State and the N.C. School of the Arts. Among other things, the trust funds 92 William R. Kenan Jr. Professorships at 56 colleges and universities nationwide.

Kenan served on the steering committee of Carolina's Bicentennial Campaign, the University's largest fund-raising effort. Gifts by him, his family and the trust during the campaign exceeded $31 million. The largest portion of that was targeted for the business school. In 1991 the school was renamed the Kenan-Flagler Business School after a $10 million gift.

The preferred seating box that rises above the second deck of the grandstand on the north side of the stadium has outdoor seating for almost 1,200 spectators. That includes the Chancellor's Box on the second level of the box 45 feet above the ground. The fourth level, 68 feet high, has outdoor seating for more than 1,000, plus concessions and a 7,500 square foot lounge. There is a smaller lounge and food preparation areas on the third floor.

The Kenan Football Center and preferred seating box were the predominant changes in a multi-year renovation plan that began in 1995. A new playing field was installed that spring. The new turf included an improved drainage system beneath the field that drains through the field itself rather than off the sides of the field as in the past. Prior to the 1996 season the restrooms and concession stands were expanded and renovated.

Another significant stadium expansion took place prior to 1988 and involved adding 2,000 choice seats between the 40-yard lines where the press box and chancellor's box formerly stood. A new press box was constructed on top of the upper deck on the stadium's south side. It is a one-level elongated structure, running from 10-yard line to 10-yard line.

Also part of the 1987-88 project were a permanent lighting system, a chancellor's lounge on the north side of the field and a football lettermen's lounge on the south side. The lights are part of a General Electric low-mount system which minimizes the height of the lightpoles. Cost of the entire project was $7 million. It was

THE KENAN FAMILY

James Kenan of Duplin was one of the original trustees of the fledgling campus in Chapel Hill and was present on Oct. 12, 1793, when the cornerstone to Old East was laid. Since then, the Kenan Family has held an integral role in the evolution of UNC as one of the top academic and athletic institutions in the nation.

William Rand Kenan Sr. and his wife Mary Hargrave Kenan are the namesakes for Kenan Memorial Stadium. Kenan was the grandson of James Kenan and the father of William Rand Kenan Jr., whose fortune made in the early 1900s in chemicals, power, railroads and hotels financed the construction of the stadium in 1926-27. William Jr., an 1894 Carolina graduate and Tar Heel halfback in football and later a professor in chemistry, honored his parents with the naming of the stadium.

William Rand Kenan Jr. & Bob Fetzer

Another branch of the Kenan family included Frank H. Kenan (right), a Tar Heel football player in the 1930s, a 1935 Carolina graduate and a successful businessman with interests in oil, trucking and real estate. Mr. Kenan had a tremendous impact on the growth of the University. He served on many campus boards, including the Board of Visitors and the Educational Foundation Board of Directors. He passed away in 1996 at the age of 83, just one year before seeing the new football center in his name open for the 1997 season.

Today the Kenan legacy lives on through the William R. Kenan Jr. Charitable Trust, which has donated more than $100 million to schools in the state's consolidated university system, including Carolina, N.C. State and the N.C. School of the Arts. Among other things, the trust funds 92 William R. Kenan Jr. Professorships at 56 colleges and universities nationwide.

CHARLES LOUDERMILK

The Loudermilk Center for Excellence was made possible in part by a generous contribution from R. Charles Loudermilk Sr., a long-time friend and benefactor of UNC academic and athletic interests. Born in Atlanta, Mr. Loudermilk graduated from Carolina in 1950 with a degree in commerce and was good friends with many Tar Heels who made the Justice Era of the late 1940s such a memorable chapter in Tar Heel football.

In 1955, Mr. Loudermilk launched a furniture rental business in his hometown, naming it Aaron Rents so that it would be listed first in the phone book. The business grew into a multi-billion dollar concern and today is known as Aaron's, Inc.

Mr. Loudermilk in 2011 remained as chairman of the company. His past support of Carolina includes gifts to expand the Kenan-Flagler Business School's executive education facilities at the Rizzo Conference Center. He was also the major contributor toward the statue of Charlie Justice that stands outside the Kenan Football Center. Mr. Loudermilk's many honors include the William R. Davie Award, the highest recognition given by the UNC Board of Trustees. He has also served on the Board of Visitors of UNC's Kenan-Flagler Business School.

JOHN WILLIAM POPE FOUNDATION

The Raleigh-based John William Pope Foundation has a long history of providing funds for academic support in the Carolina Athletic Department. The academic support center connected to the original Kenan Field House was erected in the 1980s and later named for John W. Pope, a 1947 UNC graduate who contributed significantly to the Kenan Stadium expansion in the mid-1990s. This new building carries on the tradition through the John W. Pope Student-Athlete Academic Support Center, a 29,000 square foot facility that provides classrooms for teaching and tutoring, advanced computer technology, a writing lab, reading rooms and office space. It is also the home to the Carolina Leadership Academy, which offers leadership training to Carolina student-athletes, coaches and staff. Mr. Pope took five discount variety stores started in Fuquay-Varina by his father, James, and turned them into Variety Wholesalers, a successful network of more than 500 stores that continues to flourish into the 21st century. Mr. Pope passed away in 2006, and today the company is led by James Arthur "Art" Pope of Raleigh, a 1978 Carolina graduate who is also chairman and president of the John William Pope Foundation, which funds numerous charities and free market oriented organizations.

funded by private gifts and bonds.

William Rand Kenan Jr. deserves the credit for originally making the stadium a part of the University. He was born in North Carolina in 1873 and graduated from Carolina in 1894. An international industrialist, Kenan discovered carbide and made monumental progress in the field of chemistry. During his business career he was president of The Florida East Coast Railroad, The Florida East Coast Hotel Company, The West Palm Beach

Water Company and the Florida East Coast Car Ferry Company.

He was a director of Florida Power and Light Company and built the first power plant in Miami in the early 1900s.

The stadium was built as a memorial to his parents, William R. Kenan and Mary Hargrave Kenan. Construction began in November 1926 and was completed the following August. Complete cost of the stadium and accompanying fieldhouse was $303,000.

Originally, the stadium was to be built through funds raised by alumni donations, and by June 1926, a group of nearly 40 alumni had contributed $27,926. At this time, however, a copy of the prospectus and plan of financing the stadium came into the hands of Kenan, who expressed an interest in the proposal. Kenan was considering establishing a memorial to his parents, and the pressing need for a stadium and the possibilities of the beauty, dignity and permanence it presented, suggested to him that the benefaction he contemplated may well take the form of a memorial stadium. The Stadium Committee immediately endorsed his proposal and on the very day in November 1926 on which Kenan visited the planned site, he announced his financial gift to build the stadium.

Kenan remained very interested in Kenan Stadium throughout his lifetime. In the 1950s he gave a $1,000,000 contribution to construct a second deck on the stadium. After Kenan's death in 1965 the William R. Kenan Jr. Charitable Trust, which was established by his will, donated $1,000,000 to enlarge and modernize Kenan Fieldhouse.

In 1988 the Kenan Trust made another $1,000,000 gift to complete the new chancellor's box on the north side. Another lasting memory of William R. Kenan Jr. is the Kenan Athletic Scholarship Endowment, valued at over $1,000,000. Each year a student-athlete is awarded a full scholarship from this fund.

Besides giving the stadium to the University, Mr. Kenan also sponsored and financed the famous Kenan Professorships. He was awarded the honorary degree of LL.D. by his alma mater in 1944.

In the first game played there, Carolina defeated Davidson, 27-0, on November 12, 1927.

Carolina's all-time record at Kenan Stadium is 278-174-16. The most points scored by the Tar Heels in Kenan came in the third game played there as Carolina whipped Wake Forest, 65-0, in the 1928 season opener.

As originally built, the stadium seated 24,000. However, in 1963 the benefactor added portable stands and then an upper deck to the permanent stands, which increased capacity to 48,000. That was expanded to 50,000 in 1979, 52,000 in 1988, 57,500 in 1997, 60,000 in 1998 and 63,000 in 2011.

At the east end of the stadium is the Kenan Fieldhouse, home of the Student-Athlete Development Center. A 20,000 square foot building, it is a one-of-a-kind facility. For study purposes, it contains a language lab, video room, computer lab, theatre-style lecture hall, several reading rooms and numerous tutorial rooms. UNC's academic counseling staff has the advantage of using the most modern techniques in assisting student-athletes.

Capacity crowds have come to be expected at Kenan. In 1997, the Tar Heels played in front of a record-shattering crowd of 62,000 on Nov. 8, 1997, as fifth-ranked Carolina battled No. 2 Florida State. The largest crowd to watch a game prior to the most recent major expansion was 54,300 as Carolina defeated N.C. State, 31-17, in 1994.

The 1983 season saw another first in the stadium — a game played under artificial lights. The Carolina-Duke game was played in the late afternoon so it could be televised throughout the ACC area. Portable lights were brought in since the second half was played after sunset. Portable lights were also used in the 1987 Clemson game which was televised nationally by ESPN.

The 1991 season opener versus Cincinnati and that season's Clemson game, which was televised nationally by ESPN, were the first true night games ever played at Kenan Stadium.

FEDORA'S TAR HEELS SHINE IN 2012

In their first season under head coach Larry Fedora, the Tar Heels found success despite the odds. Highlighting the 2012 campaign was UNC's 8-4 record which gave Carolina a share of the ACC Coastal Division Championship as well as the legendary punt return by Giovani Bernard that sealed a 43-35 victory over rival NC State, the first win over the Wolfpack in five years.

With routs of 62-0 over Elon and 66-0 over Idaho, Carolina's offense shined throughout the season behind the No. 7 overall NFL Draft pick Jonathan Cooper, a consensus All-America selection and Outland Trophy Finalist, and Bernard, the ACC Player of the Year (CBSSports.com) and the first running back selected in the 2013 NFL Draft. Other big wins for the Tar Heels included an 18-14 road win over Miami and their second-straight victory in Charlottesville over Virginia, 37-13. Three of UNC's four losses were by five or fewer points, while a 68-50 loss to Georgia Tech was the highest scoring football game in ACC history.

LB • Kevin Reddick

QUICK HITS

- UNC averaged 48.7 points per game at home in 2012, including two with more than 60 points.
- Carolina averaged 485.6 yards per game, which is more than 40 yards per game more than the single-season school record of 441.8 in 1983.
- All-ACC tailback Giovani Bernard led the ACC in rushing yards per game, punt return average, scoring per game and all-purpose yards per game. Nationally, Bernard finished 11th in rushing, second in punt returns, fourth and fifth in scoring in all-purpose yards. Bernard had 19 touchdowns.
- Bernard had 1,228 rushing yards and became the first Carolina player with back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons since Natrone Means in 1991 (1,030) and 1992 (1,195).
- Despite missing two games, Giovani Bernard led the ACC with 19 touchdowns. He and tailback A.J. Blue (10) combined to score a school-record 29 touchdowns.
- QB Bryn Renner had 28 touchdown passes, breaking his own school record of 26 set in 2011.

Renner is the only player in UNC history to throw for 20 or more touchdowns in multiple seasons.

- Carolina ranked third in the country in tackles for loss with 8.1 per game. LB Kevin Reddick (18.5) led the team followed DE Kareem Martin (15.5) and DT Sylvester Williams (13.5).
- TE Eric Ebron set UNC's single-season school record for catches (40) and yards (625) by a tight end.
- WR Erik Highsmith finished his career third all-time at UNC with 166 receptions.
- Carolina led the ACC and was ninth in the nation in sacks allowed per game (0.9).
- Carolina ranked first in the ACC and 20th in the country with 16 interceptions. Eight different players had at least one interception, and the Tar Heels returned an interception for a touchdown in back-to-back games against Georgia Tech and Virginia.

Kenan Stadium • Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. - Giovanni Bernard had three first-half touchdowns and North Carolina had its biggest scoring day in 17 years to beat Elon 62-0 in the debut of new coach Larry Fedora.

Bernard had a 59-yard TD run down the left sideline, a 6-yard scoring catch and a 70-yard punt return for a score down the right sideline -- all by the 12-minute mark of the second quarter. Bernard finished with 93 yards rushing and 203 all-purpose yards before leaving late in the first half with an apparent injury, the most impressive performer in the Tar Heels' new no-huddle spread attack.

Bryn Renner threw for 236 yards and three touchdowns for the Tar Heels, who had 524 total yards in both teams' opener.

North Carolina finished three points shy of tying the school record and had its best output since beating Ohio 62-0 under Mack Brown in September 1995.

It was also the Tar Heels' first shutout since beating Duke 38-0 to close the 1999 season.

Thomas Wilson threw for 99 yards on a forgettable day for the Phoenix, an FCS school located about 40 miles west of Chapel Hill and coming off a five-win season. Wilson struggled to get the ball to receiver Aaron Mellette, who set a Southern Conference record with 1,639 yards to go with 12 touchdowns last season but had just two catches for 9 yards Saturday. Elon finished with 170 total yards against UNC's new 4-2-5 defense.

Bernard ran for 1,253 yards and 12 touchdowns last season, becoming the first UNC player to rush for 1,000 yards in a season since 1997. The sophomore tailback was en route to a huge day before heading to the locker room shortly before halftime, and he wasn't spotted on the UNC sideline when the team came out for the second half.

By that point, however, the Tar Heels led 41-0 for their highest-scoring first half in three years.

BB&T Field • Winston-Salem, N.C.

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - Tanner Price scored on a 1-yard sneak with 2:09 left to help Wake Forest rally past North Carolina 28-27 in the Atlantic Coast Conference opener for both teams.

Price threw for a career-high 327 yards for the Demon Deacons (2-0, 1-0), who struggled to generate much offense throughout the second half until the decisive drive.

Starting from Wake Forest's own 7-yard line, Price calmly directed an 11-play, 93-yard scoring drive that ended when he pushed his way through the right side of the line for the go-ahead score.

Bryn Renner had two final chances to bring back the Tar Heels (1-1, 0-1), but he threw a fourth-down interception with 1:25 left that let the Demon Deacons melt most of the clock. He got the ball back at his own 1 with 17 seconds and no timeouts, but reached only the 40 before his final desperation heave was knocked away.

While Price was steady in the clutch, his top target - receiver Michael Campanaro - had his way with the Tar Heels' secondary. Campanaro finished with career-best totals of 13 catches for 164 yards, including a 15-yarder on the drive to the go-ahead score.

For much of the second half, the Tar Heels looked like they would earn their first road and ACC win under new coach Larry Fedora. With starting tailback Gio Bernard out with a knee injury, North Carolina got plenty of production from fill-in starter A.J. Blue (106 yards and a touchdown) and Romar Morris (70 yards and a TD) while getting more pressure on Price up front.

After trailing 21-14 at halftime, UNC tied the game on Morris' 4-yard run with 4:45 left in the third quarter, but the Tar Heels gave up two chances to really take control. They settled for a short field goal from Casey Barth after Tim Scott's interception gave the Tar Heels a first-and-goal from the 8. Then they settled for another kick from Barth after driving all the way to the Wake Forest 13-yard line early in the fourth quarter.

Then came two ineffective drives, setting up the Demon Deacons' final push.

Papa John's Cardinal Stadium • Louisville, Ky.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. - North Carolina mounted a furious second-half rally to pull within five points late but came up four yards short, as No. 19 Louisville held on for a 39-34 win at Papa John's Cardinal Stadium.

Bryn Renner threw for 363 yards and a school-record five touchdowns and Carolina outscored the Cardinals 27-3 after halftime, but fell to 1-2 on the year.

UL sprinted out of the gate, scoring on its first six possessions to take a 36-7 lead into the break. The Cardinals amassed 19 first downs and 360 total yards in the opening half, with the lone bright spot for Carolina coming on Romar Morris' 44-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter.

The Tar Heels came out of the locker room a changed team and earned their first defensive stop of the game when Tommy Heffernan stopped Senorise Perry on 4th-and-1 at the UNC 20. Renner then marched the visitors 79 yards on 11 plays, culminating in a 2-yard strike to Eric Ebron with 5:09 left in the third.

After a U of L field goal early in the fourth quarter made it 39-14, Carolina scored on back-to-back possessions in a span of just five minutes to pull within 11. Renner hit Erik Highsmith for a 9-yard score. After forcing a quick three-and-out, Morris leapt through the pile to block the Louisville punt. Kendrick Singleton recovered the loose ball and UNC took over on the Cardinal 5.

It would take just one play for the Tar Heels to convert the big play into points as Renner again found Ebron for a 5-yard touchdown to make it a two-possession game. The Carolina defense got another stop and this time it was Renner to Morris, as the redshirt freshman broke a screen pass for 50 yards and a touchdown to make it 39-34.

Renner's five scoring throws matched a school record established by Darian Durant in 2002.

 Kenan Stadium • Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. - Giovanni Bernard scored two touchdowns in his return from a knee injury and North Carolina took over after halftime to beat East Carolina 27-6.

Bryn Renner threw for 321 yards and two touchdowns for the Tar Heels (2-2), who had fallen behind in the first half of the past two games then rallied after the break only to suffer close losses. This time, North Carolina led 10-6 at halftime then broke the game open with two quick touchdowns in the third quarter to beat the in-state Pirates for the fourth straight season.

The biggest news for North Carolina was the return of Bernard, who had missed two straight games since hurting his left knee in the season-opening win against Elon. He had a 14-yard scoring catch from Renner in the first quarter and added a 4-yard TD run in the third.

Bernard didn't have a big rushing day, finishing with 50 yards on 18 carries. But his presence certainly demanded plenty of defensive attention and opened up things for Renner, who completed 27 of 43 passes a week after throwing for a career-high 363 yards and five touchdowns at Louisville.

By comparison, the Pirates (2-2) struggled to sustain drives, twice settled for first-half field goals after stalling inside the 10-yard line on long drives and finished with 233 total yards.

North Carolina took control in the third quarter when Renner went deep downfield to Sean Tapley, who got behind defender Joshua Hawkins for the catch then shed Hawkins' desperate tackle attempt for a 62-yard touchdown that made it 17-6.

Shane Carden fumbled on a sack on the next possession to give the ball to the Tar Heels at the 15, and Bernard ran it in four plays later to push the lead to 24-6 with 7:55 left in the third.

Carden threw for 124 yards and overthrew an open Danny Webster in the back of the end zone on the second field-goal drive of the first half. He was also sacked seven times, UNC's best total in a game since 2000.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. - The points kept coming - touchdown after touchdown - until North Carolina had a new school record to go with a shutout win.

Giovani Bernard scored twice, Bryn Renner threw three touchdown passes and the Tar Heels set a single-game scoring record in a 66-0 win against Idaho.

The Tar Heels (3-2) had six different players reach the end zone. Backup quarterback Marquise Williams scored on a 4-yard keeper early in the fourth, breaking the previous record of 65 points in shutout wins against Virginia Medical in 1914 and Wake Forest in 1928.

The Tar Heels finished with 575 yards despite playing in a steady downpour nearly all afternoon. The game was so one-sided that Bernard had just two carries while Renner played one snap after halftime against the Vandals (0-5).

This time, the Tar Heels scored three touchdowns in the first eight minutes, led 45-0 by halftime and played the second half in a largely empty stadium as fans bolted early amid the driving rain and lack of on-field drama.

The win gave North Carolina momentum heading into next week's home game against Virginia Tech, the first of seven straight Atlantic Coast Conference games to close Fedora's first season. The Tar Heels have won two straight home games by a combined score of 93-6 and haven't given up a touchdown since allowing a short scoring pass in the final minute of the first half at Louisville on Sept. 15 - a span of 10 quarters.

UNC blocked two punts in the first half, the first deep in Idaho's end to set up a 2-yard scoring run from Bernard. The sophomore also broke free for a 68-yard scoring run in the second quarter on what turned out to be his final carry.

Renner completed 14 of 18 passes for 231 yards in the first half, coming in after halftime for one play when Williams had to come out after losing his helmet.

Carolina 48, Virginia Tech 34
 Kenan Stadium • Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. - Giovanni Bernard outrushed the entire Virginia Tech team on a single carry - twice. He had a career day against a traditionally tough Hokies defense that doesn't allow many of those.

Yes, this was quite a statement - not just for himself, but for the future of his North Carolina team.

Bernard rushed for a personal-best 262 yards with a key long touchdown to lead the Tar Heels past slumping Virginia Tech 48-34.

Sean Tapley returned a kickoff 94 yards for a touchdown and added a 19-yard scoring catch from Bryn Renner for the Tar Heels (4-2, 1-1 Atlantic Coast Conference), who won their third straight, rolled up 533 total yards and claimed their first home victory over the Hokies (3-3, 1-1) since 1938.

A.J. Blue had touchdown runs of 1 and 13 yards, and Renner finished 17 of 30 for 194 yards with a touchdown pass and a 4-yard scoring run.

Virginia Tech's Logan Thomas was 26 of 49 for 354 yards with a 13-yard touchdown run and two long touchdown passes, and Demetri Knowles took a kickoff 93 yards for a TD for the young Hokies, who are off to their worst start since opening 2-3-1 in 1992.

Virginia Tech finished with just 40 yards rushing. Bernard had two rushes that each surpassed that - a 51-yarder that pushed him past the 200-yard mark and a 62-yard touchdown on a fourth-and-1 on the first play of the second quarter that put the Tar Heels ahead to stay.

North Carolina began to pull away midway through the third quarter, going ahead 35-20 on the Renner-to-Tapley touchdown pass before Knowles took the ensuing kickoff back for a touchdown. Virginia Tech went for two, but Thomas' pass over the middle didn't have a chance, and the Tar Heels scored the next two times they touched the ball.

Carolina 18, Miami 14
Sun Life Stadium • Miami, Fla.

MIAMI GARDENS, Fla. - Carolina weathered an early miscue and rode tailback Giovani Bernard's 177 rushing yards to a 18-14 win over Miami at Sun Life Stadium.

After forcing a quick Miami punt, Carolina went 61 yards on just seven plays for the game's opening score. Bernard accounted for 45 yards on the drive that culminated in a 10-yard touchdown run, his ninth of the season.

The next Hurricane drive was cut short by Shakeel Rashad's first career interception, but the Tar Heels were unable to capitalize. After a pair of long completions to Eric Ebron and a Romar Morris run and horse-collar penalty got UNC back in the red zone, Renner was intercepted at the goal line by Eddie Johnson to end the threat.

Carolina stopped Miami on downs to open the second quarter but again came away with nothing when Casey Barth missed wide left from 33 yards. The Hurricanes took advantage of the missed opportunity and marched 80 yards on 12 plays to tie the game at 7 on Mike James' 1-yard touchdown run.

The game would remain tied for less than three minutes, however, as Renner orchestrated his best passing drive of the day and Bernard punctuated it with a 17-yard touchdown scamper.

Renner completed 4-of-6 passes for 58 yards on the drive, and Bernard made a lunging shoestring catch to pick up the first down and then scored his second rushing TD of the day one play later.

Ebron made it 15-7 with a two-point catch from punter Tommy Hibbard. On the field as the holder, Hibbard took a shotgun snap and threw to Ebron split out left for UNC's first two-point conversion of the season.

Tre Boston's second interception of the season ended Miami's final drive of the half and Carolina took a 15-7 lead into the locker room.

After Carolina downed a Hibbard punt inside the Miami 10, quarterback Stephen Morris led the hosts on a 12-play, 94-yard drive that ended with Morris scoring on a 5-yard run.

UM lined up to go for 2 but was whistled for a delay of game penalty and chose to take the single point and make it 15-14.

Barth connected on a 48-yard field goal late in the third quarter and Carolina stopped the Hurricanes on downs twice late in the fourth to preserve the win.

Duke 33, Carolina 30
Wallace Wade Stadium • Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. - Jamison Crowder scored with 13 seconds remaining and Duke defeated North Carolina, 33-30, for its first victory in the series since 2003 and just its second since 1991.

Carolina rallied from a 23-9 deficit to lead 30-26 on Giovani Bernard's fumble recovery touchdown with just 3:12 to play, but Duke drove 87 yards on 14 plays for the game-winning score.

A 39-yard catch-and-run by Bernard on a pass from Marquise Williams stalled in the red zone and Barth came on for the first of his three field goals to make it 3-0.

Renfree hit Conner Vernon to get the ball inside the Carolina 20, and Anthony Boone punched it in from two yards out to give the Blue Devils a 7-3 advantage.

The two teams traded field goals for most of the rest of the half before Jela Duncan's 2-yard scoring run gave Duke its biggest lead of the game at 20-6 with 4:25 remaining in the second.

Barth and Martin each made a third field goal to make it 23-9 entering the final quarter, and Carolina got a key defensive stop on the first play of the fourth. On 4th-and-1 at the Duke 48, Sylvester Williams stuffed Walt Canty on a keeper play to give the Tar Heels great field position.

On 4th-and-6 at the Duke 43, Renner hit Eric Ebron over the middle for 34 yards to put Carolina back in the red zone. Three Bernard carries later, the Tar Heels were back within a touchdown at 23-16.

Martin's fourth field goal of the game made it 26-16 with 9:22 remaining but Carolina scored on its next two possessions to set up a wild finish.

Bryn Renner, capped a 10-play, 75-yard drive with a 5-yard scoring strike to Sean Tapley to make it 26-23 with 6:28 to play. After first-down completions to Tapley and Ebron got the Tar Heels to their 40, Renner hit Erik Highsmith over the middle for a big gainer. Highsmith was stripped of the ball by Jordon Byas at the Duke 24, but Bernard outmuscled Canty for the ball and took it into the end zone for the go-ahead touchdown.

But with 3:12 remaining, Renfree led Duke on a final scoring drive that culminated in the touchdown pass to Crowder.

Carolina 43, NC State 35
Kenan Stadium • Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. - Giovani Bernard fielded the punt, saw nothing but blue jerseys to his right and headed that direction with the final seconds ticking away. He didn't stop until he had reached the end zone - and finally halted North Carolina's five-year losing streak to its biggest rival.

Bernard returned a punt 74 yards for the go-ahead touchdown with 13 seconds left, capping a fourth-quarter rally by the Tar Heels in a 43-35 win against North Carolina State.

The punt return capped a huge day for the sophomore tailback, who ran for 135 yards and two touchdowns. He also had eight catches for 95 yards to lead the Tar Heels (6-3, 3-2 Atlantic Coast Conference), who trailed 35-25 entering the final period in a back-and-forth game that lived up to the rivalry hype.

After leading 25-7 late in the first quarter, the Tar Heels tied the game at 35 on Casey Barth's 34-yard field goal with 1:24 left. Then they forced the Wolfpack to punt with about 30 seconds left.

Bernard fielded the punt inside his own 30, then headed right behind a fleet of blockers. Bernard -- who had rolled his right ankle earlier in the second half -- broke free down the right sideline in front of the Wolfpack bench for the score, setting off a wild celebration in Kenan Stadium's blue-filled end zone.

UNC punter Tommy Hibbard then managed to complete his second two-point conversion pass of the day to Jack Tabb to push the lead to 43-35. And when Tobais Palmer fumbled the ensuing kickoff, the Tar Heels were finally in position to celebrate.

The winning score was Bernard's first punt return of the second half due to the ankle injury. It was also the first punt return for a TD by a UNC player in the series since 1986.

Bryn Renner threw for 358 yards and a touchdown, while Erik Highsmith also ran for a touchdown on a 45-yard reverse on UNC's second possession.

CAROLINA FOOTBALL 2012 IN REVIEW

Kenan Stadium • Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. - Georgia Tech and North Carolina got into a gridiron track meet and the Yellow Jackets held off the Tar Heels 68-50 in the highest scoring football game in Atlantic Coast Conference history.

The teams combined for 1,085 yards, 118 points - and just five punts - in surpassing the previous ACC record of 110 points set in Virginia's 63-47 victory over Tulane in 1968.

Bryn Renner threw two touchdown passes for the Tar Heels (6-4, 3-3). Giovani Bernard and A.J. Blue each scored two touchdowns for North Carolina, which hadn't allowed this many points since Louisville hung 69 on them in 2005.

The Tar Heels pulled to 58-50 on Renner's 11-yard touchdown pass to Quinshad Davis and Tim Scott's 32-yard interception return on the first play of the fourth quarter. Orwin Smith followed that with a 22-yard touchdown run to put the Yellow Jackets up 65-50.

Chris Tanner kicked a 34-yard field goal to complete the scoring with 3:40 left. Lee finished 6 of 10 for 169 yards passing. David Sims added an 11-yard touchdown run for the Yellow Jackets.

Romar Morris had a 30-yard touchdown run for the Tar Heels, and Renner finished 24 of 35 for 350 yards with an interception.

Golden put the Yellow Jackets up 34-29 when he returned the opening kickoff of the second half for a touchdown. Bernard then took a short pass from Renner and broke two tackles while turning it into his longest career reception, a 78-yard score that briefly gave the Tar Heels a 36-34 lead. Godhigh followed that with a 4-yard TD that put Georgia Tech ahead to stay. Tanner kicked a 35-yard field goal to make it 44-36.

Bernard, the ACC's leading rusher, became the first Tar Heel rusher since Natrone Means to crack 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons.

Carolina 37, Virginia 13
Scott Stadium • Charlottesville, Va.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. - Bryn Renner threw two touchdown passes in the fourth quarter after a goal-line stand preserved North Carolina's lead, and the Tar Heels ended Virginia's postseason hopes with a 37-13 victory.

The Tar Heels (7-4, 4-3 Atlantic Coast Conference) were hanging onto a 20-13 lead when they stopped Kevin Parks for a 2-yard loss on fourth-and-goal from the 1. They then drove 97 yards in 12 plays, Renner capping the march with a 23-yard pass to a wide open Giovani Bernard over the middle for the TD.

A 5-yard completion to Erik Highsmith on fourth-and-2 came on the play just before the touchdown pass, and after Virginia (4-7, 2-5) was forced to punt on the ensuing possession, Renner's 20-yard TD pass to Highsmith finished it.

Virginia shut down Bernard, the ACC's runaway rushing leader, but were picked apart by Renner's precise passing. He finished 29 for 36 for 315 yards and three touchdowns. His favorite target on the night was freshman Quinshad Davis, who caught an ACC-record 16 passes for 178 yards.

When Darius Jennings got behind the secondary and Phil Sims floated a certain 81-yard touchdown pass into his hands on third-and-13, Jennings juggled and dropped it. The Cavaliers punted, and five plays later, Renner to Highsmith made it 34-13. The tandem also teamed up on 9-yard touchdown pass to open the scoring.

Virginia trailed 14-3 early but closed to 14-10 on a nifty third-down scramble by Sims, who avoided a sack, rolled right and found Jennings in the end zone from 9 yards out. Sims also had a 13-yard run on third-and-9 at the start of the drive, and Parks powered for a yard to convert on fourth-and-1.

Renner hit Davis for 25, 10 and 20 yards in a 91-play drive that ended with his 9-yard touchdown pass to Highsmith, and he hit Davis for 32 yards on the next drive. Davis also drew a 15-yard pass interference call when cornerback Demetrius Nicholson latched onto him from behind on a throw to the end zone.

That set up North Carolina at 3, and A.J. Blue ran it in on the next play. Renner was 19 for 23 in the half for 201 yards, and Davis had 10 catches for 130 yards.

November 24, 2012
Kenan Stadium • Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. - Bryn Renner tied a school record with five touchdown passes, while Gio Bernard ran for 163 yards and a score to help North Carolina beat Maryland 45-38 in the finale for both teams.

While the Tar Heels (8-4, 5-3 Atlantic Coast Conference) were ineligible to claim the league's Coastal Division championship, they still made it a goal to win what amounted to an unofficial title. They accomplished that by beating the Terrapins (4-8, 2-6).

As the final seconds ticked away, UNC defensive tackle Sylvester Williams - one of the seniors who stuck around instead of transferring after the NCAA sanctions were announced in March - doused Fedora with the cooler, then wrapped an arm around his coach.

Freshman Quinshad Davis had nine catches for 135 yards and two touchdowns for the Tar Heels, who blew the game open with a dominating third quarter en route to their sixth game of at least 40 points with Fedora's no-huddle spread attack.

UNC tacked on 24 straight points to take control, starting when Renner connected with Davis for a 50-yard scoring pass and then found Erik Highsmith for a 15-yard touchdown to tie it. Thomas Moore put the Tar Heels ahead to stay with a 22-yard field goal midway through the third, then Bernard - who tallied his fifth 100-yard rushing game this season - scored from 1 yard out to make it 45-35 late in the quarter.

The Terrapins managed a field goal to make it a one-possession game with 3:12 left, but the Tar Heels moved the chains behind Bernard to run out the clock and send Maryland into the offseason with six straight losses.

Renner finished the year with a school-record 28 touchdown passes, while the Tar Heels set school records for most points (487) and highest scoring average (40.6) for a season.

FIRST-TEAM ALL-AMERICAS

GEORGE BARCLAY, GUARD, 1934

Barclay was Carolina's first football All-America. The 5-11, 185-pound guard and linebacker was a three-year standout for Chuck Collins and Carl Snively. A fine blocker and an extraordinary tackler, Barclay lined up in the offensive interior next to tackle Jim Tatum. He was captain of the 1934 team which went 7-1-1. Barclay later served as head coach at Carolina for three seasons, from 1953 to 1955.

ANDY BERSHAK, END, 1937

A 185-pound end, Bershak was a two-way performer for the Tar Heels. He was a fine receiver, but was even better on defense. He played two years for Carl Snively and one for Ray Wolf. Bershak, an honor student, was also a basketball starter. He was selected to the Order of the Golden Fleece and served as president of the Carolina Athletic Association.

STEVE MARONIC, TACKLE, 1938

Maronic was a two-way tackle for the Tar Heels and team co-captain in 1938. He was an "iron man," playing almost 60 minutes in every game that season. He turned in two of his best performances in front of the New York media against NYU at Yankee Stadium and Fordham at the Polo Grounds. Those games solidified his All-America chances. Maronic also was a place-kicker and hit 13 straight PATs in his final season.

PAUL SEVERIN, END, 1939-40

Severin was a two-time All-America selection by the Associated Press (1939 and 1940) and made most of the all-star teams in his senior season. His career was filled with big plays—a touchdown catch to tie Tulane in 1939, two scoring catches against Penn that same season and a touchdown-saving tackle from behind of Duke's great Steve Lach in a 6-3 win over the Blue Devils in 1940.

CHARLIE JUSTICE, HALFBACK, 1948-49

Twice a runner-up for the Heisman Trophy, Justice is rated by many as the best all-around player in the history of Southern football. He was a true triple-threat performer, leading Carolina in rushing, passing and punting from 1946 to 1949. He sparked Tar Heel teams which appeared in the Sugar Bowl twice and the Cotton Bowl once. He was the school's all-time total offense leader with 4,883 yards for more than Charlie Justice (left) and Art Weiner, both members of the College Football Hall of Fame, helped lead the Tar Heels to back-to-back New Year's Day bowl games in 1949-50.

40 years and still ranks as the Tar Heels' sixth-leading career scorer, eighth-leading rusher and 20th-leading passer. He had a career punting average of 42.6 and averaged 14.2 yards on punt returns and 26.6 yards on kickoff returns. In 1948 he received the national player of the year award from the Washington Touchdown Club and was the recipient of the Walter Camp Memorial Trophy. Justice is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame.

KEN POWELL, DEFENSIVE END, 1949

Powell teamed with Art Weiner to give UNC a formidable pass receiving threat in the post-World War II "Justice Era." He was outstanding in the 1947 Sugar Bowl against Georgia and earned first-team All-America honors at defensive end in 1949 by NEA. That organization named Powell to its All-America Team on defense, the first time it selected All-Americans on both offense and defense. He finished his career with 23 receptions for 324 yards and three touchdowns.

ART WEINER, END, 1948-49

A great all-around end, Weiner led the nation in receiving in 1949 with 52 catches. He had been seventh nationally in receiving the previous year with 31 catches. Until 1997 he held the UNC career record with 18 touchdown receptions. Many remember him best for a game-saving defensive play on the last snap of the 1949 Duke game. Weiner was named the most outstanding lineman in the Senior Bowl. Weiner was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1992.

IRV HOLDASH, CENTER, 1950

While Carolina's football fortunes slipped in the years immediately following the Charlie Justice Era, Holdash still received national attention for his outstanding play. A center on offense and linebacker on defense, Holdash was a three-year regular who never missed a game during his varsity career. He perhaps sealed All-America honors in 1950 with a sensational performance in a 14-7 loss at Notre Dame. Irish quarterback Bobby Williams called him "the best I've played against."

AL GOLDSTEIN, END, 1958

An outstanding two-way end, Goldstein earned All-America honors in 1958 by making 24 catches for 490 yards, averaging an amazing 20.4 yards per reception. Adept at making the seemingly impossible catch, he had a 68-yard TD reception at Virginia. He also starred defensively and had a 46-yard interception return for a touchdown against Maryland.

BOB LACEY, END, 1963

Lacey led the Atlantic Coast Conference in receiving in 1963 with 48 catches for 533 yards. His pass-catching was a key factor as Carolina rolled to a 9-2 record, defeating Air Force, 35-0, in the Gator Bowl. Lacey was also the team's top receiver in 1962 with 44 catches. He was the first Tar Heel player to have at least 40 catches in two seasons. His career total of 102 receptions is the 10th-best in school history.

DON McCAULEY, HALFBACK, 1970

McCauley shattered the Carolina and the Atlantic Coast Conference record books with a dazzling senior season in 1970. He rushed for 1,720 yards and scored 21 touchdowns, setting marks which still stand. His 1,720 yards was an all-time collegiate high at the time, breaking O.J. Simpson's NCAA record. McCauley led the nation in all-purpose running that season. He was twice the ACC Player of the Year and still ranks fifth in career rushing at UNC. He had a lengthy professional career with the Baltimore Colts. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2002.

Don McCauley is carried off the field by the Kenan Stadium faithful following his legendary final home game performance in 1970. McCauley rushed for 279 yards and scored five touchdowns in a 59-42 win over the Blue Devils.

RON RUSNAK, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1972

Rusnak was a unanimous All-America selection in 1972 as Carolina posted an 11-1 record. At 6-2 and 220 pounds, he did not have the size to play professional football, but Rusnak was a great college player. He was a two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference choice, starting on teams which combined for a 20-4 record. In 1972 he won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the ACC.

KEN HUFF, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1974

Huff was a key man on one of the most explosive units in Carolina history. He was the leader of an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels accumulate 4,691 yards, at the time a school record, in 1974. The 6-4, 255-pound Huff won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Sparked in great part by his play up front, the Tar Heels had two backs rush for over 1,000 yards in the same season. Huff was the third player selected in the NFL Draft by the Baltimore Colts.

CHARLES WADDELL, TIGHT END, 1974

Waddell rates as one of the best all-around athletes in Carolina history. He won three football letters, two in basketball and one in track. Not only was he a fine receiver at tight end, but he was also a dynamic blocker. He set a school single-game record in 1974 with three touchdown catches against Clemson. He had 41 career catches for 518 yards and seven TDs. His professional career was cut short by a knee injury.

DEE HARDISON, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1977

A two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection, Hardison played on one of the top defensive teams in Carolina history. UNC led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, giving up just 7.4 points a game. The Tar Heels led the ACC in total, rushing, passing and scoring defense. A big reason was the play of Hardison, a 6-3, 252-pound tackle who dominated the line of scrimmage all season. After leaving Carolina he began a lengthy NFL career with the Buffalo Bills.

RICKY BARDEN, DEFENSIVE BACK, 1979

One of the top defensive backs in Carolina history, Barden was a repeat All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection in 1978 and 1979. Barden made nine career interceptions. He started at cornerback for two years and then was shifted to strong safety for his final year where he broke up nine passes and was the third-leading tackler on the team. His 156 yards on interception returns are the third-most in school history.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR, OUTSIDE LINEBACKER, 1980

From midway in his junior season until the end of his senior year in 1980, Taylor dominated the football field as few defensive players ever had. Now regarded as the finest outside linebacker in the history of the game, Taylor had a remarkable senior season which featured a school-record 16 quarterback sacks and six other tackles for losses. In Carolina's only close games in an 11-1 season, Taylor made the game-saving defensive plays against Texas Tech and Clemson. He was a runaway selection as ACC Player of the Year.

RON WOOTEN, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1980

Wooten won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 1980 as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference. He was the leading vote-getter in the offensive line on the All-ACC team. He was one of the leaders of an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels lead the ACC in total offense and which also helped produce two 1,000-yard backs. He went on to become a starting guard with New England in the NFL.

DAVID DRECHSLER, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1981-82

Drechsler became Carolina's first two-time All-America since Charlie Justice and Art Weiner when he earned first-team honors in 1981 and 1982. He played every position in the offensive interior during his Carolina career, but settled in at guard. The 6-4, 253-pound Drechsler played on Tar Heel teams which were 37-10-1 and were unbeaten in four bowl games. He also was the winner of a postgraduate scholarship from the NCAA. Drechsler went on to become a starter with the Green Bay Packers until a back injury forced him to give up the game.

WILLIAM FULLER, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1982-83

Fuller is one of just six Carolina players to win first-team All-America honors twice. Although powerfully built at 6-3 and 250 pounds, Fuller's greatest asset was his quickness. He used that quickness to make 13 tackles for losses and six sacks in 1982 and 17 tackles for losses with five sacks the following year. He was the only unanimous choice on the 1983 All-ACC team and is one of just three defensive linemen ever to make All-ACC for three straight years.

BRIAN BLADOS, OFFENSIVE TACKLE, 1983

When two Carolina tailbacks ran for over 1,000 yards in 1983, much of that yardage came behind Blados. The 6-6, 305-pound left tackle dominated the line of scrimmage as Carolina set a school total offense record and finished seventh nationally in yardage. Blados was named on 90 of 100 ballots in voting for the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team. He was a first round choice by the Cincinnati Bengals in the NFL Draft.

HARRIS BARTON, OFFENSIVE TACKLE, 1986

Barton was a four-year starter for the Tar Heels, first at center and then at tackle. With so many teams playing even-man front defenses, Barton was moved to tackle in 1984 to take better advantage of his skills. He excelled at left tackle, the key blocking spot in the Carolina passing game. As a senior, he led an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels rank first in the Atlantic Coast Conference and sixth nationally in total offense. An excellent student, he was chosen for a post-graduate scholarship by the National Football Foundation and was a first-round selection in the NFL Draft.

PAT CROWLEY, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1989

Crowley was a standout offensive guard and a leader of the first of Mack Brown's teams. He won first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors in 1987, 1988 and 1989 and became only the second offensive lineman in conference history to win three all-league honors (Virginia's Jim Dombrowski was the other). He started every game in his college career and helped open the way for a pair of 1,000-yard backs (Derrick Fenner in 1986 and Kennard Martin in 1988). He is one of three Tar Heels to be named first-team All-ACC in three seasons.

BRACEY WALKER, FREE SAFETY, 1993

The first Carolina defensive back to ever receive first-team All-America honors by a major organization, Walker burst onto the scene in 1992 when he was one of the stars of the Peach Bowl win over Mississippi State. Walker blocked two punts in that game, returned one of them for a tying touchdown and set up the game-winning interception with a jarring collision. He was the Defensive MVP of the Peach Bowl. In 1993 he led the Tar Heels with 100 tackles and was the co-leading vote-getter on the All-ACC first team defense. He also blocked four more punts, two of which were recovered in the end zone by Carolina, and was named the National Special Teams Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated.

MARCUS JONES, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1995

Jones became the first Tar Heel to earn consensus first-team All-America honors since Harris Barton in 1986 and the first defensive lineman since William Fuller in 1982-83. Jones had 25 career sacks and finished with 222 tackles. That included 46 behind the line of scrimmage. He broke Lawrence Taylor's school record for sacks and held that mark until Greg Ellis broke the record in 1997. He was named the Atlantic Coast Conference Defensive Player of the Year in 1995 and earned first-team All-ACC honors for the second straight season. He became the first Tar Heel defender to repeat all-conference selections since Tim Goad in 1986-87. As a senior he had a career-high 94 tackles, despite facing constant double- and triple-team efforts. He registered an ACC-leading 19 tackles for losses for 74 yards, seven of which were quarterback sacks. He was hampered in the first half of the season by a knee sprain. Over the last five weeks, however, he averaged 10.8 tackles per game and had 16 tackles for losses for 65 yards, including six sacks for 41 yards, and pressured the quarterback 13 times. Quite fittingly, Jones capped his career by sacking Arkansas quarterback Barry Lunney on the Razorbacks' final offensive play in Carolina's 20-10 win in the 1995 Carquest Bowl.

DRE' BLY, CORNERBACK, 1996-97

The first freshman in ACC history to earn consensus first-team All-America honors, Bly became just the fifth freshman in NCAA history to be named to the Associated Press All-America first team in 1996. He was also a first-team All-America selection by the Walter Camp Football Foundation, the Football Writers Association of America, The Sporting News and Athlon Sports and a finalist for the Thorpe Award as the National Defensive Back of the Year. He earned ACC first-team honors and was the league's Rookie of the Year. He is the only UNC freshman to earn first-team All-America honors. He made two second-half interceptions, broke up two passes and had seven tackles against West Virginia in the 1997 Gator Bowl. Bly led the nation in interceptions and interceptions per game. He set an ACC single-season interceptions record with 11, one more than Bob Sullivan of Maryland had in 10 games in 1965. The Chesapeake, Va. native had three multi-interception games. In 1997, Bly became the first player in UNC history to repeat consensus first-team All-America honors. He had five interceptions, including one he returned for a touchdown in a comeback win over Virginia. In 1998, he set the ACC all-time record with his 20th interception (not counting the two he had in the Gator Bowl). He was named first-team All-America by the Walter Camp Foundation. Bly is the only player in ACC history to earn first-team All-America honors on three occasions.

GREG ELLIS, DEFENSIVE END, 1997

A defensive end from 1994-97, Ellis is the Tar Heels' career leader in quarterback sacks. The Wendell, N.C., native had 32.5 sacks for 253 yards in his career. He anchored a defense that was second in the country in total yards allowed in each of his final two seasons. Carolina posted a 21-3 record in that span and had consecutive Top 10 finishes in the polls. Ellis is one of only four players in Carolina football history to be named first-team All-ACC three times. He was voted by his teammates as a team captain and the best overall senior. He was the eighth selection in the first round of the 1998 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

BRIAN SIMMONS, OUTSIDE LINEBACKER, 1997

An outside linebacker from 1994-97, Simmons was a major contributor in Carolina's rise to the Top 10 in his final two seasons. A first-round draft selection of the Cincinnati Bengals, Simmons had 317 tackles over his last three seasons. He was named first-team All-America as a senior by the Associated Press, Walter Camp Foundation and Football News and was a first-team All-ACC selection and second-team AP All-America as a junior. The New Bern, N.C., native finished his career with 36 tackles for losses and 11 sacks.

BRIAN SCHMITZ, PUNTER, 1999

Schmitz was named a first-team All-America in 1999 after averaging 47.8 yards per kick, an ACC and UNC record. He led the ACC and ranked second in the nation in punting average. Schmitz also set the ACC career record for punting average at 44.4 yards per kick. He had at least one 50-yard punt in all 11 UNC games in 1999 and 32 kicks of over 50 yards. He had 63 punts of 40 yards or more in 72 attempts on the season. Schmitz and backup punter Derrick DePriest combined to establish an NCAA single-season record for team punting average at 47.7 yards.

JULIUS PEPPERS, DEFENSIVE END, 2000-01

One of the top two-sport athletes in Carolina history, Peppers became the first Tar Heel defensive player to win a national college football award by winning both the Lombardi Award as the nation's top lineman and the Bednarik Award as the nation's top defensive player. In just three seasons, Peppers finished second at Carolina in career sacks and tackles for loss. In 2000, he led the nation with 15 sacks and established a school record with 24 tackles for losses. The following year, Peppers led a defense that finished first in the ACC and 15th in the nation in total defense. He became just the second Tar Heel and the first since Lawrence Taylor to earn unanimous All-America honors. A forward on Carolina's basketball team, Peppers averaged 7.1 points and 4.0 rebounds to help the Tar Heels claim a share of the 2001 regular-season ACC championship. He was the second overall pick in the 2002 NFL Draft by the Carolina Panthers.

Defensive end Julius Peppers earned consensus All-America honors in 2001.

JONATHAN COOPER, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 2012

The most decorated offensive lineman in UNC history, Jonathan Cooper was a dominant force at left guard from 2009-12. He earned consensus All-America honors as a senior in 2012. He also captured the ACC Jacobs Blocking Trophy and was one of three finalists for the Outland Trophy, which is presented annually to the nation's top interior lineman. In doing so, he became the first Tar Heel to ever be a finalist for the award. He was a three-time All-ACC selection, earning first-team honors in 2012. A standout student off the field, Cooper earned an honorary postgraduate scholarship from the ACC and was named to the league's All-Academic Team. Cooper finished his career with 48 starts.

Jonathan Cooper earned consensus first-team All-America honors at offensive guard in 2012 and was the No. 7 overall pick in the 2013 NFL Draft.

NORTH CAROLINA'S HONORED JERSEYS

#99 George Barclay*	#71 Marcus Jones
#59 Andy Bershak*	#87 Greg Ellis
#46 Bill Sutherland*	#41 Brian Simmons
#22 Charlie Justice*	#31 Dre' Bly
#50 Art Weiner*	#49 Julius Peppers
#10 Danny Talbott	#44 Kelvin Bryant
#23 Don McCauley	#67 Harris Barton
#62 Ron Rusnak	#60 Brian Blados
#68 Ken Huff	#25 Irv Holdash
#44 Mike Voight	#85 Bob Lacey
#71 Dee Hardison	#20 Amos Lawrence
#98 Lawrence Taylor	#87 Paul Severin
#95 William Fuller	#64 Jonathan Cooper
#12 Ethan Horton	*retired jersey

Twenty-seven former University of North Carolina football players have been honored in a special fashion as their names and jersey numbers have been honored in Kenan Stadium. The men include five who have already had their jersey numbers retired, Carolina's consensus first-team All-Americans and any athlete who was named Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year. Consensus All-Americans are those players who made the majority of the first-team selections in any given year. In 2003, the Athletics Council and Athletic Director Dick Baddour voted to also honor five first-team Associated Press All-Americans and two players who were among the ACC's greatest 50 football players.

GEORGE BARCLAY #99

A guard and linebacker from 1932 to 1934, whose number has been retired. He was the school's first football All-America and is a member of the state of North Carolina's Sports Hall of Fame. A guard and linebacker at 5-11, 185 pounds, Barclay was a standout for three seasons under coaches Chuck Collins and Carl Snively. A tremendous blocker and ferocious tackler, he was captain of the 1934 team that went 7-1-1. Barclay later served as UNC's head coach from 1953 until 1955.

ANDY BERSHAK #59

A great two-way end from 1935 to 1937 who was a consensus All-America in 1937. His number also has been retired. Bershak was a brilliant defender and his team's top receiver. He also was a starter on the basketball team and an honor student. Bershak was selected to the Order of the Golden Fleece and served as president of the Carolina Athletic Association.

BILL SUTHERLAND #46

A blocking back on the 1946 Sugar Bowl team, whose number has been retired. He died in an auto accident after his freshman year, stunning his teammates and Coach Carl Snively. Sutherland was named one of the Tar Heels' three captains for what would have been his sophomore season and Snively worked to ensure that his number would be retired.

CHARLIE JUSTICE #22

One of the most famous and popular athletes in the history of the state. Justice was a consensus All-America and twice runner-up for the Heisman Trophy. During his four seasons, 1946-49, Carolina went to the Sugar Bowl twice and the Cotton Bowl once. A single-wing tailback, he still holds many of the school's total offense records. In addition, he was a sensational punter and kick returner. He was the 1948 National Player of the Year.

ART WEINER #50

An outstanding two-way end from 1946 to 1949, whose number has been retired. Weiner won All-America honors in 1948 and 1949 and was the nation's leading receiver as a senior. He teamed with the legendary Charlie Justice to form perhaps the most potent offensive duo in school history. Voted the top lineman in the Senior Bowl, Weiner is a member of the National Football Hall of Fame. He is still ninth in UNC receptions with 106.

DANNY TALBOTT #10

A star quarterback from 1964 to 1966 and the 1965 ACC Player of the Year under head coach Jim Hickey. Talbott led the league in total offense and scoring that season. He had 318 yards of total offense in one game against Georgia, at the time a school record.

DON MCCAULEY #23

The ACC Player of the Year as a junior and senior and a consensus All-America in 1970, his final season. McCauley was the first of Carolina's 23 backs to rush for 1,000 yards. He twice led the ACC in rushing with 1,092 yards in 1969 and 1,720 in 1970. That latter total at the time broke O.J. Simpson's single-season NCAA record. He also led the nation in all-purpose running as a senior and his 126 points that year still is the league record.

RON RUSNAK #62

An offensive guard on three bowl teams from 1970 to 1972 who won unanimous All-America honors in his senior season. At 6-2, 220 pounds, Rusnak wasn't as big as some linemen, but had great technique. He was the cornerstone of the offensive front on the 1972 team, which went 11-1. Rusnak was a two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference choice on teams which combined for a 20-4 record. He won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 1972 as the best blocker in the ACC.

KEN HUFF #68

A three-year starter at offensive guard from 1972 to 1974 and a consensus All-America as a senior. Huff was a dynamic blocker at 6-4 and 250 pounds. He was the key figure on the 1974 line which helped Carolina boast a pair of 1,000-yard backs and lead the ACC in total offense, rushing and scoring. Led by Huff, UNC accumulated 4,691 yards, at the time a school record. The Tar Heels were fifth nationally in total offense and ninth in scoring that season. Huff won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference and was the third player selected overall in the 1974 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Colts.

MIKE VOIGHT #44

A hard-running tailback from 1973 to 1976 who was the ACC Player of the Year as both a junior and senior. Voight is second in Carolina history in rushing with 3,971 yards and fifth in scoring with 254 points. He had three 1,000-yard seasons and twice was the top ground-gainer in the ACC. In 1976 he scored 110 points and ran for 1,407 yards, including 261 in his final game —a dramatic 39-38 shootout with Duke.

DEE HARDISON #71

A defensive tackle from 1974 to 1977 and a consensus All-America as a senior. Hardison was the star of one of Carolina's greatest defenses in his final year. He dominated the line of scrimmage all season long as the Tar Heels led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, giving up just 7.4 points a game. Carolina also topped the ACC in total, rushing and pass defense that year. No team would lead the league in all four again until Florida State in its 1993 national championship season.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR #98

An outside linebacker from 1977 to 1980 who is regarded as the greatest player of all time at that position. Taylor was a consensus All-America and the ACC Player of the Year in 1980. He had a Carolina-record 16 quarterback sacks that season for losses totaling 127 yards. Sparked by his play, the Tar Heels went 11-1 in 1980 and won the ACC championship.

WILLIAM FULLER #95

A defensive lineman from 1980 to 1983 who was a consensus All-America as a senior. Also honored as a first-team All-America as a junior, he is one of only six Tar Heel players to be named first-team All-America twice. Fuller, who utilized his tremendous quickness to slice through offensive lines, had 22 tackles for losses in both 1981 and 1983. He is one of only three defensive linemen ever to make the All-ACC team three times.

ETHAN HORTON #12

The Associated Press ACC Player of the Year as a senior, Horton rushed for 1,247 yards in 1984 after a 1,107-yard performance in 1983. He was named the game's co-MVP in UNC's 1981 Gator Bowl win over Arkansas and was the MVP of the 1982 Sun Bowl.

MARCUS JONES #71

A defensive end/tackle from 1992 to 1995 who was a consensus All-America and the ACC Defensive Player of the Year as a senior. Jones had 24 career quarterback sacks to break Lawrence Taylor's school record. A two-time first-team All-ACC selection, Jones led a Tar Heel defense which had the ACC's No. 1 rated total defense in 1995. He finished his career with 222 tackles, including 46 for losses. Jones helped Carolina to four straight bowl invitations and wins in the 1993 Peach and 1995 Carquest Bowls.

GREG ELLIS #87

A defensive end from 1994 to 1997, Ellis is UNC's all-time leader in quarterback sacks. The Wendell, N.C., native had 32.5 sacks for 253 yards in his career. He anchored a defense that was second in the country in total yards in each of his final two seasons. Carolina posted a 21-3 record in that span and had consecutive Top 10 finishes in the polls. Ellis is one of only four players in Carolina football history to be named first-team All-ACC three times. He was voted by his teammates as a team captain and the best overall senior. He was the eighth selection in the first round of the 1998 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

CAROLINA FOOTBALL HISTORY BOOK

BRIAN SIMMONS #41

An outside linebacker from 1994 to 1997, Simmons was a major contributor in Carolina's rise to the Top 10 in his final two seasons. A first-round draft selection of the Cincinnati Bengals in '97, Simmons had 317 tackles over his last three seasons. He was named first-team All-America as a senior by the Associated Press, Walter Camp Foundation and Football News and was a first-team All-ACC selection and second-team AP All-America as a junior. The New Bern, N.C., native finished his career with 36 tackles for losses and 11 sacks.

DRE' BLY #31

The Chesapeake, Va., native is the only player in Atlantic Coast Conference history to earn first-team All-America honors in three different seasons. Bly became the first freshman defensive player in college football history to earn consensus first-team All-America honors in 1996. When he repeated consensus honors in 1997, he became the first two-time consensus All-America in UNC football history. In 1998, he set the all-time ACC record for interceptions with 20 and was named first-team All-America by the Walter Camp Foundation. Bly led the nation as a freshman with 11 interceptions in the regular season and added two more pass thefts in the Gator Bowl win over West Virginia. Bly was named first-team All-America in 1996 by the Associated Press, The Sporting News, the Football Writers and the Walter Camp Foundation. In 1997, Bly added five more interceptions and was named All-America by the Associated Press, the Walter Camp Foundation, the Football Writers and Football News.

JULIUS PEPPERS #49

A unanimous All-America selection in 2001, Peppers won the 2001 Lombardi Award as the nation's top lineman. He also won the Chuck Bednarik Award as the nation's top overall defensive player, earned All-America honors in 2000 and was a two-time first-team All-ACC selection. Peppers ranks second at UNC and sixth in the ACC in career sacks, despite playing just three seasons. He led the nation with 15 sacks as a junior. One of the top two-sport athletes in ACC history, Peppers was a forward on UNC's basketball team where he helped the Tar Heels advance to the 2000 Final Four and earn a share of the 2001 ACC regular season title.

KELVIN BRYANT #44

A three-time first-team All-ACC tailback, Bryant ranks fourth at UNC with 3,267 rushing yards. He had three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons from 1980-82. Despite injuries, he had 1,015 yards in seven games in 1981. He rushed for more than 100 yards in a game on 19 occasions and scored six touchdowns in a game against East Carolina in 1981. Bryant holds the NCAA record for most touchdowns scored in two and three consecutive games (11 and 15, respectively). He played eight years of professional football.

HARRIS BARTON #67

Barton was a four-year starter for the Tar Heels, first at center and then at tackle. With so many teams playing even-man front defenses, Barton was moved to tackle in 1984 to take better advantage of his skills. He excelled at left tackle, the key blocking spot in the Carolina passing game. As a senior, he led an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels rank first in the Atlantic Coast Conference and sixth nationally in total offense. An excellent student, he was chosen for a post-graduate scholarship by the National Football Foundation and was a first-round selection in the NFL draft.

BRIAN BLADOS #60

When two Carolina tailbacks ran for over 1,000 yards in 1983, much of that yardage came behind Blados. The 6-6, 305-pound left tackle dominated the line of scrimmage as Carolina set a school total offense record and finished seventh nationally in yardage. Blados was named on 90 of 100 ballots in voting for the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team. He was a first round choice by the Cincinnati Bengals in the NFL Draft.

IRV HOLDASH #25

While Carolina's football fortunes slipped in the years immediately following the Charlie Justice Era, Holdash still received national attention for his outstanding play. A center on offense and linebacker on defense, Holdash was a three-year regular who never missed a game during his varsity career. He perhaps sealed All-America honors in 1950 with a sensational performance in a 14-7 loss at Notre Dame. Irish quarterback Bobby Williams called him "the best I've played against."

BOB LACEY #85

Lacey led the Atlantic Coast Conference in receiving in 1963 with 48 catches for 533 yards. His pass-catching was a key factor as Carolina rolled to a 9-2 record, defeating Air Force, 35-0, in the Gator Bowl. Lacey was also the team's top receiver in 1962 with 44 catches. He was the first Tar Heel player to have at least 40 catches in two seasons. His career total of 102 receptions is the 10th-best in school history.

AMOS LAWRENCE #20

The only ACC player and one of only seven players in college football history to rush for 1,000 yards in four consecutive seasons, Lawrence holds the UNC career record and is second in ACC history with 4,391 yards rushing. He rushed for more than 100 yards in a game on 25 occasions and his 286 yards rushing vs. Virginia in 1977 was NCAA freshman rushing record at the time. Lawrence was named the co-MVP in the 1979 Gator Bowl and was the MVP of the 1980 Bluebonnet Bowl.

PAUL SEVERIN #87

Severin was a two-time All-America selection by the Associated Press (1939 and 1940) and made most of the all-star teams in his senior season. His career was filled with big plays—a touchdown catch to tie Tulane in 1939, two scoring catches against Penn that same season and a touchdown-saving tackle from behind of Duke's great Steve Lach in a 6-3 win over the Blue Devils in 1940.

CAROLINA'S ACC TOP 50 PLAYERS

In 2002, the Atlantic Coast Conference celebrated its 50th Anniversary and named the 50 greatest football players that have played in the conference. Carolina had eight players among that list, including:

Dre' Bly
Kelvin Bryant
William Fuller
Amos Lawrence
Don McCauley
Julius Peppers
Lawrence Taylor
Mike Voight

JONATHAN COOPER #64

A consensus first-team All-America as a senior in 2012, Jonathan Cooper is one of the most decorated offensive linemen in UNC history. Cooper won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the ACC's best blocker and was named one of three finalists for the Outland Trophy. A three-time All-ACC selection, Cooper was the No. 7 overall pick in the 2013 NFL Draft. His number will be added inside the stadium in 2013.

1947 Sugar Bowl
New Orleans, La.
Georgia 20, Carolina 10
January 1, 1947

The 1947 Sugar Bowl, which matched Carolina against Georgia, is one of the most famous Tar Heel games of the Charlie "Choo Choo" Justice years and produced one of the most controversial plays in bowl history.

Carolina was leading 7-0 in the third period when Bulldog defensive right end Joe Tereshinski intercepted a Tar Heel pass at the Georgia 24-yard line. He then flipped a lateral to Dick McPhee who raced 52 yards to the Carolina 14.

The Tar Heels argued the lateral was a forward one and the play should have been called back. However, the officials ruled differently. Georgia went on to score the tying touchdown on a quarterback sneak by Johnny Rauch.

Carolina's lone touchdown came on a Walt Pupa two-yard run following an interception by Tar Heel guard Bob Mitten.

The Tar Heels' last lead at 10-7 came on a Bob Cox field goal.

The Georgia game-winner came on a 67-yard touchdown pass from Trippi to Dan Edwards less than three minutes after the UNC field goal.

1949 Sugar Bowl
New Orleans, La.
Oklahoma 14, Carolina 6
January 1, 1949

The Tar Heels returned to the Sugar Bowl in 1949 and were defeated 14-6 by the University of Oklahoma, representing the Big Seven Conference. A record crowd of 85,000 turned out to see the Charlie Justice-led Tar Heels battle Bud Wilkinson's Sooners.

Carolina threatened early, advancing via a Justice to Art Weiner 23-yard pass play to the OU 15. Justice's next pass, however, was intercepted by linebacker Myrle Greathouse who rumbled 59 yards to the Carolina 13. Sooners' quarterback Jack Mitchell scored the first points of the day on a two-yard run.

The Heels capitalized on an OU fumble later in the first quarter and Justice marched the team down to the two, from where Hosea Rodgers scored. The conversion was wide right.

Carolina advanced to the OU eight late in the first half, but could not score.

The Sooners regained the lead for good in the third quarter. Quarterback Darrell Royal connected for 37 yards with Frankie Anderson and two plays later, Lindell Pearson ran it in from eight yards out.

Justice was brilliant, rushing for 84 yards and passing for another 57.

1950 Cotton Bowl
Dallas, Texas
Rice 27, Carolina 13
January 1, 1950

Charlie Justice had another great day in the 1950 Cotton Bowl, but it just wasn't enough as the Tar Heels fell to fifth-ranked Rice, 27-13. The Owls had a 9-1-0 record, while Carolina came in at 7-3 and was ranked 16th.

Rice and Carolina played to a scoreless draw in the opening quarter, but Rice opened the scoring in the second quarter when quarterback Tobin Rote hooked up with Billy Burkhalter for a 44-yard touchdown. Bobby Lantrip's three-yard run built a 14-0 halftime lead, and the Owls kept right on rolling in the third quarter.

On its second possession of the second half, Rice traveled 77 yards in six plays, capped by Rote's 17-yard scoring pass to "Froggie" Williams. Burkhalter made it 27-0 with a 12-yard fourth quarter score.

The Tar Heels got two touchdowns in the final eight minutes. Justice hit Paul Rizzo for a two-yard touchdown pass and then Rizzo ran it in from two yards.

Justice managed 59 yards rushing and another 63 in the air, while Art Weiner led the Tar Heels with five receptions for 41 yards. Billy Hayes topped the UNC rushing attack with 107 yards on 19 carries.

The 1950 Cotton Bowl marked the end of the "Choo-Choo" Justice era that began in 1946. The Tar Heels went 32-9-2 in that time and played in three major bowl games.

1963 Gator Bowl Jacksonville, Fla. Carolina 35, Air Force 0 December 28, 1963

It had been 13 years since Charlie Justice had led Carolina to the 1950 Cotton Bowl, so when the Tar Heels got a chance to play in the 1963 Gator Bowl, they made the most of it. The Tar Heels walloped the Air Force, 35-0.

Ken Willard was the hero of the day. He ran for 94 yards on 18 carries and scored the first touchdown which keyed the run-away victory. When Willard wasn't running in this rout, he did his share of the offensive blocking.

Joe Robinson scored on a five-yard pass and also caught a two-yard conversion to give the Tar Heels a 20-0 lead at intermission.

Coach Jim Hickey's Tar Heels had 23 first downs to the Academy's 14, and piled up 370 yards in total offense compared to 260 for the Falcons.

Gary Black completed all six of his passes for 71 yards and one touchdown and he rushed for another score. Junior Edge was good on five of his nine throws for 42 yards.

Carolina finished the season 9-2, its best record in Hickey's eight years at the helm.

1970 Peach Bowl Atlanta, Ga. Arizona State 48, Carolina 26 December 30, 1970

The Tar Heels exploded for 26 second quarter points but couldn't hold off Arizona State in the final two quarters as the Sun Devils rallied for an exciting 48-26 victory before 52,126 fans at Grant Field.

Carolina spotted unbeaten ASU 14 points on a pair of touchdowns runs, from eight and 33 yards, by Bob Thomas.

Don McCauley got the Tar Heels on the scoreboard with a one-yard plunge set up by a long pass from Paul Miller to Ricky Lanier. ASU scored on its next series, though, on a 67-yard TD catch by J.D. Hill.

Carolina then scored the final three touchdowns of the first half to go into the intermission with a 26-21 lead. First, Miller passed 37 yards for a score to Tony Blanchard. Then McCauley rushed in from 17 yards out. And finally, the All-America McCauley scored again from four yards.

Arizona State dominated a second half which was played in a heavy Atlanta snowstorm and without Miller, who left with an injury.

1971 Gator Bowl Jacksonville, Fla. Georgia 7, Carolina 3 December 31, 1971

For the first time since 1950, the Tar Heels were playing in a bowl game for the second consecutive season. This time, the Tar Heels would fall, 7-3, to the Georgia Bulldogs.

The game produced a bowl first — brothers coaching against each other. Bill Dooley led the Tar Heels and older brother Vince coached the Dawgs.

The game was a defensive struggle with all the points coming in the third quarter.

In the opening half, Carolina had the best chance as linebacker Jimmy Webster, voted the Tar Heels' MVP this day, blocked a punt out of bounds at the Georgia 24. A fumble, though, denied Carolina any points.

A pair of long runs by Lewis Jolley brought the Tar Heels down to the Georgia 16 on UNC's first possession of the second half. But a procedure penalty forced the Heels to settle for a 35-yard field goal by Ken Craven.

A 31-yard pass play from Andy Johnson to Roy Hunnicutt set up the Georgia touchdown. Jimmy Poulos, on the very next play following Hunnicutt's catch, took it in for a score from 25 yards. Poulos rushed for 161 yards on the afternoon and was named the Georgia MVP.

1972 Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas
Carolina 32, Texas Tech 28
December 30, 1972

Carolina capped an 11-1 season in the 1972 Sun Bowl by defeating Texas Tech, 32-28. Quarterback Nick Vidnovic brought the Tar Heels from behind with a late scoring drive which he capped by tossing a 13-yard touchdown pass to wingback Ted Leverenz.

That play, with a minute to go in the game, gave UNC a 30-28 lead. Carolina added two points moments later as Ronnie Robinson sacked quarterback Joe Barnes in the end zone.

The Tar Heels led 9-0 in the second quarter on a field goal by Ellis Alexander and touchdown run by Dick Oliver. The Red Raiders rallied, however, for the next 21 points and a 21-9 lead. Vidnovic hit Leverenz for a 62-yard touchdown and Billy Hite carried it in from three yards to reestablish a 24-21 Carolina lead. Tech gained the advantage, 28-24, with 7:41 to play in the game.

Vidnovic completed 14 of 26 passes for 215 yards and two touchdowns. Ike Oglesby rushed for 71 yards and Sammy Johnson added 52.

The Red Raiders had a touchdown called back in the second quarter. All-America guard Donald Rives ran a blocked punt back for an apparent score, but Tech was flagged for unsportsmanlike conduct and the points were nullified.

1974 Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas
Mississippi State 26, Carolina 24
December 28, 1974

Despite mounting 402 yards in total offense, the Tar Heels dropped a 26-24 decision to Mississippi State in a record-setting Sun Bowl.

Terry Vitrano's two-yard touchdown with 3:41 remaining was the game-winner. That capped a 16-play, 80-yard drive which lasted nearly seven minutes.

Carolina had taken a 24-20 lead with 10:26 to play on an Ellis Alexander field goal.

The Bulldogs totaled a Sun Bowl record 499 yards in total offense — 455 of those yards came on the ground via the veer offense. Walter Packer rushed for 189 yards, Vitrano added 164 and quarterback Rocky Felker gained another 69.

The Tar Heels also got big ground gains from Mike Voight and James Betterson. Voight picked up 90 yards on 19 carries and Betterson chipped in with 84 on 17 rushes. But Voight was stopped a yard shy of a first down on Carolina's last offensive play of the game. Chris Kupec, who led the nation in pass completion percentage, connected with Jimmy Jerome for 29 yards and a touchdown.

1976 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Kentucky 21, Carolina 0
December 31, 1976

Playing without an injured Mike Voight, the Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year, the Tar Heels managed just five first downs and 108 yards total offense in a 21-0 loss to Kentucky.

Voight, who had rushed for 1,407 yards, injured his ankle in practice two days before the game when he stepped in a hole going out on a pass play. Ironically, Voight had caught just four passes the entire season.

The teams battled to a tie at the half, but Carolina thought it had put up points in the first quarter. On the Tar Heels' opening drive, Matt Kupec hit split end Walker Lee with a 50-yard touchdown pass, but officials ruled the Tar Heels offside and the play came back.

Early in the third quarter, Kentucky defensive end Bud Diehl knocked the ball from Kupec's grasp and the 'Cats recovered at the UNC 21. That set up the first of three rushing touchdowns by fullback Rod Stewart.

Stewart, who finished with 104 yards and the game's MVP trophy, added fourth quarter scores from 13 and three yards.

Subbing for Voight, freshman Doug Paschal led the Tar Heels with 41 yards rushing.

1977 Liberty Bowl Memphis, Tenn. Nebraska 21, Carolina 17 December 19, 1977

No. 12 Nebraska scored two fourth quarter touchdowns and rallied for a 21-17 victory over 13th-rated North Carolina.

Reserve quarterback Randy Garcia came off the Cornhuskers' bench in the final period to toss a pair of touchdown passes, including a 33-yard game-winner to Tim Smith with 3:16 left in the game. That came six plays after Nebraska recovered a fumble at the UNC 43.

Tar Heel quarterback Matt Kupec, voted the game's Most Valuable Player despite the loss, had led the Tar Heels to a 17-7 lead in the third quarter. Kupec, who connected on seven of his 11 passes, threw touchdown passes to Brooks Williams and Bob Loomis. Tom Biddle added Carolina's final points with 4:17 left in the third on a Liberty Bowl record 47-yard field goal.

Carolina led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, allowing just 7.4 points per game through the regular season. Nebraska was the only team to score more than 14 points against UNC all season.

Bill Dooley resigned in January 1978 to accept the dual position of head football coach and athletic director at Virginia Tech.

Matt Kupec completed 18 of 28 passes for 161 yards and one touchdown and Amos Lawrence rushed for 118 yards to lead North Carolina to a 17-15 win over Michigan.

Trailing 9-0, the Tar Heels rallied for the next 17 points and then held off a Michigan threat late in the game to post the first of Dick Crum's four consecutive bowl wins.

Carolina had two chances early on to score first, but high winds knocked down a pair of Jeff Hayes field goal attempts. Michigan did score first following a turnover and added a 53-yard touchdown reception by Anthony Carter to move ahead 9-0.

Doug Paschal put the Heels on the board with a two-yard touchdown. Early in the third, Kupec engineered a 16-play, 97-yard touchdown drive which culminated in a 12-yard pass to Phil Farris. Hayes added a 32-yard field goal in the fourth for a 17-9 UNC lead.

Michigan, thwarted once already in the fourth when Lawrence Taylor scooped up a loose ball, did manage another Carter touchdown with 1:28 left, but the two-point conversion pass to Carter fell short.

Kupec and Lawrence were named co-Most Valuable Players.

1980 Bluebonnet Bowl Houston, Texas Carolina 16, Texas 7 December 31, 1980

Amos Lawrence rushed for 104 yards and one touchdown and the Tar Heel defense allowed just two first downs and 36 total yards in the second half as Carolina played error-free football to defeat Texas, 16-7, in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

Lawrence, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, scampered 59 yards for a touchdown on the Tar Heels' fourth play from scrimmage for a 7-0 lead. Following a Texas touchdown in the second quarter by Mike Luck, Carolina regained the advantage for good on a one-yard run by Kelvin Bryant.

Jeff Hayes converted a fumbled punt snap by the Longhorns into a 31-yard field goal with 2:03 to play in the third quarter.

The defense, which allowed 224 yards and 11 Texas first downs in the opening half, dominated the second 30 minutes. UNC safety Steve Streater was named the defensive MVP as he had an interception, recovered a fumble and also boomed a 63-yard punt, longest in Bluebonnet Bowl history.

Carolina's 11-1 record matched the best season in UNC history. The Tar Heels finished ranked eighth by the Associated Press and ninth by UPI.

1981 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 31, Arkansas 27
December 28, 1981

Kelvin Bryant rushed for 148 yards and Ethan Horton added 144 to lead the Tar Heels to a 31-27 victory over Arkansas in the Gator Bowl.

Bryant and Horton shared Most Valuable Player honors, but it was a key defensive stop by seldom-used freshman Ronnie Snipes which saved the night for Carolina.

After building a 31-10 lead midway through the fourth quarter, Carolina watched as Arkansas rallied for two touchdowns and had the ball again inside Tar Heel territory with less than a minute to play. But on third down, Snipes, who had played just two previous downs in the contest, sacked quarterback Brad Taylor for a 17-yard loss.

The game was deadlocked at 10-10 at the half, but Carolina came right out to open the third quarter and put together a 13-play, 85-yard drive which was capped by Horton's one-yard scoring run.

UNC quarterback Rod Elkins scored on a one-yard sneak on the Tar Heels' next drive. He was set up by a 21-yard run by Horton and a 13-yard scamper by Bryant.

Horton then churned out 42 yards on six plays and went in from four yards out to give the Heels a 31-10 lead with 7:29 to play in the game.

The Razorbacks scored with 5:05 to play, recovered an onside kick and scored again with 2:44 left. UNC punter Jeff Hayes took an intentional safety with 1:44 to play. That gave the ball back to Arkansas and set up Snipes' defensive gem.

December 25, 1982

North Carolina scored the final 23 points of the game in the final quarter and held seventh-ranked Texas to 48 total yards in the second half as the Tar Heels became the first ACC team to win four consecutive bowl games.

Ethan Horton was the offensive star of the game, rushing for 119 yards in the second half as Carolina won 26-10. He replaced injured starter Kelvin Bryant, who totaled 45 yards before leaving the game with an injured ankle.

Trailing 10-3 after three quarters, the Tar Heels vaulted into the lead via three consecutive field goals. Sophomore walk-on Rob Rogers, who had connected from 53 yards in the second quarter, hit a 47-yard field goal with 14:51 to play to narrow the Texas lead to 10-6. Brooks Barwick was then successful from 24 and 42 yards, the latter putting the Heels into the lead at 12-10 with 4:56 left.

Horton tacked on a three-yard touchdown with 2:17 remaining and Mike Wilcher fell on a loose ball in the end zone for another touchdown with 1:35 to play.

The defensive series of the game came five minutes into the third quarter with Texas leading 10-3 and with the ball, third-and-goal at the Carolina one. Two times, Texas fullback Ervin Davis tried to find the end zone, but twice he was hurled back. First, it was Wilcher who made the hit and then on 4th-and-goal, Greg Poole made the stop which changed the game.

The Christmas Day affair was played with intermittent snow flurries and a wind-chill reading that hovered around 12 degrees.

1983 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Florida State 28, Carolina 3
December 30, 1983

Florida State scored the first two times it had the ball and penalties and turnovers cost the Tar Heels dearly, as the Seminoles whipped Carolina 28-3 in a miserably cold and half-empty Peach Bowl.

Played before only 25,648 fans in low-20 degree temperatures, the Peach Bowl loss snapped the Tar Heels' consecutive bowl- game winning streak at four.

The Seminoles held the Tar Heels' running game to just 32 yards and three first downs. One thousand-yard rushers Ethan Horton and Tyrone Anthony were held to 30 and 27 yards, respectively.

Florida State quarterback Eric Thomas, making his first start, connected with Weegie Thompson on touchdown passes on the 'Noles first two series.

Midway through the second quarter, the Tar Heels fumbled away a punt at their own 16 and FSU converted via a 1-yard touchdown run.

Carolina put up its only points of the day on Brooks Barwick's 36-yard field goal.

The loss was the fourth in the final five games of the season and ended a season in which Carolina had been ranked third in the nation.

1986 Aloha Bowl Honolulu, Hawaii Arizona 30, Carolina 21 December 27, 1986

Arizona converted four North Carolina fumbles into 20 points and then held off a furious Tar Heel rally in the fourth quarter to win the 1986 Aloha Bowl, 30-21.

Carolina dug itself a 30-0 hole and did not put points on the board until freshman tailback Torin Dorn broke a 58-yard touchdown run with 2:19 left in the third quarter.

The Tar Heels fumbled five times in the first three periods and the Wildcats turned them into two touchdowns and two field goals.

Following Dorn's electrifying run, the Tar Heels quickly moved back within striking distance with two more touchdowns in the next seven minutes.

Mark Maye hit Randy Marriott with a six-yard touchdown pass after a Norris Davis interception and then followed a Davis punt block with a two-yard scoring run of his own to narrow the margin to 30-21 with 9:10 to play.

That, however, was as close as Carolina could challenge. A couple of dropped passes thwarted two more Carolina drives.

Dorn was the game's leading ground-gainer, rushing for 101 yards on only seven carries. Maye completed 17 of 34 passes for 171 yards; he hooked up with Eric Starr a game-high seven times for 53 yards.

1993 Peach Bowl Atlanta, Ga. Carolina 21, Mississippi State 17 January 2, 1993

Defensive MVP Bracey Walker blocked consecutive third-quarter punts, returning one of them for the tying touchdown, and forced a fourth quarter interception which Cliff Baskerville returned 44 yards for a touchdown to lead Carolina to a 21-17 Peach Bowl win over Mississippi

State.

Walker's heroics capped a fierce second-half comeback in which the Tar Heels came from 14 points behind to score three times, although just once on an offensive possession.

MSU took a two-touchdown lead in the first quarter and had two more scores in the second quarter called back due to holding penalties.

Carolina regrouped at halftime, however, and cut the lead to 14-7 just six plays into the third quarter. Mike Thomas connected with Bucky Brooks for a 53-yard completion on the fourth play of the half and Natrone Means scored from a yard out two snaps later.

Means led the Tar Heel offense with 128 yards rushing and was named the game's Offensive MVP.

Later in the third quarter, Walker blocked a punt but Carolina's field goal try was unsuccessful. On the next series UNC again forced the Bulldogs to punt and this time Walker blocked the kick, picked up the loose ball and raced 24 yards untouched for the tying score.

Early in the final quarter Walker forced a midair loose ball with a jarring hit and Baskerville plucked the ball out of the air and sprinted 44 yards down the left sideline for what proved to be the winning score.

1993 Gator Bowl Jacksonville, Fla. Alabama 24, Carolina 10 December 31, 1993

Quarterback Brian Burgdorf threw for two touchdowns and ran for another to lead 18th-ranked and defending national champion Alabama to a 24-10 victory over 11th-ranked Carolina in Outback Steakhouse Gator Bowl.

Corey Holliday caught nine passes for 125 yards and was UNC's MVP.

After a scoreless first period, Alabama took the lead on a 22-yard field goal by Michael Proctor. Carolina quarterback Jason Stanicek then led a seven-play, 80-yard touchdown drive in just 1:36 to take the lead, 7-3, on the ensuing possession. Stanicek hit Holliday with completions of 29 and 22 yards and executed one of his trademark option pitches to freshman tailback Leon Johnson for an 18-yard gain. William Henderson plunged in from a yard out for the lead.

The Crimson Tide went up 10-7 Burgdorf scored from 33 yards out on a quarterback draw.

With 1:44 left before intermission, Stanicek led what would be the final Tar Heel scoring drive. He hit Holliday with passes of 12 and nine yards and Curtis Johnson ran twice for 20 yards before the drive stalled and Tripp Pignetti hit a 23-yard field goal to tie the game at 10.

The Alabama defense was the key to the game, holding UNC to a season-low 42 net yards rushing on 25 carries. Carolina could only muster 40 total yards and four first downs in the second half.

December 30, 1994

Priest Holmes rushed for 161 yards and four touchdowns, including the game-winner with 1:17 to play, to lead Texas to a 35-31 win over the Tar Heels before a Sun Bowl record crowd of 50,612.

Holmes' four-touchdown performance wrestled away MVP honors from UNC quarterback Mike Thomas, who had the finest passing day of his career. Thomas completed 23 of 39 passes for 298 yards and two touchdowns. He set UNC bowl game records for completions and yards and tied the mark with two scoring tosses. He was 15 for 19 in the first half and completed 20 of 29 before a final desperation drive.

Wide receivers Marcus Wall and Octavus Barnes were two more standouts for the Tar Heels. Wall was selected the game's Most Valuable Special Teams Player. He gave the Tar Heels a 24-21 lead in the fourth quarter when he returned a punt 82 yards for a touchdown.

Barnes set UNC bowl game records for most catches and yards with nine receptions for 165 yards and one score. The 165 yards were also the most in Sun Bowl history.

With Carolina up, 31-21, Texas quickly went on a 68-yard touchdown drive in only 2:38. On the next series, Texas took over at its own 32 and drove 68 yards in 10 plays for the winning score. Holmes carried the last three plays on the drive for nine, two and finally the five yard touchdown run.

1995 Carquest Bowl
Miami, Fla.
Carolina 20, Arkansas 10
December 30, 1995

Leon Johnson rushed for a Carolina bowl record 195 yards and Mike Thomas threw for two scores as the Tar Heels knocked off Arkansas, 20-10, in the Carquest Bowl.

Johnson's 195-yard effort topped the previous high of 148 yards by Kelvin Bryant, also against Arkansas, in the 1981 Gator Bowl. Johnson had just 23 yards on eight carries in the first half, but exploded for 172 yards in the second half.

All-America tackle Marcus Jones capped his career with four tackles for losses, including a quarterback sack on Arkansas' last play from scrimmage - his final collegiate play.

Trailing by a touchdown the Tar Heels quickly moved into position to tie the game. On third-and-long quarterback Mike Thomas rolled right, threw back across the field to Ashford, who sprinted around the left flank into the end zone.

The Razorbacks managed to take a 10-7 lead in the third quarter on a 26-yard field goal by Latourette. Two series later Carolina went into the lead for good. On third-and-eight from the 28, Thomas ran the option around the right corner, turned upfield and then pitched the ball to Johnson, who was trailing the play perfectly. Johnson ran untouched for a 28-yard, go-ahead score.

1997 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 20, West Virginia 13
January 1, 1997

Oscar Davenport, starting in place of injured first-team all-conference quarterback Chris Keldorf, completed 14 of 26 passes for 175 yards and one touchdown as Carolina defeated West Virginia 20-13 in the 52nd annual Toyota Gator Bowl.

Davenport, who also rushed for one touchdown, was named the game's MVP.

Carolina broke the scoring drought early in the second quarter when Davenport found Octavus Barnes in the back corner of the end zone on an 18-yard pass. As time was running down in the first half, Davenport and Leon Johnson led the Tar Heels on a five-play touchdown drive. Johnson caught a pass for 13 yards and rushed twice for 19 yards in the drive. Davenport scored on a 5-yard option keeper for a 17-3 lead.

West Virginia opened the second-half scoring with a 34-yard touchdown pass to close within seven points. A fumble recovery by Greg Williams ended one WVU threat, but West Virginia had one last chance to tie the game late in the fourth quarter. Carolina stopped the Mountaineers on 4th-and-6 at the UNC 24 with just under two minutes remaining.

Dre' Bly, Carolina's consensus first-team All-America, picked off two second-half passes. Carolina's defense forced four West Virginia turnovers; the Mountaineers had 10 in 11 regular-season games.

1998 Gator Bowl Jacksonville, Fla. Carolina 42, Virginia Tech 3 January 1, 1998

Chris Keldorf threw for 290 yards and three scores and Carolina's defense and special teams added touchdowns as the Tar Heels pounded Virginia Tech, 42-3, in the Toyota Gator Bowl.

The victory, UNC's most lopsided in a bowl game, secured a No. 4 final ranking in the coaches' poll for the 11-1 Tar Heels. The game was Carl Torbush's first as Carolina's head coach. Torbush, UNC's defensive coordinator the past 10 years, was elevated to head coach on December 8th after Mack Brown accepted the same position at the University of Texas.

Keldorf completed 17 of 28 passes, including touchdown throws of 62 and 14 yards to wide receiver Octavus Barnes and four yards to fullback Jamie Carrick.

Carolina amassed 427 total yards and held the Hokies to just 185 yards. Leading 3-0, Keldorf hit Barnes with a 62-yard bomb down the left sideline for a 10-0 lead. Later in the first quarter, Carolina forced Virginia Tech to punt deep in Hokie territory. Quinton Savage blocked the punt and Dre' Bly scooped it up at the 6-yard line and scored for a 16-0 UNC advantage.

One minute and 10 seconds after Bly's touchdown, Ellis fell on a loose ball in the Tech end zone for another touchdown. Carolina scored 16 first-quarter points in the entire regular season, but scored 16 in the first quarter of the Gator Bowl and six more just seven seconds into the second quarter.

The 42 points were the most in UNC postseason history and the three touchdown passes by Keldorf set a UNC bowl game record.

1998 Las Vegas Bowl Las Vegas, Nev. Carolina 20, San Diego State 13 December 19, 1998

Ronald Curry rushed for a season-high 93 yards and a touchdown, punter Brian Schmitz was outstanding despite windy conditions and the Tar Heel defense did not allow a TD in the last 59 minutes as Carolina defeated San Diego State, 20-13.

Curry, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, gave Carolina the lead for good with a 48-yard touchdown run on the final play of the opening quarter. He rushed for 93 yards on 10 carries and accounted for 96 of Carolina's 196 total offense yards, despite playing just four series.

The game was played winds gusting to 47 miles per hour. Passing was almost impossible. In fact, Carolina won the game despite completing just four passes for 33 yards.

Schmitz averaged 44.0 yards on five punts and pinned the Aztecs inside their own 11-yard line four times. Late in the second quarter, Schmitz unloaded a 66-yard punt into the wind.

San Diego State took an early 7-0 lead in the first minute of the game before the Tar Heels scored 20 unanswered points to close the first half. After two second-half field goals cut it to 20-13, the Aztecs had one final chance to tie the game. With just over a minute left, Dre' Bly broke up a pass in the end zone. On the following play, Brandon Spoon tipped Brian Russell's pass in the air and the ball was intercepted at the goal line by Keith Newman with 59 seconds remaining.

2001 Peach Bowl Atlanta, Ga. Carolina 16, Auburn 10 December 31, 2001

Willie Parker rushed for 131 yards and Ryan Sims led a spirited defensive effort as North Carolina won its fifth consecutive postseason bowl appearance with a 16-10 victory over Auburn in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

Parker, who started his first game since September, was spectacular, scoring on a 10-yard run in the first quarter and setting up a second-quarter field goal with a 43-yard dash. Parker had the fifth-best rushing day in UNC bowl history and it was the 11th time a Tar Heel had rushed for more than 100 yards in a bowl game.

Parker's touchdown was set up by Carolina's defense, which allowed just 32 total rushing yards and shutout Auburn for three quarters. In the first quarter, cornerback Michael Waddell forced a fumble at the Auburn 26-yard line that defensive end Joey Evans picked up and rumbled to the Auburn 8-yard line. Two plays later, Parker's touchdown gave Carolina a 7-0 lead.

Curry, who was named the game's Offensive MVP, scored on an incredible touchdown run in the third quarter to give Carolina a 16-0 advantage.

Defensively, Carolina came up with several big plays throughout the game and held off a furious Auburn comeback in the fourth quarter. Sims, the Defensive MVP, had six tackles, including two sacks and was constantly disrupting the Auburn backfield.

After scoring twice in the fourth quarter, Auburn attempted an onside kick, but UNC's Richard Moore covered the ball and the Tar Heels ran out the clock.

2004 Continental Tire Bowl
Charlotte, N.C.
Boston College 37, Carolina 24
December 30, 2004

Kicker Ryan Ohliger scored on a 21-yard fake field goal run to seal Boston College's 37-24 victory over North Carolina in the Continental Tire Bowl.

Clinging to a 27-24 lead over North Carolina (6-6) in the fourth quarter, BC quarterback Paul Peterson was injured as he tried to run outside for a first down on third-and-1 and was brought down awkwardly by Tommy Davis. On the next play, Ohliger, a 5-foot-9 freshman, took the handoff from holder Matt Ryan and raced into the end zone, breaking a tackle along the way, for a 34-24 lead with 10:32 to play. Before leaving, Peterson went 24-of-33 for 236 yards and two touchdowns.

Virginia represented the ACC in the first two Tire Bowls, so the inclusion of North Carolina was a welcome change of scenery. Tar Heels fans snapped up over 65,000 tickets, washing out the scattering of Boston College supporters in a sea of light blue.

They had plenty to cheer about early as North Carolina seized the momentum by scoring a pair of touchdowns after Peterson's fumble and Ohliger's missed field goal.

North Carolina quarterback Darian Durant threw for 260 yards and three TDs in his final game as a Tar Heel. He finished his storied career with 51 school records, including all major passing and total offense records.

Wide receiver Derelle Mitchell caught seven passes for 116 yards.

2008 Meineke Car Care Bowl
Charlotte, N.C.
West Virginia 31, Carolina 30
December 27, 2008

Pat White threw for 332 yards, including a 20-yard touchdown pass to Alric Arnett midway through the fourth quarter to send West Virginia to a 31-30 win over North Carolina in the Meineke Car Care Bowl.

The senior quarterback was voted MVP, helping West Virginia (9-4) overcome Hakeem Nicks' big day for North Carolina. Nicks caught eight passes for 217 yards and three touchdowns for the Tar Heels (8-5), but T.J. Yates was intercepted by Pat Lazear with under 2 minutes left to end Butch Davis' hopes of a bowl win in his second year at North Carolina.

White completed 26 of 32 passes and threw one interception.

After J.T. Thomas recovered Shaun Draughn's fumble at the West Virginia 30, White threw a 41-yard pass over the middle to Jock Sanders, picked up nine yards on a running play and then rifled a pass between two defenders to Arnett for the go-ahead touchdown with 7:14 left.

Yates couldn't find the dynamic Nicks on the Tar Heels' final drive, eventually throwing his first interception of the game.

Nicks already set three school receiving records and shattered his career-high in yards receiving - with 10:37 left in the second quarter. It was part of a dizzying offensive display by both teams that produced six touchdowns in the game's first 20 minutes.

Nicks' 25-yard TD catch from Yates early in the second quarter was his 178th career reception - another school record - and gave North Carolina a 23-21 lead. The action thrilled a sellout crowd at Bank of America Stadium that included thousands of fans from both schools.

2009 Meineke Car Care Bowl
Charlotte, N.C.
Pittsburgh 19, Carolina 17
December 26, 2009

Dion Lewis rushed for 159 yards and a touchdown, and Dan Hutchins kicked a 33-yard field goal with 52 seconds left to give the 17th-ranked Panthers a 19-17 win over North Carolina on Saturday in the Meineke Bowl.

Winning 10 games for the first time since Dan Marino was the quarterback in 1981, Pitt (10-3) converted on fourth down at its own 30 and took advantage of a key offsides penalty to set up Hutchins' fourth field goal.

T.J. Yates threw two touchdown passes to Greg Little, but his incomplete pass on fourth-and-10 from his own 49 with 6 seconds left sent the Tar Heels (8-5) to their second straight bowl loss.

Yates was 19 of 32 for 183 yards and an interception while Little caught seven passes for 87 yards and Ryan Houston rushed for 83 yards.

But North Carolina's defense, which came in sixth in the nation overall and ninth against the run, struggled to contain the shifty Lewis.

The matchup featured old coaching buddies who won a national championship and Super Bowl together. Pitt's Dave Wannstedt and Davis worked on Jimmy Johnson's staffs at Oklahoma State, Miami and the Dallas Cowboys. Their careers then included NFL head coaching jobs before they returned to college.

It took Wannstedt's big gamble to help Pitt end a two-game losing streak after North Carolina took a 17-16 lead late in the third quarter on Yates' second touchdown pass to Little.

2010 Music City Bowl Nashville, Tenn. Carolina 30, Tennessee 27 December 30, 2004

Casey Barth kicked a 23-yard field goal in the second overtime to send North Carolina past Tennessee 30-27 in a Music City Bowl that will be remembered much more for the crazy finish of regulation than how it ended.

Barth kicked a 39-yard field goal after officials reviewed what had been the final play of the game and decided to penalize the Tar Heels (8-5) for having "more than 11 men" on the field. The Big Ten officiating crew also announced T.J. Yates had spiked the ball with 1 second left. That allowed Barth to run out and kick the field goal that tied it at 20.

Tennessee (6-7) was stunned at the sudden switch that cost the Vols an apparent bowl victory to cap Derek Dooley's first season. Tyler Bray threw a 25-yard TD in the first overtime, but Quan Sturdivant picked him off to end the Vols' last chance in the second OT.

Tennessee had the home-field advantage with LP Field painted orange from top to bottom, and the Vols' fans had been celebrating ever since Bray's 8-yard TD pass to Justin Hunter put them up 20-17 with 5:16 left.

But Donte Paige-Moss blocked Daniel Lincoln's extra point, and that provided the edge North Carolina needed to force overtime with Barth's second field goal.

Tennessee had a chance to clinch the victory when the Vols got the ball back with 1:36 left but punted it back to North Carolina with 31 seconds remaining to set up the bizarre finish.

The Tar Heels intercepted Bray three times, finished with four sacks and held Tennessee to 27 yards rushing on 29 attempts.

2011 Independence Bowl Shreveport, La. Missouri 41, Carolina 24 December 26, 2011

James Franklin ran for two touchdowns and threw for another, and Missouri beat North Carolina 41-24 in the Independence Bowl.

Franklin, named the game's offensive Most Valuable Player, rushed for 142 yards and threw for 132 despite less than ideal conditions in the cold and rain at Independence Stadium. He led the Tigers to 31 first-half points - an Independence Bowl record.

For North Carolina (7-6), a season that started with a promising 5-1 record ends with a lopsided loss. The Tar Heels lost five of their final seven under interim coach Everett Withers, who leaves to become defensive coordinator at Ohio State under Urban Meyer.

North Carolina had the Atlantic Coast Conference's second-best rushing defense, giving up just 106.2 yards per game. But the Tigers found plenty of running room with Franklin and Kendial Lawrence, repeatedly going for big gains.

Lawrence rushed for 108 yards and a touchdown as the Tigers racked up 337 yards on the ground.

North Carolina's quarterback, Bryn Renner, had a very productive game, throwing for 317 yards, three touchdowns and an interception.

North Carolina scored first, with Renner hitting Dwight Jones for a 22-yard touchdown pass with 12:12 left in the first quarter. That would be the high point for the Tar Heels.

North Carolina had a glimmer of hope late in the third when Jheranie Boyd caught a 44-yard touchdown pass from Renner to pull the Tar Heels to 34-17. But Missouri responded minutes later with Franklin's second touchdown run of the night.

2013 CAROLINA FOOTBALL MEDIA INFORMATION

CAROLINA FOOTBALL MEDIA INFORMATION

ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS

Football media services are coordinated by Assistant Athletic Director for Communications Kevin Best and Assistant Athletic Communications Director Bobby Hundley. Please direct interview, information and photo requests to Best or Hundley. Best's office is located on the fourth floor of the Kenan Football Center. The main Athletic Communications Office is located on the street level of the Koury Natatorium, adjacent to the Dean E. Smith Center and less than one mile from Kenan Stadium.

CREDENTIALS

Requests for working press credentials at Carolina home football games should be made in writing to Assistant A.D. for Communications Kevin Best. The mailing address is P.O. Box 2126, Chapel Hill, N.C. 27515. Requests should be sent via e-mail (kbest@unc.edu), and all requests should arrive at least one week prior to the game.

Credentials will be mailed or they may be picked up before 5 p.m. on Friday at the Athletic Communications Office at the Koury Natatorium. Those credentials not picked up by 5 p.m. on Friday will be left for Saturday pickup at Kenan Stadium Will Call at Gate 6. Will Call opens two hours prior to kickoff and will be staffed through the third quarter.

SIDELINE POLICY

Photographers will not be allowed on the sidelines without a UNC-issued photographer's vest. Vests will be distributed in the press box beginning 90 minutes prior to kickoff. Each photographer must sign in for his/her own vest. Under NCAA and ACC guidelines, photographers are not allowed between the 25-yard lines and must remain outside the restraining lines surrounding the field. Credential holders not working will be asked to leave the sidelines. A representative of the Athletic Communications Office will be on the field to handle any questions and serve as field liaison to press box officials. Equipment should not be left unattended on the sidelines. If you are shooting with a tripod, please keep a safe distance from the playing field.

GAME DAY PARKING

Requests for parking passes should be made well in advance to Kevin Best. Single-game parking passes will be mailed. Parking is located either in the Bell Tower Deck behind the Kenan Football Center or the Dogwood Deck at the corner of East and Manning Drive.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following a brief cooling-off period, requested UNC players and head coach Larry Fedora will be available in the interview area on the fifth floor of Kenan Football Center for a 20-25 minute interview period. The Tar Heels' locker room is closed.

Representatives from the Communications Office will take player requests from the media during the fourth quarter. Local television media who are on the field during the game should make player requests prior to the end of the game to the on-field Communications representative.

Fedora is contractually obligated to do a short postgame interview with the Tar Heel Sports Radio Network before addressing the other media in attendance. After night games, great care will be taken to get Fedora to the media as quickly as possible. We understand everyone has deadline pressures after late games and will do our best to provide access to players and coaches as quickly as possible.

INTERNET AVAILABILITY

Kenan Stadium's press box has wireless capability. Media with wireless capability should be able to connect to the Internet by using the network information provided in the press box.

INTERVIEWS WITH HEAD COACH LARRY FEDORA

Larry Fedora will meet with the media at 11:30 a.m. each Monday prior to a game for approximately 30 minutes. An mp3 recording of Fedora's Monday press conference will be available on GoHeels.com later that afternoon.

Fedora is also available on the weekly ACC Teleconference on Wednesdays. Contact the ACC or Best for the time and phone number. All other interviews should be arranged through the communications office.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All player interviews should be arranged through Bobby Hundley or Kevin Best. Players have been instructed not to grant an interview request unless they have been set up in this manner. The interviews will generally be conducted after football practice at the Navy Practice Fields. All interviews are to be conducted on Tuesday or Wednesday.

Players may do taped radio interviews but will not be available for live call-in radio shows. Due to the overwhelming number of all-sports radio talk stations, players will generally not be available to appear on these shows. Hometown stations, stations in that week's opponent's market or national shows may be accommodated.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

Subject to change, Carolina will practice each Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday beginning at 3:30 p.m. on the practice fields located directly across the street from the baseball stadium and adjacent to the UNC School of Law. Practice will be open for the first 30 minutes each Tuesday. Players and select assistant coaches are available to meet with the media after practice on Tuesday and Wednesday.

TAR HEEL SPORTS NETWORK

The Tar Heel Sports Network On Air Talent (l-r): Lee Pace (sideline), Jones Angell (play-by-play), Rick Steinbacher (analyst), Dave Nathan (studio)

Learfield Communications begins its 15th full year as the official media rights holder for the University of North Carolina athletic teams.

Based in Jefferson City, Missouri, Learfield purchased Tar Heel Sports Properties in October 1999, adding the UNC property to 55 other schools, conferences and arenas under the Learfield umbrella. Among those for which Learfield also owns the rights are Alabama, Clemson, Colorado, Oklahoma, Indiana, Miami (Fla.), Missouri and Wisconsin.

"Our goal is to continue and add to the tremendous tradition and fan following at Carolina," says Gary Sobba, the 13-year General Manager for Tar Heel Sports Properties.

"I have worked on various college campuses for more than 23 years," adds Sobba, "and if there is a better athletic program in the country than this one, I don't know where it is."

Tar Heel Sports Properties is in its 19th year as UNC's multimedia rights holder. All Carolina fans have heard of the Tar Heel Sports Network, which broadcasts the play-by-play of football and basketball games, but that is only one facet of the operation.

Tar Heel Sports Properties is a full-service agency overseeing production and sales of all the University of North Carolina's football and basketball entities including television, print products, internet and radio.

THSP brings you a variety of ways to follow the Heels during the athletic season. Simply, listen to your radio during the week for "Larry Fedora Live" and "Roy Williams Live" or watch game highlights Saturday mornings on "Inside Carolina Football and Basketball," and on "Tar Heel Football Review Show" in the Triangle. When you are at Kenan Stadium pick-up the official game program.

The Tar Heel Sports Network continues to bring the great tradition of Carolina sports into your home. Fans have an opportunity to phone in and ask questions of the head coach every week during the football season on the "Larry Fedora Live" call in show.

Listeners can also tune in to "Inside Carolina Football", a daily five-minute program featuring head coach Larry Fedora and members of the football program. Both of these shows are heard on stations throughout North Carolina and beyond.

"Inside Carolina Football with Larry Fedora," is a half-hour television program seen each week on Fox Sports South throughout the southeast and on WTVD in the Triangle. The show features highlights of the previous game, interviews with current and former Tar Heel players, and a preview of upcoming action.

JONES ANGELL
PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Jones Angell enters his third year as the radio play-by-play announcer for the Tar Heel Sports Network.

A native of Jacksonville, N.C., Angell has worked in a number of roles at the network over the past 13 years. He served as host and color analyst for football and men's basketball games for six years before taking over the play-by-play duties in 2011.

Angell moved into the play-by-play chair after the retirement of Hall of Fame broadcaster Woody Durham, who stepped down after 40 seasons as the Voice of the Tar Heels.

Angell called play-by-play for Carolina baseball for nine seasons, which included five trips to the College World Series. During his career, he has also called play-by-play for UNC women's basketball and women's soccer.

A 2001 UNC graduate, Angell has been a member of UNC's broadcast team for more than 80 Tar Heel football games and more than 225 men's basketball games, including the 2009 national championship.

Angell is the host for GoHeels.com broadcasts of Late Night with Roy Williams and football's Signing Day Live. He also produces and hosts features on the coaches' television shows and writes a column for UNC Athletics.

Angell is as assistant director of New Media at UNC where he helps produce video board and special internet features that are shown online, at various athletic venues, and at special events such as the 100-year celebration of Carolina Basketball. He was an associate producer on the commemorative DVD that chronicled the 2005 men's basketball national championship.

Angell and his wife, Elizabeth, have a daughter, Caroline, and a son, Walker.

TAR HEEL TRADITIONS

WHY TAR HEELS?

University of North Carolina athletic teams are known as the Tar Heels because North Carolina is "The Tar Heel State."

One legend has the nickname being applied to the state's residents as long ago as the Revolutionary War. According to this story, the troops of British General Cornwallis were fording what is now known as the Tar River between Rocky Mount and Battleboro when they discovered that tar had been dumped into the stream to impede their crossing. When they finally got across the river they found their feet completely black with tar. Their observation that anyone who waded North Carolina rivers would acquire tar heels led to the nickname first being used.

Others say the nickname was acquired during the Civil War. During one of that war's fiercest battles a column supporting North Carolina troops was driven from the field. After the battle, the North Carolinians who had successfully fought it out alone, happened to meet the regiment which had fled to safety and were greeted with the question, "Any more tar down in the Old North State, boys?"

"No, not a bit," shot back one of the North Carolina soldiers. "Old Jeff's bought it all up," he went on, referring to Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederacy.

"Is that so? What's he going to do with it?"

"He's going to put it on you'ns heels to make you stick better in the next fight."

Upon hearing of the incident, Robert E. Lee smiled and said to a fellow officer, "God bless the Tar Heel boys."

A letter found in 1991 by State Archivist David Olson lends credence to another more direct theory. A letter from Maj. Joseph Engelhard describes a fight involving men from North Carolina in which Lee was heard to have said, "There they stand as if they have tar on their heels."

The letter, dated August 24, 1864, told the tale of a battle on the outskirts of Petersburg, Va. Engelhard was elected secretary of state for North Carolina in 1876.

RAM MASCOT

Since Carolina's nickname is Tar Heels, it might seem strange to have a ram as a mascot. It is. But, there is a good explanation. It's offered by Vic Huggins, Carolina's head cheerleader back in 1924.

"In 1924 school spirit was at a peak," Huggins once explained. "But something seemed to be missing. One day it hit me. Georgia had a bulldog for a mascot and State a wolf. What Carolina needed was a symbol."

Two years earlier the Tar Heels had posted a brilliant 9-1 record. The star of that 1922 team was a bruising fullback named Jack Merritt. Merritt was nicknamed "the battering ram" for the way he plunged into lines. It seemed natural to Huggins to link a mascot with Merritt's nickname.

"Charlie Woollen, the athletic business manager at that time, agreed with the idea and gave us $25 to purchase a fitting mascot," said Huggins.

Rameses the First was shipped in from Texas, arriving just in time to be introduced at a pep rally before the VMI game. Complete with a monogram blanket on his back, Rameses helped make the pep rally one of the school's greatest.

Then the ram was taken to Emerson Field where Carolina was an underdog to a strong VMI team. But, for three quarters the Tar Heels battled the visitors to a scoreless tie.

Late in the fourth period Carolina's Bunn Hackney was called upon to attempt a field goal. Before taking the field he stopped to rub Rameses' head for good luck.

Seconds later Hackney's 30-yard dropkick sailed between the goalposts, giving the Tar Heels a 3-0 victory and a legendary mascot.

PREGAME WALK

On game days, the North Carolina football team walks through a gathering of fans and into the Kenan Football Center. The pregame arrival tradition began in 2000 when the team would walk from the Bell Tower and into the stadium. The drop off point moved to the Old Well from 2001-12. The 2013 drop off location will be announced in August. The pregame walk begins approximately two and a half hours prior to kickoff of each game.

SCHOOL COLORS

The adoption of light blue and white as UNC's colors dates back to the 19th Century. When the University reopened following the Civil War, most social activities were directed by two literary societies, the Dialectic and Philanthropic. The official color of the Di was light blue and that of the Phi white.

On public occasions the student officers, marshals and ball managers were chosen equally from the membership of the two societies. It had long been the custom of each society for its members to wear its color on such occasions. However, the chief marshal and chief ball manager, one from the Di and the other from the Phi, wore combination light blue and white regalias and rosettes signifying that they represented the whole student body.

So it seemed only natural for the fans to adorn themselves with the same combination as that used by the chief marshals and ball managers, colors which represented not membership in a society, but a University student body.

CAROLINA FIGHT SONGS

• HERE COMES CAROLINA

Here comes Carolina-lina
Here comes Carolina-lina
We hail from NCU.
We've got the spirit in it
We've got the team to win it
We wear the colors White and Blue –
So it's Fight! Fight! for Carolina
As Davie did in days of old.
As we gather 'round the 'Well
Cheer that Tar Heel team like hell –
For the glory of NCU.

• ALMA MATER

Hark the sound of Tar Heel voices
Ringing clear and true,
Singing Carolina's praises, Shouting "NCU."
(chorus)
Hail to the brightest star of all!
Clear its radiance shine
Carolina, priceless gem,
Receive all praises thine.
(refrain)
For I'm a Tar Heel born
I'm a Tar Heel bred,
And when I die I'm a Tar Heel dead.
So it's – Rah, Rah, Carolina-lina

Rah, Rah, Carolina-lina
Rah, Rah, Carolina!
Rah! Rah! Rah!

• CAROLINA VICTORY MARCH

There'll be a Carolina victory,
When cross that field the foe has fled.
Cheer that team to victory,
For we are Tar Heels born and bred.
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Glory, glory, UNC.
Our hearts will live with thee
Fight! Fight! Fight!
For the Blue & White are rolling to victory.
