QUICK OVERVIEW

North Carolina returns 47 letterwinners and 17 starters in 2015 as the Tar Heels look to return to the postseason for the third consecutive season.

Carolina returns 10 starters on offense, including record-setting quarterback Marquise Williams, explosive receivers Quinshad Davis, Ryan Switzer and Mack Hollins and all five starters on the offensive line. The Tar Heels have averaged more than 425 yards per game since head coach Larry Fedora's arrival in Chapel Hill in 2012 and will look to continue that streak for an unprecedented fourth-consecutive season in 2015.

On the other side of the ball, Carolina changed its entire defensive coaching staff. Fedora brought in highly respected Gene Chizik, a two-time national championship coach who has a tremendous pedigree of success as a defensive coordinator at every stop he's made. He will look to overhaul a defense that gave up nearly 500 yards and 40 points per game. He is assisted by former Nebraska coordinator John Papuchis, defensive backs coach Charlton Warren and

Quinshad Davis

QUICK HITS

❑ The Tar Heels play nine of their 12 regular season games in the state of North Carolina in 2015. The only three games outside the state are at Georgia Tech (Oct. 3), at Pittsburgh (Oct. 29) and at Virginia Tech (Nov. 21). All four non-conference games are in North Carolina, including the season opener vs. South Carolina on Sept. 3 in Charlotte.

❑ Marquise Williams is the only ACC quarterback with 35 TDs from last season returning in 2015. Williams threw 21 touchdown passes, rushed for 13 scores and even had a TD reception in 2014. Statistically, he was responsible for 34 touchdowns (the reception is credited to the QB), which tied Florida State's Chris Weinke for the ninth-best single-season mark in ACC history.

❑ UNC returns four players with at least 400 yards receiving in 2015 – Switzer (757), Hollins (613), Davis (470) and Howard (455). There are only 16 returning players in the ACC with at least 400 receiving yards.

❑ Over the last three years, UNC has averaged 163.8 rush yards per game. That is the best three-year average since 1993-95.

❑ Over the last three seasons, UNC leads the ACC with 18 non-offensive TDs. In 2014, the Tar Heels were second in the ACC in interceptions returns for touchdowns.

❑ Carolina has averaged more than 425 offensive yards per game in three straight seasons.

❑ Carolina ranked 18th in the country last year with 77.3 plays per game.

❑ Carolina had five different players throw touchdown passes last fall. No other team had as many. Starting quarterback Marquise Williams led the way with 21, followed by backup QB Mitch Trubisky with five, WR Quinshad Davis with one, WR Ryan Switzer with one and punter Tommy Hibbard with one.

❑ Carolina ranked 10th in nation in kickoff return defense last season. (17.41 yards per return). Kickoff specialist Nick Weiler was second nationally in average kickoff distance.

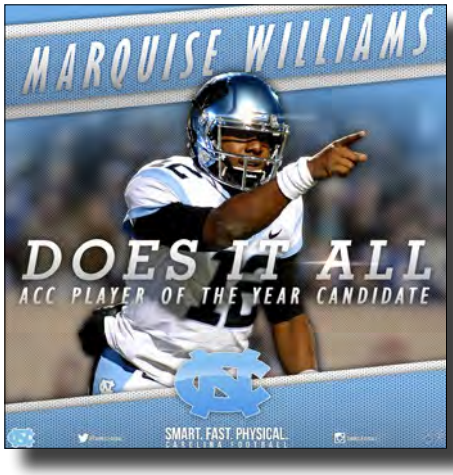

❑ Carolina returns 99.5 percent of its total offense from a year ago.

defensive line coach Tray Scott. The Tar Heels' base defense is now a standard 4-3 with four down linemen and three linebackers.

On special teams, Carolina must replace four-year punter Tommy Hibbard and also find a consistent field goal kicker after making just six three-pointers in 2014. Redshirt freshman Corbin Daly emerged from the spring as the likely punter, but will face competition from junior Joey Mangili. Nick Weiler is a standout kickoff man and will compete for place-kicking duties with redshirt freshman Freeman Jones. Switzer will handle the punt return duties for the third consecutive season, and experienced letterwinners T.J. Logan, Damien Washington and Romar Morris will compete at kick returner.

"Our goal is always going to be to win the coastal division," says Fedora. "The second goal will be to win the state championship. If we do those things, then the rest will take care of itself. There will be a lot of challenges this season, and we will challenge the team every day to be better than they were the day before. We can have a good season if we work together, overcome adversity and create competition at every position."

WILLIAMS HEADLINES OFFENSE

Quarterback Marquise Williams returns for his senior season looking to continue his outstanding statistical career. Since taking over as the starter in 2013, Williams' offensive output is comparable to some of the game's top recent quarterbacks, including former Heisman Trophy winner Jameis Winston of FSU.

Williams took over for an injured Bryn Renner on Nov. 9, 2013, and over the next 18 games, he had 5,570 total yards of offense, completed 61.5 percent of his attempts, accounted for 48 touchdowns and had 16 turnovers. Compare those numbers to Winston (5,827 total offense, 64.6 completion percentage, 45 touchdowns and 26 turnovers) and Williams was nipping at the heels of the standout Seminole signal caller.

MARQUISE & THE RECORD BOOK

- Owns 18 UNC single-season or career records, including single-season total offense (3,856 in 2014) and career TD runs by QB (22).
- Ranks ninth in ACC for most career rushing yards by a quarterback with 1,510 yards.
- Had the sixth-highest single-season rushing total by an ACC quarterback with 788 in 2014.
- Had the fifth-highest single-season rushing touchdown total by an ACC quarterback with 13 in 2014.

The chart below (courtesy of David Hale of ESPN.com) compares Williams with some of the top quarterbacks in the country over the last two seasons.

Williams missed spring practice after undergoing hip surgery following the 2014 season. He has progressed well and returned to throwing in April. He is expected to be at full strength for fall training camp and will be the starter in 2015.

"Marquise is our starting quarterback, and we've got some great competition at that position," says Fedora. "That's the kind of competition we're looking to create at every position on the football team. I'm looking forward to watching those guys compete in fall camp, but I anticipate Marquise taking that first snap against South Carolina and getting after it."

Mack Hollins

Mitch Trubisky is second on the depth chart and had some big moments last year, including a go-ahead 16-yard touchdown pass on third-and-15 with 4:05 remaining on his only play of the game at Virginia. On the season, Trubisky completed 42 of 78 pass attempts for 459 yards and five touchdowns. Redshirt freshman Caleb Henderson and January enrollee Anthony Ratliff-Williams also saw action this spring.

"Marquise's absence this spring allowed the other guys to get a lot of reps," says Fedora. "Mitch took the majority of the reps in the spring with the first team. I think he feels very comfortable and has grown within the offense. I think we're starting to see what he can do. Caleb had a lot of reps with the twos along with Anthony."

RETURNING OFFENSE

The Tar Heels return 99.5 percent of their total offense from a year ago. The top six touchdown scorers from 2014 return, including QB Marquise Williams (14 total TDs), WR Mack Hollins (eight), WR Quinshad Davis (six), TB Elijah Hood (four), TB Romar Morris (four) and WR Ryan Switzer (four). The only touchdown scorers not returning in 2015 are TE Jack Tabb (three), TE Eric Albright (one) and safety Tim Scott (one).

OFFENSIVE FIREPOWER

Carolina has averaged more than 425 yards per game in each of Larry Fedora's three seasons in Chapel Hill. Only one other time in school history – 1981-83 – has Carolina posted three consecutive seasons with 400 yards per game. In Fedora's first season in 2012, Carolina set the school record with 485.6 yards per game. In 2013, UNC averaged 425.7 yards per contest. Last year, Carolina posted 429.8 yards per game.

UNC's Top 10 Offensive Seasons

Rank	Year	Yardage	Coach
1.	2012	485.6	Larry Fedora
2.	1983	441.8	Dick Crum
3.	1993	438.0	Mack Brown
4.	1986	436.0	Dick Crum

6.	2014	429.8	Larry Fedora
7.	1974	426.5	Bill Dooley
8.	2013	425.7	Larry Fedora
9.	1981	415.7	Dick Crum
10.	1970	411.2	Bill Dooley

In 124 seasons of college football, Carolina has averaged 400 yards per game just 11 times, with three of those coming under Fedora's direction. The Tar Heels have never had a four-year stretch of averaging more than 400 yards per game.

Carolina has posted more than 500 yards of total offense 10 times in 38 games under Larry Fedora, including a school-record 721 yards vs. ODU in 2013. UNC has gained at least 400 yards in 27 of Fedora's 38 games as head coach.

NON-OFFENSIVE TOUCHDOWNS

Over the last three seasons, Carolina leads the ACC with 18 non-offensive TDs. During that stretch, the Tar Heels have scored on seven punt returns, six interception returns, three kickoff returns and two fumble returns. Current players who have scored non-offensive touchdowns are junior wide receiver Ryan Switzer (five punt returns), junior running back T.J. Logan (two kickoff returns), senior linebacker Jeff Schoettmer (two interception returns), junior safety Dominquie Green (interception return), junior cornerback Brian Walker (interception return) and sophomore linebacker Cayson Collins (fumble return).

NC State	3	7
Syracuse	4	6
Virginia	4	5
Boston College	3	4
Pittsburgh	2	3

In 2014, the Tar Heels scored on an interception return three times and twice on a fumble return. Carolina ranked second in the ACC and eighth nationally in interception returns for touchdowns. Schoettmer scored on a 19-yard pick-six against Liberty and a 29-yard return at Notre Dame. Cornerback Brian Walker scored on a 100-yard interception return vs. SDSU, tying the school mark for longest INT return. Collins scored on a 39-yard fumble return at Miami and Tim Scott scored on a 10-yard fumble return at Duke.

TURNER NAMED PRESEASON FIRST-TEAM ALL-AMERICA

North Carolina senior offensive guard Landon Turner was named a 2015 preseason first-team All-America by college football analyst Phil Steele.

A native of Harrisonburg, Va., Turner has started games in each of the last three seasons and is the Tar Heels' most consistent performer on the offensive line. He started all 13 games at right guard as a sophomore in 2013 and started all 11 games he played in 2014.

Last season, Turner earned third-team All-ACC honors from the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association. He was named the ACC Offensive Lineman of the Week after his performance in a 45-20 victory at No. 25 Duke as the Tar Heels posted 315 rushing yards and a season-best 591 total yards of offense. In that game, he had a career-best grade of 97 percent and had 15 knockdown blocks. He graded out at 87 percent on the year.

Turner was joined on Phil Steele's All-ACC First Team by teammate Caleb Peterson, UNC's left guard. Wide receiver Quinshad Davis, offensive tackle Jon Heck and punt returner Ryan Switzer were second-team picks. Quarterback Marquise Williams, running back Elijah Hood, wide receiver Mack Hollins and kick returner T.J. Logan were third-team selections. Center Lucas Crowley, defensive tackle Nazair Jones and linebacker Jeff Schoettmer were on Steele's fourth team.

SCHOETTMER LEADS DEFENSIVE EFFORTS

Defensively, North Carolina is led by senior linebacker Jeff Schoettmer. A former walk-on who was awarded a scholarship in 2012, Schoettmer has been one of the team's most consistent and reliable players over the last two seasons. He has started 24 of the last 26 games at middle linebacker and has twice finished second on the team in tackles. In 2013, he posted 85 stops and last season he tallied 74. He scored twice on interceptions last year – vs. San Diego State and at Notre Dame – and was also tied for second on the team with six tackles for loss.

Schoettmer was recruited by the previous staff out of Dallas as a 185-pound safety. He has put on more than 40 pounds of muscle since arriving in Chapel Hill and has played most of his career at linebacker.

Although he grew up in Dallas, Schoettmer has several family connections to the area, including his father, Steve, who played football at Duke and his mother, Donna, who played tennis at Wake Forest. His brother, Stephen, played baseball at Wake Forest. Schoettmer attended Jesuit College Prep in Dallas and is a good friend of 2015 Masters champion Jordan Spieth, who attended the same high school.

DAVIS CLIMBS THE CHARTS

Wide receiver Quinshad Davis has 21 career touchdown receptions, which ties him with Hakeem Nicks (2006-08) for the UNC career mark. Davis had five TD receptions as a freshman in 2012, made 10 scoring grabs in 2013 and caught six a year ago. He fractured his right fibula in the Quick Lane Bowl vs. Rutgers, but has made great progress this offseason and should be healthy for the start of fall training camp.

Davis enters the 2015 season with 150 career catches, which ranks eighth in UNC history. He is just one shy of Leon Johnson for seventh place and needs 32 to supplant Nicks as the school's career leader. Davis also has

Landon Turner

1,976 career receiving yards, which ranks ninth at UNC.

While he is known for his abilities as a receiver, Davis has also thrown three career touchdowns passes. He connected with QB Marquise Williams late in the third quarter at Notre Dame, a 23-yard scoring play to give Carolina the lead. Davis also threw touchdowns against Virginia (to Williams) and East Carolina (to T.J. Thorpe) in 2013. He has completed all three pass attempts of his career for touchdowns.

WIDE RECEIVER DEPTH

Carolina returns four players with at least 400 yards receiving in 2015 – Ryan Switzer (757), Mack Hollins (613), Quinshad Davis (470) and Bug Howard (455). There are only 16 returning players in the ACC with 400 or more receiving yards. Virginia Tech (3) is the only other team in the league with more than two players returning with more than 400 yards receiving.

Carolina lost just three players on offense who recorded at least one reception in 2014 – Jack Tabb (26), T.J. Thorpe (16), Eric Albright (2).

OPTIONS PLENTIFUL IN RUNNING GAME

Over the last three years, UNC has averaged 163.8 rushing yards per game. That is the best three-year average in Chapel Hill since 1993-95. Last season, however, quarterback Marquise Williams was the team's top rusher, averaging 60.6 yards per game. The coaching staff would like to see the running back get more of a share of the yards this year and have several options in the backfield.

"I don't necessarily want Marquise to be the leading rusher on the football team," says Fedora. "That's not the position we want to put him in. That was some of what he had to do last year, but hopefully we'll be much better in the running game with the running backs this year. We need to take some of that load off of him so he can continue to do the great things he can do in the passing game."

Junior T.J. Logan of Greensboro is the most experienced running back with 14 career starts, including nine last year. Logan twice rushed for more than 100 yards in a game – 116 at Duke, 110 vs. Rutgers – and was the team's top running back with 582 yards. He was also fifth on the team with 26 receptions.

Logan will battle this fall with Elijah Hood and Romar Morris for the starting nod. Hood saw significant playing time as a true freshman last year, and was just starting to hit his stride before an injury in the Notre Dame sidelined him for the next four contests. A punishing running back, Hood finished his rookie campaign with 259 yards on 67 carries and scored four touchdowns. Morris may be the fastest of the group and last year he rushed for 278 yards on 65 carries and was a solid receiver out of the backfield with 21 receptions for 178 yards. Khris Francis, another talented tailback, injured his knee late in the 2014 season and missed spring practice.

ALL FIVE STARTERS RETURN ON OFFENSIVE LINE

North Carolina is one of just eight Power 5 teams – and the only ACC team – to return all five starters on the offensive line. UNC actually returns its entire two-deep at offensive line from a year ago, plus the addition of four incoming freshmen.

Headlining the group is four-year starter Landon Turner at right guard, who was named a preseason first-team All-America by Phil Steele. In fact, Steele has four of UNC's returning OL starters on his All-ACC teams. Caleb Peterson is also a preseason first-team all-conference pick, while right tackle Jon Heck is a third-team pick and center Lucas Crowley is a fourth-team selection.

John Ferranto returns at left tackle, and he was pushed this spring by sophomore Bentley Spain, who saw some action last year as a true freshman. Ferranto will move to right tackle for the start of fall practice and Spain will be backed up by true freshman William Sweet of Jacksonville, Fla.

"Last year we only had one returning starter on the offensive line and I think that is why we struggled at times on offense," said Fedora. "This year, we have all those guys back, and we even have many of the backups back, so it's not a position we are as concerned about this year. These guys have experience. They will be better because they are a year older. They are a big athletic group.

"On the offensive line, you have five guys who have to process information very quickly and they all have to be on the exact same page as the defense changes. Within a 5-6 second interval, they have to make a decision and sometimes be on the same page with non-verbal communication."

CROWLEY NAMED TO RIMINGTON WATCH LIST

Junior center Lucas Crowley is one of 50 players on the Rimington Trophy Committee's 2015 Spring Watch List. The Rimington Trophy is presented annually to the Most Outstanding Center in NCAA Division I-A College Football.

Crowley has made 13 career starts, including 12 during the 2014 season. He reached double digits in knockdown blocks in six games, including a season-high 11 in a win over Georgia Tech.

Dave Rimington, the award's namesake, was a consensus first-team All-America center at the University of Nebraska in 1981 and 1982, during which time he became the John Outland Trophy's only double winner as the nation's finest college interior lineman.

JANUARY ENROLLEES

Carolina welcomed nine scholarship student-athletes (below) to campus in January. That is the most early enrolles the Tar Heels have ever had. The January enrollees are safety J.K. Britt (Newnan, Ga.), defensive end Jalen Dalton (Clemmons, N.C.), wide receiver Juval Molette (Randleman, N.C.), quarterback Anthony Ratliff-Williams (Matthews, N.C.), linebacker Andre Smith (Jacksonville, Fla.), offensive tackle William Sweet (Jacksonville, Fla.), tight end Carl Tucker (Cornelius, N.C.), offensive lineman Mason Veal (Charlotte, N.C.) and tailback Ty'Son Williams (Sumter, S.C.).

All nine graduated early from high school, attended classes at UNC in the 2015 spring semester, and participated in spring practice.

COACHING CHANGES

North Carolina completely revamped its defensive coaching staff during the offseason. Former Auburn head coach Gene Chizik was brought in to coordinate the defense after Vic Koening departed for Troy. Chizik has been a coordinator at five different institutions and won national championships at both Auburn and Texas.

John Papuchis, who was most recently Nebraska's defensive coordinator, will serve as the Tar Heels' linebackers coach. Charlton Warren, another former Nebraska assistant, will coach the defensive backs, and Tray Scott will coach the defensive line.

Chizik has a unique tie to the Tar Heels. His father, Gene Chizik Sr., grew up in Asheville and was good friends with Bill Justice, Charlie Justice's brother. Charlie was twice a Heisman Trophy runner-up at UNC and a statue of him is in front of the Kenan Football Center where Chizik now works.

GNONKONDE'S PATH TO CHAPEL HILL

Junior defensive end Junior Gnonkonde is expected to challenge for a starting spot at defensive end after playing the last two seasons as a bandit in the unique 4-2-5 defensive scheme. He had a solid season in 2014, registering 41 tackles, five tackles for loss and one sack.

A native of Abidjan, Ivory Coast, Gnonkonde came to the United States seven years ago in 2008 for an international basketball tournament in San Francisco. He planned to return to the Ivory Coast after the tournament, but unrest in his home country and a series of connections led him to tiny Lakeland, Ga., where he attended Lanier High School. He spoke no English at the time, but was fluent in four other languages - French, Guere and two other African dialects.

He quickly adjusted to his new surroundings and became a highly-recruited defensive lineman. He redshirted as a freshman in 2012 and played in every game in 2013.

PLAYING FAST

According to research by CFBMatrix.com, North Carolina was the fastest Power 5 football program in the country last season, executing 3.28 plays per minute. Only Bowling Green of the Mid-American Conference was faster at 3.31 plays per minute. On average, teams ran 2.619 plays per minute.

"I've never said that it's going to be fast all the time," says Fedora. "I've always said that it's a multi-tempo offense. I think it's more important to change the pace of the offense throughout the game. I think that's much more difficult on a defense. Our main objective is to execute our plays to the best of our ability and put stress on the defense at all times."

ACADEMIC HONORS

Academic All-ACC: North Carolina's Elijah Hood, Caleb Peterson, Nathan Staub and Mitch Trubisky were named to the 2014 All-ACC Academic Football Team.

To be eligible for consideration for the team, a student-athlete had to earn a 3.00 grade point average for the previous semester and maintain a 3.00 cumulative average during his academic career. The team was chosen from a pool of 128 eligible ACC football student-athletes who were nominated by their schools.

Staub, a linebacker from Chestnut Mountain, Ga., was a repeat selection, also earning the honor in 2013. Hood (a true freshman in 2014), Peterson and Trubisky were first-time selections. Staub played in all 13 games last season registering 30 tackles and one tackle for loss. Hood, a native of Charlotte, played in nine games and finished with 259 rushing yards and four touchdowns. Peterson, a starting offensive guard from Auburn, Ala., is an all-conference candidate in 2015.

NFF Hampshire Society: Three Tar Heels were named to the 2015 NFF Hampshire Honor Society, which is comprised of college football players from all divisions of play who each maintained a cumulative 3.2 GPA or better throughout their college career. North Carolina was represented by tight end Eric Albright, defensive lineman Allen Champagne and defensive back Ryan Mangum. Recipients had to be a starter or a significant contributor in their last year of eligibility.

UNC Scholar-Athletes: North Carolina student-athletes were recognized for their academic achievements over the past year at the second-annual Scholar-Athlete Awards Luncheon in April, 2015. The highlight of the afternoon was recognition of the Top 10 Scholar-Athletes, the five senior men and five senior women with the highest cumulative GPA.

Football was represented by Alex Bales, a business/mathematical decision sciences double major, who is a reserve linebacker and special teams contributor. At the banquet, he spoke of a time he considered transferring from UNC and the outstanding advice he'd received from Kenan-Flagler Business School's Anna Millar, who told him "Your education is the best investment you'll ever make."

BELK KICKOFF & SEVEN HOME GAMES HIGHLIGHT SCHEDULE

A season-opening game in Charlotte against South Carolina, seven home games at Kenan Stadium and a Thursday night road game at Pittsburgh highlight the 2015 North Carolina football schedule.

The Tar Heels and Gamecocks will square off in the inaugural Belk College Kickoff, which will be held at Bank of America Stadium on Thursday, September 3. Opening kickoff is set for 6 p.m. and the game will be televised nationally by the ESPN family of networks. This marks the second time in the last three years that the two border state schools will open the college football season. The Charlotte Sports Foundation, a non-profit organization that runs the Belk Bowl and serves as the local organizing committee for the Dr Pepper ACC Football Championship Game, helped arrange the game.

After playing just six home games in 2014, the Tar Heels will play seven this season, including conference games against Wake Forest, Virginia, Duke and Miami. UNC's non-conference slate includes games against North Carolina A&T, Delaware and Big Ten foe Illinois.

LARRY FEDORA

HEAD COACH
FOURTH YEAR AT UNC

Larry Fedora enters his fourth season as North Carolina's head coach with the same energy and passion he had when he accepted the job four years ago.

"I'm a believer that nothing great can be accomplished without energy and a passion for what you believe in," he says. "We're building this program and every day we are striving to become better coaches and student-athletes."

Fedora is building a program at North Carolina that encompasses all aspects of the student-athlete experience. In his first three seasons, the Tar Heels have set offensive records in bunches, electrified fans with their special teams play, produced numerous professional prospects and won at least six games every season. Off the field, North Carolina student-athletes are regulars in the community and at local elementary schools. The Tar Heels' APR has improved under Fedora and Carolina had four players on last year's All-ACC Academic Team, the most since 2010.

Despite scholarship limitations imposed before Fedora took over the program, he has guided the Tar Heels to 21 wins in his first three years. Only Dick Crum won more games (24) in his first three seasons in Chapel Hill since the ACC began in 1953.

Fedora was one of the first coaches in the country to implement the spread offense, a style now employed in a majority of major programs. Fedora was quick to brand his style of play as "smart, fast and physical," a mantra he's preached since he first became a head coach at Southern Miss in 2008. That style has paid dividends for UNC, which has averaged more than 425 total yards of offense per game under his watch.

AT CAROLINA

Fedora's first season in 2012 was highlighted by a 6-1 mark at home, including a thrilling 43-35 victory over NC State and a 48-34 win against Virginia Tech. Giovani Bernard's 74-yard punt return in the final seconds of the NC State game ended Carolina's five-game losing skid to its nearby rival and set off a wild celebration on the UNC sidelines. The Virginia Tech game saw Carolina rush for 339 yards, its most since 2004, as the Tar Heels posted 533 total yards of offense. It was also the most points the Hokies had allowed in a game since joining the ACC. Carolina also posted home victories over Elon, East Carolina, Idaho and Maryland, and picked up road wins at Miami and Virginia. It marked the first time a UNC coach had won at Virginia in his first attempt since Dick Crum in 1979.

Statistically, Carolina finished eighth in the country in scoring in 2012, averaging a school-record 40.6 points per game. The Tar Heels scored 30 or more points in nine of 12 games, and twice posted more than 60 points, including a school-record 66 against Idaho. Carolina was 14th in the nation in total offense, averaging a school-record 485.6 yards per game.

The Tar Heels also excelled on special teams, finishing 10th in net punting and 10th in punt return average. Bernard was second nationally in punt returns and fourth as an all-purpose runner.

In his second season, the Tar Heels stumbled to a 1-5 start, but won six of their last seven games, and captured the 2013 Belk Bowl title with a 39-17 thumping of Cincinnati. The win ensured Fedora of his sixth-straight winning season as a head coach.

Carolina's offense set several more school records in 2013, including most points in a game (80), most plays in a season (943) and most passing yards in a season (3,606). It was the sixth consecutive year as a head coach that Fedora's offense has gained more than 5,000 total yards.

Fedora takes pride in having outstanding special teams play and 2013 may have been his best yet. Punt returner Ryan Switzer tied the NCAA single-season record with five punt returns for touchdowns en route to first-team All-America honors as a true freshman. It was the first time a true freshman at Carolina had ever been named first-team All-America. Meanwhile kick returner T.J. Logan returned two kickoffs for touchdowns. Throw in an interception return for touchdown by safety Dominquie Green and the Tar Heels set a school record for most non-offensive touchdowns with eight. Not surprisingly, the Tar Heels led the nation in punt returns and also finished 10th in the country in net punting.

The 2013 season culminated in a decisive 39-17 victory over Cincinnati in the Belk Bowl, the Tar Heels' first win in the Charlotte bowl game in four chances. It was Carolina's first bowl win since 2010.

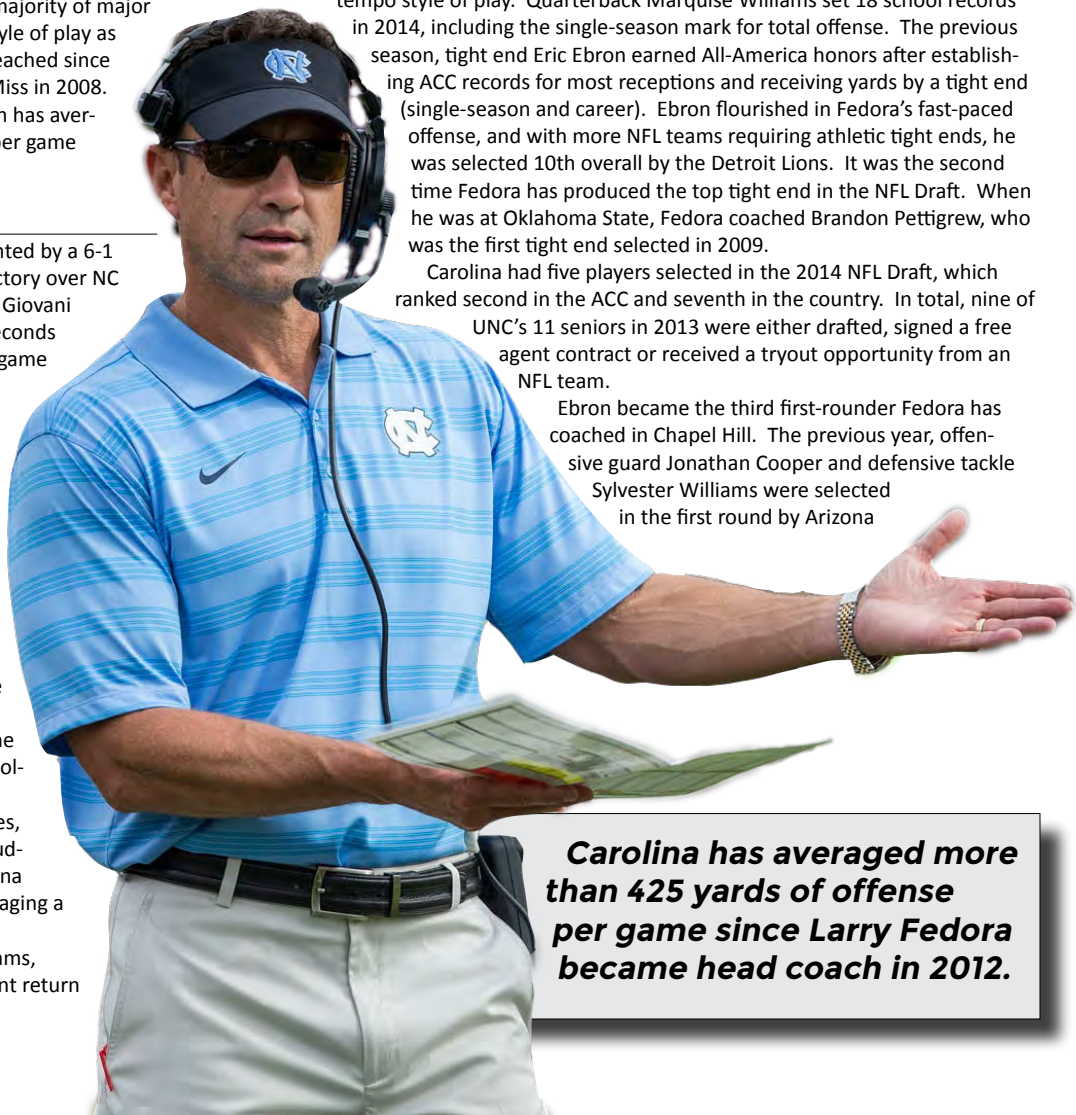

In 2014, Carolina again had one of the top offensive units in the ACC, ranking third in scoring and fifth in total offense. The Tar Heels won four of their last six regular-season games to earn a second straight bowl bid. The season was highlighted by a 45-20 win at No. 25 Duke, which was televised nationally by ESPN on Thursday night.

COACHING THE BEST

Without question, Carolina's players have benefitted from Fedora's up-tempo style of play. Quarterback Marquise Williams set 18 school records in 2014, including the single-season mark for total offense. The previous season, tight end Eric Ebron earned All-America honors after establishing ACC records for most receptions and receiving yards by a tight end (single-season and career). Ebron flourished in Fedora's fast-paced offense, and with more NFL teams requiring athletic tight ends, he was selected 10th overall by the Detroit Lions. It was the second time Fedora has produced the top tight end in the NFL Draft. When he was at Oklahoma State, Fedora coached Brandon Pettigrew, who was the first tight end selected in 2009.

Carolina had five players selected in the 2014 NFL Draft, which ranked second in the ACC and seventh in the country. In total, nine of UNC's 11 seniors in 2013 were either drafted, signed a free agent contract or received a tryout opportunity from an NFL team.

Ebron became the third first-rounder Fedora has coached in Chapel Hill. The previous year, offensive guard Jonathan Cooper and defensive tackle Sylvester Williams were selected in the first round by Arizona

Carolina has averaged more than 425 yards of offense per game since Larry Fedora became head coach in 2012.

(No. 7) and Denver (No. 28), respectively. It was just the second time Carolina had produced multiple first-round picks in the same season. Cooper was a consensus first-team All-America and became the first Outland Trophy finalist in UNC history. Williams, who prior to coming to UNC had worked in a factory making truck parts, was a stout run-stopper who earned first-team All-ACC honors.

Bernard, the fleet-footed runner from Ft. Lauderdale, led the league in rushing in 2012=, earned first-team All-ACC honors at both running back and specialist and was the first tailback selected in the NFL Draft when Cincinnati took him in the second round. Nine Tar Heels from the 2012 squad signed professional contracts, including five draft picks and four free agent signings. All three senior offensive linemen were drafted, including Cooper in the first round, Brennan Williams in the third and Travis Bond in the seventh.

BUILT A PROGRAM AT SOUTHERN MISS

The 35th head coach in Carolina history and the 11th since the ACC was formed in 1953, Fedora came to Carolina after four seasons as head coach at Southern Miss where he compiled a 34-19 overall record, including a 12-2 mark in 2012, and advanced to four consecutive bowl games. USM knocked off previously unbeaten and No. 6 Houston, 49-28, in the CUSA title game and then won its school-record 12th game of the year over Nevada in the Hawaii Bowl. The Golden Eagles reached double digits in wins for just the third time in school history and the first time since 1952. USM finished the season ranked No. 19 in the USA Today Coaches Top 25 poll, No. 20 in the Associated Press poll and No. 21 in the BCS standings.

Fedora's 2011 team was among the best in the country on both sides of the ball. Southern Miss was 17th in the nation in total offense, averaging 461.4 yards per game, and 14th in scoring offense with 36.9 points per contest. On defense, the Golden Eagles were seventh in pass efficiency defense, 26th in scoring defense and 29th in total defense.

Southern Miss developed into an explosive offensive program during Fedora's tenure, gaining more than 5,000 total yards of offense in each of his four seasons, including a school-record 6,459 yards in 2011. In three of his four years in Hattiesburg, the Golden Eagles established a school record for total offense. In addition, USM was one of only five schools to run more than 1,000 plays in 2010-11.

En route to an 8-win season in 2010,

Southern Miss established 35 school records and finished 18th in the country in total offense – the highest finish for the Golden Eagles since becoming a member of the FBS. Fedora's Southern Miss offenses were 31st in the nation in 2009 and 20th in 2008.

While admired for his offensive style, Fedora also believes in an attacking defensive philosophy. The Golden Eagles forced turnovers in 46 games during the Fedora era and two or more in 36 contests. That turnover margin helped the Golden Eagles rank 10th in turnover margin nationally for the second consecutive year in 2009 and 20th in 2010. In 2011, Fedora's defense set an FBS record with eight interceptions returned for touchdown.

Off the field, Fedora's teams have succeeded in the classroom. Southern Miss's graduation success rate (GSR) ranked second in CUSA in the 2009-10 academic year and third during the 2010-11 academic year. In 2009, USM was recognized by the AFCA for its graduation success rate.

LEARNING AS AN ASSISTANT

The Southern Miss job was Fedora's first head coaching assignment after excelling in the collegiate ranks as an assistant. He spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator at Oklahoma State from 2005-07 where the Cowboys raised their rushing, passing and total offensive yards each year with Fedora at the helm. In 2006, the Cowboys were one of just two teams - the other being Boise State - to average over 200 yards both rushing and passing.

The OSU offense averaged over 30 points per contest over his final two seasons as well. The Cowboys made the biggest improvement in the country in scoring following his second season of running the offense, jumping from 96th nationally in 2005 to seventh in 2006.

Prior to his stint at Oklahoma State, Fedora spent three seasons at Florida as run game coordinator (2002), perimeter game coordinator (2003) and offensive coordinator (2004). He also coached the running backs and receivers all three seasons.

In 2004, Fedora's Gators ranked first in the SEC in six different categories including passing offense (271.1), total offense (426.9), third down conversion percentage (47.8), touchdown passes (29), pass attempts (407) and pass completions (243).

Before going to Florida, Fedora was the offensive coordinator at Middle Tennessee from 1999-2001. In three seasons at MTSU, Fedora's offense averaged 424 yards of total offense, 181 rushing yards and 31 points per game. With Fedora as their offensive coordinator, the Blue Raiders set 43 school records over three seasons.

Fedora began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Austin College in 1986. He then served as an assistant coach at Garland (Texas) High School from 1987-90. Fedora returned to the collegiate ranks in 1991, serving as the tight ends, wide receivers and running backs coach at Baylor, where he stayed until 1996. He then spent two seasons (1997-98) at Air Force coaching the passing game and wide receivers.

PLAYING CAREER

As a player, Fedora was a wide receiver at Austin College from 1981-84. He played on the 1981 Kangaroo squad that won the NAIA championship. He earned academic All-America honors in 1983, and was honorable mention All-America in both 1983 and 1984.

FAMILY

Born Sept. 10, 1962, in College Station, Texas, Fedora is a 1985 graduate of Austin College in Sherman, Texas, where he also received his master's degree in 1986. He is married to the former Christi Wood, and the couple has one son, Dillon, and three daughters, Sydney, Peyton and Hallie.

GUNTER BREWER

CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR
WIDE RECEIVERS COACH
NINTH YEAR AT UNC

Gunter Brewer enters his ninth overall season in Chapel Hill and fourth under head coach Larry Fedora as the Tar Heels' co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach. Brewer coached five seasons in Chapel Hill from 2000-04 before returning in 2012 after stints at Oklahoma State and Mississippi.

During his second stint in Chapel Hill, Brewer has helped the Tar Heels establish more than 50 school offensive records, while tutoring some of the most productive wide receivers in school history.

In his first year back in 2012, the Tar Heels finished eighth in the country in scoring, averaging a school-record 40.6 points per game and were 14th in total offense, averaging 485.6 yards per game. The passing offense was 26th nationally with a school-record 291.8 yards per game. In each of the previous two seasons, Carolina has set school records for passing yards.

Several of Brewer's pupils have flourished under his coaching. Wideout Quinshad Davis enters his senior season in 2015 tied with Hakeem Nicks for the school record for career touchdown receptions with 21. In 2012, Davis broke Nicks' school freshman record with 61 receptions for 776 yards and five touchdowns. He also tied an ACC single-game record with 16 catches vs. Virginia. Davis currently ranks eighth in school history with 150 receptions and is ninth in receiving yards with 1,976.

In 2014, Carolina's top four receivers posted 35 or more catches and 400 or more yards, including Ryan Switzer who led the team with 61 catches for 757 yards. UNC returns all four of its top receivers this year – Switzer, Bug Howard, Davis and Mack Hollins – and is the only ACC school to return four 400-yard receivers. Hollins led the team with eight touchdown catches, which ranked second in the ACC, and he was fifth in the league with a 17.5 yard average.

In addition to his coaching ability, Brewer is considered one of the top recruiters in the country and is responsible for the Charlotte region, one of the most fertile recruiting areas in the country.

Brewer returned to UNC after serving one season as the associate head coach at Mississippi in 2011. Brewer was the lone assistant coach who remained on the Mississippi staff after Houston Nutt was dismissed at the end of the year. He headed up a transition team and had been asked to remain on the new Ole Miss staff.

Brewer is coaching with Fedora for the second time in his career. The two were on Mike Gundy's Oklahoma State offensive staff for three years from 2005-07.

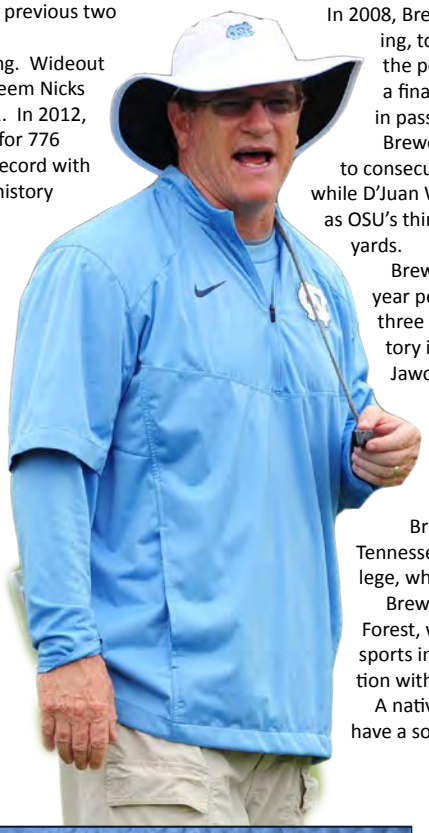

Brewer spent six seasons (2005-10) at Oklahoma State and served in various capacities, including as co-offensive coordinator, passing game coordinator, receivers coach and quarterbacks coach. His term in Stillwater included five bowl appearances and the program's first Big 12 South Championship in 2010.

Brewer recruited and served as the position coach for Justin Blackmon, a unanimous first-team All-America who won the Biletnikoff Award presented to the nation's top receiver. Blackmon finished the 2010 season as the national leader in receiving yards per game and was second in receptions per game. His 1,782 receiving yards were the most ever for a sophomore in NCAA history, and he set another NCAA record with 12 consecutive games with at least 100 yards receiving and a touchdown.

Blackmon was the third Biletnikoff Award finalist Brewer has coached, joining Randy Moss (1997 winner) and Dez Bryant (2008 runner-up). Moss and Bryant are also among 17 Brewer pupils that have gone on to professional football careers.

Brewer's work with the Cowboy wide receivers was key in OSU finishing the 2010 season ranked second in the nation in passing offense and third in the nation in both total offense and scoring offense.

With Brewer as co-offensive coordinator, the Cowboys offense produced a pair of first-team All-Americas in Bryant and running back Kendall Hunter, to go with first-round NFL Draft picks in lineman Russell Okung and tight end Brandon Pettigrew.

In 2008, Brewer's offensive unit finished top-10 nationally in rushing, total offense, scoring and pass efficiency. He was also the position coach for quarterback Zac Robinson, who was a finalist for the Manning Award and ranked fifth nationally in pass efficiency and 18th nationally in total offense.

Brewer coached Biletnikoff semifinalist Adarius Bowman to consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons in 2006 and 2007, while D'Juan Woods was a 2005 all-Big 12 pick and ended his career as OSU's third all-time leading receiver in both receptions and yards.

Brewer's stint at Oklahoma State was preceded by a five-year period at North Carolina (2000-04), where he coached three receivers who ranked among the top 20 in UNC history in receiving yards – Sam Aiken, Chesley Borders and Jaworski Pollock.

As the associate offensive coordinator and receivers coach at Marshall from 1996-99, Brewer coached Moss to stardom while helping the Thundering Herd to a 50-4 record over that time, including a perfect 13-0 mark and No. 10 final national ranking in 1999.

Brewer's other career stops include Wake Forest, East Tennessee State and Northeast Mississippi Community College, where he served as head coach in 1995.

Brewer was a two-year letterwinner as a receiver at Wake Forest, where he earned his degree in science and health sports in 1987. In 1989, he was awarded a master's in education with a specialization in exercise physiology from Ole Miss.

A native of Columbus, Miss., Brewer and his wife, Rhonda, have a son, Keaton, and a daughter, Lauren.

GENE CHIZIK

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
FIRST YEAR AT UNC

Gene Chizik is in his first season as Carolina's defensive coordinator. Chizik won national championships at Auburn and Texas and has long been considered one of the brightest defensive coaches in college football. He is an experienced leader who will work with head coach Larry Fedora to achieve excellence on and off the field.

Chizik served as head coach at Auburn from 2009-12 and led the Tigers to three bowl victories, including the 2011 BCS title game, which followed an undefeated 2010 season. Previously, he was the defensive coordinator at Texas under Mack Brown when the Longhorns captured the 2005 national championship.

Chizik also was Auburn's defensive coordinator from 2002-04, where he built one of the nation's most dominating defenses. In 2004, he earned the Broyles Award as the top assistant coach in the country when Auburn finished first in scoring defense and fifth in total defense. Auburn went 13-0, won the Southeastern Conference and defeated Virginia Tech in the Sugar Bowl.

After leaving Auburn in 2012, Chizik served as an analyst for ESPN, working most recently with the SEC Network. He also worked as a college football analyst with Sirius/XM radio.

As head coach at Auburn, Chizik had an Academic Progress Rate (APR) of 970 or above in three of his four seasons, including a 985 in his third year and a 978 in his final season. APR is a team-based metric that accounts for the eligibility and retention of each student-athlete, each term. The highest score attainable is 1000.

Chizik has also been heavily involved in college football reforms. In August of 2014, the NCAA invited him to serve on a 12-person committee tasked with examining the recruiting culture in college football and evaluating the current national letter of intent signing dates. The committee was organized in conjunction with the NCAA and reported to the Collegiate Commissioners Association.

Chizik achieved unparalleled success at Auburn in his first three years as head coach. He won more games (30) than any other coach in the school's rich football history in his first three seasons, including the school's first national championship in more than 50 years.

Chizik's second season at Auburn was one for the ages as the program won BCS and SEC Championships, while he earned Home Depot and Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year honors, as well as AP SEC Coach of the Year accolades. The 2010 Auburn squad went a perfect 14-0, recording the program's first title since 1957, and its first conference crown since 2004.

Players under Chizik's tutelage have earned several national awards, including the Heisman Trophy, Maxwell Award, Walter Camp Player of the Year Award, Lombardi Award and Thorpe Award.

Before being named Auburn's head coach, Chizik served two seasons as head coach at Iowa State (2007-08) and two as Texas' defensive coordinator (2005-06).

Chizik was the defensive coordinator at Texas under Mack Brown when the Longhorns captured the 2005 national championship. The Longhorns ranked eighth nationally in scoring defense, 10th in total defense and fourth in pass efficiency defense.

Prior to his arrival at Auburn in 2004, Chizik was the defensive coordinator for four seasons (1998-01) at Central Florida, where he improved a unit that was 81st nationally in total defense before his arrival to one that was 16th in the country in 2001.

Chizik spent six seasons at Stephen F. Austin from 1992-97, overseeing the linebackers (1992-94) and secondary (1995-97). He began his coaching career as defensive coordinator (1986-88) at Seminole High School in St. Petersburg, Fla., before becoming a graduate assistant at Clemson for a pair of 10-win teams in 1988-89. Chizik then became the outside linebackers coach at Middle Tennessee State from 1990-91, where the Blue Raiders made consecutive I-AA playoff appearances.

Chizik earned his B.A. degree in education from Florida in 1985 and his M.A. in guidance and counseling from Clemson in 1991.

A Clearwater, Fla., native, Chizik and his wife, Jonna, have identical twin daughters, Landry Grace and Kennedy Danielle, and a son, Cally.

KEITH HECKENDORF

QUARTERBACKS COACH RECRUITING COORDINATOR
FIFTH YEAR AT UNC

Keith Heckendorf is in his second season as North Carolina's quarterbacks coach and recruiting coordinator. This is his fifth year in Chapel Hill.

Heckendorf, who spent three seasons at UNC from 2011-13, returned to Chapel Hill after a brief stint as the tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at Arkansas State prior to the 2014 season. The Mosinee, Wis., native has been part of three winning seasons at UNC and three bowl appearances.

Last year, he tutored record-setting signal caller Marquise Williams, and was part of an offensive staff that set several single-season school marks, including most passing yards, most touchdown passes and most pass completions.

Williams set 18 school records in his first year as a starter, including the single-season mark for total offense (3,856) and touchdowns responsible for (34). The Charlotte, N.C., native was one of seven quarterbacks in the country to lead his team in passing and rushing yards. In addition to his 21 touchdown passes, he also rushed for 13 scores, the most by a quarterback in UNC history. Williams ranked second in the ACC in total offense (296.6), third in passing (236.0), second in scoring touchdowns (14) and 11th in rushing (60.6). A second-team all-conference selection, he was the only player in the league ranked in the top 11 in rushing and passing.

In his first stint at UNC, Heckendorf helped tutor quarterbacks Bryn Renner and Williams. Renner set several school records at UNC, including the single-season mark for touchdown passes with 28 in 2012. Renner finished his outstanding career second at Carolina in touchdowns and third in passing yards. Williams came off the bench in 2013 when Renner went down with a season-ending injury to lead the team to wins in six of its final seven games. He set a single-game record with 469 total yards of offense in a win over Old Dominion.

Prior to his first tenure at Carolina, Heckendorf spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Western Carolina. He also spent three seasons at Nebraska that included trips to the 2005 Alamo Bowl and 2007 Cotton Bowl.

Heckendorf had a standout career as a quarterback at St. Cloud State in St. Cloud, Minn., from 2000-03. He was a two-time finalist for the Harlon Hill Trophy, which is given annually to the top player in NCAA Division II football, finishing second and third in the voting. He was also a consensus American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) All-America pick, and a two-time Academic All-America. He was the Division II recipient of the prestigious National Football Foundation Scholar Athlete Award. He earned his bachelor's degree in elective studies from St. Cloud State University in 2004, and he completed his master's in education administration from the University of Nebraska in 2014.

He is married to the former Ms. Mia Mauer of Saint Paul, Minn.

LOU HERNANDEZ

HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH FOR FOOTBALL
FOURTH YEAR AT UNC

Lou Hernandez is in his fourth season as North Carolina's head football strength and conditioning coach.

During his tenure in Chapel Hill, Hernandez has helped the Tar Heels become bigger, stronger and faster with his workout philosophy and techniques. In each of the last three years, Carolina has had 40-or-more student-athletes power clean 308 pounds or more, one of the many quantitative measurements used in Hernandez's program.

Carolina was one of the most well-represented teams at the NFL combine workouts in February of 2013 and many observers marveled at the Tar Heels' abilities in the strength and conditioning exercises. Center Russell Bodine, now with the Cincinnati Bengals, had the most bench press reps (42) of any player at the combine, a mark achieved by only 15 players previously. Bodine also had one of the top five vertical jumps for an offensive lineman. Combine attendee Tre Boston was among the top safeties in bench and 40-yard dash, while defensive end Kareem Martin had the best broad jump of any lineman. Boston was a third-round pick of the Carolina Panthers and became a starter late in the season when the Panthers advanced to the playoffs.

Hernandez helped develop tight end Eric Ebron into a first-team All-America and a first-round draft pick. Ebron had the second fastest time in the 40-yard dash of any tight end at the NFL Combine and the third-best broad jump. He set ACC records for a tight end in receptions and receiving yards in 2013. Ebron was selected No. 10 overall by the Detroit Lions in the 2014 NFL Draft.

Ebron was the third first-round draft choice Hernandez has tutored in Chapel Hill. He helped train offensive guard Jonathan Cooper and defensive tackle Sylvester Williams the previous year. Cooper, considered one of the most athletic guards in the recent history of the draft, improved his draft stock significantly after returning for his senior season under Fedora's staff and working with Hernandez. Cooper was taken No. 7 overall by Arizona and Williams was picked 28th overall by Denver and played in Super Bowl XLVIII.

Carolina was one of the best conditioned teams in the ACC in Hernandez's first season in 2012, outscoring its opponents 226-104, including a 99-41 advantage in the fourth quarter. The Tar Heels also outscored their opponents in the second half of 2013.

Hernandez was an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Florida from 2002-04 when Fedora was an offensive assistant under Ron Zook.

Prior to coming to Chapel Hill, Hernandez spent seven years on the Illinois staff as the head strength coach under football coach Ron Zook. He coordinated the entire strength program for the football team as well as assisting with nutritional aspects of the players' diets. Illinois won back-to-back bowl games in 2010 and 2011 for the first time in school history.

During his time at Illinois, Hernandez turned around the strength program. When he began in 2005, there was just one player with a 300-pound or better power clean. Five years later, the team averaged close to 35 a year. Only one player in 2005 could bench over 405 and by 2010 that number was in double figures.

Hernandez helped train five first-round NFL Draft picks in Champaign, including Rashard Mendenhall (Pittsburgh) in 2008, Vontae Davis (Miami) in 2009, Corey Liuget (San Diego) in 2011 and Whitney Mercilus (Houston) and A.J. Jenkins (San Francisco) in 2012. That marked the first time Illinois had produced five first-round draft picks in a five-year span.

Hernandez worked for three seasons at Florida as the assistant director of strength and conditioning from 2002-04. He moved to Florida after serving on the New York Jets staff.

Prior to his one-year stint with the Jets, Hernandez spent 10 years at the University of Houston, including five years as the director of the program.

A native of Alice, Texas, Hernandez earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from the University of Houston in 1992 and his master's degree in exercise and health-related fitness from Houston in 1994. Hernandez is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Hernandez and his wife, Kristin, have two daughters, Romy Ella and Katirena Rose.

CHRIS KAPILOVIC

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH
CO-OFFENSIVE COORD./OL COACH
FOURTH YEAR AT UNC

Chris Kapilovic (pronounced kuh-PILL-o-vick) enters his fourth season on the UNC staff as the offensive line coach. He was promoted to co-offensive coordinator in 2014 after serving as the run game coordinator the previous two seasons. He has been a part of Larry Fedora's coaching staff since Fedora first became a head coach at Sourthern Miss in 2008.

In three seasons, Kapilovic has been part of an offensive staff that has established more than 50 school records, including points per game (2012), total offense (2012), passing yards (2013 & 2014) and first downs (2014). Over the last three years, Carolina has rushed for an average of 163.8 yards per game. That is the highest three-year average at UNC since 1993-95.

Carolina has gained more than 5,000 total yards of offense in each of the last three seasons. Prior to 2012, when Kapilovic joined head coach Larry Fedora in Chapel Hill, the Tar Heels had gained more than 5,000 yards just twice in school history.

Carolina had what many outside observers called the best offensive line in the country in 2012. All three senior starting linemen were drafted, led by No. 7 overall pick Jonathan Cooper, an athletic guard from Wilmington, N.C. Tackle Brennan Williams was picked in the third round and guard Travis Bond was a seventh round selection.

Holdovers James Hurst (LT) and Russell Bodine (C) led a solid unit in 2013 as the Tar Heels averaged more than 425 total yards per game. Bodine was taken in the fourth round of the 2014 NFL Draft by Cincinnati, while Hurst signed a free agent deal with the Baltimore Ravens.

With the offensive line providing running room, Giovani Bernard led the league in rushing in 2012 and was a semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award. The Tar Heels rushed for 193.8 yards per game, the highest total at UNC since 1994.

Carolina also led the league and finished ninth in the nation in sacks allowed.

Kapilovic came to Carolina after four years at Southern Miss under Fedora. In three of Kapilovic's four years in Hattiesburg, Southern Miss set the school record for total offense, including a mark of 6,459 yards in 2011. Under his direction, the offensive line helped the Golden Eagles reach the 5,000-yard mark in total offense in all four seasons. Kapilovic and company broke the previous total offense record of 5,894 they set in 2010. It was also the fifth-straight year Southern Miss had rushed for more than 2,000 yards.

In 2011, Southern Miss won the Conference USA championship over previously unbeaten Houston and then won its school-record 12th game of the year by beating Nevada in the Hawaii Bowl.

Kapilovic was promoted to run game coordinator in 2010, and in each of his two seasons in that capacity Southern Miss rushed for more than 200 yards per game. In 2011, USM was one of just 11 FBS programs that averaged more than 200 yards per game in both rushing and passing. Three Southern Miss offensive linemen were named All-CUSA in 2011, including first-team performer Lamar Holmes.

Kapilovic came to Southern Miss after spending two seasons as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator at his alma mater, Missouri State. The Bears ranked No. 24 nationally in total offense (414.3), No. 25 in rushing offense (202.9) and No. 10 in scoring offense (36.3) in 2007.

Prior to his stint in Springfield, Kapilovic worked with the offensive line as an assistant coach for five years at Alabama State. He also had offensive coordinator duties for the Hornets in his last three seasons. ASU led the league in rushing yards in two of his final three seasons and the Hornets averaged over 32 points per game during his time of sharing offensive coordinator duties.

The Hornets finished No. 16 nationally in total offense in 2004 and No. 9 in 2005 and led the SWAC in fewest sacks allowed in 2004.

Several offensive linemen Kapilovic has coached have gone on to the NFL and former Alabama State quarterback Tavaris Jackson was a second-round pick by the Minnesota Vikings in 2006.

Kapilovic started his coaching career as a student assistant at Missouri State. After leaving MSU, Kapilovic spent time as offensive coordinator at Deer Valley High in Glendale, Ariz., as offensive line and strength coach at Phoenix College and as a graduate assistant coach for the offensive line at the University of Kansas.

As a player, Kapilovic lettered for two seasons, 1989 and 1990, for the Bears and was a member of the school's only Gateway Conference championship teams those two seasons as they also made their only appearances in the Division I-AA playoffs. He was a starter and Gateway first-team selection during his senior campaign in 1990. He also played two seasons at Scottsdale (Ariz.) Community College.

Kapilovic and wife Fiona, have two children, Carsen and Colin.

SETH LITTRELL

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH FOR OFFENSE
TIGHT ENDS COACH
SECOND YEAR AT UNC

Seth Littrell joined the Carolina football staff in 2014 as the Tar Heels' assistant head coach for offense and tight ends coach.

In his first season in Chapel Hill, Littrell helped Carolina establish several school records, including most passing yards, most passing touchdowns and most first downs. Quarterback Marquise Williams was a second-team all-conference pick after leading the Tar Heels to a bowl game in his first year as the starter. Williams set several individual school records, including most rushing yards and rushing touchdowns by a quarterback. Carolina gained more than 5,000 yards in Littrell's first season as the play-caller and averaged 429.8 yards per contest.

Littrell came to Chapel Hill from Indiana where he guided one of the most prolific offenses in the country. Indiana finished ninth in the nation in total offense in 2013, averaging 508.5 yards per game. The Hoosiers were 17th in passing offense (306.7 avg.) and 30th in rushing offense (201.8). Indiana was one of only three teams to average more than 300 yards passing and 200 yards rushing.

Under Littrell's guidance in 2013, Indiana set single-season records with 6,102 total yards, 508.5 yards per game, 461 points, 38.4 points per game, 36 passing touchdowns, 62 total touchdowns and 300 first downs. Tight end Ted Bolser thrived in his system, setting IU career records for receptions, receiving yards and touchdowns by a tight end.

Bolser and wide receiver Cody Latimer were selected in the 2014 NFL Draft. Latimer was taken in the second round (56th overall) by the Denver Broncos, while Bolser went in the seventh round to Washington.

In Littrell's first season as Indiana's offensive coordinator in 2012, the Hoosiers led the Big Ten and ranked 17th nationally in passing offense (311.2). They finished second in the conference in total offense (442.0) and fourth in scoring offense (30.8).

Prior to his stint at Indiana, Littrell coached three seasons at Arizona, where his 2011 offense ranked third nationally in passing offense (370.8) and 15th in total offense (465.2).

He served as offensive coordinator in 2011 and coached tight ends and H-backs. He was co-offensive coordinator in 2010 and coached running backs and tight ends in both 2009 and 2010.

Three of his Arizona players were selected in the NFL Draft: tight end Rob Gronkowski (New England - 2010 second round), quarterback Nick Foles (Philadelphia - 2012 third round) and wide receiver Juron Criner (Oakland - 2012 fifth round).

Prior to Arizona, Littrell served four years as running backs coach at Texas Tech (2005-08) under Mike Leach. The 2008 Red Raiders rushed for 119 rushing yards per game, the highest total in the Leach era. Running back Shannon Woods earned All-Big 12 Conference honors in 2006 after averaging 6.1 yards per carry and snagging 75 receptions, totaling a top 15 national figure of 139 all-purpose yards per game.

Littrell began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Kansas from 2002-04. The Jayhawks played in the 2003 Tangerine Bowl.

Littrell has coached in seven bowl games, played in two and was team captain on Oklahoma's 2000 national championship team. He was a four-year letterwinner at Oklahoma where he rushed for 231 yards and seven touchdowns in 1999 and finished his career with 11 rushing scores.

The Muskogee, Okla., native graduated from Oklahoma with a degree in communications in 2001.

Littrell and his wife, Becca, have a son, Tripp, and a daughter, Elle.

JOHN PAPUCHIS

LINEBACKERS COACH
FIRST YEAR AT UNC

John Papuchis (pronounced puh-POO-chis) joined the Carolina defensive staff in 2015. Papuchis was most recently on Nebraska's staff from 2008-14, including the last three as the Huskers' defensive coordinator.

Papuchis has made a quick rise through the coaching ranks. The 36-year-old was the fourth-youngest defensive coordinator in the country and the youngest solo defensive coordinator when he was promoted to the position at Nebraska in 2012. Prior to joining Bo Pelini's Nebraska staff in 2008, he worked at LSU under Nick Saban from 2004-07, and was a graduate assistant at Kansas from 2001-03.

Papuchis has plenty of big-game experience having coached at three other Power Five programs Nebraska, LSU and Kansas. In the past 10 seasons, he has coached in one national championship game (2007) and five conference title games.

Nebraska's defense ranked highly in Papuchis' seven seasons in Lincoln. The Blackshirts held opponents to 10 or fewer points in nearly one-quarter of the games he coached. In addition to holding 22 opponents to 10 or fewer points, NU also held 34 opponents to 14 points or fewer. In three seasons with Papuchis coordinating the defense, Nebraska held its opponent to 14 or fewer points 11 times.

Nebraska was especially strong defending the pass under Papuchis, holding opponents to a 48.5 completion percentage in 2014, which ranked second in the country. NU also was fourth nationally in pass efficiency defense and fifth in third down defense.

Before being promoted to NU's defensive coordinator, Papuchis worked with a Husker defense that led the nation in scoring defense and pass efficiency defense in 2009. Nebraska ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring defense twice in Papuchis' seven seasons and once in total defense.

In his last 10 seasons as a defensive assistant, Papuchis has coached four units that have ranked in the top 10 in scoring defense and total defense.

A pair of Huskers - Ndamukong Suh and Prince Amukamara - are among six Papuchis pupils who have been drafted in the first round of the NFL Draft since 2007. Working with the Husker defensive line, Papuchis helped Suh become a Heisman Trophy Finalist, in addition to winning the Outland Trophy, the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, the Lombardi Award and the Bednarik Award.

In addition to working with the Husker defense, Papuchis also coordinated Nebraska's special teams for four seasons from 2008 to 2011. In 2010, Papuchis was one of four finalists for the FootballScoop Special Teams Coordinator-of-the-Year Award.

Papuchis joined the Nebraska coaching staff after spending the previous four seasons on the football staff at LSU. Papuchis served as a defensive intern for the Tigers, assisting in every aspect of the defensive game plan and scouting reports.

The efforts of Papuchis helped the Tigers rank among the nation's top defenses throughout his time with LSU. The Tigers ranked third nationally in total defense each season from 2005 to 2007. In 2007, the Tiger defense helped LSU to SEC and national titles, capped by a 38-24 victory over Ohio State in the BCS National Championship Game.

In 2006, the LSU defense surrendered just 242.8 yards per game, the fewest by a Tiger defense since 1976. LSU led the SEC in six defensive categories and ranked in the top five nationally in four major categories. LSU finished in the top 10 nationally in all four major defensive categories in 2005, and allowed less than 270 total yards per contest. Papuchis also coached the Tiger punters. In 2007, punter Patrick Fisher led the SEC in punting with a 44.5-yard average and earned first-team All-SEC honors.

Papuchis first joined Nick Saban's LSU staff prior to the 2004 season, helping the team earn a berth in the Capital One Bowl.

Papuchis had a three-year stint as a graduate assistant at Kansas from 2001 to 2003. In 2001, he worked with the Jayhawk secondary and then assisted with the linebackers. In his final season at KU, Papuchis helped the Jayhawks earn a berth in the Tangerine Bowl.

Papuchis graduated from Virginia Tech in 2001 with a bachelor's degree in business management. He earned his master's degree in sports administration from Kansas in 2003.

Papuchis is a native of Gaithersburg, Md. He and his wife, Billie, have a 7-year-old daughter, Addyson, a 6-year-old son, John, a 4-year-old daughter, Sophia, and an 1-year-old daughter, Rylee.

LARRY PORTER

RUNNING BACKS COACH
SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR
SECOND YEAR AT UNC

Larry Porter joined the North Carolina football staff in 2014 as the running backs coach and special teams coordinator.

In his first season at UNC, the Tar Heels rushed for more than 150 yards per game and had three tailbacks see significant action in the backfield, including T.J. Logan, Romar Morris and Elijah Hood. Porter was part of an offensive staff that set several school records and gained more than 5,000 yards of total offense for the third consecutive season.

Porter came to Carolina after one season as the running backs coach at Texas. Prior to his time in Austin, Porter spent one year at Arizona State as the running backs coach after two seasons as the head coach at his alma mater Memphis. The native of Jackson, Miss., also has stops at Tennessee-Martin, Arkansas State, Oklahoma State and LSU, where he was the assistant head coach and running backs coach of the Tiger team that won the 2008 BCS National Championship game.

A native of Jackson, Miss., Porter spent five years on the LSU coaching staff. He had also worked three years with LSU coach Les Miles at Oklahoma State before joining Miles in Baton Rouge in 2005. He coached the LSU running backs while also holding two key roles on staff assistant head coach and chief recruiter. Porter was elevated to the position of assistant head coach during the spring of 2006. He was twice (2007 and 2009) named as the National Recruiter of the Year by Rivals.com making him one of the top all-around assistant coaches in college football.

In his 17 years of college coaching, Porter has mentored a number of future NFL players, including Dontari Poe, Jacob Hester, Joseph Addai, Quinn Johnson, Trindon Holliday and Tatum Bell. He has been part of 10 bowl teams since 2002, including a pair of BCS bowls (2007 Sugar, 2008 BCS Championship).

In three of his five seasons at LSU, the Tiger rushing unit averaged over 165 yards a game, including a high of 214 yards per game in 2007. That squad closed out the season ranked 11th nationally in rushing. From 2005-08, the Tigers totaled 108 rushing touchdowns, including 35 in 2007.

As LSU's running backs coach, Porter helped develop some of the finest players at that position in LSU's history. From 2005-09, LSU produced a 1,000-yard rusher twice Jacob Hester with 1,103 yards in 2007 and Charles Scott with 1,174 yards in 2008 as well as having five players (Hester, Joseph Addai, Quinn Johnson, Charles Scott, Trindon Holliday) selected in the NFL Draft.

Porter and the Tigers had a "running back-by-committee" approach during the national championship season in 2007. Hester led all rushers with a career-best 1,103 yards and 11 touchdowns and was a second team All-SEC selection. Williams was second on the squad with 478 yards and six scores, while Trindon Holliday was third with 364 yards and two touchdowns.

Following the 2007 season, Hester was picked in the third round of the 2008 NFL Draft by the San Diego Chargers. Hester became the fourth running back coached by Porter that has been selected among the first three rounds of the NFL Draft since 2004.

At Oklahoma State, Porter's stable of running backs continued the tradition of "Tailback U," as he coached 1,000-yard rushers for three-straight seasons. In 2004, Vernand Morency earned second team All-Big 12 honors after rushing for 1,474 yards, which ranked eighth in the nation, and 12 touchdowns. Morency was a third round pick of the Houston Texans in 2005.

A year earlier, Tatum Bell earned first team All-Big 12 honors with 1,286 yards and 16 touchdowns. Bell and Morency combined for 2,204 yards and 24 touchdowns for the Cowboys in 2003. Bell then went on to become a second-round draft pick by the Denver Broncos in the 2004 NFL Draft.

Prior to his arrival in Stillwater, Porter spent three years at Arkansas State, where he coached Jonathan Adams to back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons. Under Porter's tutelage, Adams capped his career as the second-leading rusher in Arkansas State history.

Porter began his coaching career at Wooddale High School in Memphis, Tenn., serving as head track and field coach, while assisting with the running backs and secondary on the football squad. After two years at Wooddale, Porter moved to the collegiate ranks, coaching the running backs at Tennessee Martin in 1998.

Porter lettered four years (1990-93) at Memphis, serving as co-captain of the 1993 Tiger squad, and graduated with a bachelor's degree in education. Porter and his wife, Sharmane, have three children - Brandon, Omari and Olivia.

TRAY SCOTT

DEFENSIVE LINE COACH
FIRST YEAR AT UNC

The youngest member of the Carolina coaching staff, Tray Scott joined the Tar Heels as the defensive line coach in 2015.

A rising star in the coaching ranks, Scott most recently served two seasons as the defensive line coach at UT Martin, an FCS team in the Ohio Valley Conference. Scott headed an aggressive Skyhawk defense that recorded more than 50 sacks and 160 tackles for loss during his tenure.

In 2013, Scott helped coach a defense that tallied 28 sacks and 36 quarterback hurries. He coached DJ Roberts, who earned All-OVC first team accolades after putting together his third straight season of at least 11 tackles for loss and 3.5 sacks.

Before joining the Skyhawks, Scott spent one season as a defensive line graduate assistant at Ole Miss under head coach Hugh Freeze.

In 2012, the Rebels posted a 7-6 record with a win over Pittsburgh in the BBVA Compass Bowl in Birmingham, Ala. Scott helped guide a swarming defense that ranked fourth in the country in tackles for loss (103), 11th in the country in sacks (38) and a Top 25 rushing defense (129.3 yards per game).

On Oct. 6, Ole Miss forced a season-high six turnovers (four fumbles, two interceptions) against a Texas A&M team that had only turned the ball over once in its first four games. The Rebels sacked future Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Manziel four times and tallied 13 tackles for loss against the Aggies.

At Ole Miss, Scott worked directly with Issac Gross, a Freshman All-America and Freshman All-Southeastern Conference defensive tackle. Gross registered 40 tackles, 10 tackles for loss, 2.5 sacks, two quarterback hurries and one pass breakup.

Before Ole Miss, Scott coached with Freeze at Arkansas State for two seasons. The Red Wolves finished 2011 with a 10-3 mark and a perfect 8-0 record in the Sun Belt Conference. Arkansas State rode a nine-game winning streak into the GoDaddy.com Bowl that season, capturing the conference championship in the process.

At Arkansas State, Scott coached Brandon Joiner, the 2011 Sun Belt Conference Co-Defensive Player of the Year. Joiner ranked fourth in nation with 13 sacks and was signed by the Cincinnati Bengals.

Scott also served as a defensive graduate assistant at his alma mater, Arkansas Tech University, from the fall of 2008 through the spring of 2010. Coaching alongside Steve Mullins, he helped the Wonder Boys to a 9-3 overall record with a 6-2 Gulf South Conference mark in 2009.

As a player at Arkansas Tech, Scott was a four-year letterman from 2003-07. He helped Arkansas Tech to a 24-8 record from 2004-06, including a 10-2 overall mark and a national playoff appearance in 2004.

Scott prepped at Crossett High School in his hometown of Crossett, Ark.

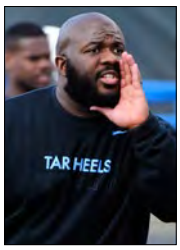

Scott earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Arkansas Tech in 2008. He also received his Master's degree from Arkansas Tech in 2010. He is married to the former Sarah Fancher.

CHARLTON WARREN

DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH
FIRST YEAR AT UNC

Charlton Warren is in his first season as Carolina's defensive backs coach. Warren came to Chapel Hill from Nebraska where he worked with UNC linebackers coach John Papuchis.

Before his time at Nebraska, Warren spent nine seasons working with the secondary at Air Force, including serving as the Falcons' defensive coordinator in each of his final six seasons.

Warren played defensive back at Air Force from 1995-98. Fedora was an offensive assistant coach during Warren's final two seasons with the Falcons.

Warren's secondary impressed in his one season in Lincoln, helping the Huskers rank fifth nationally in pass efficiency defense and 32nd in passing yards allowed. Nebraska ranked second nationally by holding opponents to a 48.5 completion rate, limiting its opponents to a 50 percent completion rate or less in nine of 13 games. The Huskers also allowed an average of only 6.1 yards per passing attempt to rank 13th nationally, and the 15 touchdown passes Nebraska surrendered ranked 19th in the country.

Before arriving in Lincoln, Warren spent nine seasons coaching at Air Force, working directly with the defensive backs all nine years with the Falcons. Warren earned a reputation as the Falcons' top recruiter and coordinated Air Force's recruiting efforts for six seasons from 2006 to 2011.

Air Force's pass defense often ranked among the best in the country, helping the Falcons to six bowl games in Warren's nine seasons as an assistant coach.

In 2011, the Air Force pass defense ranked third in passing yards allowed at 166.8 yards per game and sixth in the country in pass efficiency defense. In 2010, the Falcon secondary was even better, ranking second nationally by allowing just 147.8 passing yards per game. The play of the defensive backfield helped Air Force to a 9-4 record, capped by a victory over Georgia Tech in the Independence Bowl.

The 2009 defense also excelled against the pass under Warren's direction, helping the team to a trip to the Armed Forces Bowl. Air Force ranked seventh nationally with 20 interceptions, helping the team lead the nation in turnover margin. The 2009 Falcons also ranked in the top 20 nationally in passing yards allowed (fifth), total defense (11th) and pass efficiency defense (17th).

Warren was also a member of the Air Force staff for 2007 and 2008 trips to the Armed Forces Bowl, when the Falcons posted 9-4 and 8-5 records, respectively.

In addition to his nine seasons of experience at Air Force, Warren was selected by the Houston Texans to participate in the NFL's minority internship program in 2007. Warren spent time in training camp with the Texans, and took part in defensive and special teams sessions.

Warren graduated from the Air Force Academy in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in human factors engineering. He was a standout defensive back for the Falcons earning three letters. Warren won the team's Mr. Intensity Award as a senior, and helped the program to consecutive 10-win seasons in 1997 and 1998, including a 12-1 record and outright conference title in 1998.

Following his college career, Warren performed his active service as a systems acquisitions program manager at both Warner Robbins AFB in Georgia and Eglin AFB in Florida. Warren earned his MBA from Georgia College and State University in 2003.

An Atlanta native, Warren and his wife Jocelyn, have two daughters, Jayree and Teya, and a son, Chase.

ANDREW MITCHELL
GRADUATE ASSISTANT COACH
SECOND YEAR AT UNC

Andrew Mitchell joined the North Carolina football program as an offensive graduate assistant coach in 2014. He came to Chapel Hill after serving in a similar capacity at the University of Houston.

A letterwinner as an offensive tackle at Oklahoma State, Mitchell spent the 2010 season on the Cincinnati Bengals' roster and the 2012 season with the Seattle Seahawks and Jacksonville Jaguars before joining his alma mater as a graduate assistant coach.

In Mitchell's two seasons at Oklahoma State, the Choctaw, Oklahoma, native helped the Cowboys to back-to-back bowl games. Gunter Brewer was on the coaching staff during his time at OSU and he was recruited to Stillwater by Larry Fedora.

Prior to OSU, Mitchell spent two years at Snow Junior College where he earned All-America honors and helped lead his squad to the junior college national championship.

CAMERON O'NEAL
GRADUATE ASSISTANT COACH
SECOND YEAR AT UNC

Cameron O'Neal joined the Carolina coaching staff as a defensive graduate assistant in 2014 where he works with the defensive backs.

A three-year letterwinner at Southern Miss, O'Neal played safety/ram for head coach Larry Fedora and helped lead the Golden Eagles to the 2011 Conference USA championship. He was a special teams captain as a senior and was named the team's most outstanding special teams performer in 2011.

After graduating from USM with a degree in mass communications, O'Neal embarked on his coaching career. He coached one season at Oak Grove middle school in Hattiesburg and then coached cornerbacks at Saraland High School in Mobile, Ala.

A native of Citronelle, Ala., O'Neal and his wife Felicia have a daughter, Londyn.

JONATHAN RUTLEDGE
GRADUATE ASSISTANT COACH
SECOND YEAR AT UNC

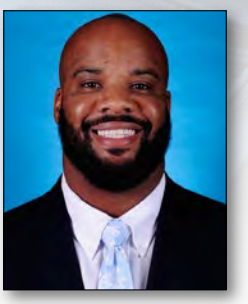

Jonathan Rutledge joined the Carolina staff as a graduate assistant in 2014 and he works with the wide receivers and specialists

He worked the previous two seasons as graduate assistant at the University of Memphis working with the Tigers' tight ends and special teams. In 2013, Rutledge worked with Memphis punter Tom Hornsey who won the Ray Guy Award as the nation's best punter.

A native of Madison, Mississippi, Rutledge graduated with a bachelor of arts degree in secondary education from the University of Mississippi in May, 2011.

Prior to graduating from Ole Miss, Rutledge was a student equipment manager for four years and worked specifically with the team's quarterbacks. He was part of back-to-back Cotton Bowl championship teams (2009-10). As an undergraduate, he did his student teaching at Lafayette Middle School in Oxford, Miss., where he also served previously as a volunteer assistant basketball coach.

Following graduating, Rutledge went on to spend a season working in Offensive Quality Control for the Ole Miss football team. During the 2011 season he had specific responsibilities working with the team's quarterbacks coach. At Ole Miss, he was on the same staff with current UNC co-offensive coordinator Gunter Brewer.

RYAN SIMS
GRADUATE ASSISTANT COACH
SECOND YEAR AT UNC

Nine-year NFL veteran and former first-round draft pick Ryan Sims is a defensive graduate assistant coach at his alma mater. It is his second year with the UNC program after spending last season as an undergraduate assistant coach.

Sims was a four-year letterwinner for the Tar Heels from 1998-2001. He was a three-year starter at defensive tackle and was the defensive MVP of Carolina's 16-10 win over Auburn in the 2001 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. Sims and teammate Julius Peppers headlined a defense that led the ACC and was 15th in the nation in yards allowed.

Sims was the No. 6 overall pick by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2002 NFL Draft. He played nine seasons in the league – four for Kansas City and five for Tampa Bay before retiring in 2011. He played in 105 games, starting 55, and made 143 tackles.

Following his NFL career, Sims returned to complete his degree in communications and start a second career as an assistant coach.

Sims is a native of Spartanburg, S.C.

COREY HOLLIDAY
ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR
FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION
15th YEAR AT UNC

Corey Holliday joined the UNC staff in 2001 and serves as Associate Athletic Director for Football Administration, a position to which he was promoted in 2006. Holliday coordinates daily football program administration, works with the University admissions office, supervises football operational personnel and handles other administrative duties as assigned by athletic director Bubba Cunningham and head coach Larry Fedora.

Holliday earned a B.S. in business administration from UNC in 1993 and returned to earn his master's in sport administration in 1997. He played football for the Tar Heels from 1989-93, finishing his career with the all-time record for receiving yards (2,447). He also ranked fourth in career receptions. Team co-captain as a junior and senior, he caught at least one pass in an ACC-record 45 consecutive games for the Tar Heels from 1990-93.

After UNC, Holliday went on to play four seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers and was a member of four divisional championship squads. He played in Super Bowl XXX against the Dallas Cowboys and had two receptions and two special teams tackles.

Holliday also has held positions with the Atlantic Coast Conference, the UNC Ram's Club, and The Ohio State University. Before returning to Chapel Hill, he was a Business Process Analyst for Andersen Consulting in Columbus, Ohio.

Holliday was selected as one of 25 athletics administrators to participate in the inaugural 2001-02 NCAA Leadership Institute for Ethnic Minority Males.

Holliday and his wife, Angela (UNC '94), have two sons, Christopher and Nicholas.

JOE HAYDON
DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS
12th YEAR AT UNC

Joe Haydon joined the UNC staff in 2004 and serves as the football team's director of operations, a position he began in 2006. Haydon coordinates team travel, in-house recruiting visits and works with the NCAA on student-athlete admissions and eligibility.

A native of Wayland, N.Y., Haydon played basketball at Division III Rochester Institute of Technology. He was the team captain and earned Academic All-America honors as a senior.

After spending two years in the telecommunications business, Haydon attended Carolina's sports administration graduate program. He worked as an intern in the football office in 2004, was hired as the assistant director of football operations in 2005 and was promoted to Director in 2006.

Haydon and his wife, Melissa, have a son, Bryce.

CHRISTOPHER LUKE
DIRECTOR OF VIDEO & TECHNOLOGY
EIGHTH YEAR AT UNC

Christopher Luke joined the UNC football program in July of 2008 and serves as Carolina's Director of Football Video and Technology. Luke manages all aspects of internal team video and game analysis needs for the football coaching staff and players.

Luke and his staff also produce the acclaimed Blue Dawn and Fedora's Freak Show videos, weekly team motivational videos, and many other recruiting videos for various social media platforms. UNC was also one of the first teams in the fall of 2011 to watch "all 22" game video on iPads under his tutelage. In a vote by his peers, Luke was named the 2011-12, and 2014-15 ACC Video Coordinator of the Year by the Collegiate Sports Video Association (CSVA). He received the 2011-12 Bob Matey National Video Coordinator of the Year Award in Indianapolis, Indiana.

Prior to working at UNC, Luke was the assistant video coordinator at Texas A&M from 2004-08. Luke was the leader in educating and implementing a file transfer program allowing all Big 12 schools to be the first BCS conference to successfully exchange football game video over its peer to peer network. Previously, Luke worked for two years at Missouri as the assistant director of video and was in charge of the daily operations of the football staff while assisting in the video management of 22 sports. Prior to that appointment, Luke did his graduate work in the speech communication/instructional technology department at Northern Illinois University while serving as the football video coordinator for two seasons. Luke began his career at Eastern Illinois as the student video coordinator in 1994, and graduated with bachelor of arts in speech communications with an emphasis in radio/television production in December of 1998.

Luke is the President of the CSVA, after serving six years as its Vice President. CSVA promotes the role of the video professional in the sports industry.

Luke is a native of Hoopeston, Ill., home of the Cornjerkers. He and his wife Sabra have two sons, Travis and Truman.

DOMINIC MORELLI
EQUIPMENT MANAGER
DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL BUSINESS OPERATIONS
35th YEAR AT UNC

Dominic Morelli enters his 35th season with the Carolina football program. He oversees the UNC football equipment room and business operations, including the yearly football budget.

Morelli began as Carolina's equipment manager in 1980 under then head coach Dick Crum. He has worked for five Carolina head coaches in his tenure as equipment manager. He earned Carolina's Ernie Williamson Award in 2003 as the athletic department's top employee.

A native of Winston-Salem, N.C., Morelli earned his degree from Guilford College in 1980.

Morelli attended Ledford High School where he was a student manager for current UNC assistant coach Ken Browning.

Morelli and his wife, Nana, have a son Troy Joseph. The Morelli's daughter, Kaitlin, passed away in October 2014 at the age of 27 after a courageous fight against a rare form of cancer. She was a volunteer on game days for more than 15 years and she will be missed by the entire Tar Heel football family.

KENNY BOYD
HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER FOR FOOTBALL
SECOND YEAR AT UNC

Kenny Boyd was hired as North Carolina's head athletic trainer for football in 2014. Boyd joined the Tar Heels' sports medicine staff after 11 seasons as the head football athletic trainer at the University of Texas.

Boyd also has worked on the sports medicine staffs at Colorado, Mississippi State, and Northwestern. During his career, he has had the opportunity to work with football programs headed by Steve Spurrier (Florida), Jackie Sherrill (Mississippi State), Gary Barnett (Colorado and Northwestern) and Mack Brown (Texas).

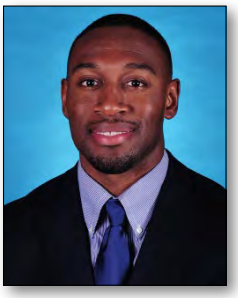

While at Colorado, he worked primarily with the men's basketball and football teams, as well as with CU's golf and tennis programs.

Boyd earned his master's in sports administration degree from Mississippi State in 2000. During his tenure with the Bulldogs, he served as a graduate assistant athletics trainer. His duties at Mississippi State included working with the football team as well as coordinating rehabilitations with the team's physical therapist.

An active member in the National Athletic Trainers Association, Boyd has served on the national and regional level, including the College and University Athletic Trainer's Committee and the Council on Revenue. He has regularly presented on topics pertaining to the health and safety of the collegiate student athlete as well as topics on promoting the value of athletic trainers.

Prior to his time at MSU, Boyd served as an intern at Northwestern assisting with coverage of football and women's tennis. He is a 1998 graduate of the University of Florida with a bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science, specializing in athletic training.

A native of Fort Walton Beach, Fla., Boyd was a four-year letterman in wrestling and worked three years as the student athletic trainer at J.M. Tate High School in Pensacola, Fla. Boyd and his wife, Ellen, have three children - Taylor, Macy and Owen.

OCHUKO JENIJE
DIRECTOR OF
STUDENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT
SECOND YEAR AT UNC

Ochuko Jenije (oh - CHOO - coe JEN - uh - jay) joined the football program as the team's director of student-athlete development in 2015. He previously worked as an assistant director in UNC's student-athlete development office at the Loudermilk Center.

Jenije's primary charge is the personal and professional growth of each student-athlete to facilitate success both on and off the field and prepare them for life beyond their collegiate football experience. He also assists in various administrative roles, including financial aid matters, housing and community service projects.

In his first year at UNC in 2014, Jenije assisted in administering the five services areas of Student-Athlete Development and was the primary contact for Carolina Outreach and UNC's Student-Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC).

Prior to coming to UNC, Jenije served as Coordinator of Student Services at Florida State, his alma mater. Among his responsibilities, he managed the Welcome Back Picnic and the Golden Nole All-Sport Banquet; coordinated and developed the community service and activities for Florida State National Student-Athlete Day; facilitated and mentored student-athletes through R.E.A.L. (Leadership Program); designed PHAT (Peers Helping Athletes Transition), a 5-week program for all first year student-athletes; oversaw the Student-Athlete Exit Interviews; organized Summer and Winter Bridge programming for all student-athletes; and assisted with Student-Athlete Advisory Council meetings.

He also has worked at the University of Tulsa as Marketing and Promotions Assistant and has interned in the sports information office at FSU and in the marketing office at Oral Roberts University.

Jenije graduated from Florida State in 2009 with a B.S. in Sport Management and earned his master's degree in Higher Education with an emphasis in General Administration in 2011, also from FSU. He played football for the Seminoles from 2006-10, serving as team captain as a senior and earning Atlantic Coast Conference Academic Honor Roll recognition all four years.

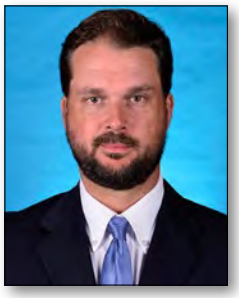

RORY POMMERENING
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL
NINTH YEAR AT UNC

Rory Pommerening, who has worked in the UNC football office since he was an undergraduate student, was named the team's director of player personnel in 2013. In that role, Pommerening helps coordinate Carolina's recruiting efforts. He helps arrange and manage on-campus recruiting visits and promotes and markets the high school coaches clinic and summer camps.

Pommerening, a native of Jensen Beach, Fla., earned a bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science from UNC in 2008. He worked as a student assistant in the Tar Heel football office in 2007 and 2008.

After graduating, he served as an operations assistant for the football program from 2009-11. He was promoted to assistant director of player personnel in 2012.

JASON TUDRYN
DIRECTOR OF HIGH SCHOOL RELATIONS
SECOND YEAR AT UNC

Jason Tudryn was named UNC's Director of High School Relations in 2014.

In that role, he is responsible for implementing strategic recruiting plans for prospective student-athletes for UNC's football coaches and maintaining effective relationships with high school coaches. A former high school football coach, Tudryn helps manage the UNC recruiting database, develops lists of summer camps and assists with organizing official campus visits.

Tudryn joined the UNC program after serving seven years as the head football coach at Carrboro High School, a program he started in 2007. Carrboro reached the state playoffs in four consecutive seasons from 2009-12 and advanced to the 2AA state championship game in 2012 before falling to South Iredell. Tudryn was awarded the NCHSAA's 2012 Homer Thompson Memorial Award, which is given annually to "Eight Who Make A Difference" in high school athletics.

Prior to his stint at Carrboro, Tudryn coached in Florida and Massachusetts. He was the defensive coordinator at Naples Gulf Coast High School in Naples, Fla., where he worked for his father, from 2002-06. He was the head coach at Miami Coral Park High School for two seasons in 2000 and 2001 and was an assistant at Immokalee High School in 1999.

A native of Northampton, Mass., Tudryn was an assistant coach at American International College (Division II) in Springfield from 1997-98 and was an assistant coach at Curry College (Division III) in Milton, Mass., in 1996.

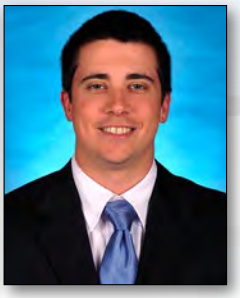

Tudryn was a four-year letterwinner at safety at the University of Massachusetts in Amherst where he graduated with a degree in sociology in 1996. He received a Master's in special education from AIC in 1999.

Tudryn and his wife Barbie have two girls, Taliana and Ana, and a son, Phoenix. His father, Frank, coached high school football for more than 30 years and is a member of the Massachusetts High School Hall of Fame.

BUBBA CUNNINGHAM

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR
FIFTH YEAR AT UNC

Lawrence R. (Bubba) Cunningham is in his fifth year as the director of athletics at the University of North Carolina. Cunningham officially began his duties at UNC on November 14, 2011.

Cunningham is the seventh director of athletics in Carolina history, following Robert A. Fetzer (1923-52), Chuck Erickson (1953-67), Homer Rice (1969-75), Bill Cobey (1976-80), John Swofford (1980-97) and Dick Baddour (1998-2012).

In each of his four seasons, Carolina has finished in the top 15 of the Learfield Director's Cup, including three top-10 finishes. During that same period, the number of UNC student-athletes on the ACC Academic Honor Roll has steadily increased.

Among Cunningham's many accomplishments since arriving in Chapel Hill are the implementation of a strategic plan for Carolina athletics; a partnership with Disney to enhance customer service and organizational practices; the development of the Student-Athlete Academic Initiative Working Group; a complete compliance review by an outside firm; the development of a master plan for UNC's athletic facilities; and the creation of the Rammys - an innovative end-of-the-year awards show popular with Carolina's student-athletes and staff.

College athletics has seen many changes in recent years and Cunningham, who is the 3rd Vice President of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA), has Carolina positioned to have a voice in the on-going conversation about the future, whether it is in the state university system, the Atlantic Coast Conference or at the NCAA level.

In 2012, Cunningham led a planning committee that worked with Dr. Paul Friga, associate professor of strategy and entrepreneurship at Carolina's Kenan-Flagler School of Business, to develop Carolina's strategic plan. From that process was the creation of UNC's mission statement - "We Educate and Inspire Through Athletics." The plan also identified four core values for Carolina Athletics- Responsibility, Innovation, Service and Excellence.

Carolina's work with the Disney Institute, one of the most recognized names in business solutions and professional development, began in 2013. Members of the Disney Institute worked with the athletic department to learn more about Carolina athletics and provide recommendations on best practices. Several cross unit work teams were organized within the department to provide an assessment of the organization and provide feedback to Disney.

Cunningham joined with provost James W. Dean and other University officials to develop the Student-Athlete Academic Initiative Working Group, which was launched in fall 2013. That group spent several months developing a comprehensive approach to assessing and enhancing how the University provides academic support to student-athletes. The group is implementing a rigorous and transparent set of processes and metrics as part of an ongoing initiative. The objective is to ensure proper alignment with the University's academic mission, a goal that is consistent with Cunningham's strategic plan for the Department of Athletics.

On the field, Carolina has achieved outstanding success under Cunningham's leadership. Carolina finished fifth in the 2014-15 Learfield Director's Cup, its highest finish since a second place in 2008-09. Ten Tar Heel teams posted top-10 national finishes and 25 advanced to postseason play, led by a second-place finish by women's lacrosse and a final four appearance by field hockey. Carolina also had top-10 finishes in men's soccer (fifth), volleyball (fifth), men's lacrosse (fifth), men's tennis (fifth), women's tennis (fifth), men's basketball (ninth), women's basketball (ninth) and women's soccer (ninth).

In addition, the women's cross country team won its first ACC title in 11 years and the women's tennis team captured the ITA national indoor team championship for the second time in the last three years. Individually, Jamie Loeb won UNC's first-ever women's tennis NCAA singles championship.

Carolina finished 14th in the 2013-14 Learfield Director's Cup with seven teams posting top-10 national finishes. In 2012-13, Cunningham's first full season at UNC, Carolina finished eighth in the Director's Cup on the strength of national championships in women's soccer and women's lacrosse. The Tar Heels also had top-10 finishes in field hockey (second), baseball (third), men's lacrosse (fifth), men's soccer (fifth) and women's tennis (fifth). The women's tennis team captured the ITA national indoor title and six other programs finished in the top 25.

The UNC women's athletics program captured the 2013 Capital One Cup, which is awarded to the best men's and women's Division I athletics programs in the country. For winning its first Capital One Cup, the Tar Heels earned $200,000 toward student-athlete scholarships and a spot at the annual ESPY Awards show in Los Angeles.

Carolina student-athletes have excelled in the classroom as well. During the 2014-15 academic calendar, more than 300 student-athletes made the ACC Academic Honor Roll, which requires a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0 for the year. It was the third-consecutive season Carolina had produced more than 300 honorees.

Cunningham is in his 14th year as a Division I director of athletics. He came to Chapel Hill after spending the previous six years as the director of athletics at the University of Tulsa. He also was the AD for three years from 2002-2005 at Ball State University. He was honored as the 2008-09 FBS Central Region Athletics Director of the Year, an award presented by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics.

At Tulsa, Cunningham guided the Golden Hurricane through its initial move to Conference USA and spearheaded a $60 million athletics initiative, which included a $20 million renovation to Skelly Field at H.A. Chapman Stadium, a goal of $20 million for an athletics scholarship endowment and $20 million for coaches' salary endowment.

Cunningham implemented and developed a strategic plan for personal and professional growth and development for Tulsa's student-athletes, coaches and staff. He presided over the completion of the $8.5 million Case Athletic Complex, which houses football offices and academic support center for student-athletes.

Tulsa won 34 league championships in his tenure, more than any other school in Conference USA. The football program played in five bowl games in his last six years, winning four of those games. Cunningham hired former Tulsa football coach Todd Graham, who led the Golden Hurricane to three 10-win seasons in a four-year span, the first time it had been accomplished in school history.

Tulsa student-athletes excelled academically, earning 17 ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America performances over the last five years, and 11 student-athletes won C-USA Scholar Athlete of the Year honors.

At Ball State, Cunningham led a program with 19 intercollegiate sports and a budget of $12.4 million. In his final year, Ball State completed a $12 million campaign to renovate the football stadium. In raising those funds, Cunningham secured the largest single gift in Ball State athletics history.

From 1988-2002, Cunningham worked in the athletics department at the University of Notre Dame. He served as Notre Dame's associate athletics director for finance and facilities from 1995-2000 and was the associate director of athletics for external affairs from 2000-02. Cunningham increased corporate sponsorship income, created a financial/equity plan for the department and served as chairman of the NCAA Division I Women's Golf Committee. He also developed an equity plan to meet Title IX requirements, completed the master plan for athletic facilities and helped plan and complete the $50 million renovation and 20,000-seat expansion of Notre Dame Stadium. He also coordinated the planning and construction of the Warren Golf Course, an 18-hole championship course on the Notre Dame campus.

Cunningham earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in business administration, both from Notre Dame, in 1984 and 1988, respectively. He played on the Irish golf team in 1982-83.

Cunningham is a member of the USTA Athletic Director Advisory Group. He is a former member of NACDA's Executive Committee, and was on the Board of Directors of the Alzheimers Association of Oklahoma and the Folds of Honor Foundation Board. Cunningham also served on the Gatorade National Advisory Board and has been a featured speaker at numerous NACDA and I-A institute conferences.

Born in Flint, Mich., and raised in Naples, Fla., Cunningham and his wife, Tina, have four children: Matthew, Michael, John and Sarah.

WHEN CAROL L. FOLT was installed as Carolina's 11th chancellor and first woman leader, she said, "As America's first public university, Carolina became the gold standard. The founders passed the baton, and the future is up to us. How can we fulfill this honorable charge in a way that is ever fresh and relevant?"

Folt – an internationally recognized scientist, award-winning teacher and accomplished administrator – has worked to fulfill that charge by championing Carolina as a great global public research university. Her priorities have included preserving and expanding the University's academic excellence, access and affordability, and deep commitment to North Carolina.

Under Folt's leadership, the University received nearly 32,000 applications for the Class of 2019, breaking the previous record for the 10th consecutive year. Carolina ranks among the nation's top 10 universities in research dollar volume, and has become increasingly focused on innovation and entrepreneurship. In 2014, for example, Carolina received a $100 million commitment from alumnus Dr. Fred Eshelman – the largest individual gift in UNC history – to create the Eshelman Institute for Innovation in the Eshelman School of Pharmacy. And in 2015, the University announced a first-of-its-kind partnership with GSK, the global pharmaceutical company, dedicated to discovering a cure for HIV/AIDS.

Folt has focused on improving undergraduate retention rates – particularly for low-income, first-generation and underrepresented students – while maintaining Carolina's historic commitment to affordability and accessibility. Today Carolina remains one of the few public universities that is both need blind and covers full financial need.

Folt has brought the Carolina community together around challenging issues, overseeing the development of a more comprehensive policy on sexual violence and launching Carolina Conversations, an effort to facilitate meaningful, productive discussions about issues like race.

Folt has also worked to comprehensively address past academic and athletic irregularities. She and UNC President Tom Ross commissioned an independent investigation and she has worked to put reforms and other initiatives in place to address past gaps in oversight and accountability.

Folt leads the University in the national dialogue about higher education and has taken a strong position on protecting students from sexual assault. This significant issue has captured the nation's attention and Folt has represented Carolina at the White House, as well as on unprecedented panels at the University of Virginia and UC Berkeley, in an effort to shape campus responses across the United States.

Folt came to Carolina from Dartmouth College, where she was interim president in 2012-2013 and a faculty member and administrator for 30 years. Folt is a proud product of public higher education, having worked her way through UC-Santa Barbara as a waitress, earning a bachelor's degree in aquatic biology in 1976 and a master's degree in biology two years later. She received her doctorate in ecology from UC-Davis.

Folt is married to David Peart, a professor of biological sciences at Dartmouth. They have two adult children.

Carolina's Accomplishments Under Chancellor Carol L. Folt

Under Folt's leadership, the University has made significant progress since July 2013. Recent examples include the following:

- Created the position of vice chancellor for commercialization and economic development to translate more world-class ideas into real-world applications.
- Updated the policy on sexual violence through extensive cross-campus collaboration.
- Launched a first-of-its-kind public-private partnership with GSK, creating a research center on campus and a jointly owned company, Qura Therapeutics, dedicated to discovering a cure for HIV/AIDS.
- Received a $100 million commitment – the largest individual gift in University history – from alumnus Dr. Fred Eshelman to create the Eshelman Institute for Innovation in the pharmacy school already bearing his name.
- Championed a new joint biomedical engineering bachelor of science degree with N.C. State University for a department considered an exemplar of de-siloing in U.S. higher education.
- Invested in a $3 million, 10-year, no-interest loan to help stabilize the Northside neighborhood in Chapel Hill.

KENAN STADIUM

KENAN STADIUM

Carolina football plays its home games at Kenan Memorial Stadium (cap. 63,000), one of the most picturesque athletic venues in America. Kenan Stadium has been the home of the Tar Heels since 1927 and the thrill of playing in or attending a game there is as exhilarating now as it was when it was first constructed.

Considering its majestic setting among the Carolina pines, many observers say Kenan Stadium is the most beautiful football facility in the country. For scenery, atmosphere and charm, it cannot be surpassed.

The stadium has been expanded several times since its completion in 1927. In each instance, though, great care was taken to keep its fundamental beauty intact.

In 2011, Carolina opened the Loudermilk Center for Excellence and a premium seating section named the Blue Zone. Alumnus R. Charles "Charlie" Loudermilk Sr. of Atlanta made a $7.5 million donation to fund the 150,000 square-foot facility that serves all of Carolina's nearly 800 student-athletes across 28 sports.

The Loudermilk Center's largest feature is the John W. Pope Student-Athlete Academic Support Center. This 29,000 square-foot facility provides classrooms for teaching and tutoring, advanced computer technology, a writing lab, reading rooms and office space. It is also home to the Baddour Carolina Leadership Academy, which offers leadership training to Carolina student-athletes, coaches and staff. A $3 million gift from the Raleigh-based John William Pope Foundation funded the academic support center.

Also housed in the Loudermilk Center is a strength and conditioning center for Carolina's Olympic sports programs, facilities for men's lacrosse and a visitor's locker room that can be split to host high school football championships. Other features include premium seating for fans watching football games, as well as office and operations space for the department of athletics.

The Blue Zone offers 1,836 seats in the Concourse Club/Loge just a few feet from the field, 824 seats in the Upper Club/Loge on the fourth floor and 320 seats in 20 suites on the fifth floor. Combined, the project added 2,980 seats to the stadium's capacity. The project also tied the north and south concourses together and provides the stadium with 360 degree concourse to enhance fan movement in the facility.

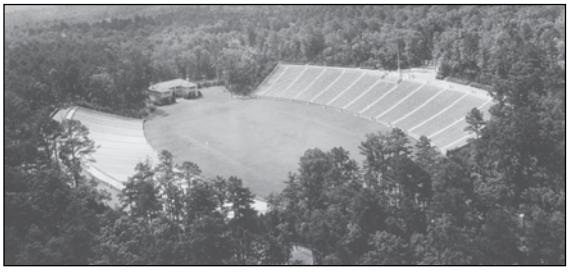

Located in the west end zone, the Kenan Football Center was completed in 1997 and houses the operational needs of the Carolina football program. The football center includes the UNC locker room, weight room, training room, equipment room, players' lounge, computer labs and study areas, 100-plus seat auditorium, coaches' offices, theater and Hall of Honor.

An additional floor was added to the Kenan Football Center after the 2008 season. The fifth floor contains additional office and recruiting space for the day-to-day operations of the football program, four pregame gathering areas, a larger video and studio facility and a state-of-the-art press conference area. The recruiting area and suites also are used as academic study areas during the week. The second floor was completely

THE STADIUM

"One moment you are deep in the green and the blaze of autumn leaves, and the next the curtain has disappeared, the land falls away and the panorama of long, graceful lines and gently sweeping curves spreads out … The picture fits exactly; it was made for its frame and its frame for it."

– Carolina Alumni Review, Fall 1927

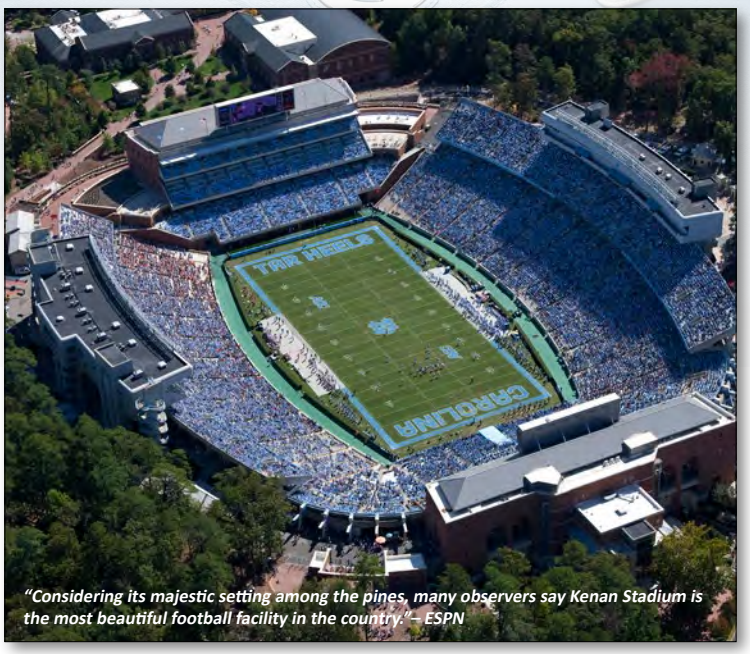

Kenan Memorial Stadium remains today as it was nearly a century ago – quite simply one of the most picturesque athletic venues in America. UNC's alumni magazine saluted the natural beauty of the new stadium upon its opening on Nov. 24, 1927; some 28,000 fans watched as the Tar Heels edged Virginia by one point.

Since then, Kenan Stadium has been home to great teams and outstanding players and the battleground for thousands of memorable football games on crystalline autumn Saturdays. From modest beginnings—single levels of seats on each side of the playing field and a simple field house—the facility has evolved with the times but has preserved its aesthetic appeal. Among the significant expansion projects have been the addition of the upper decks in 1963; the construction of the south side press box, installation of permanent lights and addition of 2,000 choice seats between the 40 yard-lines in 1988; the addition of some 8,000 seats in the west end zone bowl and the construction of the Frank H. Kenan Football Center and the John Pope Box in 1997; the addition of the fifth floor to the Kenan Football Center in 2010; and the 2011 addition of Blue Zone seating area in the east end zone and the opening of The Loudermilk Center for Excellence.

renovated for increased football meeting spaces, including bigger individual position meeting rooms and a larger team meeting room. The fourth floor renovations added additional office space for football support staff.

The Charlie Justice Hall of Honor, located on the ground floor, is a multi-media history of Carolina football. Photographs, awards, trophies and artifacts detailing the rich and storied history of the sport in Chapel Hill are on display. The James A. Heavner Theater was made possible by a special gift by the former executive producer of the Tar Heel Sports Network and president of Vilcom. The theater is a 30-person mini-theater equipped with surround sound and seven dramatic videos presenting the history of UNC football.

"Considering its majestic setting among the pines, many observers say Kenan Stadium is the most beautiful football facility in the country."– ESPN

A number of rooms in the Kenan Football Center have been dedicated in the honor or memory of Carolina's benefactors, fans and athletic personalities. They include the Brinkley Lounge, the fourth floor reception area named for Harvey M. Brinkley Jr.; the Don McCauley/Paul Miller Head Coach's Suite; the Norman M. (Buddy) Black Jr. Lounge, the fourth floor hospitality area; the Oscar Davenport/Chris Keldorf Quarterback Meeting Room, as given by Bob Biggerstaff; the Jo Allison Clary Smith Weight Room; the Carolina Football Players' Locker Room, named in behalf of the more than 400 former Tar Heels who donated more than $2 million to the project; the Nassif Offensive Staff Meeting Room; the Ann and Paul Lawing Coaches' Locker Room; Koury Box North, box seating on the north side of the stadium named for Maurice J. Koury; the John W. Pope Academic Support Facility; the John W. Pope Stadium Box, a stadium box on the north side; the John D. Swofford Auditorium and the Jimmy W. Garrell coaches meeting room.

The 1997 expansion project, in which great care was taken to ensure that the surrounding environment would be altered as little as possible, was the first project to connect the north and south concourses to either end of the lower deck via the third level of the Kenan Center. That project also added nearly 8,000 seats, a state-of-the-art football facility, chancellor's box and preferred seating box. The Rams Club and its members committed more than $50 million to the project.

The football center is named in honor of the late Frank H. Kenan, one of the school's most generous benefactors. Kenan was a Durham resident and chief executive officer of Kenan Transport Company in Chapel Hill. He passed away at age 83 in 1996.

Kenan, a 1935 Carolina graduate, was the great-great-grandson of General James Kenan, a member of the University's founding board of trustees. An Atlanta native, Kenan had a tremendous impact on the growth of the University. He served on many campus boards, including the Board of Visitors and the Educational Foundation Board of Directors.

In recent years the William R. Kenan Jr. Charitable Trust, of which he was a trustee, has donated more than $100 million to schools in the state's consolidated university system, including Carolina, NC State and the N.C. School of the Arts. Among other things, the trust funds 92 William R. Kenan Jr. Professorships at 56 colleges and universities nationwide.

Kenan served on the steering committee of Carolina's Bicentennial Campaign, the University's largest fund-raising effort. Gifts by him, his family and the trust during the campaign exceeded $31 million. The largest portion of that was targeted for the business school. In 1991 the school was renamed the Kenan-Flagler Business School after a $10 million gift.

The preferred seating box that rises above the second deck of the grandstand on the north side of the stadium has outdoor seating for almost 1,200 spectators. That includes the Chancellor's Box on the second level of the box 45 feet above the ground. The fourth level, 68 feet high, has outdoor seating for more than 1,000, plus concessions and a 7,500 square foot lounge. There is a smaller lounge and food preparation areas on the third floor.

The Kenan Football Center and preferred seating box were the predominant changes in a multi-year renovation plan that began in 1995. A new playing field was installed that spring. The new turf included an improved drainage system beneath the field that drains through the field itself rather than off the sides of the field as in the past. Prior to the 1996 season the restrooms and concession stands were expanded and renovated.

Another significant stadium expansion took place prior to 1988 and involved adding 2,000 choice seats between the 40-yard lines where the press box and chancellor's box formerly stood. A new press box was constructed on top of the upper deck on the stadium's south side. It is a one-level elongated structure, running from 10-yard line to 10-yard line.

Also part of the 1987-88 project were a permanent lighting system, a chancellor's lounge on the north side of the field and a football lettermen's lounge on the south side. The lights are part of a General Electric low-mount system which minimizes the height of the lightpoles. Cost of the entire project was $7 million. It was funded by private gifts and bonds.

William Rand Kenan Jr. deserves the credit for originally making the stadium a part of the University. He was born in North Carolina in 1873 and graduated from Carolina in 1894. An international industrialist, Kenan discovered carbide and made monumental progress in the field of chemistry. During his business career he was president of The Florida East Coast Railroad, The Florida East Coast Hotel Company, The West Palm Beach Water Company and the Florida East Coast Car Ferry Company.

He was a director of Florida Power and Light Company and built the first power plant in Miami in the early 1900s.

The stadium was built as a memorial to his parents, William R. Kenan and Mary Hargrave Kenan. Construction began in November 1926 and was completed the following August. Complete cost of the stadium and accompanying fieldhouse was $303,000.

Originally, the stadium was to be built through funds raised by alumni donations, and by June 1926, a group of nearly 40 alumni had contributed $27,926. At this time, however, a copy of the prospectus and plan of financing the stadium came into the hands of Kenan, who expressed an interest in the proposal. Kenan was considering establishing a memorial to his parents, and the pressing need for a stadium and the possibilities of the beauty, dignity and permanence it presented, suggested to him that the benefaction he contemplated may well take the form of a memorial stadium. The Stadium Committee immediately endorsed his proposal and on the very day in

THE KENAN FAMILY

James Kenan of Duplin was one of the original trustees of the fledgling campus in Chapel Hill and was present on Oct. 12, 1793, when the cornerstone to Old East was laid. Since then, the Kenan Family has held an integral role in the evolution of UNC as one of the top academic and athletic institutions in the nation.

William Rand Kenan Jr. & Bob Fetzer

William Rand Kenan Sr. and his wife Mary Hargrave Kenan are the namesakes for Kenan Memorial Stadium. Kenan was the grandson of James Kenan and the father of William Rand Kenan Jr., whose fortune made in the early 1900s in chemicals, power, railroads and hotels financed the construction of the stadium in 1926-27. William Jr., an 1894 Carolina graduate and Tar Heel halfback in football and later a professor in chemistry, honored his parents with the naming of the stadium.

Another branch of the Kenan family included Frank H. Kenan (right), a Tar Heel football player in the 1930s, a 1935 Carolina graduate and a successful businessman with interests in oil, trucking and real estate. Mr. Kenan had a tremendous impact on the growth of the University. He served on many campus boards, including the Board of Visitors and the Educational Foundation Board of Directors. He passed away in 1996 at the age of 83, just one year before seeing the new football center in his name open for the 1997 season.

Today the Kenan legacy lives on through the William R. Kenan Jr. Charitable Trust, which has donated more than $100 million to schools in the state's consolidated university system, including Carolina, N.C. State and the N.C. School of the Arts. Among other things, the trust funds 92 William R. Kenan Jr. Professorships at 56 colleges and universities nationwide.

CHARLES LOUDERMILK

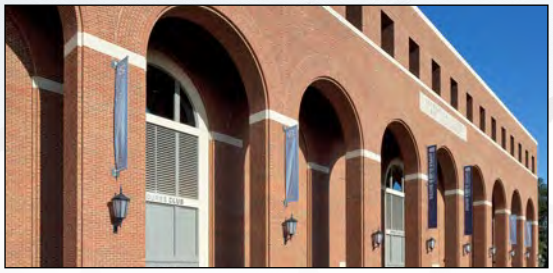

The Loudermilk Center for Excellence was made possible in part by a generous contribution from R. Charles Loudermilk Sr., a long-time friend and benefactor of UNC academic and athletic interests. Born in Atlanta, Mr. Loudermilk graduated from Carolina in 1950 with a degree in commerce and was good friends with many Tar Heels who made the Justice Era of the late 1940s such a memorable chapter in Tar Heel football.

In 1955, Mr. Loudermilk launched a furniture rental business in his hometown, naming it Aaron Rents so that it would be listed first in the phone book. The business grew into a multi-billion dollar concern and today is known as Aaron's, Inc.

Mr. Loudermilk in 2011 remained as chairman of the company. His past support of Carolina includes gifts to expand the Kenan-Flagler Business School's executive education facilities at the Rizzo Conference Center. He was also the major contributor toward the statue of Charlie Justice that stands outside the Kenan Football Center. Mr. Loudermilk's many honors include the William R. Davie Award, the highest recognition given by the UNC Board of Trustees. He has also served on the Board of Visitors of UNC's Kenan-Flagler Business School.

JOHN WILLIAM POPE FOUNDATION

The Raleigh-based John William Pope Foundation has a long history of providing funds for academic support in the Carolina Athletic Department. The academic support center connected to the original Kenan Field House was erected in the 1980s and later named for John W. Pope, a 1947 UNC graduate who contributed significantly to the Kenan Stadium expansion in the mid-1990s. This new building carries on the tradition through the John W. Pope Student-Athlete Academic Support Center, a 29,000 square foot facility that provides classrooms for teaching and tutoring, advanced computer technology, a writing lab, reading rooms and office space. It is also the home to the Carolina Leadership Academy, which offers leadership training to Carolina student-athletes, coaches and staff. Mr. Pope took five discount variety stores started in Fuquay-Varina by his father, James, and turned them into Variety Wholesalers, a successful network of more than 500 stores that continues to flourish into the 21st century. Mr. Pope passed away in 2006, and today the company is led by James Arthur "Art" Pope of Raleigh, a 1978 Carolina graduate who is also chairman and president of the John William Pope Foundation, which funds numerous charities and free market oriented organizations.

November 1926 on which Kenan visited the planned site, he announced his financial gift to build the stadium.

Kenan remained very interested in Kenan Stadium throughout his lifetime. In the 1950s he gave a $1,000,000 contribution to construct a second deck on the stadium. After Kenan's death in 1965 the William R. Kenan Jr. Charitable Trust, which was established by his will, donated $1,000,000 to enlarge and modernize Kenan Fieldhouse.

In 1988 the Kenan Trust made another $1,000,000 gift to complete the new chancellor's box on the north side. Another lasting memory of William R. Kenan Jr. is the Kenan Athletic Scholarship Endowment, valued at over $1,000,000. Each year a student-athlete is awarded a full scholarship from this fund.

Besides giving the stadium to the University, Mr. Kenan also sponsored and financed the famous Kenan Professorships. He was awarded the honorary degree of LL.D. by his alma mater in 1944.

In the first game played there, Carolina defeated Davidson, 27-0, on November 12, 1927.

Carolina's all-time record at Kenan Stadium is 286-179-16. The most points scored by the Tar Heels in Kenan came in 2013 when UNC beat Old Dominion 80-20.

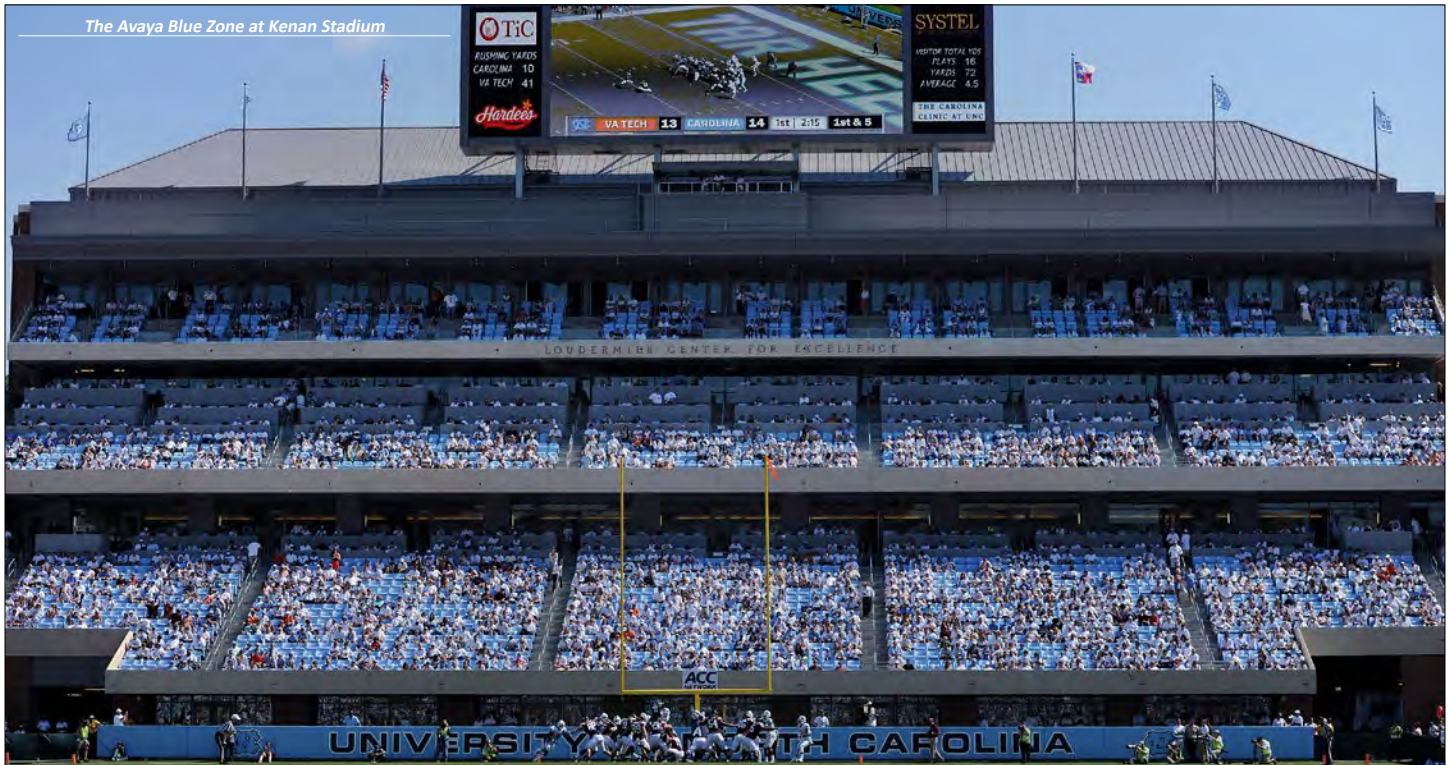

As originally built, the stadium seated 24,000. However, in 1963 the benefactor added portable stands and then an upper deck to the permanent stands, which increased capacity to 48,000. That was expanded to 50,000 in 1979, 52,000 in 1988, 57,500 in 1997, 60,000 in 1998 and 63,000 in 2011.

In 1997, the Tar Heels played in front of a record crowd of 62,000 on Nov. 8, 1997, as fifth-ranked Carolina battled No. 2 Florida State. The largest crowd to watch a game prior to the most recent major expansion was 54,300 as Carolina defeated N.C. State, 31-17, in 1994.

The 1983 season saw another first in the stadium — a game played under artificial lights. The Carolina-Duke game was played in the late afternoon so it could be televised throughout the ACC area. Portable lights were brought in since the second half was played after sunset. Portable lights were also used in the 1987 Clemson game which was televised nationally by ESPN.

The 1991 season opener versus Cincinnati and that season's Clemson game, which was televised nationally by ESPN, were the first true night games ever played at Kenan Stadium.

KENAN STADIUM POLICIES & STADIUM INFORMATION

- Alcoholic beverages are prohibited at Kenan Stadium. Individuals violating this policy will be issued the appropriate citation and escorted out of the stadium.
- ATM machines are located in Kenan Stadium behind Sections 114 and 117 on the west end concourse as well as near Gate 6 on the South Side and near Gate 2 on the North Side.
- Homemade banners and signs are not allowed inside Kenan Stadium without prior approval.
- In order to insure that everyone has a pleasant experience, it is up to each patron to act responsibly and to be considerate of those around them. Patrons should notify a member of the game management staff if someone is not complying with this policy.
- Event staff reserves the right to deem an act or behavior to be inappropriate based on available information and to take whatever action necessary.
- Seating for patrons with disabilities is available on game day by asking for the game supervisor as you enter Kenan Stadium.
- South Orange Rescue Squad provides first aid at Gates 2 (North Side) and Gate 6 (South Side) at Kenan Stadium.
- Patrons are not allowed to bring any food or beverages with them into Kenan Stadium. However, bottled water (sealed and unopened) is permitted.
- During an event you may check with game management staff at Gate 2 or 6 to see if an item of yours was found and turned in. After an event, all unclaimed items are turned over to Campus Police, and you may contact them at 919-962-8100.
- Parents/guardians with a lost child should contact the nearest police officer or event staff member. That person will then contact the proper personnel to insure the quickest resolution to the situation.
- On September 21, 2009 the Department of Homeland Security/Office of Intelligence and Analysis and the FBI released a joint Homeland Security Note to raise security awareness regarding terrorist interest in targeting sport and entertainment venues. The admission policy at Kenan Stadium prohibits "backpacks or large bags", and has since 2001.

  Backpack: A container designed to hold a bulky/heavy load and be worn on the back. Typically characterized by wide shoulder straps, multiple zippers & pockets, and most often constructed of a sturdy material such as thick nylon, canvas, or leather. (Simple draw string bags with thin shoulder straps, and purses designed to be worn on the back do not meet the criteria of a backpack.)

  Large bag: A large container such as a duffle or gym type bag designed to carry a bulky/heavy load. Considered to be in the luggage family of containers and not the purse family. Most often constructed of a sturdy material such as thick nylon, canvas, or leather. (Shopping bags or large purses do not meet the criteria of a large bag.)
- Effective January 1, 2008, there is NO SMOKING within 100 feet of any campus building. This includes all areas of Kenan Stadium.

UNC Athletics and the Department of Public Safety thank you for your cooperation and understanding.

2014 IN REVIEW

■ IN REVIEW: In 2014, North Carolina finished 6-7 and 4-4 in the Atlantic Coast Conference. It marked the seventh consecutive season the Tar Heels had won a minimum of six games and it was their second consecutive bowl season under head coach Larry Fedora.

Carolina finished third in the ACC in scoring, averaging 33.2 points per game, and the Tar Heels averaged more than 425 yards on offense for the third consecutive season. UNC set eight school offensive records, including most passing yards (3,614), most passing touchdowns (29) and most first downs (311).

The offense was led by second-team All-ACC quarterback Marquise Williams (right). The Charlotte, N.C., native led the team in both passing (3,068) and rushing yards (788). He set UNC single-season record for total offense (3,856), most touchdowns responsible for (34) and most touchdowns rushing by a quarterback (13).

Carolina struggled on defense, allowing 497.8 yards and 39.0 points per game.

QUICK HITS

❑ Carolina was one of just five schools in the country to play 11 bowl-eligible teams in 2014. The others were Arkansas, Boise State, Auburn and Georgia Tech.

❑ For the third consecutive season, Carolina averaged more than 425 yards per game. Only one other time in school history - 1981-83 - did the Tar Heels average more than 400 yards per game for three straight seasons.

❑ Carolina scored 60 touchdowns in 2014, the second-highest total in school history. Only the 2012 team, also coached by Larry Fedora, scored more (62). Carolina scored 26 rushing TDs, 29 passing TDs, had three interception returns for touchdowns, and two fumble returns for touchdowns.

❑ Carolina has won six or more games in seven straight seasons, including all three under Fedora.

❑ Wide receiver Quinshad Davis tied the UNC career record for touchdown receptions at 21.

❑ Over the last three seasons, Carolina leads the ACC with 18 non-offensive touchdowns. Carolina scored five non-offensive touchdowns in 2014, which ranked third in the ACC. UNC scored on three interception returns and two fumble returns.

❑ Carolina ranked 10th in the nation in kickoff return defense in 2014 (17.41 yards per return). Kickoff specialist Nick Weiler was second nationally in average kickoff distance.

❑ QB Marquise Williams ranked second in the ACC in total offense (296.6), third in passing (236.0), second in scoring TDs (14) and 11th in rushing (60.6). He was the only player in the league ranked in the top 11 in rushing and passing.

❑ Williams was responsible for 212 points in 2014 (21 passing TDs, 13 rushing TDs, one receiving TD, one two-point conv.), which tied for 11th in the country with Alabama's Blake Sims and Cal's Jared Goff.

❑ Williams ranked fourth among FBS quarterbacks in scoring with 14 TDs (13 rush, 1 rec). Only Navy's Kenan Reynolds (23 TDs), Oregon's Marcus Mariota (16) and Mississippi State's Dak Prescott (15) had more.

❑ Williams set a UNC single-season school record for most plays with 621, which ranks fourth in ACC history. Only seven other players in ACC history have had 600 plays in a season.

❑ Carolina posted 500 or more yards in four of the last eight games, including a season-high 591 yards against Duke.

Carolina 56, Liberty 29
Aug. 30, 2014 • Kenan Stadium
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL (AP)—Marquise Williams accounted for four touchdowns while Jeff Schoettmer returned an interception for a score during North Carolina's game-turning flurry, helping the No. 23 Tar Heels beat Liberty 56-29.

Schoettmer's 19-yard return came during a run of four touchdowns in fewer than 4 minutes, which jolted the Tar Heels out of a sluggish and mistake-prone performance in the season opener.

Liberty led 22-21 with about 6 minutes left in the third quarter before Williams found Mack Hollins for a 33-yard scoring pass. Williams later scored on a 15-yard keeper and backup Mitch Trubisky followed with his first career TD pass for a 49-22 lead with 2:06 left in the quarter.

That stunning turnaround couldn't have happened without the maligned defense - perhaps UNC's biggest question mark coming into the season - forcing three turnovers in the third and setting up the sputtering offense with short scoring drives against Liberty.

The win capped a bumpy game week for UNC, which is ranked to enter a season for the first time since 2010. Coach Larry Fedora suspended four defensive players Wednesday, including two starters, for a violation of team policy without specifying what rules were broken.

For a time Saturday night, it looked as though the Tar Heels were flirting a surprising home loss to a championship subdivision team. But the defense allowed just 53 yards in the third quarter to provide a needed spark and finished with six takeaways for the game.

As for the offense, Williams got the start after battling with Trubisky for the starting quarterback job through preseason camp, though the team rotated them for much of the night. Williams shook off two badly thrown interceptions and finished with 169 yards passing with two TD throws to go with two scoring runs - the first one giving UNC a 21-15 lead with 28 seconds left in the first half.

Todd Macon ran for two touchdowns and D.J. Abnar added one for Liberty, a Big South Conference member playing a ranked bowl subdivision opponent for the first time. Jacob Hagen also returned a fumble 27 yards for a touchdown and the 22-21 lead with 9:25 left in the third before the Tar Heels finally kicked into gear.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) -- Make it two rallies in two weeks for No. 21 North Carolina, which erased a two-touchdown deficit in the second half and then held on to beat San Diego State 31-27 after Tim Scott's interception in the end zone with 14 seconds left.

Marquise Williams threw two second-half touchdown passes and freshman Elijah Hood rushed 2 yards for the go-ahead score with 8:01 left for the Tar Heels (2-0).

Last week, they trailed Liberty of the FCS in the third quarter before taking control with a flurry of turnovers.

They escaped an even bigger hole against the Aztecs: North Carolina trailed by 14 points with less than 5 minutes left in the third quarter before scoring on four straight possessions to take a four-point lead, then came up with a timely defensive stand to earn its first 2-0 start under its third-year coach.

Quinn Kaehler threw for a career-high 341 yards with a touchdown, then led the Aztecs (1-1) to a first-and-goal from the North Carolina 3 in the final minute.

His quick pass in the end zone to Lloyd Mills was jumped by Scott for the game-sealing interception.

Kaehler was picked off three times: the first was returned for a touchdown, the second set up a late field goal and the third effectively ended the game.

Kaehler finished with a 56-yard touchdown pass to Eric Judge, and Donnel Pumphrey rushed for 100 yards with scoring runs of 12 and 3 yards for San Diego State, which led 21-7 late in the third quarter before Williams and the North Carolina offense finally started clicking.

Williams threw TDs covering 91 yards to Mack Hollins -- the third-longest TD pass in school history -- and 11 yards to Quinshad Davis. Brian Walker picked off two passes, returning the first one 100 yards for an early touchdown.

After Danny Hageman's second field goal of the fourth quarter, a 40-yarder with 10:30 to play, made it 27-21, the Tar Heels went 80 yards in eight plays and reclaimed the lead for good. Hood's first career touchdown run made it 28-27 -- their first lead since early in the second quarter.

Walker then picked off Kaehler's pass and took it 26 yards to the San Diego State 14. That set up Nick Welier's 23-yard field goal with 4 minutes left that forced San Diego State to go for the end zone on its final possession.

Sept. 20, 2014
Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium
Greenville, N.C.

GREENVILLE, N.C. (AP) -- Shane Carden threw for 438 yards and four touchdowns to help East Carolina beat North Carolina 70-41, turning in another dominating performance against its instate rival.

True freshman Trevon Brown had two touchdown catches for the Pirates (3-1), including a 55-yarder less than a minute into the game. East Carolina took control with three second-quarter touchdowns, then got Zeek Bigger's 46-yard interception return immediately after the break to make this one look a lot like last year's blowout win against the Tar Heels (2-1) in Chapel Hill.

The Pirates rolled to a program-record 789 total yards and flirted with setting a single-game program scoring record, too. It also amounted to the worst defensive performance ever by the Tar Heels (2-1), who had never given up more yards, points or first downs.

Allen rushed for a career-high 211 yards and two touchdowns and Brown had 117 yards receiving. And Carden - who accounted for six TDs for the second straight year - added two touchdown keepers after halftime as the Pirates stomped the gas and sped out of sight.

There was nothing OK for the Tar Heels after this one. They had talked this week about the embarrassment of last year's 55-31 home loss and making sure it didn't happen again.

Instead, things were much, much worse.

The previous records set by a UNC opponent were Utah's 669 yards in 2004 and Louisville's 69 points in 2005. The Pirates blew past both of those totals and came within four points of matching a program scoring record set in 1959.

The Tar Heels scored two early touchdowns on trick plays, the first a 35-yard pass from receiver Ryan Switzer to T.J. Thorpe and the second a TD catch from Eric Albright on a fake field goal.

UNC's offense found little rhythm otherwise behind starting quarterback Marquise Williams and backup Mitch Trubisky. The defense, meanwhile, continued the tackling problems it had against San Diego State two weeks ago and let the Pirates go wherever they wanted - the worst moment possibly being Allen's 44-yard touchdown run on a 3rd-and-28 play late in the second.

CLEMSON, S.C.(AP) —Freshman Deshaun Watson threw for 435 yards and set a school record with six touchdown passes in his first ever start to lead Clemson to a 50-35 win over North Carolina.

The Tigers (2-2, 1-1 Atlantic Coast Conference) decided Watson's time had come, and the 19-year-old didn't shrink in the spotlight. Watson completed 27 of his 36 passes. He also ran 11 times for 28 yards.

Watson's six TDs tied the ACC record and only Tajh Boyd has thrown for more yards in a game for Clemson.

North Carolina (2-2, 0-1) gave up 528 yards, and has allowed its opponent to gain more than 500 yards in the past three games.

Mike Williams had six catches for 122 yards and two touchdowns for Clemson, which has scored 49 or more points in five of its last 10 ACC games.

Watson was the first true freshman to start for Clemson in 20 years and coach Dabo Swinney said he earned it by being the most special player he's seen in his seven years leading the Tigers. On Watson's second play he threw a 74-yard touchdown pass to a wide open Germone Hopper.

Watson also had a 50-yard TD pass to Hopper in the second quarter, waiting in the pocket until the last moment to drop the pass right into the receiver's hands. Clemson gained 218 yards in the first half, with Watson's two long passes accounting for more than half that total.

In the second half, Watson had two 33-yard touchdown passes and a 24-yard scoring throw before tight end Jordan Leggett jumped high in the end zone to pull in the freshman's record-breaking TD pass.

Clemson needed Watson's passing because the Tigers gained only 71 yards on the ground.

Ammon Lakip hit a 27-yard and a 45-yard field goal. Clemson coach Swinney stuck with the junior kicker after he missed two field goals in last week's overtime loss to No. 1 Florida State.

The Tar Heels had 15 penalties, one off the school record, for 130 yards, which was 20 yards away from their worst game.

Marquise Williams was 24-of-38 for 345 yards for North Carolina and threw to 13 different receivers. Elijah Hood ran 13 times for 71 yards.

Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) --- Kendall Fuller returned an interception 47 yards for a momentum-shifting touchdown and Virginia Tech beat North Carolina 34-17.

Michael Brewer was 18 of 27 for 186 yards with a 26-yard touchdown pass to Bucky Hodges, while Marshawn Williams had an early 8-yard scoring run and J.C. Coleman had a game-sealing 1-yard TD.

The Hokies (4-2, 1-1 Atlantic Coast Conference) scored two touchdowns in the opening 3 1/2 minutes, forced three turnovers and had five sacks while avoiding their first 0-2 start to league play since joining the ACC a decade ago.

Elijah Hood had a short touchdown run and Marquise Williams rushed for 94 yards and was 17 of 33 for 187 yards passing.

He briefly made things interesting with his 9-yard touchdown pass to Quinshad Davis with 4:15 left.

The Tar Heels mostly bottled up Virginia Tech, holding the Hokies to a season-low 357 total yards. But Tech's defense neutralized North Carolina, which finished with 323 yards.

And the Tar Heels' offense was responsible for the play of the game - by the Hokies. Fuller jumped in front of redshirt freshman Mitch Trubisky's quick pass for Bug Howard and raced down the right side to make it 24-3 with 1:01 before halftime.

Neither offense did anything in the second half until North Carolina began clawing back into the game. M.J. Stewart intercepted Brewer at the Tech 16 with 13:32 remaining and Hood powered in from 1 yard out two plays later to make it 24-10.

Tech responded with a 15-play drive that chewed up 6:47 and ended with a 22-yard field goal by Joey Slye that made it a 17-point game with 6:28 left.

The Tar Heels countered by going 76 yards in six plays, capped by Williams' scoring pass, then forced a punt with about 3 1/2 minutes left.

But return man Ryan Switzer fumbled the punt, Newsome recovered it at the UNC 10 and Coleman iced it by scoring from 1 yard out with 2:30 remaining.

This one looked like a runaway for the Hokies right from the opening snap - which was fumbled by Marquise Williams. Dadi Nicolas recovered for Virginia Tech at the UNC 16, and Marshawn Williams scored two plays later.

Notre Dame 50, Carolina 43
Oct. 11, 2014 • Notre Dame Stadium
South Bend, Ind.

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) --- Everett Golson and Notre Dame did just enough to overcome their own mistakes and beat North Carolina.

The 50-43 victory, the highest-scoring game in the 84-year-history of Notre Dame Stadium, wasn't secure for the sixth-ranked Irish until Ben Koyack recovered the Tar Heels' onside kick with 47 seconds left.

North Carolina (2-4) lost its fourth straight and fell to 0-12 all-time at Notre Dame Stadium.

Golson threw three touchdowns passes to overcome his three turnovers. He was 21-of-38 passing for 300 yards.

North Carolina's Marquise Williams threw two touchdown passes, ran for another score and caught a 23-yard TD pass from receiver Quinshad Davis late in the third quarter to give the Tar Heels a 36-35 lead.

But mistakes hurt the Tar Heels as they have all season. A roughing-the-center penalty on North Carolina's Norkeithus Otis kept alive a drive that led to a 9-yard TD pass from Golson to Tarean Folston early in the fourth quarter and the Irish added a two-point conversion.

North Carolina was driving when Williams' short pass was intercepted by cornerback Cole Luke at the 26. That set up Folston's 6-yard scoring run, his third touchdown.

Williams rushed for a career-high 132 yards and was 24-of-41 passing for 303 yards.

Fedora abandoned his practice of rotating quarterbacks. Mitch Trubisky, a redshirt freshman, had entered each game on the third offensive series, but didn't play against the Irish. Williams said that helped him get in a rhythm.

Folston finished with 98 yards rushing for the Irish on 18 carries for Notre Dame. Will Fuller had seven catches for 133 yards and two touchdowns.

The victory ended a streak of 16 straight losses by the Irish when an opponent scored 35 or more points. Golson said the key was the Irish didn't lose their composure.

Carolina 48, Georgia Tech 43
Oct. 18, 2014 • Kenan Stadium
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) --- T.J. Logan scored on a 2-yard run with 11 seconds left to help North Carolina rally past Georgia Tech 48-43, earning a wild win that gave UNC its first Atlantic Coast Conference victory.

Logan's late score capped a 75-yard scoring drive in the final 3 minutes of a back-and-forth game, which saw the Tar Heels (3-4, 1-2 ACC) blow an 11-point fourth-quarter lead only to come up with one more scoring drive.

From Logan's late score to a brilliant individual performance from quarterback Marquise Williams, it was the kind of moment the Tar Heels have needed for weeks.

Williams threw for 390 yards and four touchdowns to go with a school-record 38 completions, and also ran for 73 yards and a score in his second straight huge performance.

Logan finished with a season-high 75 yards rushing for the Tar Heels, while receiver Ryan Switzer had nine catches for a career-high 136 yards and two touchdowns _ including a 68-yarder midway through the second quarter.

And yet, on a night when both offenses moved the ball at will, the Yellow Jackets (5-2, 2-2) appeared to have snatched this one away from the Tar Heels in stunning fashion.

Trailing 42-31, they made it a one-possession game on Zach Laskey's 14-yard scoring run at the 8-minute mark. Then, after the Yellow Jackets got a rare defensive stop, DeAndre Smelter took a reverse around the left side and raced 75 yards to the end zone for a 43-42 lead with 3:07 left.

Ultimately, that proved to be too much time for Williams, Logan and an offense that rolled to 579 total yards.

Williams completed six passes on the go-ahead drive, including a 15-yarder to Romar Morris while drawing a roughing-the-passer penalty that put the ball at the Georgia Tech 4 with 20 seconds left. Then, after a pass interference call brought the ball closer to the goal line, Logan ran through the left side for the winning score.

Georgia Tech finished with 611 yards against the Tar Heels' struggling defense, which included the run-heavy Yellow Jackets getting big plays through the air, too.

Justin Thomas threw for 235 yards and three touchdowns, while Smelter had a 46-yard scoring catch. Laskey ran for two scores while playing through a shoulder injury.

Georgia Tech had one final possession deep in its own end, but Thomas' desperation deep heave fell incomplete.

Carolina 28, Virginia 27
Oct. 25, 2014 • Scott Stadium
Charlottesville, Va.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP) --- Mitch Trubisky threw a 16-yard touchdown pass on his only play of the game, giving North Carolina its first lead with 4:05 remaining, and the Tar Heels stunned Virginia 28-27.

Trubisky, who had been sharing the job with Marquise Williams until the last two games, was called into action when Williams was sacked and his helmet came off, setting up a third-and-15 from the 16. Trubisky hit a wide open T.J. Thorpe to give North Carolina (4-4, 2-2 Atlantic Coast Conference) the lead.

Virginia (4-4, 2-2), which had kept the explosive Williams and North Carolina scoreless to that point in the second half, then was surprised when the Tar Heels tried, and recovered, an onside kick.

North Carolina drove to the Virginia 20, where it faced a fourth-and-1, and a whistle for too many men on the field against the defense gave UNC a first down, and Williams and Co. then ran out the clock.

Until the closing minutes, Virginia had mostly kept the red-hot Williams and Tar Heels at bay, save for three quick drives in the first half, all ending in big plays. Williams came in averaging 449 yards of offense in his last two games, but finished with 308 as the Cavaliers outgained North Carolina 443-374.

But for all the yardage, Virginia managed just one field goal in the second half, and when Greyson Lambert threw a dump pass into the arms of 280-pound defensive tackle Nazair Jones, and he returned it 20 yards to the Cavaliers' 38, it proved to be one request too many of the Cavaliers' defense.

The decisive touchdown came after Eli Harold sacked Williams for minus 10 yards on second-and-5 from the 6, and Williams' helmet came off, meaning he had to sit out the next play per NCAA rules.

In trotted Trubisky for the third-and-15 play, and Thorpe made it easy.

Williams did little on the Tar Heels first two series, then did plenty, and fast. Trailing 14-0, he kept the ball on a read option and went 48 yards untouched for the touchdown, capping a four-play, 75-yard drive that took 45 seconds. After Virginia's first three-and-out, the Tar Heels needed just two plays, the second Williams' 52-yard scoring pass to Mack Hollins, to make it 14-all.

Miami 47, Carolina 20
Nov. 1, 2014 • Sun Life Stadium
Miami Gardens, Fla.

MIAMI GARDENS, FLA. (AP) --- Duke Johnson went over the 3,000-yard mark for his career and scored three times despite getting most of the second half off, Brad Kaaya threw three touchdown passes and Miami rolled past North Carolina 47-20.

Johnson had a 90-yard touchdown run-tying the Miami record for longest rush from scrimmage-and finished with 177 yards on 19 carries for the Hurricanes (6-3, 3-2 Atlantic Coast Conference). His 1-yard scoring run opened the scoring, and he turned a middle screen into a 37-yard TD catch in the third quarter.

Kaaya completed 11 of 17 passes for 189 yards, and now has 20 touchdown passes in his freshman season. Clive Walford had two touchdown grabs, the first Miami tight end to do so since Greg Olsen in 2005.

Quarterback Marquise Williams had a pair of touchdown runs and Cayson Collins returned a fumble 39 yards for a score for North Carolina (4-5, 2-3).

It was over by halftime, with Miami up 30-6 and leading 322-57 in total yards-dominating defensive numbers against a team that had topped the 35-point mark five times in its first eight games this season.

For a moment, this one seemed in a bit of doubt after a bizarre sequence. All within a span of 20 seconds, there was a safety, a free kick, a penalty, a defensive touchdown and a missed extra point to give North Carolina some hope.

The Tar Heels had a punt snap sail out of the end zone for a safety that pushed Miami's lead to 9-0. After a free kick and a delay-of-game penalty that incensed Miami, North Carolina's Mikey Bart got to Kaaya and forced a fumble that Collins scooped up and scored. At that point, North Carolina practically had as many points (six) as it had yards (nine).

Later in the quarter, Williams-who completed 22 of 32 passes for 191 yards-even had a reception to himself, grabbing the carom after Miami's Anthony Chickillo batted back one of his throws.

But before long, Miami put it away.

Walford had a pair of 14-yard scoring catches in a 5-minute span of the second quarter, Johnson got loose for his 90-yard score and the lead was 24 points at the break.

Carolina 40, Pittsburgh 35
Nov. 15, 2014 • Kenan Stadium
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL (AP) — Amid all its ups and downs this season, North Carolina has at least proven it can come up with big last-minute plays to win games. Against Pitt, that even included the Tar Heels' defense.

T.J. Logan scored from 1 yard out with 50 seconds left, then Shakeel Rashad recovered a fumble near midfield to seal the Tar Heels' 40-35 win against Pittsburgh.

Logan's short scoring run capped a 75-yard drive and marked his second go-ahead touchdown in the final minute of a game this season for the Tar Heels (5-5, 3-3 Atlantic Coast Conference), who rallied from 14 down early and withstood the latest huge performance from league-leading rusher James Conner.

Marquise Williams had a big day for UNC, running for 122 yards and three touchdowns while throwing for 276 yards and a score. He calmly led that final drive with a couple of clutch plays, including a fourth-down keeper when the Tar Heels opted against trying a 46-yard field goal while trailing 35-34.

Then, after Logan's score, Pitt quarterback Chad Voytik fumbled on a keeper after Malik Simmons' hard hit that flipped Voytik over. Rashad pounced on the loose ball with 15 seconds left, the clinching stop for a defense that ranks among the nation's worst statistically.

That included hanging in against the tailback Rashad described as "250 pounds of adversity." Conner ran for 220 yards and four touchdowns, including the 22-yard score with 3:33 left that gave Pitt (4-6, 2-4) the 35-34 lead.

Conner scored from 56 yards out on the game's first possession, then added scoring runs of 16 and 2 yards before breaking four tackles and dragging two defenders the final few yards on his last TD. Along the way, he set ACC and program records for most season rushing yards by a sophomore.

Tyler Boyd also had a big day for Pitt, catching five passes for 160 yards and a 50-yard score, as Pitt finished with 523 total yards.

Ryan Switzer had a 63-yard catch-and-run touchdown early in the third quarter for the Tar Heels. Logan ran for 92 yards in a short-handed backfield.

Carolina 45, Duke 20
Nov. 20, 2014 • Wallace Wade Stadium
Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) — North Carolina took things from No. 25 Duke all night: The ball. The momentum. And, finally, the Victory Bell.

The Tar Heels routed Duke 45-20 with Marquise Williams throwing for two touchdowns and rushing for two more.

Williams was 18 of 27 for 276 yards with touchdown passes covering 3 yards to Quinshad Davis and 1 yard to Mack Hollins. He also had scoring runs of 1 and 16 yards.

Tim Scott returned an early fumble 10 yards for the tone-setting score. The Tar Heels (6-5, 4-3 Atlantic Coast Conference) led 38-7 in earning bowl eligibility while wrapping up the Coastal Division title for Georgia Tech.

Anthony Boone was 22 of 40 for 262 yards with two touchdowns for the Blue Devils (8-3, 4-3). They needed to win their last two to earn a second straight ACC title game berth.

The Tar Heels scored 21 points off Duke's three turnovers. Duke managed 378 total yards against a defense that allows an ACC-worst 512 per game.

T.J. Logan rushed for 116 yards and a 1-yard touchdown, and Ryan Switzer caught three passes for 109 yards for the Tar Heels.

They reached the six-win mark for the second straight year and seventh time in eight years while beating Duke for the first time since 2011 - earning the coveted bell that goes to the winner of this fierce backyard rivalry. They rang it repeatedly - and audibly - both on the field and in the locker room.

The offense kept clicking behind Williams, who had 98 yards rushing and has accounted for eight touchdowns in six days. North Carolina rolled up 591 total yards - three shy of Duke's season worst - with 315 coming on the ground.

After Duke temporarily got back in the game on Boone's 10-yard scoring pass to Issac Blakeney, the Tar Heels broke off big plays to set up a couple of short touchdowns that put this one away.

Logan's 47-yard run to the Duke 1 led to the Williams-to-Hollins scoring pass that made it 21-7.

On the next drive, Williams' 45-yard pass to Switzer came four plays before his quarterback sneak made it 28-7 not even 2 minutes into the second quarter. Logan added his TD midway through the third.

Duke - Barnes 6-85, Crowder 6-73, McCaffrey 5-73

NC State 35, Carolina 7
Nov. 29, 2014 • Kenan Stadium
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) --- Jacoby Brissett and Shadrach Thornton each ran for touchdowns in huge rushing performances while North Carolina State's defense overwhelmed rival North Carolina in a 35-7 win.

Brissett ran for a career-best 167 yards while Thornton ran for 161 more for the Wolfpack (7-5, 3-5 Atlantic Coast Conference), part of a 388-yard ground game that set a physical tone from the outset.

Brissett threw just 11 passes, through three went for short touchdowns.

Meanwhile, the Wolfpack's defensive front mauled the Tar Heels (6-6, 4-4) in a surprisingly one-sided performance against an offense that had been rolling coming into the game.

UNC finished with 207 total yards, 30 on the ground, and didn't score until getting a meaningless touchdown with 1:48 left.

And quarterback Marquise Williams found himself under constant pressure before the Wolfpack ultimately knocked him from the game with an apparent right-leg injury early in the second half.

NC State finished with four sacks and 10 tackles for loss, repeatedly swallowing up running plays and swarming around Williams or backup Mitch Trubisky. The Wolfpack led 21-0 by halftime in a performance that ended up looking a lot like a 41-10 win here in 2008 when Russell Wilson was the quarterback and Tom O'Brien was coach - complete with the Wolfpack celebrating late in Kenan Stadium after the home fans had long since fled for the exits.

North Carolina entered this game with a lot of momentum after a lopsided win against another rival, Duke, last week. Yet the Tar Heels looked nothing like that team, while the Wolfpack looked more than ready after a week off.

Brissett scored on a 17-yard keeper to start the game, had five runs of at least 16 yards and had a 60-yard run to set up Thornton's short touchdown late in the first half.

By the end, Brissett had set the program's single-game rushing record for quarterbacks and NC State had its first back-to-back 300-yard rushing games since 1981.

Rutgers 41, Carolina 20

Detroit, Mich.
Quick Lane Bowl

DETROIT (AP) - Josh Hicks ran for 202 yards and a touchdown and Rutgers beat North Carolina 40-21 in the inaugural Quick Lane Bowl at Ford Field.

Gary Nova threw for 184 yards and two touchdowns, and Robert Martin ran for 100 yards and two scores to help the Scarlet Knights (8-5) cap their first Big Ten season.

Owned and operated by the NFL's Detroit Lions, the bowl replaced the Little Caesar's Pizza Bowl, which had been played in Detroit under various names since 1997.

Rutgers led 40-7 before the Tar Heels (6-7) scored twice in the final seven minutes. North Carolina also had two second-half touchdown passes taken away because of interference penalties.

North Carolina beat Rutgers in three recent regular-season meetings, but was outplayed from the first snap. Marquise Williams was never able to get going, although he did throw for one score and run for another.

The Scarlet Knights lost the coin toss, but got the ball when North Carolina deferred. They only needed 2:17 to take the lead, with Nova hitting a wide-open Andre Patton for a 34-yard touchdown strike.

North Carolina got into Rutgers' territory its first two drives, but turned the ball over on the first and punted on the second. The Tar Heels blocked a punt to take over at the 30, but the drive stalled at the 5 and a fake field goal was buried for a 4-yard loss.

The Scarlet Knights answered with a 91-yard drive that ended with Hicks' 21-yard run that made it 14-0 early in the second. Rutgers then turned another Tar Heels fumble into a quick touchdown — Martin's 8-yard run — but missed the extra point, leaving it 20-0.

The Tar Heels missed a field goal, then shanked a punt 20 yards, allowing Rutgers to kick a 19-yard field goal that made it 23-0 at halftime.

Williams got North Carolina on the board with a 1-yard run, but the Scarlet Knights came back with a 34-yard pass from Nova to Andrew Turzilli to make it 30-7. Martin's second touchdown run — this one from 28 yards — gave Rutgers a 30-point advantage early in the fourth.

GEORGE BARCLAY, GUARD, 1934

Barclay was Carolina's first football All-America. The 5-11, 185-pound guard and linebacker was a three-year standout for Chuck Collins and Carl Snavely. A fine blocker and an extraordinary tackler, Barclay lined up in the offensive interior next to tackle Jim Tatum. He was captain of the 1934 team which went 7-1-1. Barclay later served as head coach at Carolina for three seasons, from 1953 to 1955.

ANDY BERSHAK, END, 1937

A 185-pound end, Bershak was a two-way performer for the Tar Heels. He was a fine receiver, but was even better on defense. He played two years for Carl Snavely and one for Ray Wolf. Bershak, an honor student, was also a basketball starter. He was selected to the Order of the Golden Fleece and served as president of the Carolina Athletic Association.

STEVE MARONIC, TACKLE, 1938

Maronic was a two-way tackle for the Tar Heels and team co-captain in 1938. He was an "iron man," playing almost 60 minutes in every game that season. He turned in two of his best performances in front of the New York media against NYU at Yankee Stadium and Fordham at the Polo Grounds. Those games solidified his All-America chances. Maronic also was a placekicker and hit 13 straight PATs in his final season.

PAUL SEVERIN, END, 1939-40

Severin was a two-time All-America selection by the Associated Press (1939 and 1940) and made most of the all-star teams in his senior season. His career was filled with big plays—a touchdown catch to tie Tulane in 1939, two scoring catches against Penn that same season and a touchdown-saving tackle from behind of Duke's great Steve Lach in a 6-3 win over the Blue Devils in 1940.

CHARLIE JUSTICE, HALFBACK, 1948-49

Twice a runner-up for the Heisman Trophy, Justice is rated by many as the best all-around player in the history of Southern football. He was a true triple-threat performer, leading Carolina in rushing, passing and punting from 1946 to 1949. He sparked Tar Heel teams which appeared in the Sugar Bowl twice and the Cotton Bowl once. He was the school's all-time total offense leader with 4,883 yards for more than 40 years and still ranks as the Tar Heels' sixth-leading career scorer, eighth-leading rusher and 20th-leading passer. He had a career punting average of 42.6 and averaged 14.2 yards on punt returns and 26.6 yards on kickoff returns. In 1948 he received the national player of the year award from the Washington Touchdown Club and was the recipient of the Walter Camp Memorial Trophy. Justice is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame.

Charlie Justice (left) and Art Weiner, both members of the College Football Hall of Fame, helped lead the Tar Heels to back-to-back New Year's Day bowl games in 1949-50.

KEN POWELL, DEFENSIVE END, 1949

Powell teamed with Art Weiner to give UNC a formidable pass receiving threat in the post-World War II "Justice Era." He was outstanding in the 1947 Sugar Bowl against Georgia and earned first-team All-America honors at defensive end in 1949 by NEA. That organization named Powell to its All-America Team on defense, the first time it selected All-Americas on both offense and defense. He finished his career with 23 receptions for 324 yards and three touchdowns.

ART WEINER, END, 1948-49

A great all-around end, Weiner led the nation in receiving in 1949 with 52 catches. He had been seventh nationally in receiving the previous year with 31 catches. Until 1997 he held the UNC career record with 18 touchdown receptions. Many remember him best for a game-saving defensive play on the last snap of the 1949 Duke game. Weiner was named the most outstanding lineman in the Senior Bowl. Weiner was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1992.

IRV HOLDASH, CENTER, 1950

While Carolina's football fortunes slipped in the years immediately following the Charlie Justice Era, Holdash still received national attention for his outstanding play. A center on offense and linebacker on defense, Holdash was a three-year regular who never missed a game during his varsity career. He perhaps sealed All-America honors in 1950 with a sensational performance in a 14-7 loss at Notre Dame. Irish quarterback Bobby Williams called him "the best I've played against."

AL GOLDSTEIN, END, 1958

An outstanding two-way end, Goldstein earned All-America honors in 1958 by making 24 catches for 490 yards, averaging an amazing 20.4 yards per reception. Adept at making the seemingly impossible catch, he had a 68-yard TD reception at Virginia. He also starred defensively and had a 46-yard interception return for a touchdown against Maryland.

BOB LACEY, END, 1963

Lacey led the Atlantic Coast Conference in receiving in 1963 with 48 catches for 533 yards. His pass-catching was a key factor as Carolina rolled to a 9-2 record, defeating Air Force, 35-0, in the Gator Bowl. Lacey was also the team's top receiver in 1962 with 44 catches. He was the first Tar Heel player to have at least 40 catches in two seasons. His career total of 102 receptions is the 10th-best in school history.

DON McCAULEY, HALFBACK, 1970

McCauley shattered the Carolina and the Atlantic Coast Conference record books with a dazzling senior season in 1970. He rushed for 1,720 yards and scored 21 touchdowns, setting marks which still stand. His 1,720 yards was an all-time collegiate high at the time, breaking O.J. Simpson's NCAA record. McCauley led the nation in all-purpose running that season. He was twice the ACC Player of the Year and still ranks fifth in career rushing at UNC. He had a lengthy professional career with the Baltimore Colts. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2002.

Don McCauley is carried off the field by the Kenan Stadium faithful following his legendary final home game performance in 1970. McCauley rushed for 279 yards and scored five touchdowns in a 59-42 win over the Blue Devils.

RON RUSNAK, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1972

Rusnak was a unanimous All-America selection in 1972 as Carolina posted an 11-1 record. At 6-2 and 220 pounds, he did not have the size to play professional football, but Rusnak was a great college player. He was a two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference choice, starting on teams which combined for a 20-4 record. In 1972 he won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the ACC.

KEN HUFF, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1974

Huff was a key man on one of the most explosive units in Carolina history. He was the leader of an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels accumulate 4,691 yards, at the time a school record, in 1974. The 6-4, 255-pound Huff won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Sparked in great part by his play up front, the Tar Heels had two backs rush for over 1,000 yards in the same season. Huff was the third player selected in the NFL Draft by the Baltimore Colts.

CHARLES WADDELL, TIGHT END, 1974

Waddell rates as one of the best all-around athletes in Carolina history. He won three football letters, two in basketball and one in track. Not only was he a fine receiver at tight end, but he was also a dynamic blocker. He set a school single-game record in 1974 with three touchdown catches against Clemson. He had 41 career catches for 518 yards and seven TDs. His professional career was cut short by a knee injury.

CHARLES WADDELL - CAREER STATISTICS

DEE HARDISON, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1977

A two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection, Hardison played on one of the top defensive teams in Carolina history. UNC led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, giving up just 7.4 points a game. The Tar Heels led the ACC in total, rushing, passing and scoring defense. A big reason was the play of Hardison, a 6-3, 252-pound tackle who dominated the line of scrimmage all season. After leaving Carolina he began a lengthy NFL career with the Buffalo Bills.

RICKY BARDEN, DEFENSIVE BACK, 1979

One of the top defensive backs in Carolina history, Barden was a repeat All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection in 1978 and 1979. Barden made nine career interceptions. He started at cornerback for two years and then was shifted to strong safety for his final year where he broke up nine passes and was the third-leading tackler on the team. His 156 yards on interception returns are the third-most in school history.

Ron Wooten won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 1980 as the ACC's best blocker.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR, OUTSIDE LINEBACKER, 1980

From midway in his junior season until the end of his senior year in 1980, Taylor dominated the football field as few defensive players ever had. Now regarded as the finest outside linebacker in the history of the game, Taylor had a remarkable senior season which featured a school-record 16 quarterback sacks and six other tackles for losses. In Carolina's only close games in an 11-1 season, Taylor made the game-saving defensive plays against Texas Tech and Clemson. He was a runaway selection as ACC Player of the Year.

RON WOOTEN, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1980

Wooten won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 1980 as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference. He was the leading vote-getter in the offensive line on the All-ACC team. He was one of the leaders of an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels lead the ACC in total offense and which also helped produce two 1,000-yard backs. He went on to become a starting guard with New England in the NFL.

DAVID DRECHSLER, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1981-82

Drechsler became Carolina's first two-time All-America since Charlie Justice and Art Weiner when he earned first-team honors in 1981 and 1982. He played every position in the offensive interior during his Carolina career, but settled in at guard. The 6-4, 253-pound Drechsler played on Tar Heel teams which were 37-10-1 and were unbeaten in four bowl games. He also was the winner of a postgraduate scholarship from the NCAA. Drechsler went on to become a starter with the Green Bay Packers until a back injury forced him to give up the game.

WILLIAM FULLER, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1982-83

Fuller is one of just six Carolina players to win first-team All-America honors twice. Although powerfully built at 6-3 and 250 pounds, Fuller's greatest asset was his quickness. He used that quickness to make 13 tackles for losses and six sacks in 1982 and 17 tackles for losses with five sacks the following year. He was the only unanimous choice on the 1983 All-ACC team and is one of just three defensive linemen ever to make All-ACC for three straight years.

BRIAN BLADOS, OFFENSIVE TACKLE, 1983

When two Carolina tailbacks ran for over 1,000 yards in 1983, much of that yardage came behind Blados. The 6-6, 305-pound left tackle dominated the line of scrimmage as Carolina set a school total offense record and finished seventh nationally in yardage. Blados was named on 90 of 100 ballots in voting for the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team. He was a first round choice by the Cincinnati Bengals in the NFL Draft.

HARRIS BARTON, OFFENSIVE TACKLE, 1986

Barton was a four-year starter for the Tar Heels, first at center and then at tackle. With so many teams playing even-man front defenses, Barton was moved to tackle in 1984 to take better advantage of his skills. He excelled at left tackle, the key blocking spot in the Carolina passing game. As a senior, he led an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels rank first in the Atlantic Coast Conference and sixth nationally in total offense. An excellent student, he was chosen for a post-graduate scholarship by the National Football Foundation and was a first-round selection in the NFL Draft.

PAT CROWLEY, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1989

Crowley was a standout offensive guard and a leader of the first of Mack Brown's teams. He won first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors in 1987, 1988 and 1989 and became only the second offensive lineman in conference history to win three all-league honors (Virginia's Jim Dombrowski was the other). He started every game in his college career and helped open the way for a pair of 1,000-yard backs (Derrick Fenner in 1986 and Kennard Martin in 1988). He is one of three Tar Heels to be named first-team All-ACC in three seasons.

BRACEY WALKER, FREE SAFETY, 1993

The first Carolina defensive back to ever receive first-team All-America honors by a major organization, Walker burst onto the scene in 1992 when he was one of the stars of the Peach Bowl win over Mississippi State. Walker blocked two punts in that game, returned one of them for a tying touchdown and set up the game-winning interception with a jarring collision. He was the Defensive MVP of the Peach Bowl. In 1993 he led the Tar Heels with 100 tackles and was the co-leading vote-getter on the All-ACC first team defense. He also blocked four more punts, two of which were recovered in the end zone by Carolina, and was named the National Special Teams Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated.

MARCUS JONES, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1995

Jones became the first Tar Heel to earn consensus first-team All-America honors since Harris Barton in 1986 and the first defensive lineman since William Fuller in 1982-83. Jones had 25 career sacks and finished with 222 tackles. That included 46 behind the line of scrimmage. He broke Lawrence Taylor's school record for sacks and held that mark until Greg Ellis broke the record in 1997. He was named the Atlantic Coast Conference Defensive Player of the Year in 1995 and earned first-team All-ACC honors for the second straight season. He became the first Tar Heel defender to repeat all-conference selections since Tim Goad in 1986-87. As a senior he had a career-high 94 tackles, despite facing constant double- and triple-team efforts. He registered an ACC-leading 19 tackles for losses for 74 yards, seven of which were quarterback sacks. He was hampered in the first half of the season by a knee sprain. Over the last five weeks, however, he averaged 10.8 tackles per game and had 16 tackles for losses for 65 yards, including six sacks for 41 yards, and pressured the quarterback 13 times. Quite fittingly, Jones capped his career by sacking Arkansas quarterback Barry Lunney on the Razorbacks' final offensive play in Carolina's 20-10 win in the 1995 Carquest Bowl.

DRE' BLY, CORNERBACK, 1996-97

The first freshman in ACC history to earn consensus first-team All-America honors, Bly became just the fifth freshman in NCAA history to be named to the Associated Press All-America first team in 1996. He was also a first-team All-America selection by the Walter Camp Football Foundation, the Football Writers Association of America, The Sporting News and Athlon Sports and a finalist for the Thorpe Award as the National Defensive Back of the Year. He earned ACC first-team honors and was the league's Rookie of the Year. He is the only UNC freshman to earn first-team All-America honors. He made two second-half interceptions, broke up two passes and had seven tackles against West Virginia in the 1997 Gator Bowl. Bly led the nation in interceptions and interceptions per game. He set an ACC single-season interceptions record with 11, one more than Bob Sullivan of Maryland had in 10 games in 1965. The Chesapeake, Va. native had three multi-interception games. In 1997, Bly became the first player in UNC history to repeat consensus first-team All-America honors. He had five interceptions, including one he returned for a touchdown in a comeback win over Virginia. In 1998, he set the ACC all-time record with his 20th interception (not counting the two he had in the Gator Bowl). He was named first-team All-America by the Walter Camp Foundation. Bly is the only player in ACC history to earn first-team All-America honors on three occasions.

GREG ELLIS, DEFENSIVE END, 1997

A defensive end from 1994-97, Ellis is the Tar Heels' career leader in quarterback sacks. The Wendell, N.C., native had 32.5 sacks for 253 yards in his career. He anchored a defense that was second in the country in total yards allowed in each of his final two seasons. Carolina posted a 21-3 record in that span and had consecutive Top 10 finishes in the polls. Ellis is one of only four players in Carolina football history to be named first-team All-ACC three times. He was voted by his teammates as a team captain and the best overall senior. He was the eighth selection in the first round of the 1998 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

BRIAN SIMMONS, OUTSIDE LINEBACKER, 1997

An outside linebacker from 1994-97, Simmons was a major contributor in Carolina's rise to the Top 10 in his final two seasons. A first-round draft selection of the Cincinnati Bengals, Simmons had 317 tackles over his last three seasons. He was named first-team All-America as a senior by the Associated Press, Walter Camp Foundation and Football News and was a first-team All-ACC selection and second-team AP All-America as a junior. The New Bern, N.C., native finished his career with 36 tackles for losses and 11 sacks.

BRIAN SCHMITZ, PUNTER, 1999

Schmitz was named a first-team All-America in 1999 after averaging 47.8 yards per kick, an ACC and UNC record. He led the ACC and ranked second in the nation in punting average. Schmitz also set the ACC career record for punting average at 44.4 yards per kick. He had at least one 50-yard punt in all 11 UNC games in 1999 and 32 kicks of over 50 yards. He had 63 punts of 40 yards or more in 72 attempts on the season. Schmitz and backup punter Derrick DePriest combined to establish an NCAA single-season record for team punting average at 47.7 yards.

JULIUS PEPPERS, DEFENSIVE END, 2000-01

One of the top two-sport athletes in Carolina history, Peppers became the first Tar Heel defensive player to win a national college football award by winning both the Lombardi Award as the nation's top lineman and the Bednarik Award as the nation's top defensive player. In just three seasons, Peppers finished second at Carolina in career sacks and tackles for loss. In 2000, he led the nation with 15 sacks and established a school record with 24 tackles for losses. The following year, Peppers led a defense that finished first in the ACC and 15th in the nation in total defense. He became just the second Tar Heel and the first since Lawrence Taylor to earn unanimous All-America honors. A forward on Carolina's basketball team, Peppers averaged 7.1 points and 4.0 rebounds to help the Tar Heels claim a share of the 2001 regular-season ACC championship. He was the second overall pick in the 2002 NFL Draft by the Carolina Panthers.

JONATHAN COOPER, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 2012

The most decorated offensive lineman in UNC history, Jonathan Cooper was a dominant force at left guard from 2009-12. He earned consensus All-America honors as a senior in 2012. He also captured the ACC Jacobs Blocking Trophy and was one of three finalists for the Outland Trophy, which is presented annually to the nation's top interior lineman. In doing so, he became the first Tar Heel to ever be a finalist for the award. He was a three-time All-ACC selection, earning first-team honors in 2012. A standout student off the field, Cooper earned an honorary postgraduate scholarship from the ACC and was named to the league's All-Academic Team. Cooper finished his career with 48 starts.

RYAN SWITZER, PUNT RETURNER, 2013

In 2013, Ryan Switzer became the first Carolina true freshman in program history to earn first-team All-America honors. Switzer emerged as one of the nation's elite punt returners in his first season at Carolina. The Charleston, W.Va., product tied the NCAA single-season record with five punt return touchdowns. He also became just the second player in NCAA history to return a punt for a score in three consecutive games. Switzer set the UNC single-season record for punt return yards per game at 20.9 with a school-record 502 yards on just 24 returns.

Twenty-seven former University of North Carolina football players have been honored in a special fashion as their names and jersey numbers have been honored in Kenan Stadium. The men include five who have already had their jersey numbers retired, Carolina's consensus first-team All-Americas and any athlete who was named Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year. Consensus All-Americas are those players who made the majority of the first-team selections in any given year. In 2003, the Athletics Council and Athletic Director Dick Baddour voted to also honor five first-team Associated Press All-Americas and two players who were among the ACC's greatest 50 football players.

GEORGE BARCLAY #99

A guard and linebacker from 1932 to 1934, whose number has been retired. He was the school's first football All-America and is a member of the state of North Carolina's Sports Hall of Fame. A guard and linebacker at 5-11, 185 pounds, Barclay was a standout for three seasons under coaches Chuck Collins and Carl Snavely. A tremendous blocker and ferocious tackler, he was captain of the 1934 team that went 7-1-1. Barclay later served as UNC's head coach from 1953 until 1955.

ANDY BERSHAK #59

A great two-way end from 1935 to 1937 who was a consensus All-America in 1937. His number also has been retired. Bershak was a brilliant defender and his team's top receiver. He also was a starter on the basketball team and an honor student. Bershak was selected to the Order of the Golden Fleece and served as president of the Carolina Athletic Association.

BILL SUTHERLAND #46

A blocking back on the 1946 Sugar Bowl team, whose number has been retired. He died in an auto accident after his freshman year, stunning his teammates and Coach Carl Snavely. Sutherland was named one of the Tar Heels' three captains for what would have been his sophomore season and Snavely worked to ensure that his number would be retired.

CHARLIE JUSTICE #22

One of the most famous and popular athletes in the history of the state. Justice was a consensus All-America and twice runner-up for the Heisman Trophy. During his four seasons, 1946-49, Carolina went to the Sugar Bowl twice and the Cotton Bowl once. A single-wing tailback, he still holds many of the school's total offense records. In addition, he was a sensational punter and kick returner. He was the 1948 National Player of the Year.

ART WEINER #50

An outstanding two-way end from 1946 to 1949, whose number has been retired. Weiner won All-America honors in 1948 and 1949 and was the nation's leading receiver as a senior. He teamed with the legendary Charlie Justice to form perhaps the most potent offensive duo in school history. Voted the top lineman in the Senior Bowl, Weiner is a member of the National Football Hall of Fame. He is still ninth in UNC receptions with 106.

DANNY TALBOTT #10

A star quarterback from 1964 to 1966 and the 1965 ACC Player of the Year under head coach Jim Hickey. Talbott led the league in total offense and scoring that season. He had 318 yards of total offense in one game against Georgia, at the time a school record.

DON McCAULEY #23

The ACC Player of the Year as a junior and senior and a consensus All-America in 1970, his final season. McCauley was the first of Carolina's 23 backs to rush for 1,000 yards. He twice led the ACC in rushing with 1,092 yards in 1969 and 1,720 in 1970. That latter total at the time broke O.J. Simpson's single-season NCAA record. He also led the nation in all-purpose running as a senior and his 126 points that year still is the league record.

RON RUSNAK #62

An offensive guard on three bowl teams from 1970 to 1972 who won unanimous All-America honors in his senior season. At 6-2, 220 pounds, Rusnak wasn't as big as some linemen, but had great technique. He was the cornerstone of the offensive front on the 1972 team, which went 11-1. Rusnak was a two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference choice on teams which combined for a 20-4 record. He won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 1972 as the best blocker in the ACC.

KEN HUFF #68

A three-year starter at offensive guard from 1972 to 1974 and a consensus All-America as a senior. Huff was a dynamic blocker at 6-4 and 250 pounds. He was the key figure on the 1974 line which helped Carolina boast a pair of 1,000-yard backs and lead the ACC in total offense, rushing and scoring. Led by Huff, UNC accumulated 4,691 yards, at the time a school record. The Tar Heels were fifth nationally in total offense and ninth in scoring that season. Huff won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference and was the third player selected overall in the 1974 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Colts.

MIKE VOIGHT #44

A hard-running tailback from 1973 to 1976 who was the ACC Player of the Year as both a junior and senior. Voight is second in Carolina history in rushing with 3,971 yards and fifth in scoring with 254 points. He had three 1,000-yard seasons and twice was the top ground-gainer in the ACC. In 1976 he scored 110 points and ran for 1,407 yards, including 261 in his final game —a dramatic 39-38 shootout with Duke.

DEE HARDISON #71

A defensive tackle from 1974 to 1977 and a consensus All-America as a senior. Hardison was the star of one of Carolina's greatest defenses in his final year. He dominated the line of scrimmage all season long as the Tar Heels led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, giving up just 7.4 points a game. Carolina also topped the ACC in total, rushing and pass defense that year. No team would lead the league in all four again until Florida State in its 1993 national championship season.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR #98

An outside linebacker from 1977 to 1980 who is regarded as the greatest player of all time at that position. Taylor was a consensus All-America and the ACC Player of the Year in 1980. He had a Carolina-record 16 quarterback sacks that season for losses totaling 127 yards. Sparked by his play, the Tar Heels went 11-1 in 1980 and won the ACC championship.

WILLIAM FULLER #95

A defensive lineman from 1980 to 1983 who was a consensus All-America as a senior. Also honored as a first-team All-America as a junior, he is one of only six Tar Heel players to be named first-team All-America twice. Fuller, who utilized his tremendous quickness to slice through offensive lines, had 22 tackles for losses in both 1981 and 1983. He is one of only three defensive linemen ever to make the All-ACC team three times.

ETHAN HORTON #12

The Associated Press ACC Player of the Year as a senior, Horton rushed for 1,247 yards in 1984 after a 1,107-yard performance in 1983. He was named the game's co-MVP in UNC's 1981 Gator Bowl win over Arkansas and was the MVP of the 1982 Sun Bowl.

MARCUS JONES #71

A defensive end/tackle from 1992 to 1995 who was a consensus All-America and the ACC Defensive Player of the Year as a senior. Jones had 24 career quarterback sacks to break Lawrence Taylor's school record. A two-time first-team All-ACC selection, Jones led a Tar Heel defense which had the ACC's No. 1 rated total defense in 1995. He finished his career with 222 tackles, including 46 for losses. Jones helped Carolina to four straight bowl invitations and wins in the 1993 Peach and 1995 Carquest Bowls.

GREG ELLIS #87

A defensive end from 1994 to 1997, Ellis is UNC's all-time leader in quarterback sacks. The Wendell, N.C., native had 32.5 sacks for 253 yards in his career. He anchored a defense that was second in the country in total yards in each of his final two seasons. Carolina posted a 21-3 record in that span and had consecutive Top 10 finishes in the polls. Ellis is one of only four players in Carolina football history to be named first-team All-ACC three times. He was voted by his teammates as a team captain and the best overall senior. He was the eighth selection in the first round of the 1998 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

BRIAN SIMMONS #41

An outside linebacker from 1994 to 1997, Simmons was a major contributor in Carolina's rise to the Top 10 in his final two seasons. A first-round draft selection of the Cincinnati Bengals in '97, Simmons had 317 tackles over his last three seasons. He was named first-team All-America as a senior by the Associated Press, Walter Camp Foundation and Football News and was a first-team All-ACC selection and second-team AP All-America as a junior. The New Bern, N.C., native finished his career with 36 tackles for losses and 11 sacks.

DRE' BLY #31

The Chesapeake, Va., native is the only player in Atlantic Coast Conference history to earn first-team All-America honors in three different seasons. Bly became the first freshman defensive player in college football history to earn consensus first-team All-America honors in 1996. When he repeated consensus honors in 1997, he became the first two-time consensus All-America in UNC football history. In 1998, he set the all-time ACC record for interceptions with 20 and was named first-team All-America by the Walter Camp Foundation. Bly led the nation as a freshman with 11 interceptions in the regular season and added two more pass thefts in the Gator Bowl win over West Virginia. Bly was named first-team All-America in 1996 by the Associated Press, The Sporting News, the Football Writers and the Walter Camp Foundation. In 1997, Bly added five more interceptions and was named All-America by the Associated Press, the Walter Camp Foundation, the Football Writers and Football News.

JULIUS PEPPERS #49

A unanimous All-America selection in 2001, Peppers won the 2001 Lombardi Award as the nation's top lineman. He also won the Chuck Bednarik Award as the nation's top overall defensive player, earned All-America honors in 2000 and was a two-time first-team All-ACC selection. Peppers ranks second at UNC and sixth in the ACC in career sacks, despite playing just three seasons. He led the nation with 15 sacks as a junior. One of the top two-sport athletes in ACC history, Peppers was a forward on UNC's basketball team where he helped the Tar Heels advance to the 2000 Final Four and earn a share of the 2001 ACC regular season title.

KELVIN BRYANT #44

A three-time first-team All-ACC tailback, Bryant ranks fourth at UNC with 3,267 rushing yards. He had three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons from 1980-82. Despite injuries, he had 1,015 yards in seven games in 1981. He rushed for more than 100 yards in a game on 19 occasions and scored six touchdowns in a game against East Carolina in 1981. Bryant holds the NCAA record for most touchdowns scored in two and three consecutive games (11 and 15, respectively). He played eight years of professional football.

HARRIS BARTON #67

Barton was a four-year starter for the Tar Heels, first at center and then at tackle. With so many teams playing even-man front defenses, Barton was moved to tackle in 1984 to take better advantage of his skills. He excelled at left tackle, the key blocking spot in the Carolina passing game. As a senior, he led an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels rank first in the Atlantic Coast Conference and sixth nationally in total offense. An excellent student, he was chosen for a post-graduate scholarship by the National Football Foundation and was a first-round selection in the NFL draft.

BRIAN BLADOS #60

When two Carolina tailbacks ran for over 1,000 yards in 1983, much of that yardage came behind Blados. The 6-6, 305-pound left tackle dominated the line of scrimmage as Carolina set a school total offense record and finished seventh nationally in yardage. Blados was named on 90 of 100 ballots in voting for the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team. He was a first round choice by the Cincinnati Bengals in the NFL Draft.

IRV HOLDASH #25

While Carolina's football fortunes slipped in the years immediately following the Charlie Justice Era, Holdash still received national attention for his outstanding play. A center on offense and linebacker on defense, Holdash was a three-year regular who never missed a game during his varsity career. He perhaps sealed All-America honors in 1950 with a sensational performance in a 14-7 loss at Notre Dame. Irish quarterback Bobby Williams called him "the best I've played against."

BOB LACEY #85

Lacey led the Atlantic Coast Conference in receiving in 1963 with 48 catches for 533 yards. His pass-catching was a key factor as Carolina rolled to a 9-2 record, defeating Air Force, 35-0, in the Gator Bowl. Lacey was also the team's top receiver in 1962 with 44 catches. He was the first Tar Heel player to have at least 40 catches in two seasons. His career total of 102 receptions is the 10th-best in school history.

AMOS LAWRENCE #20

The only ACC player and one of only seven players in college football history to rush for 1,000 yards in four consecutive seasons, Lawrence holds the UNC career record and is second in ACC history with 4,391 yards rushing. He rushed for more than 100 yards in a game on 25 occasions and his 286 yards rushing vs. Virginia in 1977 was NCAA freshman rushing record at the time. Lawrence was named the co-MVP in the 1979 Gator Bowl and was the MVP of the 1980 Bluebonnet Bowl.

PAUL SEVERIN #87

Severin was a two-time All-America selection by the Associated Press (1939 and 1940) and made most of the all-star teams in his senior season. His career was filled with big plays—a touchdown catch to tie Tulane in 1939, two scoring catches against Penn that same season and a touchdown-saving tackle from behind of Duke's great Steve Lach in a 6-3 win over the Blue Devils in 1940.

CAROLINA'S ACC TOP 50 PLAYERS

In 2002, the Atlantic Coast Conference celebrated its 50th Anniversary and named the 50 greatest football players that have played in the conference. Carolina had eight players among that list, including:

Dre' Bly
Kelvin Bryant
William Fuller
Amos Lawrence
Don McCauley
Julius Peppers
Lawrence Taylor
Mike Voight

Amos Lawrence is the only ACC player to rush for 1,000 yards in four consecutive seasons.

JONATHAN COOPER #64

A consensus first-team All-America as a senior in 2012, Jonathan Cooper is one of the most decorated offensive linemen in UNC history. Cooper won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the ACC's best blocker and was named one of three finalists for the Outland Trophy. A three-time All-ACC selection, Cooper was the No. 7 overall pick in the 2013 NFL Draft. His number will be added inside the stadium in 2013.

ALL-ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE

From 1953-81 the All-ACC Team was selected solely by the Atlantic Coast Sportswriters Association. The Associated Press picked a separate team from 1982-88. The players listed below for those seasons made both teams unless indicated. The ACSWA and AP teams were consolidated in 1989.

1947 Sugar Bowl
New Orleans, La.
Georgia 20, Carolina 10
January 1, 1947

The 1947 Sugar Bowl, which matched Carolina against Georgia, is one of the most famous Tar Heel games of the Charlie "Choo Choo" Justice years and produced one of the most controversial plays in bowl history.

Carolina was leading 7-0 in the third period when Bulldog defensive right end Joe Tereshinski intercepted a Tar Heel pass at the Georgia 24-yard line. He then flipped a lateral to Dick McPhee who raced 52 yards to the Carolina 14.

The Tar Heels argued the lateral was a forward one and the play should have been called back. However, the officials ruled differently. Georgia went on to score the tying touchdown on a quarterback sneak by Johnny Rauch.

Carolina's lone touchdown came on a Walt Pupa two-yard run following an interception by Tar Heel guard Bob Mitten.

The Tar Heels' last lead at 10-7 came on a Bob Cox field goal.

The Georgia game-winner came on a 67-yard touchdown pass from Trippi to Dan Edwards less than three minutes after the UNC field goal.

1949 Sugar Bowl
New Orleans, La.
Oklahoma 14, Carolina 6
January 1, 1949

The Tar Heels returned to the Sugar Bowl in 1949 and were defeated 14-6 by the University of Oklahoma, representing the Big Seven Conference. A record crowd of 85,000 turned out to see the Charlie Justice-led Tar Heels battle Bud Wilkinson's Sooners.

Carolina threatened early, advancing via a Justice to Art Weiner 23-yard pass play to the OU 15. Justice's next pass, however, was intercepted by linebacker Myrle Greathouse who rumbled 59 yards to the Carolina 13. Sooners' quarterback Jack Mitchell scored the first points of the day on a two-yard run.

The Heels capitalized on an OU fumble later in the first quarter and Justice marched the team down to the two, from where Hosea Rodgers scored. The conversion was wide right.

Carolina advanced to the OU eight late in the first half, but could not score.

The Sooners regained the lead for good in the third quarter. Quarterback Darrell Royal connected for 37 yards with Frankie Anderson and two plays later, Lindell Pearson ran it in from eight yards out.

Justice was brilliant, rushing for 84 yards and passing for another 57.

1950 Cotton Bowl
Dallas, Texas
Rice 27, Carolina 13
January 1, 1950

Charlie Justice had another great day in the 1950 Cotton Bowl, but it just wasn't enough as the Tar Heels fell to fifth-ranked Rice, 27-13. The Owls had a 9-1-0 record, while Carolina came in at 7-3 and was ranked 16th.

Rice and Carolina played to a scoreless draw in the opening quarter, but Rice opened the scoring in the second quarter when quarterback Tobin Rote hooked up with Billy Burkhalter for a 44-yard touchdown. Bobby Lantrip's three-yard run built a 14-0 halftime lead, and the Owls kept right on rolling in the third quarter.

On its second possession of the second half, Rice traveled 77 yards in six plays, capped by Rote's 17-yard scoring pass to "Froggie" Williams. Burkhalter made it 27-0 with a 12-yard fourth quarter score.

The Tar Heels got two touchdowns in the final eight minutes. Justice hit Paul Rizzo for a two-yard touchdown pass and then Rizzo ran it in from two yards.

Justice managed 59 yards rushing and another 63 in the air, while Art Weiner led the Tar Heels with five receptions for 41 yards. Billy Hayes topped the UNC rushing attack with 107 yards on 19 carries.

The 1950 Cotton Bowl marked the end of the "Choo-Choo" Justice era that began in 1946. The Tar Heels went 32-9-2 in that time and played in three major bowl games.

1963 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 35, Air Force 0
December 28, 1963

It had been 13 years since Charlie Justice had led Carolina to the 1950 Cotton Bowl, so when the Tar Heels got a chance to play in the 1963 Gator Bowl, they made the most of it. The Tar Heels walloped the Air Force, 35-0.

Ken Willard was the hero of the day. He ran for 94 yards on 18 carries and scored the first touchdown which keyed the runaway victory. When Willard wasn't running in this rout, he did his share of the offensive blocking.

Joe Robinson scored on a five-yard pass and also caught a two-yard conversion to give the Tar Heels a 20-0 lead at intermission.

Coach Jim Hickey's Tar Heels had 23 first downs to the Academy's 14, and piled up 370 yards in total offense compared to 260 for the Falcons.

Gary Black completed all six of his passes for 71 yards and one touchdown and he rushed for another score. Junior Edge was good on five of his nine throws for 42 yards.

Carolina finished the season 9-2, its best record in Hickey's eight years at the helm.

1970 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Arizona State 48, Carolina 26
December 30, 1970

The Tar Heels exploded for 26 second quarter points but couldn't hold off Arizona State in the final two quarters as the Sun Devils rallied for an exciting 48-26 victory before 52,126 fans at Grant Field.

Carolina spotted unbeaten ASU 14 points on a pair of touchdowns runs, from eight and 33 yards, by Bob Thomas.

Don McCauley got the Tar Heels on the scoreboard with a one-yard plunge set up by a long pass from Paul Miller to Ricky Lanier. ASU scored on its next series, though, on a 67-yard TD catch by J.D. Hill.

Carolina then scored the final three touchdowns of the first half to go into the intermission with a 26-21 lead. First, Miller passed 37 yards for a score to Tony Blanchard. Then McCauley rushed in from 17 yards out. And finally, the All-America McCauley scored again from four yards.

Arizona State dominated a second half which was played in a heavy Atlanta snowstorm and without Miller, who left with an injury.

Monroe Ely scored twice and Thomas reached the end zone for the third time in the Sun Devils' 27-point second half.

1971 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Georgia 7, Carolina 3
December 31, 1971

For the first time since 1950, the Tar Heels were playing in a bowl game for the second consecutive season. This time, the Tar Heels would fall, 7-3, to the Georgia Bulldogs.

The game produced a bowl first — brothers coaching against each other. Bill Dooley led the Tar Heels and older brother Vince coached the Dawgs.

The game was a defensive struggle with all the points coming in the third quarter.

In the opening half, Carolina had the best chance as linebacker Jimmy Webster, voted the Tar Heels' MVP this day, blocked a punt out of bounds at the Georgia 24. A fumble, though, denied Carolina any points.

A pair of long runs by Lewis Jolley brought the Tar Heels down to the Georgia 16 on UNC's first possession of the second half. But a procedure penalty forced the Heels to settle for a 35-yard field goal by Ken Craven.

A 31-yard pass play from Andy Johnson to Roy Hunnicutt set up the Georgia touchdown. Jimmy Poulos, on the very next play following Hunnicutt's catch, took it in for a score from 25 yards. Poulos rushed for 161 yards on the afternoon and was named the Georgia MVP.

1972 Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas
Carolina 32, Texas Tech 28
December 30, 1972

Carolina capped an 11-1 season in the 1972 Sun Bowl by defeating Texas Tech, 32-28. Quarterback Nick Vidnovic brought the Tar Heels from behind with a late scoring drive which he capped by tossing a 13-yard touchdown pass to wingback Ted Leverenz.

That play, with a minute to go in the game, gave UNC a 30-28 lead. Carolina added two points moments later as Ronnie Robinson sacked quarterback Joe Barnes in the end zone.

The Tar Heels led 9-0 in the second quarter on a field goal by Ellis Alexander and touchdown run by Dick Oliver. The Red Raiders rallied, however, for the next 21 points and a 21-9 lead. Vidnovic hit Leverenz for a 62-yard touchdown and Billy Hite carried it in from three yards to reestablish a 24-21 Carolina lead. Tech gained the advantage, 28-24, with 7:41 to play in the game.

Vidnovic completed 14 of 26 passes for 215 yards and two touchdowns. Ike Oglesby rushed for 71 yards and Sammy Johnson added 52.

The Red Raiders had a touchdown called back in the second quarter. All-America guard Donald Rives ran a blocked punt back for an apparent score, but Tech was flagged for unsportsmanlike conduct and the points were nullified.

1974 Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas
Mississippi State 26, Carolina 24
December 28, 1974

Despite mounting 402 yards in total offense, the Tar Heels dropped a 26-24 decision to Mississippi State in a record-setting Sun Bowl.

Terry Vitrano's two-yard touchdown with 3:41 remaining was the game-winner. That capped a 16-play, 80-yard drive which lasted nearly seven minutes.

Carolina had taken a 24-20 lead with 10:26 to play on an Ellis Alexander field goal.

The Bulldogs totaled a Sun Bowl record 499 yards in total offense — 455 of those yards came on the ground via the veer offense. Walter Packer rushed for 189 yards, Vitrano added 164 and quarterback Rockey Felker gained another 69.

The Tar Heels also got big ground gains from Mike Voight and James Betterson. Voight picked up 90 yards on 19 carries and Betterson chipped in with 84 on 17 rushes. But Voight was stopped a yard shy of a first down on Carolina's last offensive play of the game. Chris Kupec, who led the nation in pass completion percentage, connected with Jimmy Jerome for 29 yards and a touchdown.

1976 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Kentucky 21, Carolina 0
December 31, 1976

Playing without an injured Mike Voight, the Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year, the Tar Heels managed just five first downs and 108 yards total offense in a 21-0 loss to Kentucky.

Voight, who had rushed for 1,407 yards, injured his ankle in practice two days before the game when he stepped in a hole going out on a pass play. Ironically, Voight had caught just four passes the entire season.

The teams battled to a tie at the half, but Carolina thought it had put up points in the first quarter. On the Tar Heels' opening drive, Matt Kupec hit split end Walker Lee with a 50-yard touchdown pass, but officials ruled the Tar Heels offside and the play came back.

Early in the third quarter, Kentucky defensive end Bud Diehl knocked the ball from Kupec's grasp and the 'Cats recovered at the UNC 21. That set up the first of three rushing touchdowns by fullback Rod Stewart.

Stewart, who finished with 104 yards and the game's MVP trophy, added fourth quarter scores from 13 and three yards.

Subbing for Voight, freshman Doug Paschal led the Tar Heels with 41 yards rushing.

1977 Liberty Bowl
Memphis, Tenn.
Nebraska 21, Carolina 17
December 19, 1977

No. 12 Nebraska scored two fourth quarter touchdowns and rallied for a 21-17 victory over 13th-rated North Carolina.

Reserve quarterback Randy Garcia came off the Cornhuskers' bench in the final period to toss a pair of touchdown passes, including a 33-yard game-winner to Tim Smith with 3:16 left in the game. That came six plays after Nebraska recovered a fumble at the UNC 43.

Tar Heel quarterback Matt Kupec, voted the game's Most Valuable Player despite the loss, had led the Tar Heels to a 17-7 lead in the third quarter. Kupec, who connected on seven of his 11 passes, threw touchdown passes to Brooks Williams and Bob Loomis. Tom Biddle added Carolina's final points with 4:17 left in the third on a Liberty Bowl record 47-yard field goal.

Carolina led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, allowing just 7.4 points per game through the regular season. Nebraska was the only team to score more than 14 points against UNC all season.

Bill Dooley resigned in January 1978 to accept the dual position of head football coach and athletic director at Virginia Tech.

1979 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 17, Michigan 15
December 28, 1979

Matt Kupec completed 18 of 28 passes for 161 yards and one touchdown and Amos Lawrence rushed for 118 yards to lead North Carolina to a 17-15 win over Michigan.

Trailing 9-0, the Tar Heels rallied for the next 17 points and then held off a Michigan threat late in the game to post the first of Dick Crum's four consecutive bowl wins.

Carolina had two chances early on to score first, but high winds knocked down a pair of Jeff Hayes field goal attempts. Michigan did score first following a turnover and added a 53-yard touchdown reception by Anthony Carter to move ahead 9-0.

Doug Paschal put the Heels on the board with a two-yard touchdown. Early in the third, Kupec engineered a 16-play, 97-yard touchdown drive which culminated in a 12-yard pass to Phil Farris. Hayes added a 32-yard field goal in the fourth for a 17-9 UNC lead.

Michigan, thwarted once already in the fourth when Lawrence Taylor scooped up a loose ball, did manage another Carter touchdown with 1:28 left, but the two-point conversion pass to Carter fell short.

Kupec and Lawrence were named co-Most Valuable Players.

1980 Bluebonnet Bowl
Houston, Texas
Carolina 16, Texas 7
December 31, 1980

Amos Lawrence rushed for 104 yards and one touchdown and the Tar Heel defense allowed just two first downs and 36 total yards in the second half as Carolina played error-free football to defeat Texas, 16-7, in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

Lawrence, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, scampered 59 yards for a touchdown on the Tar Heels' fourth play from scrimmage for a 7-0 lead. Following a Texas touchdown in the second quarter by Mike Luck, Carolina regained the advantage for good on a one-yard run by Kelvin Bryant.

Jeff Hayes converted a fumbled punt snap by the Longhorns into a 31-yard field goal with 2:03 to play in the third quarter.

The defense, which allowed 224 yards and 11 Texas first downs in the opening half, dominated the second 30 minutes. UNC safety Steve Streater was named the defensive MVP as he had an interception, recovered a fumble and also boomed a 63-yard punt, longest in Bluebonnet Bowl history.

Carolina's 11-1 record matched the best season in UNC history. The Tar Heels finished ranked eighth by the Associated Press and ninth by UPI.

1981 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 31, Arkansas 27
December 28, 1981

Kelvin Bryant rushed for 148 yards and Ethan Horton added 144 to lead the Tar Heels to a 31-27 victory over Arkansas in the Gator Bowl.

Bryant and Horton shared Most Valuable Player honors, but it was a key defensive stop by seldom-used freshman Ronnie Snipes which saved the night for Carolina.

After building a 31-10 lead midway through the fourth quarter, Carolina watched as Arkansas rallied for two touchdowns and had the ball again inside Tar Heel territory with less than a minute to play. But on third down, Snipes, who had played just two previous downs in the contest, sacked quarterback Brad Taylor for a 17-yard loss.

The game was deadlocked at 10-10 at the half, but Carolina came right out to open the third quarter and put together a 13-play, 85-yard drive which was capped by Horton's one-yard scoring run.

UNC quarterback Rod Elkins scored on a one-yard sneak on the Tar Heels' next drive. He was set up by a 21-yard run by Horton and a 13-yard scamper by Bryant.

Horton then churned out 42 yards on six plays and went in from four yards out to give the Heels a 31-10 lead with 7:29 to play in the game.

The Razorbacks scored with 5:05 to play, recovered an onside kick and scored again with 2:44 left. UNC punter Jeff Hayes took an intentional safety with 1:44 to play. That gave the ball back to Arkansas and set up Snipes' defensive gem.

1982 Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas
Carolina 26, Texas 10
December 25, 1982

North Carolina scored the final 23 points of the game in the final quarter and held seventh-ranked Texas to 48 total yards in the second half as the Tar Heels became the first ACC team to win four consecutive bowl games.

Ethan Horton was the offensive star of the game, rushing for 119 yards in the second half as Carolina won 26-10. He replaced injured starter Kelvin Bryant, who totaled 45 yards before leaving the game with an injured ankle.

Trailing 10-3 after three quarters, the Tar Heels vaulted into the lead via three consecutive field goals. Sophomore walk-on Rob Rogers, who had connected from 53 yards in the second quarter, hit a 47-yard field goal with 14:51 to play to narrow the Texas lead to 10-6. Brooks Barwick was then successful from 24 and 42 yards, the latter putting the Heels into the lead at 12-10 with 4:56 left.

Horton tacked on a three-yard touchdown with 2:17 remaining and Mike Wilcher fell on a loose ball in the end zone for another touchdown with 1:35 to play.

The defensive series of the game came five minutes into the third quarter with Texas leading 10-3 and with the ball, third-and-goal at the Carolina one. Two times, Texas fullback Ervin Davis tried to find the end zone, but twice he was hurled back. First, it was Wilcher who made the hit and then on 4th-and-goal, Greg Poole made the stop which changed the game.

The Christmas Day affair was played with intermittent snow flurries and a wind-chill reading that hovered around 12 degrees.

1983 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Florida State 28, Carolina 3
December 30, 1983

Florida State scored the first two times it had the ball and penalties and turnovers cost the Tar Heels dearly, as the Seminoles whipped Carolina 28-3 in a miserably cold and half-empty Peach Bowl.

Played before only 25,648 fans in low-20 degree temperatures, the Peach Bowl loss snapped the Tar Heels' consecutive bowl- game winning streak at four.

The Seminoles held the Tar Heels' running game to just 32 yards and three first downs. One thousand-yard rushers Ethan Horton and Tyrone Anthony were held to 30 and 27 yards, respectively.

Florida State quarterback Eric Thomas, making his first start, connected with Weegie Thompson on touchdown passes on the 'Noles first two series.

Midway through the second quarter, the Tar Heels fumbled away a punt at their own 16 and FSU converted via a 1-yard touchdown run.

Carolina put up its only points of the day on Brooks Barwick's 36-yard field goal.

The loss was the fourth in the final five games of the season and ended a season in which Carolina had been ranked third in the nation.

1986 Aloha Bowl
Honolulu, Hawaii
Arizona 30, Carolina 21
December 27, 1986

Arizona converted four North Carolina fumbles into 20 points and then held off a furious Tar Heel rally in the fourth quarter to win the 1986 Aloha Bowl, 30-21.

Carolina dug itself a 30-0 hole and did not put points on the board until freshman tailback Torin Dorn broke a 58-yard touchdown run with 2:19 left in the third quarter.

The Tar Heels fumbled five times in the first three periods and the Wildcats turned them into two touchdowns and two field goals.

Following Dorn's electrifying run, the Tar Heels quickly moved back within striking distance with two more touchdowns in the next seven minutes.

Mark Maye hit Randy Marriott with a six-yard touchdown pass after a Norris Davis interception and then followed a Davis punt block with a two-yard scoring run of his own to narrow the margin to 30-21 with 9:10 to play.

That, however, was as close as Carolina could challenge. A couple of dropped passes thwarted two more Carolina drives.

Dorn was the game's leading ground-gainer, rushing for 101 yards on only seven carries. Maye completed 17 of 34 passes for 171 yards; he hooked up with Eric Starr a game-high seven times for 53 yards.

1993 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Carolina 21, Mississippi State 17
January 2, 1993

Defensive MVP Bracey Walker blocked consecutive third-quarter punts, returning one of them for the tying touchdown, and forced a fourth quarter interception which Cliff Baskerville returned 44 yards for a touchdown to lead Carolina to a 21-17 Peach Bowl win over Mississippi State.

Walker's heroics capped a fierce second-half comeback in which the Tar Heels came from 14 points behind to score three times, although just once on an offensive possession.

MSU took a two-touchdown lead in the first quarter and had two more scores in the second quarter called back due to holding penalties.

Carolina regrouped at halftime, however, and cut the lead to 14-7 just six plays into the third quarter. Mike Thomas connected with Bucky Brooks for a 53-yard completion on the fourth play of the half and Natrone Means scored from a yard out two snaps later.

Means led the Tar Heel offense with 128 yards rushing and was named the game's Offensive MVP.

Later in the third quarter, Walker blocked a punt but Carolina's field goal try was unsuccessful. On the next series UNC again forced the Bulldogs to punt and this time Walker blocked the kick, picked up the loose ball and raced 24 yards untouched for the tying score.

Early in the final quarter Walker forced a midair loose ball with a jarring hit and Baskerville plucked the ball out of the air and sprinted 44 yards down the left sideline for what proved to be the winning score.

1993 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Alabama 24, Carolina 10
December 31, 1993

Quarterback Brian Burgdorf threw for two touchdowns and ran for another to lead 18th-ranked and defending national champion Alabama to a 24-10 victory over 11th-ranked Carolina in Outback Steakhouse Gator Bowl.

Corey Holliday caught nine passes for 125 yards and was UNC's MVP.

After a scoreless first period, Alabama took the lead on a 22-yard field goal by Michael Proctor. Carolina quarterback Jason Stanicek then led a seven-play, 80-yard touchdown drive in just 1:36 to take the lead, 7-3, on the ensuing possession. Stanicek hit Holliday with completions of 29 and 22 yards and executed one of his trademark option pitches to freshman tailback Leon Johnson for an 18-yard gain. William Henderson plunged in from a yard out for the lead.

The Crimson Tide went up 10-7 Burgdorf scored from 33 yards out on a quarterback draw.

With 1:44 left before intermission, Stanicek led what would be the final Tar Heel scoring drive. He hit Holliday with passes of 12 and nine yards and Curtis Johnson ran twice for 20 yards before the drive stalled and Tripp Pignetti hit a 23-yard field goal to tie the game at 10.

The Alabama defense was the key to the game, holding UNC to a season-low 42 net yards rushing on 25 carries. Carolina could only muster 40 total yards and four first downs in the second half.

1994 Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas
Texas 35, Carolina 31
December 30, 1994

Priest Holmes rushed for 161 yards and four touchdowns, including the game-winner with 1:17 to play, to lead Texas to a 35-31 win over the Tar Heels before a Sun Bowl record crowd of 50,612.

Holmes' four-touchdown performance wrestled away MVP honors from UNC quarterback Mike Thomas, who had the finest passing day of his career. Thomas completed 23 of 39 passes for 298 yards and two touchdowns. He set UNC bowl game records for completions and yards and tied the mark with two scoring tosses. He was 15 for 19 in the first half and completed 20 of 29 before a final desperation drive.

Wide receivers Marcus Wall and Octavus Barnes were two more standouts for the Tar Heels. Wall was selected the game's Most Valuable Special Teams Player. He gave the Tar Heels a 24-21 lead in the fourth quarter when he returned a punt 82 yards for a touchdown.

Barnes set UNC bowl game records for most catches and yards with nine receptions for 165 yards and one score. The 165 yards were also the most in Sun Bowl history.

With Carolina up, 31-21, Texas quickly went on a 68-yard touchdown drive in only 2:38. On the next series, Texas took over at its own 32 and drove 68 yards in 10 plays for the winning score. Holmes carried the last three plays on the drive for nine, two and finally the five yard touchdown run.

1995 Carquest Bowl
Miami, Fla.
Carolina 20, Arkansas 10
December 30, 1995

Leon Johnson rushed for a Carolina bowl record 195 yards and Mike Thomas threw for two scores as the Tar Heels knocked off Arkansas, 20-10, in the Carquest Bowl.

Johnson's 195-yard effort topped the previous high of 148 yards by Kelvin Bryant, also against Arkansas, in the 1981 Gator Bowl. Johnson had just 23 yards on eight carries in the first half, but exploded for 172 yards in the second half.

All-America tackle Marcus Jones capped his career with four tackles for losses, including a quarterback sack on Arkansas' last play from scrimmage - his final collegiate play.

Trailing by a touchdown the Tar Heels quickly moved into position to tie the game. On third-and-long quarterback Mike Thomas rolled right, threw back across the field to Ashford, who sprinted around the left flank into the end zone.

The Razorbacks managed to take a 10-7 lead in the third quarter on a 26-yard field goal by Latourette. Two series later Carolina went into the lead for good. On third-and-eight from the 28, Thomas ran the option around the right corner, turned upfield and then pitched the ball to Johnson, who was trailing the play perfectly. Johnson ran untouched for a 28-yard, go-ahead score.

1997 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 20, West Virginia 13
January 1, 1997

Oscar Davenport, starting in place of injured first-team all-conference quarterback Chris Keldorf, completed 14 of 26 passes for 175 yards and one touchdown as Carolina defeated West Virginia 20-13 in the 52nd annual Toyota Gator Bowl. Davenport, who also rushed for one touchdown, was named the game's MVP.

Carolina broke the scoring drought early in the second quarter when Davenport found Octavus Barnes in the back corner of the end zone on an 18-yard pass. As time was running down in the first half, Davenport and Leon Johnson led the Tar Heels on a five-play touchdown drive. Johnson caught a pass for 13 yards and rushed twice for 19 yards in the drive. Davenport scored on a 5-yard option keeper for a 17-3 lead.

West Virginia opened the second-half scoring with a 34-yard touchdown pass to close within seven points. A fumble recovery by Greg Williams ended one WVU threat, but West Virginia had one last chance to tie the game late in the fourth quarter. Carolina stopped the Mountaineers on 4th-and-6 at the UNC 24 with just under two minutes remaining.

Dre' Bly, Carolina's consensus first-team All-America, picked off two second-half passes. Carolina's defense forced four West Virginia turnovers; the Mountaineers had 10 in 11 regular-season games.

1998 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 42, Virginia Tech 3
January 1, 1998

Chris Keldorf threw for 290 yards and three scores and Carolina's defense and special teams added touchdowns as the Tar Heels pounded Virginia Tech, 42-3, in the Toyota Gator Bowl.

The victory, UNC's most lopsided in a bowl game, secured a No. 4 final ranking in the coaches' poll for the 11-1 Tar Heels. The game was Carl Torbush's first as Carolina's head coach. Torbush, UNC's defensive coordinator the past 10 years, was elevated to head coach on December 8th after Mack Brown accepted the same position at the University of Texas.

Keldorf completed 17 of 28 passes, including touchdown throws of 62 and 14 yards to wide receiver Octavus Barnes and four yards to fullback Jamie Carrick.

Carolina amassed 427 total yards and held the Hokies to just 185 yards. Leading 3-0, Keldorf hit Barnes with a 62-yard bomb down the left sideline for a 10-0 lead. Later in the first quarter, Carolina forced Virginia Tech to punt deep in Hokie territory. Quinton Savage blocked the punt and Dre' Bly scooped it up at the 6-yard line and scored for a 16-0 UNC advantage.

One minute and 10 seconds after Bly's touchdown, Ellis fell on a loose ball in the Tech end zone for another touchdown. Carolina scored 16 first-quarter points in the entire regular season, but scored 16 in the first quarter of the Gator Bowl and six more just seven seconds into the second quarter.

The 42 points were the most in UNC postseason history and the three touchdown passes by Keldorf set a UNC bowl game record.

1998 Las Vegas Bowl
Las Vegas, Nev.
Carolina 20, San Diego State 13
December 19, 1998

Ronald Curry rushed for a season-high 93 yards and a touchdown, punter Brian Schmitz was outstanding despite windy conditions and the Tar Heel defense did not allow a TD in the last 59 minutes as Carolina defeated San Diego State, 20-13.

Curry, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, gave Carolina the lead for good with a 48-yard touchdown run on the final play of the opening quarter. He rushed for 93 yards on 10 carries and accounted for 96 of Carolina's 196 total offense yards, despite playing just four series.

The game was played with winds gusting to 47 miles per hour. Passing was almost impossible. In fact, Carolina won the game despite completing just four passes for 33 yards.

Schmitz averaged 44.0 yards on five punts and pinned the Aztecs inside their own 11-yard line four times. Late in the second quarter, Schmitz unloaded a 66-yard punt into the wind.

San Diego State took an early 7-0 lead in the first minute of the game before the Tar Heels scored 20 unanswered points to close the first half. After two second-half field goals cut it to 20-13, the Aztecs had one final chance to tie the game. With just over a minute left, Dre' Bly broke up a pass in the end zone. On the following play, Brandon Spoon tipped Brian Russell's pass in the air and the ball was intercepted at the goal line by Keith Newman with 59 seconds remaining.

2001 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Carolina 16, Auburn 10
December 31, 2001

Willie Parker rushed for 131 yards and Ryan Sims led a spirited defensive effort as North Carolina won its fifth consecutive postseason bowl appearance with a 16-10 victory over Auburn in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

Parker, who started his first game since September, was spectacular, scoring on a 10-yard run in the first quarter and setting up a second-quarter field goal with a 43-yard dash. Parker had the fifth-best rushing day in UNC bowl history and it was the 11th time a Tar Heel had rushed for more than 100 yards in a bowl game.

Parker's touchdown was set up by Carolina's defense, which allowed just 32 total rushing yards and shutout Auburn for three quarters. In the first quarter, cornerback Michael Waddell forced a fumble at the Auburn 26-yard line that defensive end Joey Evans picked up and rumbled to the Auburn 8-yard line. Two plays later, Parker's touchdown gave Carolina a 7-0 lead.

Curry, who was named the game's Offensive MVP, scored on an incredible touchdown run in the third quarter to give Carolina a 16-0 advantage.

Defensively, Carolina came up with several big plays throughout the game and held off a furious Auburn comeback in the fourth quarter. Sims, the Defensive MVP, had six tackles, including two sacks and was constantly disrupting the Auburn backfield.

After scoring twice in the fourth quarter, Auburn attempted an onside kick, but UNC's Richard Moore covered the ball and the Tar Heels ran out the clock.

2004 Continental Tire Bowl
Charlotte, N.C.
Boston College 37, Carolina 24
December 30, 2004

Kicker Ryan Ohliger scored on a 21-yard fake field goal run to seal Boston College's 37-24 victory over North Carolina in the Continental Tire Bowl.

Clinging to a 27-24 lead over North Carolina (6-6) in the fourth quarter, BC quarterback Paul Peterson was injured as he tried to run outside for a first down on third-and-1 and was brought down awkwardly by Tommy Davis. On the next play, Ohliger, a 5-foot-9 freshman, took the handoff from holder Matt Ryan and raced into the end zone, breaking a tackle along the way, for a 34-24 lead with 10:32 to play. Before leaving, Peterson went 24-of-33 for 236 yards and two touchdowns.

Virginia represented the ACC in the first two Tire Bowls, so the inclusion of North Carolina was a welcome change of scenery. Tar Heels fans snapped up over 65,000 tickets, washing out the scattering of Boston College supporters in a sea of light blue.

They had plenty to cheer about early as North Carolina seized the momentum by scoring a pair of touchdowns after Peterson's fumble and Ohliger's missed field goal.

North Carolina quarterback Darian Durant threw for 260 yards and three TDs in his final game as a Tar Heel. He finished his storied career with 51 school records, including all major passing and total offense records.

Wide receiver Derelle Mitchell caught seven passes for 116 yards.

2008 Meineke Car Care Bowl
Charlotte, N.C.
West Virginia 31, Carolina 30
December 27, 2008

Pat White threw for 332 yards, including a 20-yard touchdown pass to Alric Arnett midway through the fourth quarter to send West Virginia to a 31-30 win over North Carolina in the Meineke Car Care Bowl.

The senior quarterback was voted MVP, helping West Virginia (9-4) overcome Hakeem Nicks' big day for North Carolina. Nicks caught eight passes for 217 yards and three touchdowns for the Tar Heels (8-5), but T.J. Yates was intercepted by Pat Lazear with under 2 minutes left to end Butch Davis' hopes of a bowl win in his second year at North Carolina.

White completed 26 of 32 passes and threw one interception.

After J.T. Thomas recovered Shaun Draughn's fumble at the West Virginia 30, White threw a 41-yard pass over the middle to Jock Sanders, picked up nine yards on a running play and then rifled a pass between two defenders to Arnett for the go-ahead touchdown with 7:14 left.

Yates couldn't find the dynamic Nicks on the Tar Heels' final drive, eventually throwing his first interception of the game.

Nicks already set three school receiving records and shattered his career-high in yards receiving - with 10:37 left in the second quarter. It was part of a dizzying offensive display by both teams that produced six touchdowns in the game's first 20 minutes.

Nicks' 25-yard TD catch from Yates early in the second quarter was his 178th career reception - another school record - and gave North Carolina a 23-21 lead. The action thrilled a sellout crowd at Bank of America Stadium.

2009 Meineke Car Care Bowl
Charlotte, N.C.
Pittsburgh 19, Carolina 17
December 26, 2009

Dion Lewis rushed for 159 yards and a touchdown, and Dan Hutchins kicked a 33-yard field goal with 52 seconds left to give the 17th-ranked Panthers a 19-17 win over North Carolina on Saturday in the Meineke Bowl.

Winning 10 games for the first time since Dan Marino was the quarterback in 1981, Pitt (10-3) converted on fourth down at its own 30 and took advantage of a key offsides penalty to set up Hutchins' fourth field goal.

T.J. Yates threw two touchdown passes to Greg Little, but his incomplete pass on fourth-and-10 from his own 49 with 6 seconds left sent the Tar Heels (8-5) to their second straight bowl loss.

Yates was 19 of 32 for 183 yards and an interception while Little caught seven passes for 87 yards and Ryan Houston rushed for 83 yards.

But North Carolina's defense, which came in sixth in the nation overall and ninth against the run, struggled to contain the shifty Lewis.

The matchup featured old coaching buddies who won a national championship and Super Bowl together. Pitt's Dave Wannstedt and Davis worked on Jimmy Johnson's staffs at Oklahoma State, Miami and the Dallas Cowboys. Their careers then included NFL head coaching jobs before they returned to college.

It took Wannstedt's big gamble to help Pitt end a two-game losing streak after North Carolina took a 17-16 lead late in the third quarter on Yates' second touchdown pass to Little.

2010 Music City Bowl
Nashville, Tenn.
Carolina 30, Tennessee 27
December 30, 2010

Casey Barth kicked a 23-yard field goal in the second overtime to send North Carolina past Tennessee 30-27 in a Music City Bowl that will be remembered much more for the crazy finish of regulation than how it ended.

Barth kicked a 39-yard field goal after officials reviewed what had been the final play of the game and decided to penalize the Tar Heels (8-5) for having "more than 11 men" on the field. The Big Ten officiating crew also announced T.J. Yates had spiked the ball with 1 second left. That allowed Barth to run out and kick the field goal that tied it at 20.

Tennessee (6-7) was stunned at the sudden switch that cost the Vols an apparent bowl victory to cap Derek Dooley's first season. Tyler Bray threw a 25-yard TD in the first overtime, but Quan Sturdivant picked him off to end the Vols' last chance in the second OT.

Tennessee had the home-field advantage with LP Field painted orange from top to bottom, and the Vols' fans had been celebrating ever since Bray's 8-yard TD pass to Justin Hunter put them up 20-17 with 5:16 left.

But Donte Paige-Moss blocked Daniel Lincoln's extra point, and that provided the edge North Carolina needed to force overtime with Barth's second field goal.

Tennessee had a chance to clinch the victory when the Vols got the ball back with 1:36 left but punted it back to North Carolina with 31 seconds remaining to set up the bizarre finish.

The Tar Heels intercepted Bray three times, finished with four sacks and held Tennessee to 27 yards rushing on 29 attempts.

2011 Independence Bowl
Shreveport, La.
Missouri 41, Carolina 24
December 26, 2011

James Franklin ran for two touchdowns and threw for another, and Missouri beat North Carolina 41-24 in the Independence Bowl.

Franklin, named the game's offensive Most Valuable Player, rushed for 142 yards and threw for 132 despite less than ideal conditions in the cold and rain at Independence Stadium. He led the Tigers to 31 first-half points - an Independence Bowl record.

For North Carolina (7-6), a season that started with a promising 5-1 record ends with a lopsided loss. The Tar Heels lost five of their final seven under interim coach Everett Withers, who leaves to become defensive coordinator at Ohio State under Urban Meyer.

North Carolina had the Atlantic Coast Conference's second-best rushing defense, giving up just 106.2 yards per game. But the Tigers found plenty of running room with Franklin and Kendial Lawrence, repeatedly going for big gains.

Lawrence rushed for 108 yards and a touchdown as the Tigers racked up 337 yards on the ground.

North Carolina's quarterback, Bryn Renner, had a very productive game, throwing for 317 yards, three touchdowns and an interception.

North Carolina scored first, with Renner hitting Dwight Jones for a 22-yard touchdown pass with 12:12 left in the first quarter. That would be the high point for the Tar Heels.

North Carolina had a glimmer of hope late in the third when Jheranie Boyd caught a 44-yard touchdown pass from Renner to pull the Tar Heels to 34-17. But Missouri responded minutes later with Franklin's second touchdown run of the night.

2013 Belk Bowl
Charlotte, N.C.
Carolina 39, Cincinnati 17
December 28, 2013

Freshman Ryan Switzer capped a memorable season by returning a punt 86 yards for a touchdown to help North Carolina beat Cincinnati 39-17 for its first Belk Bowl title in four tries. It was Switzer's fifth punt return of the season for a TD, tying an NCAA record.

T.J. Logan returned a kickoff 78 yards for a touchdown, Marquise Williams threw for 171 yards and a score and Romar Morris had two short TD runs as the Tar Heels (7-6) won a bowl game for the first time since 2010.

The victory also capped a huge turnaround for the Tar Heels, who started the season 1-5.

Cincinnati (9-4) was looking to become the bowl's first back-to-back champion since Virginia did it 10 years ago, but Brendon Kay - the MVP last year - was limited to 181 yards passing and no touchdowns.

The Tar Heels brought relentless pressure and had five sacks, including one for a safety.

North Carolina came in having lost its previous three in-state Belk Bowl appearances, but bolted to a 23-3 halftime lead behind a pair of long touchdown drives led by Williams and Logan's nifty kickoff return.

After Morris scored on a 2-yard run to make it 7-0, Brandon Ellerbe and Kareem Martin sacked Kay in the end zone for a safety - the first of three sacks in the opening half. On the ensuing kickoff, Logan put the Tar Heels in control by fielding the ball near the left sideline and cutting back up the middle of the field for the score.

Williams made it 23-3 in the second quarter, hitting Tabb on a quick slant for a 3-yard touchdown strike.

- Since 2011, North Carolina has had 10 players selected in the top two rounds of the NFL Draft.

- Tight end Eric Ebron became the 23rd overall first round NFL Draft pick in school history, and the seventh since 2008, when he was chosen 10th overall by the Detroit Lions.

- In the first round of the 2013 NFL Draft, North Carolina offensive guard Jonathan Cooper was selected seventh overall by the Arizona Cardinals and defensive tackle Sylvester Williams was picked 28th overall by the Denver Broncos.

- Cooper became the first offensive guard selected in the top 10 of the NFL Draft since 1997 when Colorado's Chris Naeole was selected by the New Orleans Saints at No. 10. He became the highest selected offensive guard since Bill Fralic was taken No. 2 by Atlanta in 1985.

- In Larry Fedora's first two seasons at UNC, the Tar Heels produced three first round picks.

Includes Carolina players who have played in at least one game as a member of a professional football team. Listing includes the NFL, AFL, USFL and AAFC.

MEDIA INFORMATION

ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS

Football media services are coordinated by Assistant Athletic Director for Communications Kevin Best and Assistant Athletic Communications Director Bobby Hundley. Please direct interview, information and photo requests to Best or Hundley. Best's office is located in the Kenan Football Center. The main Athletic Communications Office is located on the street level of the Koury Natatorium, adjacent to the Dean E. Smith Center and less than one mile from Kenan Stadium.

CREDENTIALS

Requests for working press or scouting credentials at Carolina home football games should be made online via the Press Pass media credential system. Please visit www.SportsSystems.com/unc-football to apply for credentials. Communication regarding your request will be made via email.

Please make requests at least two weeks prior to the game. Please contact Assistant A.D. for Communications Kevin Best with any questions.

Visiting team media should contact the opponent athletic communications contact to be placed on their official list.

Credentials will be mailed or they may be picked up before 4 p.m. on Friday at the Athletic Communications Office at the Koury Natatorium. Those credentials not picked up by 4 p.m. on Friday will be left for Saturday pickup at Kenan Stadium Will Call at Gate 6. Will Call opens two hours prior to kickoff and will be staffed through the first half.

SIDELINE POLICY

Photographers will not be allowed on the sidelines without a UNC-issued photographer's vest. Vests will be distributed in the press box beginning 90 minutes prior to kickoff. Each photographer must sign in for his/her own vest. Under NCAA and ACC guidelines, photographers are not allowed between the 25-yard lines and must remain outside the restraining lines surrounding the field. Credential holders not working will be asked to leave the sidelines. A representative of the Athletic Communications Office will be on the field to handle any questions and serve as field liaison to press box officials. Equipment should not be left unattended on the sidelines. If you are shooting with a tripod, please keep a safe distance from the playing field.

GAME DAY PARKING

Requests for parking passes should be made well in advance to Kevin Best. Single-game parking passes will be mailed. Parking is located either in the Craige Deck off Manning Drive or the Bell Tower Deck behind the Kenan Football Center.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following a brief cooling-off period, requested UNC players and head coach Larry Fedora will be available in the interview area on the fifth floor of Kenan Football Center for a 20-25 minute interview period. The Tar Heels' locker room is closed.

Representatives from the Communications Office will take player requests from the media during the fourth quarter. Local television media who are on the field during the game should make player requests prior to the end of the game to the on-field communications representative.

Fedora is contractually obligated to do a short postgame interview with the Tar Heel Sports Radio Network before addressing the other media in attendance. After night games, great care will be taken to get Fedora to the media as quickly as possible. We understand everyone has deadline pressures after late games and will do our best to provide access to players and coaches as quickly as possible.

INTERNET AVAILABILITY

Kenan Stadium's press box has wireless capability. Media with wireless capability should be able to connect to the Internet by using the network information provided in the press box.

INTERVIEWS WITH HEAD COACH LARRY FEDORA

Larry Fedora will meet with the media at 11:45 a.m. each Monday prior to a game for approximately 20 minutes. A recording of Fedora's Monday press conference will be available on GoHeels.com later that afternoon. Fedora is also available on the weekly ACC Teleconference on Wednesdays. Contact the ACC or Best for the time and phone number. All other interviews should be arranged through the communications office.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All player interviews should be arranged through Bobby Hundley or Kevin Best. Players have been instructed not to grant an interview request unless they have been set up in this manner. The interviews will generally be conducted after football practice at the Navy Practice Fields. All interviews are to be conducted on Tuesday or Wednesday.

Players may do taped radio interviews but will not be available for live call-in radio shows. Due to the overwhelming number of all-sports radio talk stations, players will generally not be available to appear on these shows. Hometown stations, stations in that week's opponent's market or national shows may be accommodated.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

Subject to change, Carolina will practice each Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday beginning at 3:30 p.m. on the practice fields located directly across the street from the baseball stadium and adjacent to the UNC School of Law. Practice will be open for the first 30 minutes each Tuesday. Players and select assistant coaches are available to meet with the media after practice on Tuesday and Wednesday.

DIRECTIONS TO MEDIA PARKING
• From Eastern North Carolina and/or Raleigh/ Durham International Airport: Take I-40 West to Chapel Hill. Stay in the left or middle lane because I-40 splits about five miles past the airport (the right lane heads to Durham). Stay to the left and follow I-40 West to Exit 273-A. Follow NC-54 West for approximately three miles. Exit right onto Route 15-501 South/54 West and follow for one mile. Turn right at the traffic light onto Manning Drive. Go up the hill, stay straight through the intersection. The next traffic light will be at the intersection of Manning Drive and Gravely Drive. Press parking is either in the Bell Tower Deck on Ridge Road or the Craige Deck on Manning Drive.
• From North of Chapel Hill: Take I-85 South to Durham. I-85 will split at exit 174. The right-hand lane takes you to I-40 and Greensboro. Stay in the left-hand lane and take exit 174 (a left-hand exit) for 15-501 South. Stay on 15-501 South to Chapel Hill. Stay to the left on 15-501 Bypass until you turn right onto Manning Drive. See above.
• From Charlotte and West of Chapel Hill: Take I-85 North to I-40 East. 85 and 40 split in Hillsborough, just west of Chapel Hill. Take I-40 to exit 270 and exit onto Route 15-501 South. Stay on 15-501 South to Chapel Hill. Stay to the left on 15-501 Bypass when it splits into 15-501 and Franklin Street. Follow 15-501 to Manning Drive and turn right. See above.
• From South of Chapel Hill: Take I-77 North to I-85 and then follow the same directions as from Charlotte. Or take I-95 North to I-40 West. 95 and 40 converge just north of Benson, N.C. Then take I-40 all the way to Chapel Hill and follow the directions from the airport. See above.

TAR HEEL SPORTS NETWORK

Learfield Sports begins its 17th full year as the official media rights holder for the University of North Carolina athletic teams.

Based in Jefferson City, Missouri, Learfield purchased Tar Heel Sports Properties in October 1999, adding the UNC property to 97 other schools, conferences and arenas under the Learfield umbrella. Among those for which Learfield also owns the rights are Alabama, Clemson, NC State, Oklahoma, Indiana, Miami (Fla.), Missouri and Wisconsin.

Tar Heel Sports Properties is in its 21st year as UNC's multimedia rights holder. All Carolina fans have heard of the Tar Heel Sports Network, which broadcasts the play-by-play of football and basketball games, but that is only one facet of the operation.

Tar Heel Sports Properties is a full-service agency overseeing production and sales of all the University of North Carolina's football and basketball entities including television, print products, internet and radio.

THSP brings you a variety of ways to follow the Heels during the athletic season. Simply, listen to your radio during the week for "Larry Fedora Live" and "Roy Williams Live" or watch game highlights Saturday mornings on "Inside Carolina Football and Basketball." When you are at Kenan Stadium pick-up the official Football Yearbook.

The Tar Heel Sports Network continues to bring the great tradition of Carolina sports into your home. Fans have an opportunity to phone in and ask questions of the head coach every week during the football season on the "Larry Fedora Live" call in show.

Listeners can also tune in to "Inside Carolina Football", a daily five-minute program featuring head coach Larry Fedora and members of the football program. Both of these shows are heard on stations throughout North Carolina and beyond.

"Inside Carolina Football with Larry Fedora," is a half-hour television program seen each week on Fox Sports South throughout the southeast and on WTVD in the Triangle. The show features highlights of the previous game, interviews with current and former Tar Heel players, and a preview of upcoming action.

JONES ANGELL
PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Jones Angell enters his fifth year as the radio play-by-play announcer for the Tar Heel Sports Network.

A native of Jacksonville, N.C., Angell has worked in a number of roles at the network over the past 15 years. He served as host and color analyst for football and men's basketball games for six years before taking over the play-by-play duties in 2011. Angell moved into the play-by-play chair after the retirement of Hall of Fame broadcaster Woody Durham, who stepped down after 40 seasons as the Voice of the Tar Heels.

Angell called play-by-play for Carolina baseball for nine seasons, which included five trips to the College World Series. During his career, he has also called play-by-play for UNC women's basketball and women's soccer.

A 2001 UNC graduate, Angell has been a member of UNC's broadcast team for more than 95 Tar Heel football games and more than 280 men's basketball games, including the 2009 national championship.

Angell is the host for GoHeels.com broadcasts of Late Night with Roy Williams and football's Signing Day Celebration. He also produces and hosts features on the coaches' television shows and writes a column for UNC Athletics.

Angell is as assistant director of New Media at UNC where he helps produce video board and special internet features that are shown online, at various athletic venues, and at special events such as the 100-year celebration of Carolina Basketball. He was an associate producer on the commemorative DVD that chronicled the 2005 men's basketball national championship.

Angell and his wife, Elizabeth, have a daughter, Caroline, and a son, Walker.

WHY TAR HEELS?

University of North Carolina athletic teams are known as the Tar Heels because North Carolina is "The Tar Heel State."

One legend has the nickname being applied to the state's residents as long ago as the Revolutionary War. According to this story, the troops of British General Cornwallis were fording what is now known as the Tar River between Rocky Mount and Battleboro when they discovered that tar had been dumped into the stream to impede their crossing. When they finally got across the river they found their feet completely black with tar. Their observation that anyone who waded North Carolina rivers would acquire tar heels led to the nickname first being used.

Others say the nickname was acquired during the Civil War. During one of that war's fiercest battles a column supporting North Carolina troops was driven from the field. After the battle, the North Carolinians who had successfully fought it out alone, happened to meet the regiment which had fled to safety and were greeted with the question, "Any more tar down in the Old North State, boys?"

"No, not a bit," shot back one of the North Carolina soldiers. "Old Jeff's bought it all up," he went on, referring to Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederacy.

"Is that so? What's he going to do with it?"

"He's going to put it on you'ns heels to make you stick better in the next fight."

Upon hearing of the incident, Robert E. Lee smiled and said to a fellow officer, "God bless the Tar Heel boys."

A letter found in 1991 by State Archivist David Olson lends credence to another more direct theory. A letter from Maj. Joseph Engelhard describes a fight involving men from North Carolina in which Lee was heard to have said, "There they stand as if they have tar on their heels."

The letter, dated August 24, 1864, told the tale of a battle on the outskirts of Petersburg, Va. Engelhard was elected secretary of state for North Carolina in 1876.

RAM MASCOT

Since Carolina's nickname is Tar Heels, it might seem strange to have a ram as a mascot. It is. But, there is a good explanation. It's offered by Vic Huggins, Carolina's head cheerleader back in 1924.

"In 1924 school spirit was at a peak," Huggins once explained. "But something seemed to be missing. One day it hit me. Georgia had a bulldog for a mascot and State a wolf. What Carolina needed was a symbol."

Two years earlier the Tar Heels had posted a brilliant 9-1 record. The star of that 1922 team was a bruising fullback named Jack Merritt. Merritt was nicknamed "the battering ram" for the way he plunged into lines. It seemed natural to Huggins to link a mascot with Merritt's nickname.

"Charlie Woollen, the athletic business manager at that time, agreed with the idea and gave us $25 to purchase a fitting mascot," said Huggins.

Rameses the First was shipped in from Texas, arriving just in time to be introduced at a pep rally before the VMI game. Complete with a monogram blanket on his back, Rameses helped make the pep rally one of the school's greatest.

Then the ram was taken to Emerson Field where Carolina was an underdog to a strong VMI team. But, for three quarters the Tar Heels battled the visitors to a scoreless tie.

Late in the fourth period Carolina's Bunn Hackney was called upon to attempt a field goal. Before taking the field he stopped to rub Rameses' head for good luck.

Seconds later Hackney's 30-yard dropkick sailed between the goalposts, giving the Tar Heels a 3-0 victory and a legendary mascot.

VICTORY WALK

On game days, the North Carolina football team walks through a gathering of fans and into the Kenan Football Center. The pregame arrival tradition began in 2000 when the team would walk from the Bell Tower and into the stadium. The drop off point moved to the Old Well from 2001-12. The pregame walk begins approximately two and a half hours prior to kickoff of each game.

SCHOOL COLORS

The adoption of light blue and white as UNC's colors dates back to the 19th Century. When the University reopened following the Civil War, most social activities were directed by two literary societies, the Dialectic and Philanthropic. The official color of the Di was light blue and that of the Phi white.

On public occasions the student officers, marshals and ball managers were chosen equally from the membership of the two societies. It had long been the custom of each society for its members to wear its color on such occasions. However, the chief marshal and chief ball manager, one from the Di and the other from the Phi, wore combination light blue and white regalias and rosettes signifying that they represented the whole student body.

So it seemed only natural for the fans to adorn themselves with the same combination as that used by the chief marshals and ball managers, colors which represented not membership in a society, but a University student body.

CAROLINA FIGHT SONGS

• HERE COMES CAROLINA

Here comes Carolina-lina
Here comes Carolina-lina
We hail from NCU.
We've got the spirit in it
We've got the team to win it
We wear the colors White and Blue –
So it's Fight! Fight! for Carolina
As Davie did in days of old.
As we gather 'round the 'Well
Cheer that Tar Heel team like hell –
For the glory of NCU.

• ALMA MATER

Hark the sound of Tar Heel voices
Ringing clear and true,
Singing Carolina's praises, Shouting "NCU."
(chorus)
Hail to the brightest star of all!
Clear its radiance shine
Carolina, priceless gem,
Receive all praises thine.
(refrain)
For I'm a Tar Heel born
I'm a Tar Heel bred,
And when I die I'm a Tar Heel dead.
So it's – Rah, Rah, Carolina-lina
Rah, Rah, Carolina-lina
Rah, Rah, Carolina!
Rah! Rah! Rah!

• CAROLINA VICTORY MARCH

There'll be a Carolina victory,
When cross that field the foe has fled.
Cheer that team to victory,
For we are Tar Heels born and bred.
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Glory, glory, UNC.
Our hearts will live with thee
Fight! Fight! Fight!
For the Blue & White are rolling to victory.
