Supporting the Tar Heels

The University of North Carolina is proud of its long-standing relationship with Nike, Inc. The two parties signed a new 10-year contract in May 2009 for Nike to continue as the exclusive supplier of athletic footwear, apparel and accessory products. Nike will provide the athletic department with shoes, uniforms, coaching gear, balls and other equipment. Nike also gave the University $2 million for the Chancellor's Academic Enhancement Fund to support faculty.

This partnership has benefitted all 28 varsity sports and provided millions of dollars for academics and student scholarships at the University.

2013 Team Awards (As voted by the players)

Best singer: Rosie Wood, with Charlotte Craddock on background vocals

Best dancer: A tie. Look for a dance-off between Rachel Magerman and Casey Di Nardo to decide the title.

Most stylish: Emily Wold, with Caroline Plyler second

Funniest: Charlotte Craddock, with Sinead Loughran and Meghan Drake just behind and Emily Wold, Abby Frey, Emma Bozek, Blissie Du Bose and Sassi Ammer also receiving votes. It's safe to say there's lots of laughter on the bus rides.

Miss Congeniality: Emma Bozek, with Marta Malmberg as runner-up. No chance of fighting over this title.

Hardest worker: Loren Shealy just edges Emily Wold as the captains lead by example.

Best cook: Sam Night, with Meghan Drake just behind

Best all-around athlete: Abby Frey ran away with this one, tossing aside the competition with an ease not surprising from the team's strongest player.

Best DJ: Rachel Magerman, with Charlotte Craddock the heir apparent

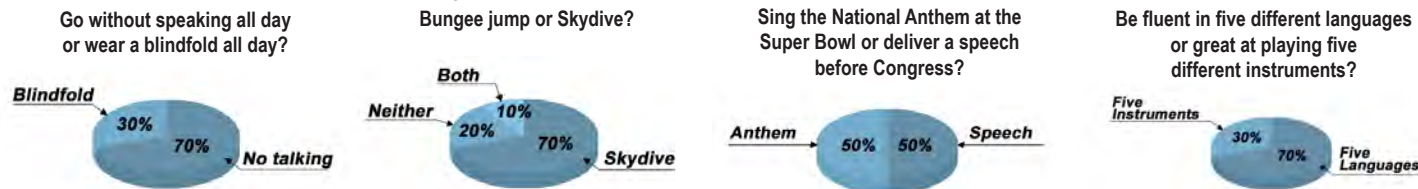

Best at selecting movies for long bus rides: Judging by the lopsided voting, this job is Caroline Plyler's for the next four years

Most likely to be the UNC field hockey coach someday: Emily Wold, with Abby Frey as top assistant

Most likely to a SportsCenter anchor someday: Casey Di Nardo, with Charlotte Craddock in the other seat

Most likely to be President someday: Loren Shealy, with Marta Malmberg as Vice President and Meghan Drake Speaker of the House

Would You Rather? Percentage of the team that would choose to ...

* Some skepticism exists as to whether anyone on the team could actually go a day without talking

* No takers for bungee jumping only

Shelton took over as the Tar Heels' head coach in 1981 and since then has led UNC to national prominence in the form of six NCAA Championships, nine NCAA runner-up finishes and 30 winning seasons.

Heading into her 33rd campaign in 2013, Shelton carries a career record of 550-140-9 and ranks fourth in NCAA history in career wins. She ranks second among active coaches in both career wins and career winning percentage (.793).

Five times in the past six seasons, Shelton has led Carolina to the NCAA Championship game, claiming titles in 2007 and 2009 and finishing as runner-up in 2010, 2011 and 2012. She has led UNC to 18 Atlantic Coast Conference championships, including the back-to-back titles in 2011 and 2012.

She earned her 500th win on Oct. 31, 2010, with a 5-0 win over Radford at home in Francis E. Henry Stadium.

In 2009, Shelton led the Tar Heels to the program's sixth national championship. She was named National Coach of the Year for the fifth time in her career and the second time in a three-year span. Shelton has been honored nine times as Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year, most recently in 2012, and has led the Tar Heels to a league-best 18 ACC titles.

In January of 2008, Shelton was inducted into the National Field Hockey Coaches Association Hall of Fame for her achievements as a coach. She was inducted into the USA Field Hockey Hall of Fame in 1989 for her performance as a player.

Born Nov. 14, 1957, in Honolulu, Hawaii, Shelton spent the first 10 years of her life on Army bases across the country. She was in fifth grade when her father retired and the family - Shelton has four brothers and two sisters - moved to Pennsylvania, the cradle of field hockey. At West Chester State, Shelton played on three national championship field hockey teams and one national championship lacrosse team. Three times she was named field hockey's national player of the year, a streak that has never been equaled.

Shelton earned a bachelor's degree in health and physical education in 1979, then spent one year as assistant coach at Franklin & Marshall College before coming to UNC.

She was a member of the U.S. National Team from 1977-84 and started for the squad that won a bronze medal at the Los Angeles Summer Games in 1984. Shelton was U.S. Field Hockey's Athlete of the Year in 1983. In 1999, she was named the Delaware County Field Hockey Athlete of the Millennium by the Delaware County Daily Times.

Throughout her career, Shelton has groomed her players for success after UNC. Carolina student-athletes are high achievers on the field and in the classroom, adding academic honors to All-America accolades. Tar Heels alumni are successful in fields such as medicine, coaching, teaching, dentistry, business and finance.

Many of Shelton's players have gone on to represent the U.S. in international play. Six of the 16 players on the U.S. roster at the 2008 Summer Games were from UNC, and three Tar Heels represented the U.S. in 2012, with a fourth serving as the team's alternate. Every U.S. National Team since 1989 has included at least one Tar Heel.

A very visible ambassador for North Carolina and its athletic programs, Shelton was inducted into the Order of the Golden Fleece, a campus honor society, in March of 2002. In 2011, she received UNC's C. Knox Massey Distinguished Service Award in recognition of her longtime service and dedication to the University.

Shelton is married to Willie Scroggs, a senior associate athletic director at UNC who coached the Carolina men's lacrosse team from 1979-90, a span that included three NCAA titles. Their son, William, is a 2013 Carolina graduate who played lacrosse for the Tar Heels.

Coaching Staff

Grant Fulton
Associate Head Coach
Ninth season

Grant Fulton came to Chapel Hill as an assistant coach in the summer of 2005, bringing to Chapel Hill a wealth of international experience as a coach and a player. He was promoted to Associate Head Coach in January of 2010.

Before arriving at Carolina, he spent two years coaching his native South Africa, where he served as an assistant for both the men's and women's national teams. He also has been an assistant coach and player for the University of Pretoria men's first team. He spent part of 2002 in Canada, where he was the head coach and manager for the Vancouver Hawks Field Hockey Club, working with male and female players of all ages. He coached and managed several club and school teams from 2001-02, and he was a player and coach for Oranje Zwart, a club team in The Netherlands, in 1998-99. From 1996-99, he co-founded and helped run Sport for Africa, which promoted a variety of sports to children ages 7-18 in Pretoria.

In the last five summers, Fulton has served as head coach of the South Region team in the USFHA Women's National Championships, leading the squad to a championship in 2013. As a player, he was the top goal scorer in the 2008 USFHA Men's National Championship.

A graduate of the University of Pretoria, he represented his home country at the 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta and appeared in a total of 60 international matches with South Africa's National Team.

He was awarded a U.S. Field Hockey Level III Coaching certificate in 2007.

Fulton's wife, Meghan Fulton, is Staff Athletic Trainer for Club Sports at UNC.

Guy Cathro
Assistant Coach
Third season

Guy Cathro joined the North Carolina field hockey coaching staff in January of 2011 as an assistant coach and Director of Player Development.

"Guy brings an impressive skill set that includes advanced tactical and technical knowledge as well as an aggressive attacking mindset that will only enhance and complement our already-outstanding coaching staff," UNC head coach Karen Shelton said.

Cathro came to UNC after spending four years as an assistant coach at Syracuse, where he helped lead the Orange to its best campaign ever, a No. 1 ranking and final four appearance in 2008.

He also has served as an assistant coach in the USFHA High Performance program, helping lead the South Region team to a National Championship in 2013.

Cathro gained extensive coaching experience in his native Scotland, assisting with the Scottish University Select Squad (2007) and the Midlands District U18 and U15 squads (2006, 2007), and serving as the Dundee University Hockey Club head coach (2001), among a variety of posts.

His highlights as a player include earning more than 20 caps with the Scotland U21 squad (1995-99) and being a member of the Scotland senior training squad in 1999. Cathro earned his U.S. Field Hockey Level 3 coaching accreditation in June of 2010.

A native of Dundee, Scotland, he is a 1999 graduate of Heriot Watt University in Edinburgh.

Teryn Brill
Director of Operations
Second season

Teryn Brill is in her second season on the Tar Heel staff, serving as the team's Director of Operations. In addition to organizational and logistical duties, she manages the team's social media presence.

Brill played for the Tar Heels from 2007-11 and was part of two NCAA titles and two Atlantic Coast Conference crowns. A journalism major, she started every game at back in her junior and senior seasons and was named to the All-

ACC Academic Team in both of those years.

She was the second member of her family to play for the Tar Heels, following older sister Melanie, a 2009 graduate.

Jarrett Alston
Video Coordinator
Eighth season

Jarrett Alston is in his eight year as the team's video coordinator. He oversees all areas of video coverage for the team.

A native of Durham, N.C., Alston graduated from NC State in 2003 with a degree in communication. He worked in the video field in Raleigh and Greensboro before joining the UNC football staff in 2006. He started working with the field hockey program shortly after coming to UNC.

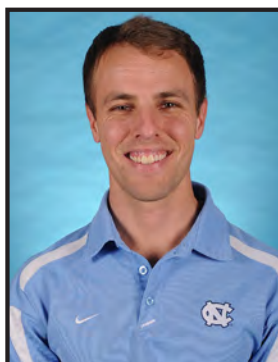

Rory Capper
Volunteer Assistant Coach

Rory Capper is in his first season as part of the North Carolina field hockey program. A native of Belfast, Northern Ireland, he is studying abroad at UNC for the 2013-14 academic year.

Capper, a geography major, brings a strong international field hockey background, both as a player and a coach. He has spend the past two years at University of Manchester, playing for the University and for Brooklands Hockey Club.

While at Methodist College Belfast, he captained the 1st XI for two years and also played for Annandale HC, which reached the Irish Cup semifinal.

He also spent a year Australia, where he played for Melbourne Demons HC and coached the U16 field hockey team at Melbourne Grammar School.

Steve Gisselman
Strength and Conditioning Coach

Steve Gisselman joined the UNC strength and conditioning program in 1999 and has been a full-time assistant since 2003.

A 1999 graduate of the University of Wisconsin with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology, Gisselman utilizes technological innovations to enhance the functional assessment of each athlete. He also employs it to aid in designing exercise prescriptions for improving athletic performance and concomitantly reducing the incidence of injury.

He has incorporated digital media and a number of computer software programs to improve his coaching abilities since arriving at UNC. He was able to acquire most of these skills while in the Human Movement Science master's degree program at UNC.

Bubba Cunningham
Director of Athletics

Lawrence R. (Bubba) Cunningham is in his second full year and third year overall as Carolina's director of athletics. One of Cunningham's first accomplishments at UNC was the development of a strategic plan that adopted the mission statement – "We Educate and Inspire Through Athletics" – and identified Responsibility, Innovation, Service and Excellence (RISE) as the department's core values.

Last year, Carolina finished eighth in the NAC-DA Director's Cup on the strength of national championships in women's soccer and women's lacrosse. The Tar Heels also had Top 10 finishes in field hockey (second), baseball (third), men's lacrosse (fifth), men's soccer (fifth) and women's tennis (fifth). The women's tennis team captured the ITA national indoor title and six other programs finished in the Top 25. Larry Fedora, one of two UNC head coaches hired by Cunningham, led the football team to share of first place in the Coastal Division.

UNC's women's program captured the 2013 Capital One Cup, which is awarded to the nation's best Division I athletics program.

A record 329 Tar Heel student-athletes made the ACC Honor Roll, which requires a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0.

Cunningham is in his 11th year as a Division I director of athletics, including six years at Tulsa and three years at Ball State. From 1988-2002, Cunningham worked at his alma mater, the University of Notre Dame.

He earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in business administration, in 1984 and 1988, respectively, and was a member of the Irish golf team in 1982-83.

Cunningham served on the NCAA Division I Men's and Women's Golf Committees and is a member of NACDA's Executive Committee.

Raised in Naples, Fla., Cunningham and his wife, Tina, have four children: Matthew, Michael, John and Sarah.

2012 Season Milestones

- Seniors Jaclyn Gaudioso Radvany, Kelsey Kolojechick and Caitlin Van Sickle established a program record for career games played with 97. All three played every game over their four years. Van Sickle started all 97 and holds the career record for starts.

- Kolojechick became the first player in program history to earn first-team All-America honors all four years. Joining her on the 2012 first team were Van Sickle (a three-time honoree) and sophomore Charlotte Craddock. Freshman

Emily Wold earned third-team honors

- UNC established a school record for goals in a season with 114. The previous high was 102 in 1997.

- Craddock set a school record for most goals by a sophomore with 26.

- Kolojechick finished her career third all-time in points (184), third in assists (48) and tied for fourth in goals (68).

- Kolojechick led the NCAA in assists in 2012, averaging .92 per game.

- Karen Shelton coached her 550th career victory. She has an overall record of 550-140-9 in 32 years as a head coach, all at UNC.

- Shelton now holds the record for NCAA Tournament games coached with 73.

- UNC made its 29th appearance in the NCAA Tournament field.

- UNC reached the NCAA Championship game for the fourth year in a row, the fifth time in six year and the 15th time in school history.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Advancing to graduation,
Building Character,
Developing leadership

While at UNC, two-time Olympian Rachel Dawson was both the National Player of the Year and an Academic All-America honoree.

LOUDERMILK CENTER FOR EXCELLENCE

- The Academic Support Program for Student-Athletes assists Tar Heel student-athletes in exploring their interests and abilities, enjoying a broad educational experience, and reaching or exceeding their academic goals.
- The Academic Support Program is housed in the Loudermilk Center for Excellence, a 150,000-square-foot facility that serves all of Carolina's nearly 800 student-athletes across 28 varsity sports. The Loudermilk Center's largest feature is the John W. Pope Student-Athlete Academic Support Center. This facility provides classrooms for teaching and tutoring, study lounges, office space and a computer lab. It also houses the Baddour Carolina Leadership Academy, which offers leadership training for Carolina student-athletes, coaches and staff.
- The Academic Support Program helps freshmen transition from high school to college through a variety of academic programs such as academic counseling, individual tutoring, group review sessions and supplemental instruction.
- During the 2012-13 academic year, a UNC-record 328 Carolina student-athletes earned spots on the ACC Academic Honor Roll, a recognition that requires a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0 for the year.

RICHARD A. BADDOUR CAROLINA LEADERSHIP ACADEMY

Celebrating 10 years of Developing World-Class Leaders
for a Lifetime of Service and Success

UNC student-athletes have the opportunity to participate in the Richard A. Baddour Carolina Leadership Academy, now in its 10th year of ground-breaking leadership training.

As the nation's premier leadership development program in collegiate athletics, the Richard A. Baddour Carolina Leadership Academy develops, challenges and supports student-athletes, coaches and staff in their continual quest to become world-class leaders in athletics, academics and life.

The Richard A. Baddour Leadership Academy provides comprehensive and cutting-edge leadership development programming through interactive workshops, 360-degree feedback, one-on-one coaching, peer mentoring and educational resources.

The Richard A. Baddour Carolina Leadership Academy offers four programs for student-athletes :

CREED Program

Leadership training begins in the freshman year. All leadership begins with personal leadership, therefore freshmen are taught skills to effectively lead themselves. Training consists of monthly meetings featuring keynote speakers and small group discussion. Upperclass student-athletes serve as peer mentors and discussion leaders. Special focus is on responsibility, accountability, making good choices, ethics and character building.

Rising Stars Program

Designed for a select group of "high potential" sophomores and juniors, the program provides future leaders with insights, strategies and skills necessary to become effective leaders. The program includes monthly meetings, interactive exercises and action learning experiences.

GAP Year Program

This level of involvement is slotted between Rising Star and possible Veteran Leader participation. It is an opportunity for continued leadership reflection and application. Leadership reflection entails case study or leadership articles, and leadership application involves an authentic project.

Veteran Leaders Program

This program is designed for team captains and veteran student-athletes. It provides advanced leadership training and support, teaches the critical skills and insights necessary to be effective vocal leaders and provides a strong peer network. Student-athletes meet regularly to learn and reinforce leadership principles as well as share successes, frustrations and lessons.

Six field hockey players have earned the Tar Heel Leader of Distinction Award, the bCLA's highest honor, on nine occasions. They are (clockwise from upper left) Danielle Forword, Katelyn Falgowski (three-time winner), Carey Fetting-Smith, Rachel Dawson, Laree Beans (two-time winner) and Ilse Davids. Davids, Dawson and Falgowski all were Olympians in 2012.

Carolina CREED

As a University of North Carolina student-athlete, I pledge to make every effort to abide by the Carolina CREED as a show of my commitment to the University, the Department of Athletics, my team and myself.

C - I will know and embrace the tradition and CULTURE of this great University and its athletics department

R - I will RESPECT myself and others

E - I will pursue EXCELLENCE in my academic work by striving to reach my academic potential while preparing for a career of significance

E - I will EXCEL athletically by committing myself to performance excellence, team success and continual improvement

D - I will DEVELOP the capacity to effectively lead myself and others

THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA

“If a moviemaker needs an idyllic setting for a film about
college life,
Chapel Hill just might take the prize.”

– Newsweek magazine

FIRST and FINEST

The oldest public university, in an outstanding college town

"I like to believe I am an example of what the UNC system is all about – taking small-town kids and giving them worldly exposure so that they can contribute in their communities and wherever opportunities lead them."

– John Skipper
President of ESPN, UNC Graduate

- Carolina's vibrant people and programs attest to the University's long-standing place among leaders in higher education since it was chartered in 1789 and opened its doors for students in 1795 as the nation's first public university. Situated in the beautiful college town of Chapel Hill, N.C., UNC has earned a reputation as one of the best universities in the world. Carolina prides itself on a strong, diverse student body, academic opportunities not found anywhere else, and a value unmatched by any public university in the nation.

- UNC's educational offerings include 78 bachelor's, 112 master's, 68 doctorate and seven professional degree programs through 14 schools and the College of Arts and Sciences.

For much more on the University of North Carolina and all it has to offer, go to unc.edu.

CHAPEL HILL

Home for four years,
Special for a lifetime

Often referred to as "The Southern Part of Heaven," Chapel Hill has been called the perfect college town by several publications, including Sports Illustrated.

- Chapel Hill has been ranked the Most Livable Small City (less than 100,000) in America.

- Running along the north edge of campus, Franklin Street is the heart of Chapel Hill. It provides a mix of restaurants, shops and night-life, and also serves as the town's meeting place. UNC fans rush Franklin Street to celebrate Tar Heel titles, and each year Halloween festivities draw thousands of revelers.

- Chapel Hill's location is ideal, within an easy drive of North Carolina's beautiful beaches and mountains.

ATHLETIC HERITAGE

Competing for crowns,
Representing UNC with class

UNC was the winner of the 2013
Capital One Cup as the top women's athletics program in NCAA Division I.

During the 2012-13 school year, UNC won NCAA crowns in women's soccer, women's lacrosse and the ITA National Indoors Championship in women's tennis.

Field hockey, men's lacrosse and baseball won ACC titles in 2012-13.

Lacrosse's Kara Cannizzaro (left) and soccer's Crystal Dunn were nominated for ESPY awards in 2013 after leading their teams to NCAA championships.

Capital One

• UNC has won more national championships and more conference championships than any other school in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

• UNC has finished among the top 10 in the Directors' Cup standings 11 times in the past 12 years and 17 times in the 20-year history of the competition.

• Some of the best-known names in sports – such as Michael Jordan and Mia Hamm – wore Carolina blue.

The phrase has been hollowed out by years of often cynical misapplication, but every once in a while a special collegian gives the term student-athlete unassailable substance. Meet S.I.'s Female College Athlete of the Year, North Carolina sophomore Loren Shealy, an ace field hockey forward, top business administrator student, Robinson Scholar and, for one lunch hour in late April, just one of the

FRANCIS E. HENRY STADIUM

Carolina's Turf

In April of 1999, the North Carolina field hockey and women's lacrosse programs dedicated their new home, Francis E. Henry Stadium. Inside the Tar Heels' spacious locker room, each player has her own full-length locker, with ample storage space and a plaque bearing her name and number. Next door is the film and meeting room, where a "smart classroom" set-up allows the Tar Heels to seamlessly blend different information sources as they prepare for games and practices. The coaches' locker room provides another place for reviewing film.

The stands seat 1,086 fans and also house a concessions stand, rest-rooms, and sports medicine and storage areas. Added to the facility in 2006 was a state-of-the-art video board, providing instant replays, player features and more.

FRANCIS E. HENRY STADIUM

This year's seniors are 22-1 at Henry Stadium over the past three years. During that span, UNC has hosted NCAA first and second round games each year, as well as the 2012 ACC Tournament and the 2010 ACC-Big Ten Challenge.

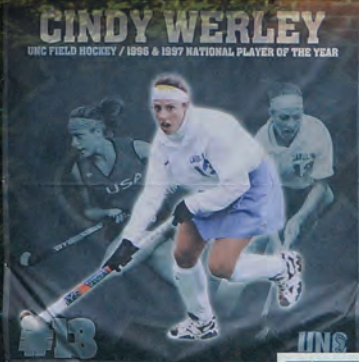

HOME of the HEELS

Since the opening of Henry Stadium prior to the 1999 season, UNC is a combined 116-22 in its friendly confines.

Dating back to the beginning of the 2007 season, Carolina is 58-2 at home.

HENRY
STADIUM

Henry Stadium became even more player-friendly in 2008 with the installation of a new AstroTurf surface. As part of the renovation, the crown was removed from the playing field and a top-notch watering system that recycles the field water was added.

The Tar Heel team room is used for meetings, watching video, and relaxing.

1989 NCAA Champions

The 1989 UNC team had to work through all of regulation, three overtimes and then penalty strokes to finally capture the program's first title, 2-1 over Old Dominion in Springfield, Mass. Peggy Anthon put UNC on the board with 10:56 remaining, but ODU tied the game with just over six minutes to play and the teams stayed that way through three overtimes. In the first championship to be decided by strokes, UNC goalkeeper Evelien Spee clinched the victory by scoring on Carolina's fifth and final attempt.

1995 NCAA Champions

UNC captured the program's second title with a 5-1 win over Maryland in Winston-Salem, N.C., capping a 24-0 season for the Tar Heels. It was the fourth meeting of the year between the Tar Heels and Terps, and each of the previous three had gone to overtime. In the title game, Susannah Schott led the way with a hat trick and captain Kim Schroll, the team's only senior, had four assists. The Tar Heels also won the ACC crown, after finishing 8-0 in regular-season play. Carolina's undefeated season was the first in program history.

1996 NCAA Champions

The 1996 championship game pitted the Tar Heels against the Princeton Tigers, which had upset Old Dominion in the semifinals to prevent the year's third UNC-ODU matchup. Carolina dominated play throughout the title game in Chestnut Hill, Mass., en route to a 3-0 victory and a second-consecutive title. Susannah Schott, Nancy Pelligreen and Ashley Hanson scored for UNC. The Tar Heels outscored opponents 101-21 on the year, giving up more than two goals in a single game just once all season.

1997 NCAA Champions

The championship game between UNC and Old Dominion in Storrs, Conn., was the third meeting of the season between the two teams, with each having claimed a one-goal victory on the other's home field. After ODU took a 1-0 lead in the final, Cindy Werley scored to tie the game and Nancy Pelligreen put UNC up 2-1 heading into halftime. In the second half, Joy Driscoll scored again to put the Tar Heels up 3-1. ODU scored once more but the Tar Heels hung on to win their third-consecutive title, 3-2.

2007 NCAA Champions

The Tar Heels completed the second undefeated season in program history and became the fifth team in NCAA tournament history to win the crown without a loss or a tie when they beat Penn State 3-0 in College Park, Md. UNC tied the school record for wins (24) and set new marks for goals scored (102) and shutouts (16). Katelyn Falgowski scored what would prove to be the gamewinner just three minutes in. UNC carried a 1-0 lead into the second half, when team captain Rachel Dawson and Danielle Forward added goals to the Tar Heels' total.

2009 NCAA Champions

Danielle Forward's penalty corner goal with 11.7 seconds to play in Winston-Salem, N.C., put UNC up 3-2 against Maryland and gave the Tar Heels their sixth NCAA title. Carolina fought back against the previously-undefeated Terrapins, scoring twice in the final five minutes of play. After UM scored to go up one with just less than eight minutes remaining, coach Karen Shelton pulled goalkeeper Jackie Kintzer in favor of an extra field player. Ilse Davids scored three minutes later to tie the game and set up the thrilling finish.

THE RAMS CLUB

On December 7, 1938, a group of UNC supporters took a step that forever changed the face of Carolina Athletics.

The incorporation of The Educational Foundation (a.k.a. The Rams Club) has resulted in hundreds of millions of dollars in scholarship support to thousands of Carolina student-athletes, financial assistance made possible through the commitment from tens of thousands of Rams Club members over the past 75 years.

While the generosity and longevity of The Rams Club has been remarkable, these have only been THE FIRST 75 YEARS of supporting Carolina's student-athletes. As we recognize this milestone over the course of the next year, we'll celebrate the tremendous accomplishments made possible with member support and look forward to the achievements that are yet to come.

OUR MISSION

The Educational Foundation, Inc., was chartered December 7, 1938, to provide assistance to the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill for the following: to offer financial aid to worthy young men and women seeking an education at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and to support University programs by providing services and funds for the construction of facilities or purchase of equipment.

More than $175M in Scholarship support provided since 1938.

Over 17,000 Scholarships provided since 1938.

Members of The Rams Club enjoy many great benefits - the most rewarding benefit being your commitment to provide opportunities for worthy young men and women to represent Carolina. Members also receive ticket priority over the general public for football, men's and women's basketball and baseball as well as exclusive access to the latest Carolina news and special events. For more information on how you can help secure the future success of Carolina Athletics and enjoy the benefits of being a Rams Club member, visit RamsClub.com.

As we remember the incredible on-field and off-field achievements of Carolina student-athletes since 1938, it's important we also continue to realize that we're not done. There will be another four-time All American, another Olympian, another revolutionary doctor, another innovative businessman, another amazing mother - with your continued support, we can all look forward to seeing who they will be. After all, these really have only been THE FIRST 75.
