Ashlyn Harris

#18 • Goalkeeper
Sophomore
Satellite Beach, Fla.
(Satellite)

General – One of the top goalkeepers in the nation, she will head into this season as a probable co-starter at the position with junior Anna Rodenbough...she was able to rehab from a pair of ACL injuries the previous two years and enter the UNC lineup in time to play in all six NCAA Tournament matches in 2006....while training with the U.S. National Team in June 2006 she suffered what appeared to be a season-ending knee injury...she made a remarkably quick recovery in order to play by November...2006 marked the second straight year she has been sidelined by knee surgery in the summer after suffering knee injuries while playing for national teams...considered one of the best young goalkeepers in the world...she enrolled at Carolina in the spring semester of 2005 in order to train with the team in spring practice...after a thumb injury that spring kept her off the pitch, she tore her right anterior cruciate ligament on her first day back to practice as she was preparing for duty with the National Team...subsequent ACL knee surgery forced her to miss the 2005 season.

National Team Experience – In 2007 she was a member of the full U.S. National Team player pool...trained in 2006 with the U.S. National Team and in 2005 with the U.S. U21 National Team...continued as a member of the U21 Team in 2006...one of four players on the 2004 U.S. U19 National Team that helped the 2002 U.S. U19s win the inaugural FIFA U19 World

Sterling Smith

#12 • Forward
Sophomore
Chapel Hill, N.C.
(East Chapel Hill)

General – One of Carolina’s most pleasant surprises in 2006 as she earned her first varsity letter...coming off an injury red-shirt season in 2005, she excelled in the preseason and earned a spot in the starting lineup for the Tar Heels...started for more than half of the season and played in every game, eventually tying the NCAA record for games played in a season...coach Anson Dorrance says Smith’s performance in spring practice of 2006 was an eye opener for the coaches...she overcame a calf injury to return to full strength in 2006 and earn not just significant playing time on the front line but also a starting position...she made a great investment in her game in the fall of 2005 after returning to the pitch following knee surgery during her senior year in high school...coach Dorrance says she has a similar work ethic to that of her roommate and best friend, Yael Averbuch...will again be in the hunt to start in 2007 according to the head coach, especially with the loss of 2006 seniors Elizabeth Guess and Heather O’Reilly to graduation.

Club Soccer – Played for the PTCYSA Lazars in 1999, ’86 CASL Black Caps (a boys team) in 2001, the ’85 CASL Elite from 2001-02 and the ’86 CASL Spartan Elite in 2003-04...played on a club team which won a state championship in 2003...member of ODP State Team from 1999-2004...earned membership on the Region III ODP team in 2001, 2002 and 2004.

Redshirt Freshman Season (2006) — Played in all 28 matches last season...started 17 games on the season with most her starts coming in the first half of the campaign...was one of Carolina’s leading scorers with 14 points on five goals and four assists...in the first home game of her career she scored the game-winning goal in a 1-0 win over UNC
